

So sorry to hear of Mr. Dusenbury's death today - people such as he and Gene Thatcher should be with us always -

Sorry not to get to the last finance meeting - too many things going on this week and I only knew the day before so I was too late to make plans.

No baby sitter these days!

Have a happy holiday season, Harriette, and a good 1967 -

Bingo, the black nosed doggie Won't help out with Santa's plight But maybe with all hands pushing We'll reach you by Christmas night —with a sleighful of wishes from the Goodriches and the 320 crew.
