Dear Juan:

Congratulations .. I read about the 2nd Printing.

After a week-end of non-stop reading I put down "Rascal Fair" & was sorry it was over ... our present day life seems so shallow in comparison.

Now I know how Beth McCaskell came into the picture. Ironically Juan ..
Jim an Anna. My Angus lives across the border from Montana in Alberta; Jim says there are many Anns & Angus but there were not what never was & ~~was~~ what could have been. They mind up making heads in rest homes!

Affectionately

Madeline

Dear Madeleine--

Hey, how great to hear from you.
Sorry I didn't get over to Bainbridge during my booksigning autumn for Rascal Fair--but no bookstore invited me. Did I misbehave that badly last time?!!

Your note means a lot to me. It's always the question, with a writer: does this stuff link up with life? I am moved, and gratified, to hear from you that it does.

I hope we'll cross paths, at Shoreline or a bookstore somewhere. Until we do, all best for '88.
