

Bobcats Win Two Gridiron Games

Billings Athletics Loose To Montana State Eleven

"Bonecrusher" Bowden Makes Big Gains Through Visitors' Line—Final Count 46-6.

The battling Bobcats started the football season last Tuesday by running up a score of 46 to 6 against the Billings Athletic Club team.

Several close followers of the sport expressed themselves as favorably impressed with this early showing of the team. Those who had seen last year's squad in action declared that the present team was rounding into shape more rapidly than the 1921 Bobcats. The line resisted the attempts of the Billings backs to penetrate it and opened up some big holes on the offensive. The backfield men got most of their plays off in good shape and were generally on the job to stop plays that got past the line-men. There was some slow play and sloppy tackling, and other faults that crop out in early season games. However, the general impression of the crowd was that the Bobcats will bring home their pound of bear flesh this year, if the improvement over last year already evinced continues until the end of the season.

No individual Bobcat stood out very far above his fellows. "Bonecrusher" Bill Bowden was a steamroller on the offensive, being responsible for respectable gains straight through the line almost every time he was called upon. Bryan shared stellar honors with Bowden with good gains around the ends and by pretty open field running. McCarren played his usual steady game at quarter, while Hannon at right guard was strong on both offense and defense.

The college men resorted to plays through the line for most of their gains. This was interspersed with forward passes at opportune times, several of which were responsible for good gains, two going over for touchdowns. Billings learned early in the game that plays directed against the Bobcat line were almost hopeless, and they resorted to a great number of passes, a few of which were completed for good gains, one resulting in their only tally after a nice catch and long run by Hickman.

Special Train Nov. 11

Committee Will Get "Dope" on Those Who Are Able to Go to Missoula.

At the last meeting of the Student Senate a special committee was appointed to make arrangements for a special train to Missoula for the football game on Armistice Day, November 11. This committee is composed of "Corp" Bowen, chairman, Earl Kelley and Charles Lyndon.

It is the plan of this committee to canvass the student body of the college and the business men of Bozeman to get, as nearly as possible, an exact count of those who are sure they can go to Missoula for the big game of the year. The committee also desires the names of those who think they can go, but are not sure. This is necessary in order to obtain the minimum of 125 passengers required by the railroad company before they will schedule a special train. The fare for the round trip will be $10.35, which is the regular one-way fare and one-third.

At an early date coupons will be sold by members of the committee which will later be exchanged for railroad tickets. There is a possibility that a lower rate may be obtained if it becomes obvious that a much greater number than required to schedule the train is obtained.

The Senate emphatically decided that hobnobbing on this train would be positively prohibited for two reasons: First, that it will make it detrimental to obtain special rates from the railroad for future occasions, and second, the Senate does not want part of the student body to sponge off those who have made the train possible.

FRESHMEN PAINT "M" ON THURSDAY

Holiday for Remainder of College Community While Class of '26 Gives Letter Coat of White.

All class work will be discontinued Thursday, October 12, in order that the freshmen may give the huge "M" on Mount Baldy its annual coat of whitewash. The painting of this enormous letter on Columbus Day is probably the best established college tradition at M. S. C.

This customary procedure started in the fall of 1914, when the class of 1918, to whom the credit for the presence of the structure on the mountainside should be given, laid out the foundation for the letter, placed the stones and gave them their first coat of paint. This task involved a large amount of work, but the students were equal to the occasion and labored diligently all day. In spite of their superb efforts, night overtook them with the task incomplete. President Hamilton willingly gave them another holiday soon after, during which time they finished the construction of the largest letter of its kind in the world. All M. S. C. pays tribute to this group, for its noble work, and each fall the incoming class has repainted the stone structure, with varying degrees of perfection. The "M" is 150 feet by 250 feet, and

FROSH TROUNCE GALLATIN HIGH

Doc Jones' Freshmen Wallop Gallatin High 82-0.—Show Clever Work on End Runs—Gallatin Fights to Finish.

Doc Jones' freshmen proved too much for Gallatin High last Saturday, by scoring almost at will, and at the same time keeping their own goal line safe from attack. The frosh showed themselves superior in every department of the game, shifting especially on end runs and forward passing. Gallatin has one star in Wylie, who was the only man who could gain through the frosh line. The final score stood 82 to 0.

The first touchdown came shortly after the whistle. The freshmen kicked off to Gallatin. Wylie punted after three attempts at the line had failed. DeWald returned the punt 15 yards, and Babe Myers circled the end for 31 yards and a touchdown. Myers missed goal. From then on Myers, Romney and DeWald circled the Gallatin ends for a first touchdown and then a touchdown. Gallatin bucked the line a few times and then punted repeatedly.

Doc Jones sent in the entire second squad in the second quarter, and they equaled the four touchdowns made by the first string. Benton and Bob Myers repeatedly showed their heels to the entire field for long runs.

Gallatin showed more opposition in the second half, and the frosh had to hit the line harder and oftener for each touchdown. Gallatin opened up some nice forward passing and had the freshmen guessing several times.

The Myer twins, Benton and Romney were the stars of the freshman team, while Wylie was the whole Gallatin eleven. The freshmen made 986 yards from scrimmage, and the High School 51. The High School made 4 first downs and the frosh 20. Gallatin completed 7 out of 21 passes for 48 yards, and the frosh completed 4 out of 13 passes for 83 yards. Gallatin punted 11 times for 290 yards, and the frosh only once for 11 yards.

WOMEN'S FRATS NAME PLEDGES

Pledge Day October 7—Closed Rushing Season—Special Rules Govern Pledging Women.

Saturday, October 7, as Pledge Day, marked the end of a very busy rush period for the women's fraternities at Montana State College. According to the custom of preferential bidding which has been established, rush week began Thursday, September 28, the day after registration, and closed Friday, October 6, at 12 o'clock, when Silence Period began. This period extended until Saturday at 1 o'clock, when each girl which had received a bid from a fraternity appeared before Mr. Keister, a local attorney, and made her choice of fraternity. Following, the girls appeared at the various fraternity houses. A sort of precedent was established this year when the two days of registration, September 26 and 27, were closed to rushing of any sort, and no fraternity girl was permitted to wear her pin on the campus.

Following is a list of the pledges of the women's fraternities at Montana State College:

Alpha Omicron Pi—Alta Atkinson, Vancouver, B. C.; Elizabeth Border, Bozeman; Violet Nye, Livingston; Helen Patterson, Fort Benton; Ruth Walker, Great Falls.

Chi Omega—Thelma Berryman, Billings; Margaret Byrne, Belgrade; Mabel Ruth Caldwell, Powell, Wyo.; Nellie Cecil, Bozeman; Marguerite Evans, Forsyth; Rhoda Harris, Butte; Lillian Knapp, Big Timber; Eulalia Tweed, Lewistown.

Iota Delta—Lillian Barry, Anaconda; June Burke, Anaconda; Julia Hoem, Butte; Jessica Kremer, Laurel; Thelma McNall, Bozeman; Alice Rorvick, Circle; Helen White, Bozeman.

Pi Beta Phi—Katherine Andrews, Trident; Elva Ayler, Evelyn Ayler, Greencastle, Ind.; Maxine Cameron, Bozeman; Ella Clark, Bozeman; Margaret Connors, Townsend; Mary McDonald, Great Falls; Mary Patten, Bozeman; Virginia Pollard, Red Lodge; Mildred Roberts, Anaconda; Lucile Rohrer, Bozeman; Margaret Williams, Radersburg.

Zeta Kappa—Dorothy Beatty, Bozeman; Elsie Graves, Glendive; Lola Hays, Bozeman; Margaret Shaw, Gardiner; Julia Snyder, Helena; Adena Watson, Bozeman.

NOTICE.

Beginning today, October 10, and ending Saturday, October 21, there will be a competition for the position of staff photographer on the Montanan staff.

Anyone wishing particulars of the competition should see Dick Ross as soon as possible, since the contest will be of such short duration.

UTAH RALLY.

There will be an official rally on Thursday night to work up pep for the Utah game the following day. Let's all turn out and show the team that we are still behind them and that we expect them to bring home the bacon. Rally will start at 7 o'clock at the Emerson school.

Blue and Gold Takes One From Mount St. Charles

Smash Opponents for 26-3 Victory and Show Good Work in First and Last Quarters.—Most of Old Fight Lost.

The Bobcats defeated the Mount St. Charles aggregation by a score of 26 to 3 last Saturday, in a game that was lacking the old Bobcat fight. The M. S. C. eleven scored one touchdown in the first quarter, and the remaining three in the final period, while the Saints scored their three points by a drop kick in the second quarter.

The game opened with both sides using the kicking game. Keane did the toe work for the Saints, and Scotty McDonald used his educated toe for the Bobcats. Keane had the advantage of the wind, and outdistanced the local punter in the several kicks that took place. Both teams then settled down to straight football, with an occasional pass, and the ball moved from side to side until the very last part of the period. The Blue and Gold eleven then took the ball down the field to the one-yard line with line plunges, a couple of end runs and three complete passes. Bill Bowden, the husky fulback, then made the first score of the game by taking the ball over the line at the end of the quarter.

Mount St. Charles outplayed the locals in all departments of the game during the second quarter. Kicking constituted the first part of the period, but soon after play had started the Saints settled down to real football tactics, and by means of line plunges and some forward passes took the pigskin to the M. S. C. 30-yard line. From this point Keane scored the only points for St. Charles with a pretty drop kick. The remaining part of the quarter was in St. Charles' favor, but they were unable to get the ball close enough to the goal to make any more points. McCarren in a sensational run returned Keane's 30-yard punt 25 yards and the St. Charles danger was over.

When the teams returned for the third quarter the Saints again threatened, and the M. S. C. goal was in danger. The Bobcat fight was weak, the same as in the previous period, but by condition of better condition on the part of the local eleven, and a determination to play Romney football, the line held, and again the ball came into possession of the Bobcats. No scores were tallied during this quarter.

Montanan Staff Selected

Charles Schurch, Editor, Makes Appointments and Begins Activities on 1922 Book.

That the staff of the 1922 Montanan had been chosen and that work already had been started on the book was the announcement yesterday of Charles Schurch, editor-in-chief. By starting work so early, the staff hopes to be certain of getting the Annual out before the end of the spring quarter.

In order to center responsibility, a small staff has been appointed, though later those that show sufficient ability and interest in the work may be chosen. In particular, assistants on the art staff will be needed and a competition for positions on this staff will be announced shortly.

"We want this to be a Montana State College Annual," said the editor in speaking of the year book, "and to make it such the staff must have the co-operation of the whole student body. Fraternities and other groups on the hill especially can help immensely by getting their pictures and write-ups in on time."

The staff is composed of the following:

Editor-in-chief, Charles Schurch.
Assistant editor-in-chief, Charles Lyndon.
Associate editor, Dick Ross.
Business manager, Leslie Gilbert.
Assistant business manager, Stewart Avery.
Feature editor, Peg Conkling.
Calendar editor, Ed Bunney.
Co-ed editor, Eleanor Marston.
Athletic editor, Walter Kennedy.
Art editor, Gordon Cottier.

UNDERCLASS MIX TO BE SATURDAY

Flag Rush First Event for Afternoon Contests—Sack Race—Frog Pond Pull Closes Hostilities.

Final hostilities between the freshman and sophomore classes will terminate Saturday afternoon when the official underclass mix is scheduled.

The opening match will be the flag rush. For ten minutes, teams picked from the two classes will struggle to remove their opponents flag from the pole, while leaving their own flag to wave supreme over the field.

Following the flag rush the sack race will be staged. Twenty-five sacks filled with dirt will be strung along the 50-yard line on the football field, and opposing teams will attempt to get the majority of the sacks under their own goal post. Each team will line up under their respective posts, and when the signal is given will start the work of getting a "corner" on the number of sacks. The team having the most sacks at the end of the scrap period will be judged the winner.

Last on the program between the underclass men will be the frog pond pull. Opposing teams of equal numbers and approximately equal weight will attempt to pull their rivals through the slimy waters of the pond. This event completes the hostilities between the freshmen and sophomores.

Frosh Tackle Anaconda High Here on Saturday

Kittens Have Edge on Dope—Anaconda High Reported to Have Fast, Hard-Hitting Team.

The fast little Bobkitten eleven will tangle with the Anaconda high school team here next Saturday afternoon. There is not much known about the Anaconda outfit, but in football circles the reports are that although the Bobkittens will have a hard game, they should score a decisive victory. The expectations are that the M. S. C. yearlings will outclass the high school boys in every department of the game, and if they play the same brand of ball that they played against Gallatin they should meet no difficulty in running up a large score.

Benton, speedy little quarter, will probably be at the head of the Frosh team and Boy Meyer at halfback. This pair was responsible for the majority of the points scored in the Gallatin game and it has been a long time since such fast men have been seen on a Frosh football team at the college.

Shorthill, a new man at fullback, is developing rapidly and should be able to give the Anaconda boys something to think about. The game will be the only game in Bozeman next Saturday and should draw a large crowd of football fans.

Bobcats Tangle With Utah Aggies Friday

Team From South Reported to Have Strong Line-Up—Brothers Coach Opposing Teams.

The Utah Aggie eleven will invade Bozeman next Friday to give the Bobcats one of their hardest games of the season. The game will be particularly interesting from several standpoints.

Utah has a pair of the best tackles in the Rocky Mountain conference in the persons of Maun and Croft, and it is understood that they are determined to stop the Bobcat offensive. Captain Conroy, famous end from Utah, will also be with the team from the south. Knowles, the heavy fullback, will be the running-mate for Bowden, and an interesting contest should develop between these men. They are both the same type of player, and when the Utah man and our local "bone-crusher" meet there will be an interesting struggle.

Perhaps one of the most interesting parts of the contest is that brothers will be coaching the opposing teams. Coach Dick Romney will invade his brother Ott's field to contest for honors. Both the Romneys are good coaches and have enviable reputations. This will be the first contest that they have sent opposing teams on the field.

TO THE PLEDGES.

In last week's issue of the Exponent were published the names of the men who have been pledged to the Greek letter men's fraternities, and in this week's columns may be found the names of the new pledges to the Greek letter women's fraternities. Congratulations, pledges, we wish you well. A college fraternity is a fine and noble thing. There are no organizations quite like a fraternity anywhere except on a college campus. We hope you have given the proposition careful consideration and have allowed yourself to be affiliated with a group of your type and liking.

But with these congratulations we would like to take the liberty of offering a bit of advice. For certain reasons you have been chosen from among your classmates. By reason of circumstances the majority of your fellow students will go through college without a fraternity affiliation. Many of them will be more worthy than you. Don't be led to believe that the fact that you are pledged to such-and-such an organization will "get you by" with your fellow students. It may help when you are around your own fraternity house, but when you are on the hill you must "deliver the goods." While in your homes be loyal to your orders, but when on the campus, forget your fraternity differences and pull together for your Alma Mater. Ask yourself this question: "Am I a loyal pledge to M. S. C.?"

Students at Montana State College are judged by their personal characteristics and abilities, not by the pin they wear on their coat lapel.

HAZING.

With the active struggle for tonsorial supremacy between the two underclasses having ceased on Saturday night and with the class mix officially completed by next Saturday night the hazing period will be over for this year. The freshmen will be duly initiated members of Montana State College, and will be ready, along with the rest of the student body, to take up matters of a more serious nature.

The commotion of the congested conglomeration of closely accumulated opening society functions has ceased, for a time, at least. The student body in general should welcome this momentary calm in the social demands of the fall season. More time will now be available for the real purpose of our coming to college, that of acquiring an education.

Perhaps the freshman, and some of the sophomores, would prefer a discontinuance of these preliminary struggles for class supremacy. However, there is much to gain and little to lose, except perhaps a few flowing locks and a few hours' sleep, during the hazing period. One of the first things for the freshman class to do when they enter the institution is to get acquainted and organized in order that they may work as a class unit. The hazing system accomplished this end very effectively and speedily. The frosh must organize if they are to be victorious in their encounters with the sophomores. They can't help but get acquainted when they are thus banded together and fighting for the same cause.

These things are accomplished during the few days of hazing period, while if the hazing were omitted entirely from the college curriculum the incoming students might never become effectually organized, at least not for several months. As long as the hazing is not carried to the extremes as in some colleges and universities, it is, and always will be an effectual means for accomplishing these ends.

Nine rabs and a tiger! Our notebook has been found, much the worse but still very serviceable. However, the moths seemed to enjoy the contents more than our readers, and we have therefore sent the remains to a S. S. paper. Holy jokes, as it were. This, then left us in a terrible predicament. What were we to do? We had given up in despair when who should arrive on the hill but our old friend, Max Nodifference, second cousin to the famous G. Howitt Hertz, from Colorado, but internationally famous spreaders when it comes to scandal.

His first question was, "Did Phat and Alice write to each other this summer?"

Did they? Well we should hope to smoke a horse's hoof, as Petey would say.

The modern college engagement is now known as a transfer, for the simple reason that you can go a little farther. At some schools they call them mush licenses. And Phat was complaining about no one loving a fat man!!!! Can you beat it?

The next step of our worthy contemporary was to instigate plans for the formation of what is commonly known as a Bonehead Club. The said club has no purpose except as pertains to the choosing of the Grand Chief Bonehead. According to the constitution of the aforementioned club this officer is chosen wholly on his merits and to become Grand Chief Bonehead one must have pulled the greatest bona fide boner during the ensuing week.

Eli now wishes to announce that the Bonehead Club has actually been formed and our first Grand Chief Bonehead is none other than the w. k. Ducky.

The following is the boner:
Mrs. Prexy: "I want you to meet Dean Herrick."

Ducky who has known Dean since

BOBCATS DEFEAT ST. CHARLES.

and the entire fourth period belonged to the Blue and Gold warriors. The better condition of the Bobcats soon told a story, and "Bonecrusher" Bowden was given the opportunity to cross the Saint line for another touchdown. From then on the ball was nearly always in the Bobcats' possession, and after a couple of passes and some good line football the Helena team was again threatened. They held, however, only to lose the ball when Hatfield intercepted a pass. McCarren then took the ball across for the third counter of the game. After a series of line plays that put the ball on the 5-yard line, Scotty McDonald made the final goal by getting through the line. The game ended shortly after with the Saints on the defense and the ball in dangerous territory.

Bill Bowden took most of the praise for the local team. He pounded the Saints' line time and time again, and his ability to regain his feet after being tripped added several yards to the Bobcat total. Bill played a good game throughout and he well earned the applause he received.

"Sas" Keane shone in the kicking department of the game for the visitors, but continual argument with the referee caused much disapproval from the sidelines. Captain Sullivan at the tackle position and Wardell at end played a good brand of football and stood out as stars for the Saint eleven.

Bryan started at the quarter position and handled the team well. He went to the half place when Fox received an injured knee, and McCarren took up his old place at the head of the pigskin men. Fox played a good brand of ball up to this point, but his injury prevented further showing. Mashin succeeded in breaking through to nail his man, and he was responsible for several gains when he received a couple of passes. Scotty McDonald did well in the kicking game, but had the disadvantage of the wind and did not get as good yardage as he might have had he been kicking from the other end of the field.

Referee Pat Kelley was on the job

1910 B. P.: "I'm pleased to meet you."

Now wasn't that a foolish thing to say? Don't laugh too loud, you may be next.

Soph Fang: "Some Frosh sure got their's today."

Frosh Girl: "What for?"

S. F.: For clipping a Soph on the campus."

F. G.: "Why didn't they clip his head?"

Now, all together boys—
"It takes a girl to do it every time!"

Also, Torchy wants to know; if a belt is a sash, what's a shasht?

Ask George Pinley, it might be what he is cultivating on his upper lip.

The above photograph is one which was taken at football practice last week. It shows clearly the size of the crowd which turns out for yell practice.

PRESIDENT ATKINSON ENTERTAINS OFFICERS

President Atkinson entertained the members of the Senate, officers of the Woman's League, Cap and Gown, Septemviri, the Spurs, and the Intercollegiate Knights at dinner at Kramer's Cafe Wednesday evening. The president stated in his talk that this year he wished all the students to know the plans from the very start, so that a surer co-operation could be secured.

Raymond Mountjoy outlined the purpose and duties of the Student as usual and handled the game to the satisfaction of all the spectators and players.

Coach Romney stated after the game that he was disappointed in the players because of their lack of fight. He commended them for the fight they showed at the very beginning of the game, but at no other time, and for their good condition which showed up during the last quarter. The coach said that he would not be satisfied with his team as long as they played the type of ball displayed during the game, and until his men can learn to run the proper kind of interference and show the old Bobcat fight he will be disappointed in them.

there are more of them to lose it. In proportion to their numbers, the Sophs have had as many men clipped as the Frosh. One man on each side walked in from the country and three Frosh have taken involuntary baths.

The fact that neither side possesses any automobiles accounts largely for the tameness of the scraps this year.

BLUE AND GOLD DANCE FRIDAY

Active Group of Septemviri to Stage Dance Night of Utah Game.

The active group of Septemviri, senior men's honorary society, will give a "Blue and Gold" dance in the drill hall next Friday evening, following the Utah game. The present guardians of traditions on the hill hope to inaugurate this as a traditional event to take place following the most important game on the home field each year.

Every adherent of the Bobcat clan will be expected to turn out for this dance to do homage to the Blue and Gold. Moreover, every Bobcat rooter and rootress will be expected to display the college colors in some prominent manner so that the ensemble will be a riot of blue and gold. While it is not intended to make this a costume dance, in order to stimulate original ideas along these lines, prizes will be offered for the two most original, clever, and generally effective displays of blue and gold worn that evening.

The dance this year will come after one of the hardest games on the schedule when a demonstration of our loyalty to the colors will go a long way to stimulate the battling Bobcats for the games that are to come. Everybody out. Let's go.

AGGIES NEXT FRIDAY.

The Utah Aggies defeated Brigham Young University by a score of 43 to 3 last Saturday, and will come here with confidence that they will win.

Coach Ott Romney in a statement to the Exponent said that he felt confident that the Bobcats would come out on the long end of the score.

The general opinion of the Blue and Gold players is that they will have a hard game, but they are all of the same opinion as the coach, and say that they will make up for the defeat they received at Logan last year.

"M" TO BE PAINTED.

is perfect in shape and symmetry. It is an object of pride to all students, alumni and faculty members of Montana State, as well as many citizens of Bozeman.

In addition to its yearly fall coat of whitewash, its appearance was greatly improved last spring when the entire student body turned out and thoroughly repainted the entire surface, after piling ton after ton of stones on the older ones. Due to this fact, the "M" is in better condition at this time than it has been for several years. However, there is always room for improvement. The thoroughness with which the frosh conduct this task each year is the first real and lasting impression the upper classmen have of them underlings. Some freshmen classes have succeeded, and others have failed miserably.

If the present freshmen class will show as much spirit and pep on the mountainside as they have thus far in their college career, the letter will again loom forth in wondrous splendor next Thursday night.

Except in the first quarter when the Saints were held at the one-yard line, the old Bobcat fight seemed lacking.

A w. k. Frosh wants to know if the inmates of Ham Hall are of the Swift variety. We wonder what he came to college for?

During the first half of the Bobkitten-Gallatin game the frosh made an average of three minutes per touchdown.

Benton seems to know how to do some nice hurdling and jumping.

Two complete teams for the Bobkittens makes things look brighter for the M. S. C. rooters.

The varsity has something to learn in the line of interference from the frosh eleven.

Doe Jones has two backfields for his yearlings, a heavy one and a light one. The heavy one does the pounding to weaken the opponents, and the light ones are fast. The idea has worked beautifully so far.

Cottam grabbed a nice pass near the end of the first half.

In the varsity game the wind helped Keane and hindered Scotty in the punting that was featured in the first part of the game.

Coach Romney's men showed good training and condition during the last part of the contest.

Mashin received a couple of pretty passes for substantial gains.

Capt. Sullivan and Wardell of the Saints eleven were the outstanding players for their team.
