Dear Dad:

This years birthday gift is not too imaginative but I was stumped on what to come up with so settled for the safe route. I bought a large size because Patagonia runs very oversize. If this does not work let me know and I'll save an extra large out of stock before we close.

Would you take a look at your calendar and see if on the weekend of October 2nd, 3rd and 4th, you might have a free day. I am going to have an opening on my trip to Bozeman, for one fisherman one day. I thought we could fish together if you are available. It would be my treat and would be a lot of fun to have our own guide for a day! I'll be checking with you.

I imagine you are getting ready for Doug. Hope that two week ordeal goes reasonably well. At least you are going to see alot of great new water.

Janet is back from Hawaii and Paul is back from two weeks in Montana. We are now going to get our plan put together for the next two months. Paul and I will close the business as smoothly as we can and Janet and I will decide what we are going to do with our future. Life is certainly not boring right now!

Well, I have got to get this package on UPS today so it reaches you on time. Don't want another birdhouse birthday!

Have a good celebration and give my regards to the kids and Esther.

Dear Dad:

Attached is a check for $2,500. to put towards my loan from you. We finally got Janet's house sold and it has provided some extra funds to start to clear up our outstanding debts. I am also attaching my record of payments to you over the last few years. I show I have repaid $3,000. and with the $2,500. I am including today that will bring me up to $5,500..

What I would like to do is starting the first of April send a $100 per month each month until the end of the year. At the end of the year it looks like we will get another check from the house sale and hopefully we will pay off the balance of the loan at that time.

If my records don't jibe with yours let me know.

Thanks

Greg

Hi Dad,

I thank you again for the birthday thought. The dollar is a very special gift. The fact that it was given to you by your dad and now passed to me provides a connection that I have not really been had with a grandfather I wish I had known.

We just opened our own safe deposit box and I will store this dollar there for safe keeping!

I hope Estee gets to feeling better very soon. Nothing is worse than not feeling well over a long period of time like this. I'll visit with you when I get back from visiting Dot.

Love
Greg

Dear Dad:

Per our conversation, I will plan on you bringing Alan, Jean and Geoff over here to fish with Dennis Rehse on June 18th. Dennis will plan on three people fishing but I will explain to him that you are going to be along just to visit and entertain the other three.

As we discussed, Dennis caretakes the Gund Ranch. This is about a 600 acre ranch that the Gund family owns for fishing and waterfowl hunting. It has three beautiful lakes, a piece of Poindexter Slough and a piece of the Lower Beaverhead River. The lakes are the real attraction. They contain very large browns, rainbows, brooks and cutthroat. Dennis likes to both stalk fish along the shores with dries and wets and he will have his boat available to fish the deeper parts of these lakes with leeches, damsel flies etc. Poindexter will probably have some rising fish but we always find it very hard to get people off the lakes over to the creek when they are catching these strong big fish on the lakes. These fish are very strong, heavy trout and normally they run up to almost 25".

I think what I would suggest is that we meet you in Twin Bridges to pass along to you the lunches for the day. We will have four lunches for you and your guests and one for Dennis. You can then continue on to Dillon to rendezvous with Dennis at a small shop located in the Rocky Mountain Supply building. This shop is called Uncle Bob's. I will provide you directions later. We can also agree on a time later but I would think it would be good to be in Dillon by 9:00am to 9:30am. Dennis will take you out to the ranch, which is only about ten minutes out of town.

He has a nice picnic table set up for lunches. On one of the lakes the owners have a home and I believe Dennis uses the bathroom in the home. You can fish as long in the day as you please.

As we discussed, Dennis is waving the rod fees for this day but I will be paying him $225 for the guiding. This check should come to me and the only thing you might want to do is have your guests pool together for a tip at the end of the day.

If you have other questions, give me a call when you are putting your letter together and we can go over everything.

I have a full house here at the lodge on the 18th and probably will be pretty involved the morning of the 18th. We have 8 old geezers from Santa Barbara who take our lodge on an exclusive basis for three days and they are quite demanding. I probably will not be able to meet you in Twin with the lunches. I will have one of my crew run them down to you at the Blue Anchor.

That should do it. Talk to you soon.

Hi Dad,

Thought you might enjoy the email I have enclosed. This guy wrote to Healing Waters Lodge having heard that you might be associated some way. They forwarded his email on to me and I responded to it. He was hoping to get some flies from you that you had personally tied. I explained that you were a fisherman and not a fly tier during your career. It sounded like he is building a trophy home in the Seattle area and that he was assembling a collection of fly plates for his new house.

His response is very nice and I know that you will enjoy reading it.

>Greg, thank you for taking the time to respond to the note. I remember seeing pictures of you in my 1978 Bud Lilly catalog. I poured over every single page that summer I lived in Montana making beds for the hotels and fishing my brains out.

>Glad to hear your dad is doing well and ready to celebrate his 80th birthday. He deserves it! As you can tell in my note below, a big reason for the deepness of my passion around fly fishing is due to two people. First my father who was a fisheries biologist and second, your father Bud Lilly who took the time to help a teenage punk kid select flies and equipment in Bud Lilly's trout shop. To this day, every time I go in and see the wall map I can't help but reflect on the adventures of my youth and your father's assistance. I am now CEO of T-Mobile Wireless USA and still to this day I have no greater accomplishment than the time your father directed me to use streamers downstream from Barnes Pools and I landed my first nice brown on a muddler with Sand Hill cranes whooping it up in the valley.

>Please give my best to your father and by all means I wish him many great birthdays to come. Have a great week and all the best.
