Dear Chase:

The 49ers put me on cloud nine. I may get down to earth by meeting time.

I received the maps. I read them o.k.

I have been planning on a one day meeting. This will provide plenty of time to cover the two main points of the meeting: 1. An explanation of rest-rotation grazing; 2. A thumbnail sketch of the Sieben Ranch-- location, area, land ownership, objectives, livestock operation, character and condition of the land (slides), etc.

I don't visualize getting down to details on anything, "exposing laundry" as you put it.

You and I can talk about the application of rest-rotation grazing on the ranch at a later date.

Let me know the date and place of the meeting as soon as you decide. Sometime in mid March or later is o.k.

Sincerely,

A. L. Hormay

If the out-of-town people stay and dine at the Colonial, for example, a cheaper rate is evidently available depending on number who stay there. Probably true for the other motels too.

We can get the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services or the old Highway Auditoriums probably for free if we put the reservation in our name.

We can round up screens and projectors in the department if you want to use ours--free.

If you need more information or help, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Joseph L. Egan

Mr. Chase Hibbard

Dear Chase:

Recent conversation with Gus indicated it would be of value to have Mr. Greg Seitz attend the March 26 training session. Mr. Seitz is the new owner of the Mt. Haggin Livestock Company adjacent to the Mt. Haggin Wildlife Management Area where we have implemented a rest-rotation system. We will be using Mr. Seitz' livestock in the system. Gus wondered if you could invite him. The attached suggested letter may be of value.

By the way, I checked out the facilities of the Rimini Room and they are just fine. The lady in charge of meeting reservations (Nancy Gillespie) indicated the room was reserved for two days--March 25 and 26. On the strength of that I made reservations for Gus for the nights of March 24, 25 and 26 although he asked me to make reservations only for March 25 and 26 at the Travelodge.

Sincerely,

Joseph L. Egan, Asst. Administrator
