Higgs, Robert "Tractors or Horses? Some basic economics in the PacNW and Elsewhere" Ag History, 49:1 (Jan. '75)
(cited in McGregor dissn)
Dry Farming in the Northern Great Plains--Mary Wilma Hargreaves
The Dust Bowl—R. Douglas Hurt
NWC pressed file

"Farm family life in Mont."
J Home Econ. 22: 833-6 0' 30

Issues of this thru the 30's have useful detail on households;
--the only sure way to get a sulking mule onto its feet: piss in its ear (Fullerton, p. 53)

--possible use: have a packer nicknamed Golden Stream?
In Kansas, they were feeding corn to these steers and there was a lot of seed that went through the cattle and some that had shaken off on the ground and there were thousands of mallard ducks that came in there to feed at night... Would shoot 15-20 mallards every morn for cook to feed ranch crew.