

Photographs

I brought these four albums home with me last week when I returned from my trip to White Sulphur Springs for Grandma's funeral. The photos are mostly from the areas near Sixteen and Ringling, Montana, where my parents grew up.

The family members, on my mother's side: my grandmother, Bessie Ringer, and grandfather^{Jim}; my mother, Berneta; and my uncles, Paul, Bud (William) and Wallace.

On my father's side: my father, Charles Campbell Doig; my grandmother, Mary Campbell Doig; my uncles, Edwin, Varick, Jim, Angus, and Claude; my aunt, Anna (Beetam). My grandfather, Peter Doig, died in 1910, and I have no picture of him.

These albums were in Grandma's keeping for years. At Christmas, 1973, she went through the pictures with me and named everyone she could. The past few days, I've pasted in the names and information I've been able to gather.
