
How to Get There

By Rail: Call at any recognized tour agency or Milwaukee Road ticket office, and a tour to the Gallatin Gateway Inn and Yellowstone Park will be arranged. Via the luxurious Hiawatha, Gallatin Gateway Inn is less than 26 hours from Chicago.

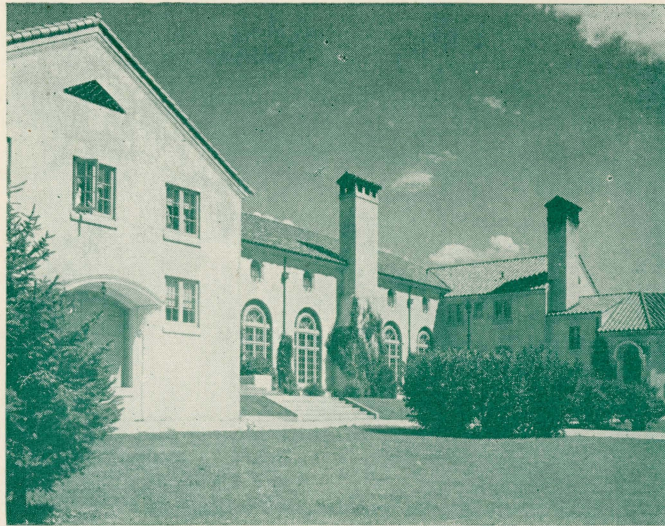

By Air: If you want to fly by private or chartered plane, one of the finest and best maintained airports in the West, Gallatin Field, is but a stone's throw from the Inn. Taxi or limousine service available at nominal fees. If you want to fly by scheduled air line, Northwest Air Lines makes a daily landing during the summer months at Gallatin Field. Year around service from Butte via Western Air Lines or Northwest Air Lines. Consult your local air lines ticket office for schedule.

By Auto: Just 10 miles south of highway 10 on highway 191. The Inn is located at the Gallatin entrance to Yellowstone Park. If you go to Yellowstone via another entrance, be sure and arrange your trip to depart via this most scenic entrance. Highway 191 is one of the best maintained highways in Montana.

Reasonable Rates

You never knew a vacation dollar bought so much until you enter Montana. The Gallatin Gateway Inn follows through in this typical Montana tradition. Stay at the Inn on the American Plan (meals furnished) for $75 per week. Rooms with bath $6. Your genial host and owner of the Inn, Mr. Paul L. Holenstein, will see to it personally that you are well entertained every moment you spend at this fine resort.

Side Trips

Tours to all points of historical interest will be arranged for you at very reasonable rates.

Be sure and visit:

Historic Virginia City, home of the famous Vigilantes.

Yellowstone Park via Gallatin Canyon, most beautiful and scenic trip in the West.

Butte, Montana, the "richest hill on earth," where copper mines are over a mile deep.

Morrison Cave National Park, where you travel through miles of subterranean beauty.

Historic Helena, capital of Montana, and the Gates of the Mountains by motor launch.

SPECIAL NOTE:

You are welcome. Come as you are and bring your family.
