Dear Joe:

I have made plane reservations for my trip to Montana the week of July 24, 1978 when I plan to visit the Long Pines and Mt. Haggin areas. Enclosed is a copy of my flight schedule.

I plan to spend the better part of the 24th and 25th on the Long Pines area and the 27th on Mt. Haggin.

Because of a strike on Northwest Airlines I had to schedule a longer and roundabout trip. I will have to stay overnight in Billings on Sunday the 23rd going to Miles City and also on Tuesday the 25th when I return to go to Butte. Will you please arrange to have motel reservations made for me in Billings for these two nights and let me know the name of the motel or motels.

I will be in Dillon Montana with BLM this coming week, then back in Berkeley the week after.

Thanks.

Sincerely,

A.L. Hornay

Remarks

Gus,

After learning of your old acquaintance with Mel, I thought you might like this print which I took on one of your Matador Tours.

The Western Range (San. Dec. 199) is 620 pgs. long, SD will attempt to read 100 pgs. per day. See quater Duane
