IVAN DOIG

"Can't cook but doesn't bite." So begins the newspaper ad of a woman seeking housekeeping work in the fall of 1909. To a widowed father and his three boys, the ad spells salvation. And soon, the ever-whistling Rose and her font-of-knowledge brother Morris arrive and the world changes. A paean to a vanished way of life, The Whistling Season is Ivan Doig at his evocative best.
