

of a sudden

winter

Neah Bay: the back stoop of the continent

--the haunch of...

--the hip pocket of...

med

warlock - Peter used

the dramatic Makahs

Strait's Indians' fear that the Haidas would come down on them from the north and kill them like puppies.

McD: Haida woman at Pt. Townsend ripped a handful of grass, let it blow away, said that was the ease with which the Haidas would kill the others. (McD. p. 55)

That, she said, that was how easily her tribe would kill them.

Jan. 19, 1865--diary reference to Qlltes killing Makahs: is this the first reference?~~in~~ If so, revise the day 19 chronology accdgly.

insert ref'ce to northern Indians in Day 19, esp. "dread Haidas" horses roaming Neah Bay, running before cars, rolling in beach sand; they seem the true residents, like Asoteague ponies of Island

Day 19, Jan. 8, '79--Cape Flattery (3 pp.)

Talookh: Bldgs like tiny village, or a few acres floating at sea

'nest' / thold in Asia

Cape Fl p 17 land: 35' long, 20', white packed clay, like exams pitchers mud - 8' behind, a all sides, content / also away
- Ve ~~As~~ 2. N, as far as can be seen bet thing out of sight.

~~Beach~~ ^{hills} wh clips 7 clearcut, stat across

Cape F: caves below - pt of land - very precipitous, like o. edge of the islands.

behind me 2. n, 100' away, hangs tremble stalact of ice, bigger than I am, clanging down told a cave

- trees - evergreens - can right out o. pts of land over ocean
- wind: it cratches, not to be puffed off

- cliffs as far, gray, rust - like very old, very waxy
- surprisingly little and of reef - more snow of wind

- I can see. lit. much on move

c.f. (House Tower;

more)

when it reaches me, it gives a soft blink & is gone for another 4 seconds (15 times/min)

- 6-spined tree ^{cedar} o. trail, just above
• cap: like mast, 5 dead, 1 living
- like candleabra

Traveled again:

Rugged ¹⁴ gl. cliff ↳ extremely dangerous area (caps, enter at own risk)