Dear Mr. Boardman:

I have received a copy of the pamphlet you printed, "The Book of Experience", and found that almost all of the cartons printed therein will assist us tremendously in operating our mines more safely.

We would very much like to have three (3) sets of each of these cartons in order that we might post them on our bulletin boards. If you can furnish us with these posters we would appreciate it very much. We will, of course, be more than glad to reimburse you for same.

If these cartons are not prepared in poster size, would you have any objection if we had them photostatically enlarged and give us your permission to post them where they will do much good.

Many thanks for your cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Robert P. Brassel,
Supervisor of Insurance

Dear Mr. Brassel:

In reply to your letter of the 10th, we are sending by separate mail several sets of three each of Mr. Powers' safety posters. Our stock of many of our posters is very much depleted, and we cannot supply more.

You may feel at liberty to reproduce any of these or any of those from the Book of Experience that you may desire for your own use of course. In reproducing, we would appreciate a credit line if it is convenient to you. Such for instance as "Courtesy of Anaconda Copper Mining Company" or simply Mr. Powers' monogram.

Very truly yours,

John L. Boardman

Gentlemen:

It would be appreciated if you would advise us how we can obtain copies of your safety manuals.

We feel that these manuals would be of considerable benefit to this state agency; hence, our inquiry.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Boardman:

We have just received the several sets of Mr. Powers' posters and can assure you they are much appreciated and will be put to immediate use in our mining operations.

We also thank you for granting us the privilege to reproduce any of these posters or any of those from your "Book of Experience". You may be sure a credit line will be indicated on any material we may reproduce.

Many thanks for your kindness in this matter.

Dear Mr. Boardman:

We are returning with thanks the enclosed poster which you recently sent to us.

We have made photostatic copies of this poster and have sent such copies to our mines for their bulletin boards.

We very much appreciate your kindness in sending us these posters and giving us permission to reproduce and use them for our purposes.

Dear Mr. Stromquist:

The Safety Engineer of Anaconda Reduction Works, Anaconda, Montana, was up here yesterday and told me another employee of the smelter had a copy of a Duluth newspaper which had an article describing iron mining operations in the Lake Superior region. He said the article had a reproduction of one of Anaconda's posters.

The theme of the poster was "Whatever is nice, whatever is new, the best safety device in your place is you." We appropriated the poem from a roadside sign and built the poster on the poetry.

I would greatly appreciate it if you could obtain a few copies and send them to me. I would enjoy seeing the reproduction.

Sincerely yours,

John J. Powers

Dear Mr. Powers:

As per your request, I am sending to you under separate cover, three copies of the "Duluth News Tribune" of August 11, 1957 which carries the poster you mentioned in your letter. I have marked the page with a paper clip.

I notice that credit for the poster is missing, but will make sure it is not omitted in the future on any of our council uses. This credit, I believe, should read "Bureau of Safety, The Anaconda Company." If I am wrong, please let me know.

Yours truly,

A. J. Stromquist
