

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS CONVE

Third Annual Young Men's Vocational Conference to be Held Here Early Next Month.

To assist young men in the high schools of Montana in solving some of the problems of their future vocations, the third Young Men's Vocational Conference will be held at the State College from January 9 to 13 next. It is believed that the attendance at this conference will exceed all former conference records.

It is estimated that 75 per cent of the young men who graduate from high schools in Montana have no definite idea about their future vocations or professions. Many enter college with no professional destination in view, and many of them decide upon their college course only when reaching Bozeman on registration day. The vocational conference which will bring these young men to Bozeman is destined to prevent many of the young men from entering college courses for which they are not fitted or from taking up vocations which really do not appeal to them.

The young men students from these high schools will hear discussions on engineering, medicine, law, dentistry, chemistry, agriculture, business, forestry, teaching, government service and banking and general merchandising. Prominent men who have made a success in these professions throughout the nation will appear on the program.

The high school men will receive instruction on the college campus during the four days from 9 a. m. to 11 p. m., with brief intermissions for meals and entertainment. Each young man will take notes in such a way that he can make a definite report to his school. Plenty of entertainment will be provided. There will be receptions, dances, college basketball games, college stunts, and other forms of recreation.

Special railroad rates are allowed for this conference.

Although the meeting is designed principally for the young men in the senior classes of high schools, young men from other classes and young men not in high school are invited and urged to attend this conference.

BOBCATS TO PLAY 16 GAMES, 8 HERE

Although no official basketball schedule has been agreed upon, it is probable that the following will be the line of games for the coming season. During the week the letters of approval will be received from the various colleges concerned, and some changes may be made necessary. The dates requested that have been sent from the athletic office are as follows:

- Utah A. C. at Bozeman, January 13-14.
- Columbus Independents at Bozeman, January 17.
- Montana Mines at Bozeman, January 20-21.
- U. of M. at Missoula, January 27-28.
- St. Charles at Bozeman, February 7.
- Montana Mines at Butte, February 18-14.
- Gonzaga at Spokane, February 15.
- Spokane A. A. C., at Spokane, February 16.
- U. of Idaho at Boise, February 17-18.
- U. of M. at Bozeman, February 24-25.

This makes a total of 16 games to be played by the varsity quintet during the season, half of these being on the home floor.

The varsity squad will be picked after the class series comes to a close and will start practice immediately. The real training, however, will come upon the return to school at the beginning of the second quarter.

William Gonser and Richard Hart, who are representatives of Great Falls at the Y. M. C. A. convention in Bozeman, are guests of Omega Beta during the week.

Tournament Committee, at State College, Redivide the Districts of the State Making 9 Districts Instead of 8 As Formerly.

For the eleventh annual Inter-scholastic Basketball Tournament next spring, the tournament committee at the State College has proposed a division of the state into nine districts. M. S. C. DIRECTORY AVAILABLE SOON

Students Publish Book Which Contains Complete Directory of Student Body and Faculty

A complete campus directory will be on sale on the campus before the closing of college for the holidays. This is an entirely new innovation at Montana State, no directory having ever been published before. Increased registration has, however, made the student directory a necessity, and the volume should be well received by the student body.

The new book, which will be of vest pocket size, is being edited by Ray Cameron, '22, and Buster Atterbury, '23, and will contain a complete record of each student, including home address, local address, and class. One section will be devoted to faculty members, with their complete addresses listed. The back section of the book will contain a complete directory of student class officers and student organization officers.

The work of assembling the information for the directory has been going on for some time now, the editors meeting with considerable difficulty because of the fact that no like book has been put out on the campus in the past. The book as planned at present will be a complete student directory and will fill an important place on the campus. The books will be available to the students before the closing of classes this quarter, and will sell for 25 cents.

Thursday evening Mrs. Montgomery was a dinner guest at the Pi Phi house.

BASKETBALL.

The S. A. E. five practically cinched the title in the Organization League last Tuesday, when they defeated their nearest competitors, the Sigma Chis, 24 to 18. The game was a thriller from the first whistle to the last. It afforded plenty of excitement for the rooters who gathered to witness the classic struggle of the race honors for the hill. The game was featured with clean playing throughout, and sportsmanship was the word during the game. Jorgenson had a hard job in refereeing the hoop battle, but met all problems satisfactorily, and both sides were contented with the officiating done. The only mar on the game was the fact that Bruce Hollister was hurt during the second half. Bruce's ankle was hurt during an exciting struggle for the ball. He was put on crutches for a couple of days, but the tender ankle is rapidly healing and he will soon be able to appear on the local court again.

Robertson, S. A. E., was high point man in the game, he being able to add 12 points to his team's score.

The summary:

Sigma Chi (18) —Pos. S. A. E. (24)
McDonald Cogswell
Right forward.

Fox Beckley
Left forward.

Whitney Robertson

Hollister Dean
Right guard.

Richards Hatfield

B. E. 17; Short Course 6.

Wednesday evening saw the defeat of the Short Course five by the Beta Epsilon quintet by a score of 17 to 8.

The game was rather slow throughout, with the B. E.'s holding the upper hand all the time. The summary:

B. E. (17) Position. S. H. (8).

White Buttleman
Right forward.

Rivines Lee
Left forward.

McGuinn Helmer
Center.

Haugland Hough
Right guard.

McKenzie Rhea

Referee—McCarren.

Umpire—Graves.

Field goals—White 5, Rivines, McGuinn, Haugland, Hough, Helmer 2.

Free throws—White, Helmer 2.

Barbs Lose to O. B.'s.

The O. B.'s added another victory to their credit Thursday evening, when they came out on top of the Barbs with a 40 to 12 score.

The Omega Betas gained control at the start and were never in danger. The only question in the minds of the spectators was what the score would finally be.

McCarren and Jorgenson tied for first honors at making field goals, with 7 each, but Jorgenson shot two free throws, thus enabling him to be high man of the one-sided affair.

The summary:

O. B. (40) Position. Barbs (12).

McCarren Hirsch

Jorgenson Allevato

STATE COLLEGE GETS FIVE MEN ON ALL-STATE

Walter Scott Places MacCarren and Robertson on First Team and Morphe, Mashin and Asbury on Second—Morphey Also Chosen for All-Conference Second String Tackle.

Five football men of this college have been placed on the all-state teams by Walter T. Scott, sports writer for the Anaconda Standard and highest authority on football in Montana. Of the five, Ray McCarren, quarterback, and Eugene Robertson, guard, were selected for the first team and Lloyd Morphe, John Mashin, end, and F. A. Asbury, center for the second.

Ray McCarren, all-state quarterback and captain-elect of next year's team, may well be called the "biggest little" football man in the state. Only 130 pounds in weight, he has repeatedly proved his ability to forward-pass, kick, and carry the ball for gains against much heavier men, an ability which makes him a triple threat to opposing teams. When it came to running back punts he was not surpassed by any man in the state. He played the headiest game at quarter that has been witnessed in the state this season.

Eugene Robertson has served on the varsity for three years and has been for the third time selected as all-state guard. There is good reason for this as the "Gob" is the fastest man on the charge of all line men in the state. Not only is he aggressive on the offense but on the defensive he has always been a tough proposition for the enemy to handle, few gains being made through his section of the line.

In the selection of the all-state stars Lloyd Morphe was placed on the second team. His name also appears in the line-up of the second All-Conference team, picked from the Mountain states. This is "Pat's" fourth season on the varsity and the second year as captain of the Bobcats. In his position at left tackle he has been pitted against the best men in the state and has shown himself to be undoubtedly the strongest of them all.

John Mashin was all-state end last year and placed on the second team this season. Although he did not play the style of game he did last year, due largely to injuries received early in the season, he always showed the ability to "get his man," no matter where he was.

F. A. Asbury, playing his second season on the varsity, was selected as second all-state center. "Fats" is an accurate passer and backs up the line like a veteran. He played a steady, aggressive game at all times and according to many critics was the best center in the state.

MORPHEY ALL-CONFERENCE TACKLE.

Lloyd Morphe, better known on the campus as "Pat," captain of this past season's football squad, has added another star to the name of Montana State in athletics, through earning a tackle position on the Rocky Mountain Conference All-Star second string. Coach Romney of Utah Ag. College, who picked the team, expressed his admiration of Morphe's playing in the Utah game at Logan, and made the assertion that such playing throughout the season merited All-Conference selection. Though this was the only opportunity Romney had of seeing Morphe in action, he has evidently followed his work for the season, with the result that the captain of the Montana State Bobcats has come in for recognition.

BOZEMAN TO HAVE NEW STREET CAR

Milwaukee Officials Say That New Car is Now in Deer Lodge Waiting to be Sent to This City.

A new street car for Bozeman! That is the information which comes from Milwaukee officials regarding the rumor that has been current for some time in respect to the replacing of the present street car.

"It is impossible to say when the new car will be here," stated one Milwaukee official yesterday. "It is being constructed at the Milwaukee shops at Deer Lodge now. I do not expect it will be ready for service here until spring."

The car now handling the business has been in service since the road was built several years ago, by C. W. Anderson. At first the road was just an interurban line handling business between Bozeman and Salesville. Later the Milwaukee took over the line and connected with it at Bozeman Hot Springs.

A report from Deer Lodge states that the car which will replace the one in operation is practically completed.

FACULTY CONCERT TO BE HELD TONITE

The third faculty concert will be given tonight at the State College. Besides the solo numbers of Mr. Howard, Miss Hadley and Miss Byram, there will be three numbers by the Business Men's Glee Club of the city. In all ways it will be the most interesting and worth while program offered in music at the college this year.

College students are invited especially to attend this concert. While hundreds of townspeople are attracted to each concert, student attendance has not been as large as it should be. Mr. Howard is giving these concerts with an idea of contributing to the pleasure and musical instruction of the student body. The analytical talks before each program are especially for students who like music and who are learning musical appreciation during college years. He asks that students attend the concert, coming early enough that the crowd of visitors from the city will not crowd them from the assembly hall.

Following is tonight's program:

Analytical remarks by Mr. Howard.

Sonata, F Major, violin and piano

Beethoven

Tema con Variazioni Mozart

Mr. Howard and Miss Byram.

Aria, "O Don Fatale" Verdi

Miss Hadley.

COLLEGE SICK FUND USEFUL

D. B. Swingle Explains What the Sick Fund Is Used for and How Students may Make Use of it.

There seems to be a great deal of misunderstanding among the students, particularly the freshmen, as to the operation of our student sickness fund.

The following explanation of the working of that fund has been given to this paper by Prof. D. B. Swingle, chairman of the health committee:

Some students appear not to understand the regulations under which their bills will be paid in cases of illness, and unless the student does his part properly the health committee will be obliged to reject his bill. (Continued on Page Four.)

REGISTRATION DEC. 20 TO 22

All Old Students Must Complete Registration, Including the Payment of Fees, by the Time College Closes, Noon on Thursday, December 22.

In the past a great amount of time has been lost and much confusion has resulted from the registration of students at the beginning of the winter quarter. In order to avoid this registration of students now attending college will take place on examination days, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, December 20, 21, and 22. College closes Thursday noon, December 22, and all registration must be completed by that time. No registration will be considered complete until all fees are paid. Fees for the winter quarter will include only deposits and fees in such courses as require laboratory work and hospital fee, as the registration fee, activity fee, and library fee apply for the full nine months. Failure of students to complete their registration by noon Thursday, December 22, means that they will be charged the late registration fee.

In order to register, the procedure will be to, first, report to your class advisor at his office and secure from him a registration card giving a list of your studies. It would be a good plan to work out your schedule before registration days, as a considerable amount of time could be saved in this manner. Schedules and schedule cards may be obtained at the Registrar's office. Second, present your registration card to the registration committee in the registrar's office for approval. Third, pay your fees at the secretary's office.

January 3 has been set aside for the registration of new students only. Regular college instruction begins Tuesday morning, January 3, for the winter quarter.

By this plan, Registrar Wilson hopes to have classes running full force Tuesday morning, and avoid the confusion that has been so prevalent at the beginning of the winter quarter.

'HECK'S PUPS' IN GREAT DEMAND

All the old students on the Hill will remember Miss Ada Jones and her famous "Heck's Pup." This toy was invented by Miss Jones about two years ago. Since then many of them made up in hand-painted form have been sold in Bozeman and a few in the east. "Heck's Pup" made such a hit from their first appearance that Miss Jones was encouraged to apply for a patent on them. This patent was granted last year and the toy is now being made by one of the largest toy manufacturers in the United States. It will be impossible for the factory to fill all the orders for this toy which have been made for this year's holiday season. A large number of "Heck's Pups" are expected to be in Bozeman for the holiday sales.

Miss Jones completed three years' work in the art department at Montana State College, and is now specializing in cartooning at an art school in Chicago. Miss Jones has unusual talent for cartooning. It is due to the success of the "Heck's Pups" investment that it has been possible for Miss Jones to continue her education in the east.

HOME EC STUDENTS HEAR MISS WEIGLEY

On Saturday morning Miss Mildred Weigley of the Minnesota University gave a very interesting lecture to the Home Economics students of the college. Miss Weigley's talk was principally an explanation of the American Home Economics Association and the benefits which are derived from the association. The local club received many ideas on helping to advance Home Economics nationally. Miss Weigley is making a tour of the western states in the interest of the American Home Economics Association of which she is regional counselor.

REPORTERS BEING SELECTED BY COMPETITION

IN THIS, its last issue of the year 1921, The Exponent extends its heartiest wishes for a most joyous Christmas and a very happy and enjoyable New Year to the students, the faculty, the alumni, the advertisers, and all the friends of Montana State College. May the coming year be a most successful one for the Greater University of Montana and all those who are working in its behalf.

BOYS' VOCATIONAL CONFERENCE.

For four days, commencing January 9th, many high school boys of the state will be guests of Montana State College. These boys will be sent from high schools in all parts of the state and will have to be cared for, as far as rooms are concerned, by the fraternities, townspeople and individuals.

It seems to us that this is a time when we, the students of Montana State College can do much to make the sojourn of these men a very pleasant one. To do this even more effectively it would be very well if each student, while at home during the holidays, would get in touch with the delegates from his town and see if there is not something that could be done to make his trip and his stay here pleasant as well as profitable.

The officers of the conference will see that the visit at the college is profitable for all the young men in attendance. It is up to the students to make it pleasant.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.

The Exponent staff wish to announce through this space that there will be no issue of The Exponent next Tuesday. The staff regrets that we cannot furnish the students with a paper on this, the last Tuesday of this quarter, but since at that time the staff will have to take examinations along with the rest of the students on the hill we feel that it is impractical if not impossible to publish an Exponent at that time.

WHY IS A GOLOSH?
SCIENTISTS GIVE ANSWER

What is regarded as an important contribution to scientific discovery on the subjects of customs has been contributed by Prof. H. O. Cuspocus, of the Little School of Applied Psychology Around the Corner, here, explaining why girls go about the streets with their overshoes un-led, a habit which has been exciting other amusement or curiosity or wonder during the recent stormy period. In a learned paper on the subject, Prof. H. O. Cuspocus says:

"It is for the same reason that they pluck their eyebrows, abbreviate their skirts, wear more war-paint than a Sioux chief, smoke cigarettes, buy fur coats which they can't afford, dance congo-like ad infinitum. For the same reason that they used to wear hour-glass corsets, bustles, puff sleeves, hoop-skirts, faint at public gatherings et cetera."

And catching his second wind, the learned professor adds, gravely, that it also is "for the identical reason that the Chinese women cripple their feet, penitentes torture themselves, and the Flatheads used to compress the heads of their infants into pyramidal shapes, and all other races and tribes do things just as silly—always have and always will. Just because it's the fashion, that's all.

The learned professor's views have however, been challenged by another eminent savant of the psychology school, Prof. Jimbales, who has a more normal view of the goloshes mystery. Prof. Jimbales says, rebutting the views of Prof. H. O. Cuspocus:

"It may not be amiss to say that the goloshes custom originated among high school or college girls, the upper class girls requiring the fresher to buckle the shoes, and leaving them open as a sign that the latter had the job before them and were to be duly humbled in its performance."

—Great Falls Tribune.

Marriages are scarce in this town of Bozeman. And from all appearances they will continue to be scarce for some time to come. The entire world is facing the same condition. We stumbled across the probable reason for it all the other day. Here it is: "With the much-prophesied advent of the long skirt, knock knees and bow-legs may be gone, but they will never be forgotten by this generation of observing males. Is this the answer?"

Mary Baldwin, on hearing of Joe DeHart's engagement, says that something is affecting the whole chapter. As a afterthought, she adds, "And, Oh, girls, I have a date with Hollis tonight."

John Wylie says that the only difference between being engaged and being sick is that when you are engaged you are glad of it, and when you are sick you aren't.

Marie Moebus says that Ruby Hotchkiss was always an inspiration to her. When Ruby taught in Butte High, Marie used to sit and look at her Alpha O. pin and her O. B. pin and wonder and wonder. It makes us wonder, too.

"What's the difference between a current and a raisin?"
"You get a shock out of a current, but you get a kick out of a raisin."

When the students in Home Ec. cast their bread upon the waters, they firmly hope that it will return in the form of a wedding cake.

If you want to see some suspicious looking bottles, examine the window behind the desk in the college library.

She—I hate anyone who is conceited.
He—That's me.

Ducky—Will you give me a bite of your candy?
Fox—Sure.
Ducky—What's the matter with it?

"I never know what to do with my week-end."

Why not wear your hat on it?

The Boy—Who are you laying for?
The Girl—What kind of a chicken do you think I am, anyway?

Professor Owens—Estimate the population of the Philippines.
Fox—Before or after prohibition?

Tell us, Dixie, why is a dormitory, anyway?

She—What is a technical name for snoring?

He—I don't know.
She—Sheet music.

Club Waiter—Where is the plate I served your pie on?

Torchy—Plate? Why, I thought that was the under crust, and ate it!

Stanford has a new way for getting rid of bothersome wives. Ask him about it.

TOAST TO THE CHAPERONE.
Here's to the chaperone,
May she learn from Cupid
Just enough blindness
To be sweetly stupid.

Helen C.—I believe I'll take a Sweetheart Sundae.
Waitress (to Phat)—Will you have a Sweetheart, too?
Phat—No, thanks; I already have one.

Big Mac—(Passing fish hatchery with Peg L.)—"Would you like a fish?"
Peg—"No, I'm quite satisfied now."

Of all the things I'd hate to be beneath the shining sun, I think a popular girl would be the worst one. How some girls fail to get tired of the eternal male is more than we can see. Some of them don't get a chance to talk to any of their own sex from breakfast in the morning till ten thirty at night. If it isn't one man, it's two, and then it's two more. The only reason that we can see why they don't tire of it is the eternal vanity of that gender.

The next play that the club puts on will be "The Melting Pot," and a large tryout is expected. Everyone interested in dramatics and who wished for a place was asked to hand in his name before last Thursday. Hitherto a great amount of interest has been shown by all of the students and it is hoped that this interest will not die out in the future. Tryouts for this play will be held Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The club expects to make "The Melting Pot" the best play that has been put on so far, and in order to it is necessary.

SOC NOTES

Friday evening of this week the college women at Hamilton Hall entertained their friends at a delightful informal dancing party. The hall was very beautifully decorated with Christmas trees and evergreen boughs, and this idea was further carried out in the Christmas favors. Excellent music was furnished and punch was served throughout the evening.

Sigma Chi fraternity entertained at an informal dancing party at Three Bear Inn, Saturday night of this week. Four bobsleds were used to take the party out. SICK FUND.

There is a full set of rules governing the student sickness fund, but special attention is here called to these three:

1. Except in emergency, the student must consult the college nurse, Mrs. McCray, before calling a doctor.
2. The student must pay the bill himself and present a receipt to the health committee through Mrs. McCray before the end of the quarter.
3. The health fund will then reimburse the student for as much of the expense as the fund can afford. There is not enough in the fund to pay 10 per cent of every bill, and what there is will be divided on a proportional basis at the end of the quarter. Bills not in by that time will be disallowed.

If you want a Xmas gift for any one of the home folks, one that all members of the family will enjoy, see our west window. Make your selection early. We will send it home for you.

The Sigs. won their last game of the series Saturday afternoon by defeating the Barbs to the tune of 17 to 11.

The game was a slow one, and at one time during the contest the Barbs were but one basket behind and at the same time going strong. The Sigs. snapped out of it, however, and came through with a margin of three baskets.

AN OPPORTUNITY.

The course, "A Survey of the Religions of the World," that has been announced by the student pastor for the next quarter, will offer a splendid opportunity for the students of the college to become acquainted with the essential conceptions of the leading religions. As a matter of culture alone, one cannot afford to pass out of college without giving some attention to such a vital matter. Add to that the stimulus that such a course brings to one's own religious thinking and the value of the study becomes most evident.

A meeting of those interested will be held at the beginning of the quarter to arrange for a time for the course.

Y. W. C. A. MEETING.

Over fifty young women attended the Y. W. C. A. meeting held in the assembly hall last Wednesday evening. President Helen Bazzoff presided. A very effective and beautiful candlelight service was used in recognition of the new members. The Y. W. C. A. now has about 115 members. However, the membership campaign is still in operation and girls are invited to join at any time.

The organization is now planning their holiday work. A number of young men and women will visit the poor farm on Christmas morning to sing Christmas carols for the old people who live in this home. They are also planning to provide some needy family with a large Christmas basket.
