

If common sense came granulated, Riley'd have only the husk of a kernel.

Alec v. Earl Zane: gristle v. suet

→ Jick vs. Jim Bill?

Dell Stark, July 16, 1938

readying for town: "got some pants that had a seat in them"

- ~~see~~ c#elbners, on 4th of July?

from John Gruar filecds:

"if you hung a skirt on a sagebrush, he'd ride around it in circles all damn day"

--use abt Jim Bill? Wisdom Johnson?

--or as Jick's offhand remark abt Alec?

finally penetrated OO's brain to the extent that...

I could see no reason myself why...

or apply to a horse: Fisheye could see no reason himself ~~why~~ why (he should consent to being harnessed"...

from Eng Crk "Forest Service" filecd category

(worked) all kinds of hours

FS work of the time?

maybe use with Greene's comment about going to & fro work on your own time

from Eng Crk "Forest Service" filecd category

--anecdote of ranger and young helper watching a runaway pack string, the packer at the front trying to slow them. Youngster: "I wonder where they'll stop?" Ranger: "That's a question Kopp is really interested in right now."
(Fullerton, p. 51)

MontSt

lingo

Michael Langohr

Oct. 8, 1918--"Repaired up some haulers and the harness..."

Oct. 13--"Mr. Warner put it up to him to cut down his permit for the coming season..."

"argument"

Oct. 21--"tried to storm all day."

Nov. 11--"Went over to Pete Mosback's and bought a ton of oats for use at the station, and got some dope on the free use areas that Eyman had under operation."

Nov. 17--"Went over to Pete Mosback's and settled for a ton of grain I had got of him."

Let's don't get overly rambunctious.

That fella's got a wire down.

he was going to lick me (i.e., beat in a fight)

traveling by brakebeam (McGregor dissn, 293)

OO always was real good to me...

a steep sonogagun of a hill

a million dollar rain.

. bacon business: hog-raising

W Words

338 - wagon herder

W Words

p. 16 - synonyms for bed roll

One character hands a Stetson to another and says: Put on your J.B. Stuyversant and get.

Nowadays they ruin everything.

If I can back up on myself... (use with Beth-Stanley flashback?)

Adams

beeline: straight line

- I made a beeline for ...

- see a jack being granted Mouse for 4th?

ch 2 - see c
Earl Zone?

You could look at OO and be reminded ~~that~~ it is more than coincidence that the human head is mostly bone.

sissy britches

ch. 2 - use c Ray 1st
~~can~~ meeting Jack @
Sug wk ?

How many times did I hear...(about forest fires)

Pitch is to card games what ^{the} Quakers are to church: anybody can get up and preach, free-lance.

add to Ed Heaney scene to end ch. 3?--

(Tired though I was) I started to grin and say something along that line (about Ed holding screen door open for moths to get in) but something about the way their father looked swerved me from doing so.

Conklin

16 - jolty jolt

ch. 3 - see a jack riding nabe
to town, bouncing across WW field?

"Even if Sipe lets it go, the Major will catch it. They'll sic a board of review on you so fast it'll make your head swim."

John & Marcella

by now,

We have the place clear, but of course in ranching that is merely a ticket to other avenues of losing your shirt.

ticket to other avenues of losing your shirt.

It makes you want to say to life, wait a damn minute, I was just kind of getting used to Good Help Hebner; give me another 00 years and I might actually like the sob...

(use with final ch., epilogue?)

Shoestring

There are times when her past-held mind makes me out to be ^{used} ~~cut~~ ^{from} ~~Eng~~ ^{out} ~~of~~ ^{it}
OO, or my father.

The two of them at last made an alloy.

- Jack had hoped Maria & Riley would . . .

in Gros V drugstore, at soda fountain: somebody asks for a sundae,

"But don't put no fuzz on it"--i.e., no whipped cream topping.

ch. 2 - see Isaac ?

passed away: for died

Remains
I was going to have to tweezer her out pretty cautiously.

tweeze this out

slapbang

working ourselves gray

He was prone to...

on a serious scale

went at it like fire (RL Stevenson usage?)

Jim Bill in old age tells Mitch about hyle: ?

Riley (in Chinook?):

Jick, listen. Before Mariah and I got married, I wasn't quite as bad as the guy who bragged that he'd fucked all nationalities and some livestock. But close. I would screw just about anything that was female and twitched.

Marie
and?

This alarming person, my daughter