

"The human nose usually conveys that it is living an independent life of its own..." (V.S. Pritchett, in article on Graham Greene in WRITERS file)

No one likes their own nose.

→ childhd joke: if u cd pick 1 feature of ur body, wd u pick ur toes, ur elbows or ur nose? Oh, wd pick ur nose? "Nose-picker!"

DARE, II, 61

dib/dibs/dibbies--a claim; rights; right of priority

(1st ref'ce 1930; 1950, calls used in playing marbles...to get the right to do s'thing)

"first dibs"

possible use: "Dibbies!"

difference in energy level, games etc., between morning and afternoon recess

DARE, 666

churn-butted: logging, tree w/ enlarged base

use as an epithet? "Listen, churn butt."