CITIZENSHIP

This is a report of a number of habits and traits which we think necessary to good citizenship, and which we are attempting to strengthen through our school program. We believe that citizenship can best be developed by participation in citizenship activities. In the school as well as in the home, the child is not only preparing for citizenship later, but he is practicing as a citizen now. In marking the pupil on these traits, we are giving you our opinion of his outstanding qualities, those in which he is strongest as well as those in which he needs most help from the home and the school. We invite your hearty co-operation in aiding your child in this development.

EXPLANATION OF MARKS:

- A—Trait well developed.
- B—Improvement being shown.

Miss K. Carleton

Teacher

FORM 104-G
To Parents or Guardian

1. Cooperation of Parents—Your earnest, active and continued cooperation with the school is necessary to secure the best results.

2. Regular Attendance—Pupils should not be permitted to be absent or late except for the most urgent and imperative reasons. Regularity, punctuality, singleness of purpose and concentration cannot be too strongly emphasized. The home should instill the idea that school duties are paramount and can not be neglected without serious loss.

3. Inferior work is unsatisfactory, and unless improvement is made the pupil is likely to fail of promotion at the end of the term.

Parents or Guardians Please Read

At the close of each six-weeks period this report will be filled out by the teacher and sent to you for inspection. If this report is not presented at the proper time, kindly notify the teacher.

If a pupil receives D or F on any subject, it should be made a matter of immediate inquiry. Possibly it is to be attributed to lack of study, to too many outside engagements, to irregularities in attendance or to some other cause which may be removed. Special attention is called to the serious consequences of Irregular Attendance. It is important to remember that the loss of even a portion of a school session often proves to be a serious interruption to school progress, and tends to produce a lack of interest in the school work. Excuses showing a good cause for the absence or tardiness should always be sent promptly to the teacher on the return of the child to school. Neglect of this may cause the child to be sent home after the excuse.

We suggest that you talk over this report with your child each time it is received, and if it has any peculiar needs which are indicated to you by the marks on this card, that you confer with the teacher or superintendent regarding it.

If the parents could show their interest in the child and school by occasional visits to the school it would prove a great source of inspiration and help to both pupils and teacher.

Your hearty cooperation is solicited in the endeavor to secure the best development of your child.

Parents or Guardians Please Read

At the close of each six-weeks period this report will be filled out by the teacher and sent to you for inspection. If this report is not presented at the proper time, kindly notify the teacher.

If a pupil receives D or F on any subject, it should be made a matter of immediate inquiry. Possibly it is to be attributed to lack of study, to too many outside engagements, to irregularities in attendance or to some other cause which may be removed. Special attention is called to the serious consequences of Irregular Attendance. It is important to remember that the loss of even a portion of a school session often proves to be a serious interruption to school progress, and tends to produce a lack of interest in the school work. Excuses showing a good cause for the absence or tardiness should always be sent promptly to the teacher on the return of the child to school. Neglect of this may cause the child to be sent home after the excuse.

We suggest that you talk over this report with your child each time it is received, and if it has any peculiar needs which are indicated to you by the marks on this card, that you confer with the teacher or superintendent regarding it.

If the parents could show their interest in the child and school by occasional visits to the school it would prove a great source of inspiration and help to both pupils and teacher.

Your hearty cooperation is solicited in the endeavor to secure the best development of your child.

TO THE PARENT OR GUARDIAN:

This report will be sent to you every six weeks during the school year. Please examine it carefully, sign below, and return as soon as possible. This report is in three parts (attendance, scholarship and citizenship) each of which is a vital influence on your child's success in school and necessary for our mutual understanding of his progress. Mere scholastic marks are not sufficient to give a complete picture of pupil progress. To overcome this, space is provided where teachers' estimates of personal traits and study habits may be conveyed to you. We seek your advice and cooperation in our efforts to provide a high school education for your child. Let us work together for the good of your child and for the school.

Dear Grandma,

Thanks for the Christmas present.

I also got one dollar fromully and Joyce.

Well, now I have something to play with. I have a black and white pup. His name is Major and I have a lot of fun with him. How we are living at Prescott and I am staying in town to go to school. I come out to the ranch on weekends.

I help Daddy feed the sheep and take them out to feed. I carry in water and chop wood too. One afternoon I went out with Daddy to look after the sheep. So I got of other things for Christmas got a wallet, a pair of skis, a cap gun, a tool chest, a pair of bedroom slippers, a set of Christmas tree lights, a book called Little Men and comb and brush set.

Well, this is all I can think of to say.

Yours truly,

 Ivan
