IMPORTANT INFORMATION

THIS PASSPORT IS THE PROPERTY OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. IT MUST BE SURRENDERED UPON DEMAND MADE BY AN AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE. THE PASSPORT IS NOT VALID UNLESS SIGNED BY THE BEARER ON PAGE TWO.

LOSS, THEFT OR DESTRUCTION OF PASSPORT must be reported immediately to local police authorities and to the Passport Office, Washington, D.C. 20524, or, if overseas, to the nearest American consular office.

ALTERATION OR MUTILATION OF PASSPORT. This passport must not be altered or mutilated in any way. Alteration may make it INVALID and, if willful, may subject you to prosecution (Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1543). Only authorized officials of the United States or of foreign countries, in connection with official matters, may place stamps or make statements, notations or additions in this passport. You must not alter any dates or make any changes in your description, on the photograph, or on any other page of this passport. You are permitted, however, to amend or update personal information for your own convenience on the inside front cover.

EXPIRATION. This passport is valid for five years unless expressly limited to a shorter period. The expiration date is given on page two.

LOSS OF NATIONALITY. You may lose your United States nationality by being naturalized in, or by taking an oath or making a declaration of allegiance to, a foreign state; or by serving in the armed forces or accepting employment under the government of a foreign state. For detailed information, consult the nearest American consular office.

DUAL NATIONALS. A person is considered a dual national when he owes allegiance to more than one country at the same time. A claim to allegiance may be based on facts of birth, marriage, parentage or naturalization. A dual national may, while in the jurisdiction of the other country which considers him its national, be subject to all of its laws, including being conscripted for military service. Dual nationals who encounter problems should contact the nearest American consular office.

WHEN TRAVELING IN DISTURBED AREAS you should keep in touch with the nearest American consular office.

DURING PROLONGED RESIDENCE ABROAD you should register at the nearest American consular office.

GENERAL INFORMATION

IMMUNIZATIONS. Under the International Health Regulations adopted by the World Health Organization, a country, under certain conditions, may require International Certificates of Vaccination against Smallpox, Yellow Fever, and Cholera from international travelers. NO vaccinations are required to return to the United States from any country. Some other countries, however, may require certain immunizations, and certain other preventive measures are advisable for some travelers. The booklet, "Health Information for International Travel," available from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, provides pertinent information. Specific information may be obtained from your local health department, physician, or private or public agency that advises international travelers.

HEALTH INSURANCE. Persons considering foreign travel should determine what health insurance coverage, if any, they have while outside the United States. Medicare does not cover health care costs outside the United States except under limited circumstances in Canada and Mexico.

CUSTOMS SERVICE. The pamphlet, "Know Before You Go," gives you current pertinent information about Customs requirements, and how they apply to articles acquired abroad. Obtain a copy from your nearest Customs office or from the U.S. Customs Service, P.O. Box 7118, Washington, D.C. 20044. If you take out of or bring into the United States more than $5,000 (U.S. or foreign currency, travelers checks, money orders, or other bearer monetary instruments), you are required to file a report with the U.S. Customs Service.

TREASURY. The unlicensed purchase or importation of merchandise of Cuban, North Korean, Vietnamese, Cambodian, or Southern Rhodesian origin is prohibited except for accompanied baggage from those countries (but not from Rhodesia) with a foreign market value of $100 or less. For further information contact the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Treasury Department, Washington, D.C. 20220.

AGRICULTURE. Your reentry into the United States will be speeded if you bring with you NO foreign meat, other animal products, birds, animals, fruits, vegetables, plants, soil, or other agricultural items. It is unlawful to import foreign agricultural items without permission since they may carry destructive plant or animal pests and diseases. For specific information, write "Quarantines," PPO, APHIS, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Hyattsville, Maryland 20782.

3. Make 2 photocopies of your passport identification page. Leave one copy at home. Carry the other with you in a separate place from your passport. This will facilitate replacement if your passport is lost or stolen.
4. Leave a copy of your itinerary with family or friends at home so you can be contacted in case of emergency.
5. When traveling in disturbed or remote areas, or residing abroad, you should register and keep in touch with the nearest American embassy or consulate.
6. Do not leave luggage unattended in public areas or accept packages from strangers.
7. Avoid conspicuous clothing and expensive jewelry and do not carry excessive amounts of money or unnecessary credit cards.
8. In order to avoid violating local laws, deal only with authorized agents when exchanging money or purchasing souvenirs.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

This edition of the United States passport honors both Dr. Benjamin Franklin, perhaps our most distinguished early diplomat, and the bicentennial anniversary of the U.S. Consular Service. Dr. Franklin's outstanding accomplishments are closely interwoven into the early history of the Consular Service.

One of history's great renaissance persons, Benjamin Franklin had distinguished parallel careers as an author, journalist, scientist, inventor, political philosopher and statesman. Few persons throughout the past two thousand years have made more lasting contributions to western civilization. As United States Minister to France during the Revolutionary War, Dr. Franklin was instrumental in securing vital continental European support for the fledgling American republic.

Dr. Franklin also performed the duties of a U.S. Consular Officer, issuing passports and providing services to the citizens of the new American republic who were travelling abroad. In an effort to gain assistance with this critical work, and in recognition of the need for knowledgeable U.S. businessmen to oversee our commercial interests abroad, Dr. Franklin vigorously lobbied the Congress for the appointment to France of Consuls and Vice Consuls. To that end, Dr. Franklin and Charles Graves, the French foreign minister, signed a consular convention on July 29, 1784.

Continuing in the tradition of Dr. Franklin, United States consular officers have a distinguished 200 year history of providing aid to Americans located in the farthest reaches of the world. Please be assured that this passport, which you now bear as a citizen or national of the United States, guarantees that you will find a welcoming beacon wherever the U.S. flag flies abroad.
