IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING DUDE RANCHES IN TERRITORY SERVED BY THE GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY

This copy of Great Northern's "Vacation On A Western Dude Ranch" booklet was printed before wartime transportation conditions necessitated restriction of civilian travel for other than essential purposes in connection with the winning of the war.

Due to printing paper shortages it has not been possible to publish a revised edition giving up-to-date information for the 1946 season. Consequently, the information contained in this booklet is not entirely accurate.

While there have been some changes in ownership, operation and rates of dude ranches listed in this booklet, there has been no material change in general information. It is suggested, therefore, that those planning a dude ranch vacation in 1946 in territory served by the Great Northern Railway, should consult their nearest Great Northern ticket agent or travel representative, or write to the dude ranch operators direct, for latest information as to accommodations, rates and reservations.
