Hi Liz... I was trying to call Ivan, I might have some interest on THE WHISTLING SEASON for TV and wanted to discuss it with him; make sure he wasn't still trying to do something with that Blaine Novak guy. But when I call his voicemail is 'at the end of tape' and won't let me leave a message. I thought I had his email, but with my new computer can't find. Do you have an email for him?

Mike, hi. Ivan doig here under my wife's email, as maybe you know. Interviews are starting on the publicity push for The Bartender's Tale, and I'm always asked about movie interest in my books. Anything hopeful to report about Hallmark and Whistling Season?

And a favor -- Would you please pass along to the script writer, Callie Khouri, who I met at a writers' get-together, an ARC of The Bartender's Tale. At the time she and I talked about our current work, she loved my title, and as a courtesy I'd like her to have a look at the book.

Riverhead keeps telling me the book has legs! Here'e hoping.

Best,
Ivan
