

Percy Robinson

--prnces Choteau & "showta"

--"dropped back" into cattle business from sheep

--homesteaders all "starved out and left"; Rs bought their land from mortgage companies

--h'steaders moved in "pretty thick"

--"that went haywire too"

--sheepherders were talky at first, then after abt 2 days wanted to be alone again

-- " "get stakey"--ready to blow their wages

--"little farmer bunches" around Fairfield had wool pool; anybody with any amt dealt on their own.

--wool all went to Boston

--feeder lambs shipped to Midwest every fall

--somebody wd bring yr mail, you felt obligated to let him stay the night

--sheepherder had "such a line of hot air"

--"always a flock of sheepherders" in Gt F