Dear Miss Muller:

Your recent letter has arrived at my desk, and I am very happy to comply with your request for my autograph.

My signature below will serve that purpose.

Sincerely,

MARK W. CLARK,
General, U.S.A.,
Commanding.

My dear Miss Muller:

Many thanks for your note which reached me recently. I have autographed the page from your autograph book and I am happy to add my signature to a collection already so distinguished as yours.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

R. L. EICHELBERGER,
Lieutenant General, USA.

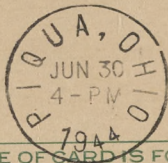

We are determined that before the sun sets on this terrible struggle, Our Flag will be recognized throughout the World as a symbol of Freedom on the one hand and of Overwhelming Power on the other.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "J. Edgar Hoover". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial "J" and a long, sweeping horizontal line extending to the right.
