

The Spring Valley Press

Box 306 Langley, Washington 98260

206 • 321 1277

17 April 1985

Dear Ivan,

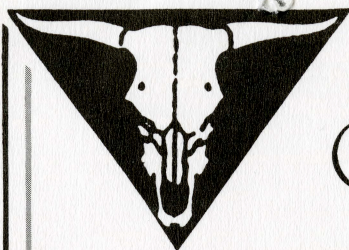

All the time you winning this award, we're getting a little tired of setting that name of yours over and over, the guys in the back shop are starting to complain and like that, we were thinking maybe you tell us the names of your next five-six books, we can set them all at the same time, save a little time, save a little money, what the hell, you know?

And congratulations once again!

Best regards,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Scott".

Scott Freutel

Ghost Ranch Lodge

original draft,
MT Gov's Award
remarks, Feb. '91
11

That title section of my first book is the archway of words to the Montana of my mind. Like many another of this state's sons and daughters, I was propelled away from this home earth in search of a living--and since the last of my summers here as a hay hand who, when the first drop of rain hit a windrow of ~~and~~ alfalfa, would scoot into the bunkhouse to read Faulkner--since those hired hand days, I have been where I could best harvest words, in Illinois and Seattle, in London and Scotland. By the time, sometime next year, when I finish my seventh book--about a Montana-^{young woman} ~~to the Southwest~~ hearted who was propelled from here by World War Two; a young woman who happens to have been my mother--I will have written books about the west of America from ~~Alaska~~ ^Ukalaka to Cape Flattery, and from Sitka, Alaska, to Phoenix, Arizona. And as I have come and gone through this archway of words, I hope that I have been able to re-populate the Montan^a of the mind with some citizens ^{a lot} more interesting than a failed hay hand turned word hunter--some of them my own family brought home from memory, some of them such as the McCaskills of the Two ~~and~~ Medicine trilogy the rambunctious progeny of my imagination. Tonight, ^{with the honor that is so} ~~when you are so~~ generously ^{being given to} honoring me here, I feel ^{that this award is} ~~you are also~~ honoring all of them--all of us, within ~~four~~ houses of sky.

Rich -
Ball of words
Crazy
Olan
Harris

Who are

The DEAN'S
Club

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Each year the College of Arts and Sciences sponsors a dinner to honor distinguished alumni, faculty members, and contributors whose special gifts help ensure a strong future for the College. Alumni Distinguished Achievement Awards are presented to Arts and Sciences alumni who have made substantial contributions to their field. Past recipients include Mary Gates, George Hitchings, Jack Lenor Larsen, Robert Skotheim, and George Tsutakawa.

Our event this year will begin with a no-host cocktail reception followed by dinner, the introduction of honored guests, and a musical program.

We invite you to consider providing additional support to the College by becoming a Host for the event at the $75.00 level. The additional $35.00 is tax-deductible. Host names will be listed in the evening's program.

Come enjoy a stimulating evening in honor of our distinguished alumni, faculty, and contributors to Arts and Sciences.

The DEAN'S
Club

College of Arts and Sciences
Dean's Club Event
1992

Program

Social Hour 6:00 p.m.

Exhibition of student art work
School of Art

Dinner 7:00 p.m.

Welcome and Introduction of the Development Advisory Board

Barbara Akers, Vice Chair, Dean's Club

Remarks on the College of Arts and Sciences and Introduction of Honored Faculty

Joe G. Norman, Jr., Dean

Presentation of the Distinguished Achievement Awards

Dr. R.Y. Woodhouse

presented by Fred Campbell,
Associate Dean, Undergraduate Education

Dr. Ivan Doig

presented by Jere Bacharach,
Chairman, Department of History

Followed by a reading by
Dr. Ivan Doig

Musical Program

Introduction by David Weatherford

David Wolff, piano
Brechemin Scholar, School of Music

*Special Thanks to our
Dean's Club Event Hosts:*

George & Barbara Akers

Marcia Alvar

John T. A. Ely

Max & Carol Gellert

Robert B. Heilman

Bruce & Sandra Kowalski

Keith & Joan Larson

Ned & Kirsten Lumpkin

John & Burdette McClelland

Mark & Lillian McDermott

Ancil & Valerie Payne

Mike Sweeney

Morgan Thomas

James Williams

Distinguished Achievement Award

Dr. Ivan Doig

Dr. R. Y. Woodhouse

Honored Faculty

Daniel Chirot, Jackson School of International Studies
Guggenheim Fellow

Mark S. Cooper, Zoology
Presidential Young Investigator
Sloan Foundation Fellow

Collett D. Cox, Asian Languages and Literature
Liberal Arts Professor, 1990-91

Hans G. Dehmelt, Physics
Boeing Professor of Physics

Victoria Foe, Zoology
Guggenheim Fellow

R. Kent Guy, History and Jackson School of International Studies
Liberal Arts Professor 1991-92

Bruce R. Kowalski, Chemistry
Professor in Analytical Chemistry

K. Tsianina Lomawaima, Anthropology/American Indian Studies
UW Distinguished Teaching Award

John Palka, Zoology
Liberal Arts Professor, 1991-92

Norman J. Rose, Chemistry
CASE Washington State Professor of the Year

Leigh Thompson, Psychology
Presidential Young Investigator

David Wagoner, English
Ruth Lilly Poetry Prize

Michael A. Williams, Jackson School of International Studies
Liberal Arts Professor, 1990-91

Stephen C. Woods, Psychology
UW Distinguished Teaching Award
American Association for the Advancement of Science Fellow

Special Thanks to our Dean's Club Event Hosts

Barbara and George Akers
Dr. John Ely
Carol and Max Gellert
Dr. Robert Heilman
Sandra Kowalski
Joan and Keith Larson
Kirsten and Ned Lumpkin
Burdette and John McClelland
Drs. Lillian and Mark McDermott
Mike Sweeney
Dr. Morgan Thomas

The Arts and Sciences Development Advisory Board

Barbara Akers	Kirsten W. Lumpkin
Fred Bassetti	Norman Lundin
Anne Blair	John M. McClelland, Jr.
Ewen Dingwall	Dan Murphy
Ted Fitch	Joe G. Norman, Jr.
Carol Gellert	Rosalind B. Poll
Max Gurvich	Lucy Pruzan
Mark T. Haley	Sievert A. Rohwer
Camden M. Hall	Stanley D. Savage
Howard Keller	Kayla Skinner
Judd Kirk	David Weatherford
E. Keith Larson

You and your guests are cordially invited to an evening of recognition for members of the Arts and Sciences Dean's Club

Tuesday, May 19
The Faculty Club
6:00 to 9:00 P.M.

(see map on reverse side)

1992 Alumni Distinguished Achievement Award honorees:

Dr. Ivan Doig
Author

Dr. R. Y. Woodhouse
President and CEO, Seattle Urban League

Musical program to follow award presentations.

$40.00 per person
Host: $75.00 per person

RSVP by May 13, 1992

Special Thanks to our
Dean's Club Event Hosts

