I just want you to know

November 5th 1989

Dear Grampa, Ester, Chris, and Alisa

How are you doing. I hope your feeling better. I miss you very much. Yesterday I had two soccer games. We lost one and we won one. We won the game we had to win or our soccer season would be over. We lost the game we could lose.

Sincerely
Flint

PS. Thank you for the five bucks.

Dear Grandpa,

I'm writing you this letter for two reasons. One to thank you for the 5 dollars, with I really liked. I'm going to use it in Disney Land. The other reason is to send you this picture. I hope you like it.

Love,

This story is a good book about fishing. It would be a good book for fisherman. I'm interested in it because my grandpa wrote it. It mentions my dad in it because it's my dad's dad. It also mentions my Uncle Mike, my Aunt Annette and my grandma Pat. My dad used to own a fishing store called the Rivers Edge on north seventh. His partner owns it now. On one page it tells about my dad's family and how they became fishermen and women. My dad made a video on fishing called

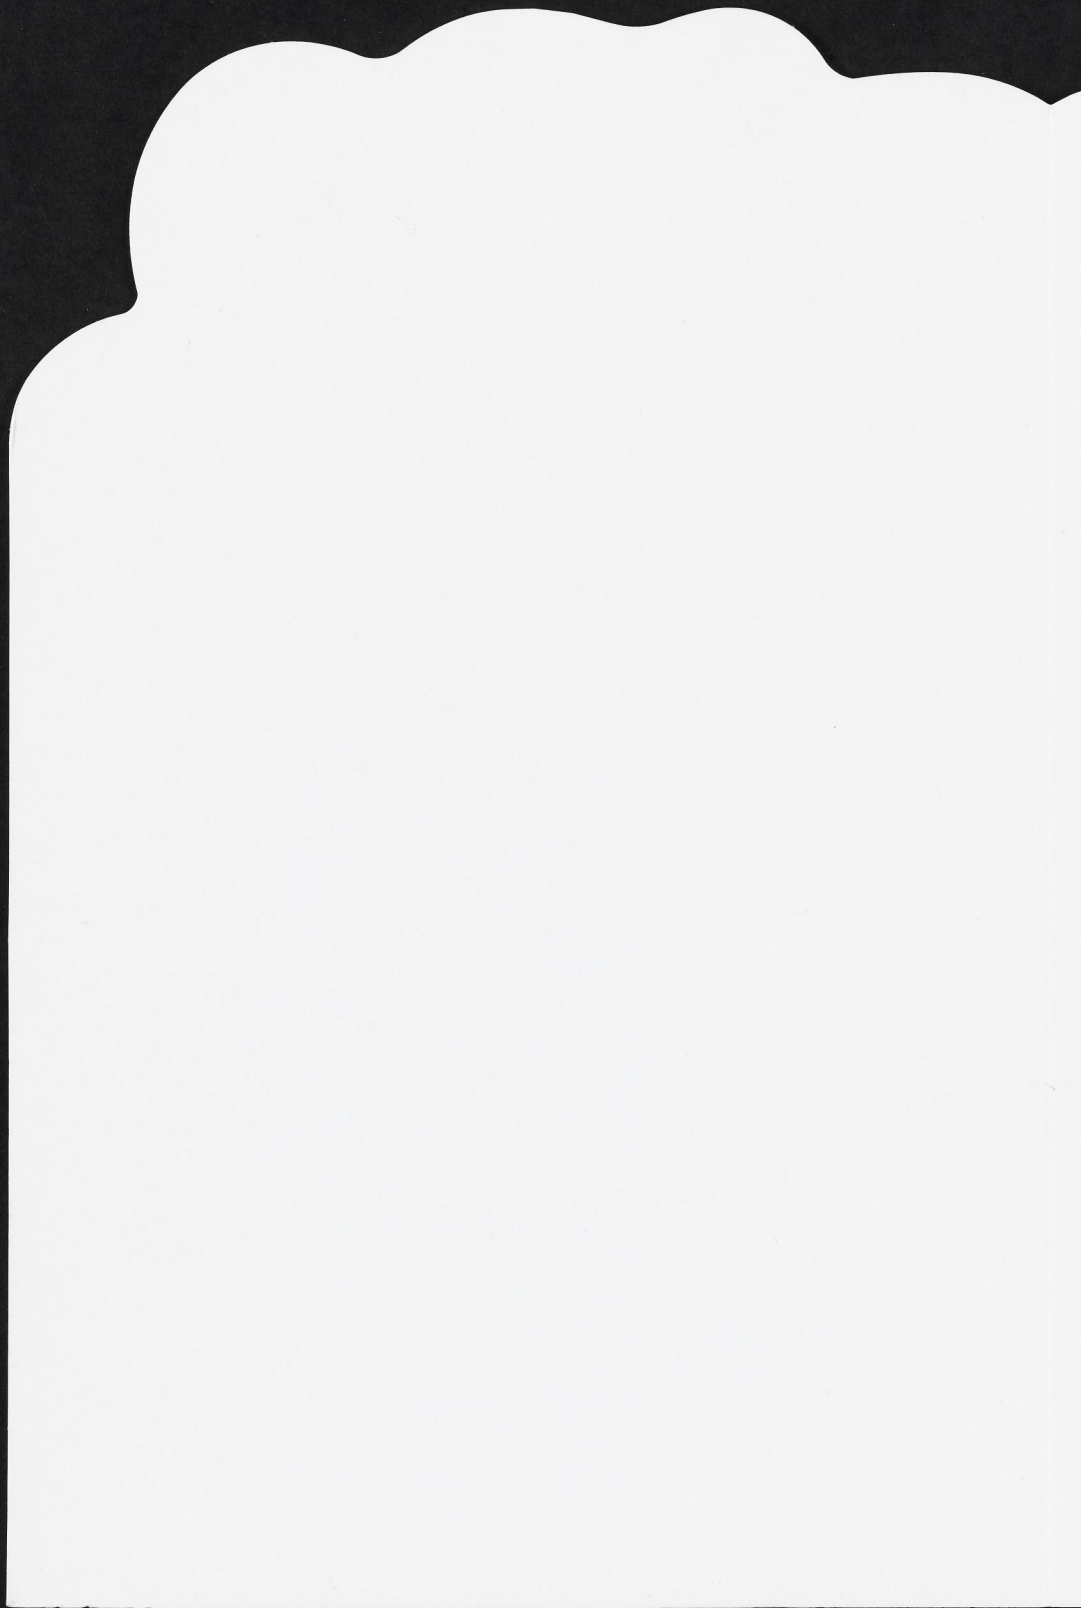

Montana style.
It will be out in video soon and you can get it.

If this birthday card
can bring but a little
smile to your face,
it will have achieved
its purpose...

If not,
to hell with it!
It's only a card.

Happy birthday
