

HEALTH PROGRAM IS OUTLINED

Under New System All Students to Receive Medical Examination and Free Medical Treatment

At assembly last Friday, Dean Swingle, chairman of the college health board, outlined the plans of the board for the coming year. He made it clear in the first place that the present outline was not permanent and stated that it was the hope of the board that further additions would be made to the plan as they were found needing.

The plan adopted by both students and faculty is as follows: Each student in regular undergraduate college work or in the secondary school shall pay a health fee of two dollars per quarter at the time of registration. This fee will be uniform for all four quarters but those taking only half of the summer quarter will pay but $1.00. Students withdrawing before the end of the sixth week in a quarter will receive a refund of one dollar, those withdrawing after that time will receive no refund. If however, the student has already incurred during that college year medical expense amounting to the health fee paid, or more, he shall receive no refund.

The student health fee shall be used for the payment of the salary of the college nurse, for medical examination, for hospital bills at the Deaconess hospital, and for medicines, bandages, dressings, etc. The fee shall not cover bills for the service of specialists such as dentists and oculists, nor for anything pertaining to chronic diseases contracted before the student entered college.

Authority for expenditure of the student health fee shall be invested primarily in the college nurse and all bills against the fund must be approved by her.

Cases of known or suspected illness should be reported to the college nurse by persons in charge of the dormitories and fraternity houses and if she believes that medical attention is necessary she will call any regular physician practicing in Bozeman whom the patient may desire. If the student indicates no preference of physician the college nurse shall call whom she thinks best. Doctor's bills authorized in any other way shall be paid only when an explanation is offered which is satisfactory to the health committee.

Under the present temporary agreement the salary of the college nurse is to be paid out of the student health fee and it is estimated that this will

Y. W. PLANS A JOY RIDE

College Organization Has a Big Trip Planned for all Students

Barring storm or some other obstacle unforeseen at the present time, the College Y. W. C. A. will stage a big joy-ride for the students of M. S. C. A large number of cars have been donated by students, faculty members and the people of Bozeman and they will be used Saturday afternoon to take as many of the college students as are able to go on a tour of Gallatin county. The purpose of the trip is to acquaint the college students with the country around Bozeman and to provide for a big get together for the bunch. The cars will start from the Main Hall at about two o'clock Saturday afternoon and to defray all incidental expenses of the trip a charge of thirty five cents a person is being made. The trip will last about three hours and all students are urged to sign up and get acquainted. Freshmen are notified that they need not fear being hauled to the country some eight or ten miles and then dropped for a long walk home. Such things have happened before not so long ago but the promoters guarantee the safety of all who make the trip.

CUBS TO PLAY MILES CITY

Freshman Eleven will Play Miles City in the Cow Town Saturday

The Bobkitten eleven leaves here this afternoon on No. 2 for Miles City where they will clash with Custer County high school tomorrow. This will be the first game for the newcomers and will throw considerable light on the future prospects of Montana State teams. The kittens have been out for practice only ten days, but due to the constant work of Pat Morphy and his assistant, Bobby Jones, a victory is expected.

Pat Morphy is captain and one of M. S. C.'s best linemen for this year. Although Pat will not be able to play the first few games of the season, everyone hopes to see him back on the Bobcat eleven before M. S. C. encounters Missoula on November 13. Bobby Jones, who starred on the Frosh team of seventeen as quarter back, has ably assisted Pat Morphy in coaching the frosh team. Bobby and Pat have both shown their loyalty to the college as coaches and much credit is due them.

The men who will make the trip are: G. Fox, Danaher, Smart, Slawson, Brittain, Hendrickson, Scotten, Mares, Cowan, Callan, Reiburg H. Atterbury Suhr and Sands. Glen Fox, the full back for the kittens has had only one year of football before but he is one of the strongest men on the team. Fox will be expected to make substantial gains in yardage. Danaher comes from Mt. St. Charles where he had four years experience. Smart comes from Hamilton, with three years experience and will play the position of halfback. Brittain, the left tackle, hails from Billings, with two years experience, and will be a bulwark of strength in the line. Hendrickson, the sub quarter back, comes from Billings and is a dependable little man.

Scotten, the speedy end, is originally from Butte, but played four years with Shattuck. uch is expected from Scotten, not only this year, but he should develop into a real Bobcat in the next year or two. Mares, the 200 pound tackle from the capital city, will be crouched on the line Saturday and promises to tear a hole through anything that Miles City can put up against him. Cowan and Suhr will hold the line next to tackle, and these husky guards look like good stuff. Callan, on end, is a speedy boy and is right there when it comes to getting down on punts. Reiburg will start as quarter. In practice he has proved to be a good general and intends to lead the Cubs to victory.

MRS. W. GIFFORD NASH.

Word from the president's office states that Miss June Hartman has been made chairman of the music department to succeed Mr. Nash. To assist Miss Hartman, Mrs. W. Gifford Nash has been engaged as an instructor and she will begin meeting pupils at once.

Miss Carrie B. Eckles has been appointed instructor of vocal music and she will begin meeting vocal pupils at any time that they may arrange. It is also thought that Miss Eckles will have charge of the two glee clubs, which will begin practice soon.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL MEETS.

Monday afternoon at three o'clock the Interfraternity Council held a special meeting for the purpose of discussing several matters which have been pending for some time. No definite action was taken and the meeting was adjourned until a later time.

Picnic parties were of a plentiful nature on last Tuesday and although there was a lot of bad roads and disagreeable weather encountered on the way back everyone reports a good time. Funny isn't it. It's queer more people aren't getting married.

BOBCATS HOLD BIG END OF THE SCORE IN FIRST FOOTBALL GAME

Lack of Weight and Material Proves Undoing of the Montana Wesleyan Team Which Goes Down Defeated 17 to 7

M. S. C. PLAYS RAGGED BALL

Although Winning the Game the Blue and Gold Warriors Show Lack of Punch

The Bobcats won the first game of the football season by defeating the Montana Wesleyan team 17 to 7, at the Roundup grounds last Saturday afternoon. It was a good contest and although the Methodists had a much lighter team they put up a game fight that won the admiration of the crowd. The Bobcats played in streaks and their game will have to be improved considerably before they will be able to meet a strong team. Captain Morphy was out of the line and his absence made a marked difference in the play. Bryan at right half played the stellar game for the backfield and his work, as a sure ground gainer, was seconded by DeVore at left half. Bush, as the veteran on the line, held it steady on the right side, and the best work on the left side was done by Chief Robertson at guard, who played a steady, fast game. In the second half of the game Coach Graves continually slipped in second string men until at the end nearly the entire lineup consisted of substitutes.

Wesleyan being unable to bring a large crowd of rooters for the game substituted instead a male quartette, which sang the school songs before and during the game. It proved a novel and interesting backing for the Helena boys and is an original idea for a small cheering section.

Montana State got the first kick-off and Bryan booted the oval to the Wesleyan 30 yard line. Unable to carry the ball the required yardage, Wesleyan kicks on the fourth down and DeVore carried the ball to the M. S. C. 20 yard line. The blue and gold team then sprung a new defensive surprise and punted on the first down. Morgan carried the ball to the 30 yard line and was there brought down by McCarren. Wesleyan was given a five yard penalty for off side and were held twice without gain. The Minnesota shift brought no better results and the Methodists kicked on the fourth down. McCarren was brought down on a short run and on a fake punt formation Finch was given the ball and made a 50 yard run before he was successfully tackled. DeVore carried the ball for four yards and on the next play the Wesleyan fullback got through right guard and held the ball. On the Wesleyan 20 yard line, Brown for the visitors kicked 30 yards. The ball was caught by McCarren and brokht back ten yards. In three line plunges Bryan carried the ball one yard from the goal and McCarren pushed it over for the first touchdown of the game.

At the beginning of the second quarter, Wesleyan fumbled and gave the ball to the Bobcats on their 40 yard line. The ball was then started down the field with each of the backs making from four to ten yards on a down. Just before the end of the quarter, Bryan caught a 20 yard pass and made a 40 yard run for the goal and another touchdown.

The kick off which started the second half was made by Wesleyan, who got it to the M. S. C. 40 yard line. Jones received the ball and carried it back 10 yards. DeVore and Bryan each carried the ball eight yards and Finch brought it three yards. Wesleyan intercepts a pass and although she made no yardage, had the ball in the middle of the field. After the ball was advanced 20 yard it again fell to M. S. C. and Bryan kicked it 45 yards on the first down. Wesleyan then resorted to the pass which was blocked two consecutive times by the Bobcats. On the third down Robertson nabbed the man with the ball and pushed him back five yards. On the fourth down Wesleyan punted 40 yards. Jones caught it and brought

MEETING OF COLLEGE MEN

A Lot of Work Gotten Out of the Way at Men's Assembly Held Last Friday Morning

The regular assembly was held last Friday at ten o'clock. The men of the college met in the gymnasium and were addressed by Prof. Swingle, Dr. Judd and "Packy" McFarlin. Prof. Swingle and Dr. Judd spoke of the health fee that has been assessed all students and the use that would be made of it.

Prof. Swingle stated that the money that came in through the health fees would be used to secure physical examination for all freshmen and as many upper classmen as possible. This examination will make known to each student his own physical condition. In case any student should be ailing in any way the doctor will advise treatment for him.

All the money collected will not be needed for examination but the remainder will be used to pay, pro rata, all doctor bills accrued by the students, except those bill for chronic ailments, such as eye trouble and bills for dental work.

Dr. Judd spoke of the value of a physical examination and also explained the necessity of proper care of the body at all times.

"Packy" took the floor to explain the purpose of the "Letter a day Club." This club was organized for the purpose of securing votes for initiative measures 18 and 19. The

SEPTEMVIRI GETS ACTION

Honorary Seniors Hold Meeting and the First Steps of the Order Prove to be Progressive Ones

The first real work of the Septemviri has come to light and will show the genuine value that such an organization will have in this college. The Septemviri held a meeting Wednesday night at the Sigma Chi house and began the work that their organization will have charge of. The meeting was of great importance and the whole body was there except Ray Kuhns who has not yet returned to college.

The first business that came before the society was the condition of the "M" which the Frosh were supposed to have painted last Tuesday. The appearance of the giant letter after the supposed painting that it received is so similar to that before it was touched that the committee decided to recommend at the assembly this morning the repainting of our emblem in the way in which it should be done. It is an established fact that several Frosh had returned to town after painting the "M" and had arrived here at no later than 12 noon. This alone is proof that a slipshod method must have been used in painting because never before has any class finished before 1:00 P. M. no matter how large the class may have been. One Frosh went so far as to make the statement that they sprinkled the lime on the wet rocks and did a good job. Consequently the Frosh will be ex-

MINN. SYMPHONY HERE WEDNESDAY

Minneapolis Orchestra Gives a Good Program at the Municipal Theatre

The Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, which is one of the best and largest musical organizations in the United States today, appeared at the Municipal Theatre two performances, on Wednesday the thirteenth. The orchestra played to almost capacity houses at both performances. A complete change of program was made for the two concerts. At the matinee, the presentation of Peer Gynt Suite was one of the outstanding features along with the harp solos by Henry J. Williams, who is reputed to be the best harp soloist in England. In the evening concert the singing of Miss Florence Macbeth was the feature. Miss Macbeth's rendition of the aris "Charmant Oiseau" from "is Perle de Brazil" with the flute obligato was a wonderful colorature offering as was her Indian Bell Song from Lakme. As a finale the orchestra played the Overture to "Tannhauser" by Wagner and showed again their prowess in music. The conductor of the orchestra, Emil Oberhoffer, deserves much credit for the work he has done in leading and training the aggregation. Oberhoffer is a conductor of national repute and is deserving of all he may receive. Programs were not issued for the matinee but the evening performance was as follows:

- Program.
1 Symphony No. 4, in F. Minor, Op. 36—Tschaiikowsky.
I Andante sostenuto—Moderato con anima.
II Andantino in modo di canzona
III Scherzo: Pizzicato ostinato: Allegro.
IV Finale: Allegro con fuoco.
2 Aria: "Charmant Oiseau" from "La de Brasil"—David—Miss Macbeth.
Intermission
3 Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 2—Liszt (Original Harp Cadenza by Henry J. Williams)
4 "Berceuse" from "Jocelyn"—Godard—Cello: Engelbert Roentgen Violin: Guy Woodward.
5 Indian Bell Song, from "Lakme"—Delibes—Miss Macbeth.
6 Overture to "Tannhauser"—Wagner.

FROSH ENDEAVOR TO PAINT THE M

A Few Hours Spent Last Tuesday at the M Show Little Signs that the Big Pride of Montana State Has Received its Annual Coat of White

Last Tuesday, practically the entire freshman class gathered some place down town for the purpose of painting the M. They started about 8:30 for the giant letter and were working by 9:30. After spending about four hours time on the work, they returned to town, arriving about two. The student body turned expectant eyes toward Baldy on Wednesday morning but were disappointed at the condition in which the job was done. Later it was learned that the frosh had spent a part of their time erecting a miniature 24 beside the M. The students gave the frosh the benefit of the doubt and hoped that the letter would show up better later, but as time passes we have seen no improvement. Inasmuch as the job was done in less time than any previous class employed and the manner in which it was done, it has been decided that the Frosh shall be given another opportunity to give the M its annual coat of whitewash. Although not being acquainted with all the facts in the case we are unable to judge, nevertheless we think that the job was done in a very slipshod manner and because of this fact and also the present condition of the M, the above recommendation has been made. It is hoped that the Frosh will do a better job on their second attempt.

BOBCATS TRAVEL OVER DIVIDE

The Fighting Eleven From Montana State Will Meet Husky Miners Saturday.

The Bobcats leave here today on No 3 for Butte, where they will tangle with the School of Mines eleven tomorrow afternoon. This, the second game of our schedule, promises to be an interesting one, and prospects are good for another victory.

Despite the fact that there has been only a little more than two weeks practice, Coach Graves has developed his material into a fast, hard hitting football machine. The boys have shown a keen interest, and have turned out better than ever before. In fact it was necessary to cut down the squad last week in order that the coach might concentrate his efforts to the first team men.

A wonderful improvement has been shown since last weeks game. The team has also been strengthened by the return of "Scotty" MacDonald, half; "Skinny" Borton, tackle; and "Buster" Atterbury, quarter. Buster, however is out of the game at present because of a bad "charley-horse." Every man is working hard, and in addition to the regular practice and scrimage with the freshmen in the afternoon, they meet at the high school in the evening for signal practice.

The men who will probably make the trip to Butte are:

J. Mashin, end; Bush, tackle. Knight guard; Asbury, center; Robertson, guard, Borton, tackle; L. Mashin, end; Bryan, half; MacDonald, half; Finch, full; MacCarren, quarter; Husemeyer, tackle; Williams, guard; Richards, end; Garvin, end; Stumpf, half; Cogswell, full; Finley, center; DeVore, end.

NOTICE

The Y. W. C. A. is giving an automobile ride thru Gallatin valley for the young men and women of the college, Saturday October 16, 1920. The cars will leave Main Hall at 2 o'clock. Pay your 35 cents and wear a blue triangle and let us all enjoy the ride. Notice posters.

BUSINESS MEN ARE BACK OF BOBCATS

Stores to Close Between 3 and 5 Next Saturday when the Utah Aggies Play Here. Big Boost for the College

When the executive committee of the Retail Merchants' Exchange met Wednesday morning, they decided to close the stores of Bozeman from 3 to 5 p. m., on Oct. 23, so that the entire town could attend the football game between Montana State and the Utah Aggies. The committee reached this decision after reviewing the urgent request of the student committee in charge of athletic affairs at the college. Although this closing may work considerable hardship on some of the rural customers of the stores, who do a big percentage of their buying on Saturday afternoons, nevertheless it was decided that the college students deserve the unanimous support of the townspeople at one game during the season. The Utah game had previously been set for the annual homecoming of all former M. S. C. students and it had been planned to make this date a great occasion in the records of college homecomings.

This action on the part of the merchants gives an added incentive to this year's function and the students are planning to show the merchants that they will not have their favor

BACK THE BOBCATS

Last Saturday the Bobcats, in their first game of the season, defeated the Montana Wesleyan by a score of 17-7. The score was not deceiving nor was it indicative of the strength of the Bobcat eleven. The fact that the squad had only a short time in which to prepare for the contest may have had something to do with the size of the score. The fact that the student body had the idea that the Wesleyan was going to be "easy" may also have had something to do with the attendance at the game. The student attendance very probably had a large bearing on the score.

To insinuate that any student at M. S. C. was lacking in loyalty would be an insult. Yet Saturday there was less than half the student body out to witness the game. For the first time in several years there was no rally of any sort before the game. The fact that the commissioner of demonstrations had not returned to school may have accounted to some extent for the absence of the rally. The rally itself, however, was not necessary had there been any interest or enthusiasm shown.

That the student body was lacking in interest was evidenced by the appalling lack of enthusiasm that greeted the announcement of the game in both the men's and women's assemblies last Friday. A further evidence was the large number of students who, because of picnics, parties, work, or some other such reason, could not find time to attend the game Saturday.

The lack of rooting and enthusiasm was also noticeable in those who did attend the game. Temporary yell leader Donohue did all he could to arouse some "pep" and to get some rooting started yet the half hearted way in which the yells were given demonstrated that our school spirit has not been awakened since our return this fall.

The support of teams does not consist entirely of going to a game and yelling one's lungs out. During the course of a game is not the only time the members of the team have a suit on. They are out every night in all kinds of weather, giving all that is in them that M. S. C. might have a winning team. There is at present a squad of over thirty men reporting every day for practice and giving over three hours of their time which might well be used to advantage some place else. Yet these men want to see Montana State at the top in athletics as well as in any other way. They cannot do it alone. The student body must show that they are with them whole heartedly and unanimously.

There is no student in school who could not take time to walk down to the football field for an hour two or three times a week and demonstrate that he has an interest in the progress that is being made. Yet there is not more than half a dozen in school who will take the trouble. Can we expect our teams to put up a fight—to work hard and consistently that they might win for M. S. C. if we do not back them to the limit? Can we expect them to do it all and not do anything ourselves? A half dozen coaches and all the material in the world cannot make a winning team if they have no support.

Lets wake up, revive that old spirit and show the coach and the team that we are back of them with every ounce of our energy.

The students are not alone in their lack of support. Last Saturday there was less than twenty tickets sold to members of the faculty. It is true that the members of the faculty have a great deal of work to do and that their time is pretty well taken up, yet can we expect the students to turn out and support athletics if the faculty does not? On the other hand can we expect the faculty to turn out if the students will not?

It is up to the entire faculty and student body, individually and collectively to make the spirit of any school. Lets get together and make the spirit at Montana State College the best in the country.

Today the football team leaves for Butte to play the State School of Mines. They have a hard game ahead of them and it will take all they have to come out on the winning end of the score. Lets get together and give a few yells, go to the train and see them off, show them that we are back of them and that win or lose they are our team and we are proud of them.

abused, and it also promotes and augments the good feeling which has existed and been growing for the last few years. The college is greatly indebted to the merchants, and this year's homecoming celebration will, we think, be a fit testimonial to this feeling.

At their meeting, the committee of the merchant's association said that the merchants appreciated the loyalty to Bozeman that had always been evidenced by the students of the college. The students as a whole have been intensely loyal to Bozeman and its institutions. The support given student activities by the people of Bozeman has been both willing and generous and it is this, as much as any other thing, that has contributed to the feeling of good will shown by both townspeople and students. The annual homecoming next week should witness the return of many old graduates and will be one of the big days of the college year. That the merchants see fit to recognize this day and honor it by so unusual a departure from their usual custom is a direct compliment to the student body and one which they fully appreciate. The Exponent, on behalf of the students of Montana State college, wishes to express its thanks.

HEALTH PROGRAM OUTLINED

leave enough of the fund to cover only about two-thirds of the remaining expense. Consequently the following rules were adopted for the coming year:

1. The salary of the college nurse shall be paid when due in twelve equal installments.
2. An annual medical examination of all students shall be made soon after the opening of the autumn quarter, payable in three equal installments from the funds taken in the first three quarters.

3. Except for the salary of the college nurse and one third of the cost of medical examination, none of the student's health fee is to be expended until the end of the quarter in which it was collected.

4. At the end of the first quarter the legitimate health expenses for that quarter are to be paid on a proportional basis. If the funds are sufficient the entire amount will be paid;
if not, such a proportion as they will cover.

5. At the end of the second, third and fourth quarters similar payments will be made.

6. At the end of each quarter students should present receipts for all bills covered by the fund. These shall be passed upon by the health committee and for those recognized the student will be re-imbursed by the college treasurer in his just proportion.

The need of such a fund has long been felt on the hill, primarily for the purpose of handling any outbreaks of sickness among the students. The movement as above outlined is a good step and the co-operation of the students with the college nurse will no much to eliminate the possibility of any epidemic. Last year the various fraternity and sorority houses kept in close touch with the nurse and the result was to be seen in the small amount of sickness reported. It is hoped that the same spirit will be shown again this year and until such time as a new plan may be found practicable.

it back two thirds of the distance of the punt. After several exchanges of blows Bryan kicked a pretty 45 yarder, and Jones dropped the man with the ball in his tracks.

At the beginning of the third quarter McCarren replaced Jones at quarter. Wesleyan had the ball on her 40 yard line. Robertson and Bush broke through on the next two formations and altogether pushed them back about eight yards. The next three plays were probably the most spectacular of the entire game. Bryan got away for 20 yards, Cogswell, who had replaced Devore at left half, was given the ball and on a stumble dodged the first three men who attempted to tackle him he then got up and gained 25 yards before he was brought down. On a delayed pass Bryan made 25 yards more. From the 18 yard line McCarren kicked a goal, making the score 17 to 0.

Wesleyan got the all on the kick off and with a pretty exhibition of straight football took the ball down the field and Bowers carried the ball over for the only goal for the visitors. There was little headway made by either team after that, and the game ended with the score 17 to 7 in favor of Montana State.

pected to repaint the "M" at the earliest possible time.

Another matter, which received the consideration of the committee was the construction of the numerals '24 beside the letter on the mountain side. The committee will also recommend that this be removed at the same time that the "M" is painted and that the stones used in building it be placed on the letter in order to make the monument more permanent as well as more perfect.

Likewise the question of the punishment of the men who do not wear their green caps was considered. It was decided to make this a matter in which all students might cooperate. A request will therefore be made that all students regardless of their class be on the lookout for offenders and to report any such persons to any member of the Septemviri. The Septemviri will then call the guilty ones upon the carpet where they will be tried and suitable punishment will be inflicted upon them.

These problems are of vital importance to the upkeep of the established traditions and should be cared for by the student body.

plan as outlined is for every member of the club to write a letter each day to some acquaintance, who is a voter, and to tell him why he should vote for 18 and 19.

At the close of the assembly blanks were passed around and all those who wished to join this club were asked to fill these out at once and hand them back. Every person there filled out a blank, and now, if everyone is keeping his word, the mails should be flooded with letters why 18 and 19 should pass.

The assembly for today will be in charge of the associated students. Nominations will be held for the office of Commissioner at Large, Commissioner of Interests Musical, and Commissioner of Demonstrations. Another thing of importance is the appointment of a member of the faculty to act on the athletic council. This position is left vacant because of Prof. Duddy's resignation.

PICKED UP BY ELI

Inaugural Address.

Welcome folks. Here I am, so what are you going to do about it? I've resigned my position with the city of Bozeman and am hired to keep my hand on the funny bone of M. S. C. and feel the pulse of the school. Watch your step. If you cast rare bits of gossip and untold tales around the campus, I'll be around with my wagon and shovel and pick it up. Original? Only as you make me. Fall in line and we'll give the people something to talk about.

Have we got speed? I'd say so! Last year half of the student body put on the fraternity pins of the other half. This year half of them are married.

Frosh (Gallantly) — Have you this dance?
Wallflower (demurely)—Then will you please hold this cigar while I dance?

In Sparta, a man was liable to an action for not marrying at all, or marrying too late, or marrying improperly. The same here. If he does not marry he is liable for breach of promise; and if he does marry (improperly or too late) he is liable for alimony.

WHAT WILL WE DO WITH OUR LONG HAIRED AGITATORS?
(Newspaper Heading)

The Solution.
Put them in a green cap and let them matriculate at M. S. C., and they will soon lose their distinguishing mark.

"Poor old Steve! So he remained faithful to his scientific career, eh?"
"Yes, he died from the fruits of his own toil."

"Then he was still seeking the possibility of perpetual life, through the medium of —"

"He put too much yeast in some grape uice."

As it is Done at M. S. C.
"Miss Home Ec, may I present my friend, Engy Neering?"
"Pleased to meet you, dear."
"Darling, name the day."
"Right now."

There is an interesting little tale going the rounds about a certain dignified senior at Montana State College, who fussed a certain little high school girl. When asked how she enjoyed the evening she said:
"I had a dandy time, but that little mustache of his just tickled me to death!"

Now, Mac, don't hit me again. I didn't mention a single name.

Our Benedicts should work for the Bond issue. It it fails and they start turning away students, "It may be your boy."

Vote for measures 18 and 19.

Have you written that letter yet?

Students being turned away today from M. S. C.

What will happen if the bond issue fails?

Do you intend to go to college next year in Montana?

A letter a day
Brings 18 and 19 to stay.

Shall OUR school close its doors to new students?

First Student: Hurray! 12000 more votes for the issue!"

Second Student: How do you figure?

First Stude: Just a little simple math. Every letter a voter. One student, 20 letters. 600 students, 12,000 letters; 12,000 letters, 12,000 voters.

Twenty more days to get those letters in.

Big excitement! M. S. C. to beat the U in endurance test.

Prof: "How many letters in the alphabet?"

Soph: "Twenty, sir; er, I beg pardon; I was thinking about the campaign for 18 and 19."

Prof: "Go to the head of the class."

MEASURES 18 & 19 WILL WIN

Count out the above message and see how many letters it will take to spell it on election day.

Vote. Early and often for 18 and 19.

HE DANCED BUT NOT ALONE

He saw her standing by the fountain, a perfect beauty. In fact she was so good looking that Minerva would have had to camouflage her face with some of the rare face lotions that Greek goodesses used, before she could begin to compare with this fair Rebecca at the well. As she stooped to pin from the mechanical spring he saw her beautiful white teeth, as white as the ivories on a second hand piano. His heart leaped, it stood still for some full fraction of a second as the thot slowly ozzed thru his crust, "I'll see her at the dance to-night."

No obstacle presented itself to him, of course she would be there.
His "tell 'um at night" registered twenty below four, just too late to catch the down going car. By Jazzing right along he could find the town by five. The barber could spend an hour or so grooming him up a bit and then if he didn't have time after that to shine his shoes he could have them shined while he waited for supper. He reached the barber shop in time to kill an hour of ease while he waited for a family of twelve who took every thing a barber gives.

Turned out he felt the cool breeze blow where his hair was not. His new hat now stopped at his ears but an old neck tie hid under the band would stop that.

One hour before the dance: he must step some to be there when the band started to play. His laundry was waiting for him where he had left it that morning, his two ties hung over the chair blending artistically with a crazy quilt on the bed. "Yes, the right one would do," He stood before the stove pipe a handsome youth one wheel in his pocket and no lack out-ton in his collar, but no one would notice either minus quantity.

His well swept hair was parted evenly on both sides of the path resembling a palm beach drive in southern California. Was he ready? Yes. He could have commanded the arm of Venus, he was groomed from toe to crown. The gods were with him, all hopes were high along with his trousers. No time now for the business of the worldly set he was nearing a plain of elevation, nearing the college hill. As he caressed his name for the Nth time; he was thrilled to the bone, he was at last prepared to mount the gym stairs and join in the promenade.

He elbowed his way thru the door, four couples and a herd of stags comprised the dance. It's early yet, yes, she'll come, she'll come—and but how will she come? It had never perculated thru his Cerebrum how she would come, but how could she stay away when he was there?

The crowd grew, the stag herd grew, but the beautiful Madonna did not come. His shoes were white with dust from the dancers, his tie shed an azure hue on his palad face, six more locks had roamed across the path. His hopes fell as he dropped his only wheel against a poker chip.

Suddenly the tension became unbearable, he leaped to the floor with one bound, saw an only maiden looking on and clasping her to his breast prepared for the initial struggle. He felt his breath come and go, he thought he heard her say—but just then the dance was over.

Moral—Fair youth, never stag.

BOOSTER CLUB DANCE.

The dance given by the Booster's club last Saturday night, at the Elks home, was one the best attended affairs so far this year. There were about sixty-five couples present, all of whom had the time of their life dancing to music pased out by Steve Williams' orchestra.

The Boosters' club is an organization of business men of Bozeman who are taking an interest in the athletics of the school. It is their purpose to locate and find obs for the students of the college who are out for athletics. Although the present organization was only started late last spring, it is the outcome of a similar organization of former years.

JUNIORS HOLD CLASS MEETING.

At a meeting of the junior class on last Monday nominations were held for the offices of vice president and treasurer, which were left vacant this fall. The following people were nominated for the offices:

Vice president, Helen Haller, MEd-red Forrest.

Treasurer, Carrol Donohoe, Walter Kennedy.

An editor for the 1922 Annual was discussed, but due to the absence of many of the members of the class it was deemed advisable not to have any nominations for this office at the meeting. Minor Holliday, the editor-elect, has not returned to school, which has left this place vacant. It is expected that work will begin on the book as soon as an editor is elected.
