BOZEMAN, MONTANA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1923

BOBCATS WILL MAKE HOME DEBUT

JUST A REASON WHY YOU HAVE LARGE CLASSES By C.

It was a class of freshmen and it was their first week there, but even the instructor was wondering where he was going to get room for them all. "How on earth will this lecture room hold them," kept racing through his mind as he began a lecture. "If many more come they'll have to sit on the floor." But a survey of the freshman lecture room in the chemistry building will convince one at a glance that there isn't much floor room left to sit on.

If you are in one of those classes that are getting bigger every minute, just remember that perhaps there might be a reason why classrooms are lying idle while instructors are forced to teach classes far in excess of the size recommended for efficient instruction. Perhaps under it all there is a fact or facts which when put together will lend a solution to the problem of crowded classrooms.

To get back to a little bit of political talk; the state legislature of Montana practically controls the funds which Montana State College operates today. A major portion of the funds of this institution come as an appropriation from the legislature. Well, the state ran out of money. At least it felt that it did, so it started cutting appropriations. The University of Montana "got it in the neck" the first round. The law makers for the Treasure State thought that the easiest place to lop off a few thousand in expenses was in the realm of higher education.

The voters of the state passed measures 18 and 19 creating a bond issue of $5,000,000 for the purpose of constructing additional buildings at the various branches of the University of Montana, and a tax levy of a mill and a half to keep up these buildings and enlarge teaching forces. We got the allotment for buildings, and now we haven't got the instructors to put them in operation as they should be. Why? The assessed valuation of the property in the state of Montana dropped a few million, so Montana State College didn't get what was originally intended for it.

But the State University, the School of Mines, and the State Normal College are each in as bad a predicament as our own institution. Everybody got it. Montana State lost some instructors, and curtailed some departments. You and I are the losers. The state saved a few dollars, but it lost some of the vital qualities in its educational system that will make themselves apparent in later years when we are called on to take charge of the affairs of our Treasure state.

Montana Staff Selected

Dick Ross, Editor, Makes Appointments and Begins Activities on 1924 Annual

Permanent appointment of several members of the staff of the 1924 Montanan has been announced by Dick Ross, editor. Keturah Tibbles will have charge of the activities section, Joe DeHart will do the art work for the book, Leonard Searles will edit the organizations section, while Dick Buckby will write the sports. Norman Banta has been made permanent staff photographer.

There are several positions to be filled yet. The associate editor, a sophomore, is still to be appointed, while assistants to the various departmental editors are to be selected.

THE BOBCAT SQUAD IN UTAH

FROSH GET SOPHS IN GRID BATTLE

Take Long End of 46-20 Score By Getting Big Lead In First Half

Making the majority of their scores in the first half the freshman football men tore their way through the sophomore ranks for a 46 to 20 victory last Saturday in a game that was featured with open field running. The freshmen started the game off by taking the ball from the kick off and after five minutes of playing time sent Babcock over for the first goal. Taking things in their own way the yearlings smashed down the field using off-tackle plays and end runs for the majority of their gains. With a stronger lineup in the second half the sophomores not only held the first year team's advance but took the aggressive and with a series of forward passes put the ball over twice.

The game started with the second-year men kicking about fifty yards and the frosh returning sixteen. In the next five minutes Babcock, Wylie and Gregory made four first downs on off tackle plays, taking the ball to the four yard line. Babcock taking the ball on the next play made the first touchdown of the game. Wilson kicked goal. Again receiving the kickoff the frosh sent Gregory over after a series of line plays and a successful 27-yard pass from Winner to Nebel.

Starting with the ball on the twenty yard line the freshmen opened the second quarter with Wylie taking six yards. Winner and Babcock added the remainder of the distance, Winner going over. After Babcock had raced 33 yards through a broken field for the last freshman score of the period Foster passed twenty yards to Hartwig who twisted 60 yards thru a broken field for the first sophomore score.

Wylie furnished another sensation of the game when he ran 68 yards scoring 30 seconds after the beginning of the second half. Wilson added three more points to the frosh score when he dropped back at the thirty yard line and scored on a place kick. A few minutes later with a 35-yard place kick Wilson added another three points. Pushing the ball over again, the frosh finished up the third quarter with a 46 to 7 score to their credit.

The sophs opened the last period with an aerial attack that the frosh could not break up. Foster passing to Hartwig three times for a total of forty yards boosted the soph's score to thirteen. McQuin, sophomore fullback, smashed thru to intercept a frosh pass and ran 53 yards for the last score of the game.

Limelight honors go to Mohris, Foster and Hartwig for the sophs. Mohris was the mainstay in the sophomore line.

DEAN!

He's The Man Who Keeps The Freshmen Straight

—By J. H. S.—

Boy Howdy! This was a real job because, you know, there's no one around here that has anything on the Dean. However, I did manage to collect a bit here and there which wasn't so bad. It seems that the Dean hails from the corn country and is what you might call, corn fed. Anyhow, he was born in Illinois and I believe the name of the town is Annapolis. Back in the country is where the Dean used to run around barefooted and go crawfishin' Gee, but those must have been the good old days the Dean played hooky and used to have to stay after school just like all of us fellows. But a kid does grow up and the Dean was no different than the rest of us.

Records show that the Dean was superintendent of schools back in Illinois; but you know, Horace Greely appealed to a lot of folks about that time and the Dean came west. He landed in Missoula and was professor of History and Economics for a few years. From Missoula the Dean came to Montana State College and became president of the institution in 1904. He was president for some fifteen years during which time he served the institution creditably well.

Kittens Leave Friday Morning For Annual Battle With Bruin Cubs

Saturday is a red-letter day in the frosh foot-ball season this fall. On that day the Bobkittens will tangle with the Bruin Cubs at Missoula for state championship in frosh football. So far the Kittens have won two of the three annual contests and indications are that they will have an even break this year.

Doc Jones and his frosh squad will leave early Friday morning and will arrive in Missoula Friday forenoon. A squad of 18 men will be picked from the freshmen squad to make the trip. Inklings dropped from the sport dope that has been coming from Missoula is to the effect that the Bobkittens will be "handled very rudely" in their coming tussel with the Cubs at the Bruin camp Saturday. So far the Kittens have won two of the three annual contests between the two yearling squads, and the Cubs are intending to win this year.

Comment that has been appearing in Missoula papers over the fray are well worth reading, especially when it is realized that the Kittens have had practically two weeks more of (Continued on Page Four)

Aggies Will Celebrate With Big Fair Saturday

ANNUAL CELEBRATION TO BE BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER — FITTING CONTESTS AND EXHIBITS DAY'S FEATURES

ALL SCHOOL DANCE AT GYM IN EVENING

Plans for the third annual Ag Day Fair, to be held next Saturday afternoon have now assumed definite form, and a successful show is assured. The exhibits prepared by the different departments of the ag college will be placed in the new pavilion (formerly the ed gym) which will be open to visitors at one P. M.

The exhibits will be in the nature of a regular county fair, the college stock and grain being fitted by the students in agriculture and shown in the same manner as in a fair. In this case, however, the stock will be judged from the standpoint of the handling and fitting, rather than the merits of the stock, or grain itself. The students who have entered the fitting contests are working in earnest and the stock which wins the blue ribbons will be in no way inferior to that which carries off the ribbons at any of the fairs of the state. Not only will there be exhibits in grain and livestock, through the handling and fitting contests, but there will be exhibits, some competitive, and some educational by the other departments of the college. There will be exhibits by the departments of Horticulture, Dairy Manufacturing, Poultry, Ag, Education, and farm management.

And last but not least will be the annual Ag Dance, which will be held in the Auxilliary gym at 9 o'clock. The old students will remember the Ag Dances of the past years, and they will be sure not to miss the Aggies entertainment this year. The public is cordially invited to all of the festivities of the day and assured that they will see a real fair in the afternoon, and be treated to a regular good time in the evening. The fair is free to all who care to attend, but a charge of seventy-five cents will be made for the dance, to cover the expenses of the day.

M. S. C. GRID WARRIORS WILL MEET DENVER U. TEAM HERE THURSDAY

D. U. is Favored by Small Margin—Bobcats are Determined. D. U. Has Fast Backfield. Romney Has Faith in The Bobcat Line... A Few M. S. C. Regulars Are Out With Injuries

Montana State football warriors will enter their second conference fray of the season when they meet the Denver University team here Thursday afternoon on the New Gaton Field. Although the sport dope points slightly in favor of D. U., the Bobcats have their minds set for the hardest battle to date and promise to give the men from Colorado a lot to think about.

RALLY RALLY RALLY

Where?—Emerson School
When?—7:00 P. M. Wed.
Why?—D. U. Game
Who?—Everybody
"Nuf Sed!"

Outweighing the Bobcat grid men ten pounds per man the Denver University eleven will come fresh from Utah where they defeated the Utah Aggies last Saturday by a score of 14 to 7.

The Denver players are bringing with them several men who learned their first principles of football in Montana. Among these are Scilley, O'Donnell and Coper from Billings. Coach Ott Romney started them in their football training when he was coach at the Billings High school. Bowman also hails from Billings, but came after Ott had left that town to go to Salt Lake to coach.

O'Donnell, Denver tackle, will do the kicking for the visitors. He holds the world's record for consecutive goal kicks with the tally recording one hundred and ten. Williams, who was All Rocky Mountain Conference half last year, is again in the line-up and his running mate, Boyd, looks even better. The visitors have used these men to great advantage in their games so far this season and will need watching by the Blue and Gold men.

The Denver U. team is making a strong bid for the conference championship this year and is considered by all teams as their greatest rivals. They have been in three games so far, coming out on top in all three. The University of New Mexico was their first victim by a score of 10 to 7. Then they defeated Regis College 13 to 0 and last Saturday beat the Utah Aggies 14 to 7.

The Bobcats have been doing their share to get in trim for the contest and after their week's rest from mither trip are in fighting spirits. When interviewed by an Exponent reporter Coach Romney had nothing to say, except that "they will be a hard team to beat."

The probable line-up of the teams follows:

Denver	Pos.	M. S. C.
Scilley	left end	Romney or Rivers
Kleinholz	left tackle	Pitt or Cowan
Platt	center	Britton
Crowell	rt. guard	McIvor or Hannon
O'Donnell	right tackle	Knight
Beal	right end	Mashin or Hartwig
Bowman	quarter	Romney
Boyd	left half	Hatfield
Williams	right half	Benton, Foster, or Cogswell
Miller	full	Macdonald or Morris

The Denver team will arrive in Bozeman tomorrow afternoon and if the train is not late they will probably go through a light work-out on the college field.

Freshmen Nominate Officers

Nominations made at Social-Meeting Friday Evening. Election Monday, Oct. 22

In a meeting of the freshman class held last Friday night in the gymnasium, the freshmen nominated officers for the year. Fol all offices except that of treasurer many were nominated. John Chamberlain was unanimously elected class treasurer. The other nominees were:

For President—
Claire Robinson
Allen Torpey
Warren Muwry
Vice-president—
John Wright
Ray Shadon

BOBCAT SPIRIT

Every year at this time there should be one thought outstanding in the mind of every M. S. C. student. Support your fighting football team! The Bobcats are fighting for Montana State and everything that it stands for and it is up to the student body to back them up. So far this fall the spirit in the student body has been low—dangerously low. But that is no reason why it must continue longer in this somnambulistical state. The biggest opportunity to let out the real Montana State spirit will come this week. The Bobcats will play their first game at home. It will be a hard game and every bit of Montana State support and spirit must go into it. Your support! Your spirit! Be a booster from here out.

Wednesday night the big rally down town should be made an event that will be remembered. There is no reason why every person registered in college cannot be out. You must be out! This is the biggest thing in your college life—don't miss it!

And again Thursday! The team is going on the field with the determination to win for Montana State. Are you going to be there to back them up with all of the spirit that you have, and more? This is all that our fighting team needs in order to win—school support. They'll have it!

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Are you an active person in the student life of Montana State? Does your college existence have more in it than just going to school? If not, why not?

College activities are a big thing and have much to offer. Surely the desire to do something hits everyone and with it the question of what to do. It is difficult to choose from the attractive programs offered by the various college organizations and judgment must be used.

No student can expect to carry a regular program satisfactorily with the college authorities and undertake too many major outside activities. It is impossible and results not only in a hardship on the part of the student but also in an injustice to the activities in question.

But that does not mean that you should keep out of everything but your classes. All of you have abilities in one direction or another. If you're musical, get into the band, the orchestra, or one of the choruses; if you can write try for a place on the Exponent; if you are an athlete, let Ott Romney know the fact. Get out and use your spare time for Montana State.

BENEPE, '20, WINS JOHN HOPKINS SCHOLARSHIP

Popular Bozeman Graduate Is Favored With Rockefeller Foundation Award

Lucien Benepe, '20, left recently for John Hopkins University where he is to pursue an advanced course under the terms of a Rockefeller Foundation Scholarship.

Mr. Benepe was a very popular student and very active in college affairs. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity and one of the members of Zeta Pi, local honorary agricultural fraternity who was most instrumental in procuring a chapter of Alpha Zeta, national honorary agricultural fraternity for Montana State College.

M. S. C. GRADUATE IS SUCCESSFUL ORGANIZER

Mr. Stanford Hannah, M. S. C. '22 conducted in Golden Valley county one of the most successful county fairs held in Montana this fall. This is the first year that this county has held a fair, and it is greatly to the credit of Mr. Hannah, who was the sponsor of the fair, that it drew record-breaking crowds, in spite of being held in the midst of the harvest season, and actually made money for the county.

Mr. Hannah has been employed in the position of Agricultural Instructor at the Reygate High School for the past year, and was so successful that he was retained for the coming year.

BATTING FOR ELI

In Our Honor Roll This

Week We Present

Wylie—Paddled for not appearing in a green cap.
Glynn—Paddled for same offense.
Livers—Paddled for same offense.
Udine—Paddled for same offense.
Clearman—Paddled for same offense.
Robinson—Paddled for walking with a girl on the campus.

Now Eli admires the valor of our Frosh for trying to "get by" with the old stunt of walking with the ladies where said walking is not to be. Especially the trick of one slick frosh, who walks to and from the campus with his "lady friend" but never within the bounds of the Collegiate domain. Fangs have been trying to get him walking with his lady on the campus, but so far he has managed to get by without paddling.

But he no longer needs to worry about this score. The frosh can now come and go with their ladies at will. Twosing and all the accompanying publicity are for him now. So long as he keeps his head about him and retains the green "sky-piece" he is safe with "her".

While I am still on this delightful subject (to all concerned) I am wondering why Frances Wylie passes all those notes to that handsome young fellow that sits next to her in College Ed class? Let's see— isn't his name Young, or is that just his appearance? Perhaps when Prexy gives the final examination in that subject he will learn a lot of things other than those mentioned directly by the lecturers the frosh have to hear.

I claim Prof. Barger should be handed the asbestos dictionary for his delightful instructions to one of his classes recently. You see, Prof. has a section of young ladies taking public speaking. But you'd better ask the Prof. to repeat his instructions himself.

Septemviri should be awarded the iron cross for the ability of its members to "step" freshmen women on the campus. For further particulars apply to "Red". He has the secret of the system all worked out.

The sweet strains of the "swat" of the paddle float to me, and my ear, becoming accustomed to the sweet strains, look. I see a regiment of college men and in the middle is one solitary individual receiving the effects of the paddle.

AT MONTANA STATE TEN YEARS AGO

From the Weekly Exponent
October 17, 1913

The Bobcats defeated the Anaconda Independents by a score of 32 to 6.

New drinking fountains were installed in the Main Hall.

The staff of the 1915 Montanan was selected, and work on the book was started.

The football prospects were very bright. Twenty-one men were out for practice during the week.

The Animal Husbandry men were working hard to build up a strong judging team to send to the Northwest Livestock Exhibition.

Work was started on the debate team for the year.

BOZEMAN PEOPLE USE COLLEGE GYM.

Announcement has been made by the athletic department of the Montana State College that gymnasium classes for both men and women of Bozeman will be organized and that anyone can join these classes upon the payment of a normal fee. This announcement renders the wonderful new gymnasium available for the use of the Bozeman public and no doubt a large number of people will take advantage of the offer. In former years the gym at the Y. M. C. A. has been available for such work but with the closing of that institution there is no place save the college gym where the "tired business men" of Bozeman may seek recreation. Assistant Director Jones of the athletic department urges that all who intend to take this work register with R. O. Wilson of the college at once.

TREBLE CLEFF MAKES PLANS FOR THE YEAR

College Womens Musical Organization Shows Promising Talent

The Treble Cleff club held its first meeting in the assembly hall of Main Building Monday, October 8, under the direction of Professor Adam. There were 20 members present and many more have enrolled who were unable to attend the first meeting.

Mr. Adam is very enthusiastic over the club. He says, "I am quite delighted with the prospects which this first rehearsal promised. Most of the members seemed to be good sight readers. They went through the first number quite well at first reading."

"I can only hope that I will find just as good material when I try out the Boys Glee Club. The girls seem enthusiastic and I believe that I will have their hearty support in making this a successful organization."

At the next meeting of the club it is expected that an organization will be affected and officers elected. All the old members are urged to be present. Anyone who desires to join should enroll at once. The regular meeting will be held every Monday at 5 o'clock.

Miss Anna M. Turley, for the past three years in charge of home economics extension work at the Montana State College, and prior to that time similarly employed at the O. A.
C., and Glenn G. Carter, an employee in the chemist's office at Purdue university, Lafayette, Indiana, were recently married in Corvallis, Wash., according to an article in the Corvallis
Gazette-Times received here this week.
The couple departed by motor for Indiana, by way of California over the southern route, and will make their home in Lafayette.

On Friday evening the Frosh class gave a peppy mixer in the Gym. Regardless of the fact that the freshmen were disappointed in not being able to enjoy their picnic due to the inclemency of the weather they held their mixer and danced the evening away mid the "aroma of onions" (?), and sweet strains of jazz. Before the dance nominations were held for class officers.

Montana Alpha of Pi Beta Phi announces as pledges the following freshmen girls: Helen Gary, Violet Marshall, Frances Wylie, Bozeman;
Rachel Chrestensen, Boise, Idaho;
Amalia Miller, Anaconda; Margaret
Newton, Rupert, Idaho; Ruth Rea, Helen Spencer, Butte; Helen Cornwall, Lewistown.

Word has been received at the Omega Beta house that Lee Hornbeck '26 is about to leave for the Orient on the U. S. S. Grant. Mr. Hornbeck has a fine position as third assistant to the "chief dish washer."
After this visit to the Orient Mr.
Hornbeck will return home in time to begin his activities on the hill the second quarter.

Miss Evelyn Ransom of Cut Bank, has been forced to leave M. S. C. because of ill health, but hopes to be able to return for the winter quarter.

The dinner guests at the Beta Epsilon house last Wednesday were Mr.
and Mrs. A. T. Rutledge, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Beck.

Pi Beta Phi fraternity entertained at a dinner dance at the Bozeman hotel Thursday evening for twelve freshmen women. The decorations carried out a Japanese garden effect, and the favor dance was introduced y Elva and Evelyn Ayler, in costume, singing "Poor Butterfly".

A delightful fireside was staged at the Beta Epsilon house last Saturday night. Dancing was enjoyed until eleven, when refreshments were served. About twenty couples attended and spent an enjoyable evening.

Alice Bevans, who has been a guest of the Chi Omega house during the past two weeks, left for her home in Helena last Wednesday.

DINNER PARTY GIVEN
AT HAMILTON HALL

The girls residing at Hamilton Hall were hostesses at an enjoyable dinner party given last Wednesday. The guests were President and Mrs. Alfred Atkinson, Dean and Mrs. Hamilton,
Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mendenhall, Colonel and Mrs. Morrison, Miss Lind-blom, Miss Donaldson, Mrs. McCray, Misses Alta and Elsie Atkinson, Mr.
Joseph Adam, Mr. A. J. Ogaard, and Mr. J. Wheeler Barger.

This occasion provided a pleasant opportunity for the President and other members of the faculty to become acquainted with the women residing at Hamilton Hall.

Margaret Williams spent the weekend at her home in Radersburg.

"Swede" Haugland returned to Bozeman last Thursday, after spending a large part of the summer working in Yellowstone National Park. He expects to register soon, and is at present staying at the Beta Epsilon House.

Miss Margaret Patten left Tuesday for Chicago where she will spend the winter. She was accompanied by Miss Sallie Gillespie and Marguerite Lindsley, '221, who will go on to Philadelphia to continue their work there.

"Curly" Dyer left last Tuesday for Moore to attend the marriage of his sister, Ruth. He returned Friday

Norris and Rigley Morrison, were guests at the Omega Beta house Sunday, October 7th.

FACULTY MUSICAL CONCERT

An unusual musical treat was given to the students and faculty last Tuesday evening by the members of the faculty of the Department of Music.
The numbers were well received by the splendid audience present.
The program was as follows:
Fantasia Appassionata...Vieuxtemps
Andante, Theme, and Variation
Miss Hood
(a) Recitation and Arioso: But the Lord is Mindful of His Own, from the Oratorio "Stt Paul". Mendelssohn
(b) Recitative and Aria: He Shall Feed His Flock Like a Shepherd, from the Oratorio "The Messiah".
Haendel
Miss Dorn
Yellowstone National Park Suite for the Piano, Op. 5.....Joseph Adam
(a) Old Faithful Inn.
(b) Morning Glory.
(c) Cubs.
(d) Grand Canyon.
Mr. Adam
Recitative and Aria: Lascia ch'io pianga, from the Opera "Rinaldo".
Haendel
Miss Dorn
(a) The Old Refrain—Viennese Popular Song...Transcribed by Krsiler
(b) Waltz in A Major.....Brahms
(c) Orientale.....Cui
Miss Hood
(a) Such a Little Feller.....Dictman

LOOTERS!

A meeting of the Looters
Club will be held at the Sigma Chi house, Wednesday, Oct.
17 at 7:30 o'clock.

(b) Ungeduld (Impatience)...Sesubert
(c) Der Lenz (Spring).....Hildach
Miss Dorn
Hejre Kati—from "Scenes de la Czarda".....Hubay
Miss Hood
This concert was in substance a repetition of the one given by the same artists at the Presbyterian Church on October 5th. However, Mr. Adam believes the program was much better as the larger audience brought forth the best efforts of the musicians.

of the next man. The next places were close, two freshmen, Beatty and Morrison, barely beating Bennett, a sophomore. There were several other close finishes, but the sophs finally won out.

All ten of the sophomores finished, but two frosh fell by the wayside. The order of the finish was as follows: Livers, S; Beatty, F; Morrison, F; Bennett, S; Hodgson, S; Crowell, F; VanNoy, S; Estes, S; Livers, F; Imence, F; Torrey, F; Wiles, S; Neil, S; Hollensteiner, S; Constance, F; Craven, S; Cameron, S; Church, well, F.

fall workouts than the Cubs have participated in. During the two weeks of pre-season training a full squad of Kittens answered the call, while only five or six Bruin Cubs were chasing the ball over the green of Dornblazer field.

The past week, the Missoula Sentinel carried the following sketches regarding the coming fight in Missoula Saturday.

"The Bobkittens have the edge over the Cubs, two games to one. Back in 1920 the Cubs outclassed their foes at Bozeman in all parts of the game but lacked the punch to force a score across the goal line, while the agriculturists babes made six points during the afternoon. Then in 1921 the Cubs whaled their opponents roundly here, 20 to 0. Last fall, the Cubs without any previous games, went to Bozeman to meet the all star frosh aggregation there and lost on Floyd Romney's field goal, 3 to 0."

"Ought to be different this year, folks. Figure the Cubs, with Kelly, Sweet, Johnson and Place in the backfield and a fairly good line to handle the Kittens very rudely. Sullivan of Stevensville is playing quarter for the Bozeman yearlings, with Barrows of Lewistown at full, and Babcock of Miles City and Winner of Stanford (Note: Winner is from Great Falls) at the halves. The linemen are no slouches either, so it should be a tough combat."

At the present time, the Dean is professor of Economics and he knows all about money and credit and that kind of stuff.

Gee, don't I recall how I used to sit in class and watch the Dean. Prof. Holst is right when he says "every-one has his own acts of behavior". You know, I've watched the Dean twirl his glasses around and scratch his head and do lots of funny little tricks. But then, that's just human nature.

The Dean takes a great interest in the college, its growth and future development. He wants every student to make the most of his opportunity, and say fellows, if you want some honest to goodness advice, why, just hunt out the Dean.

BIG JACK

or
Always On The Job

To the college mind, "Big Jack" and "Always on the job" are synonymous terms. This was pretty well expressed the other day by a Freshman, pointed him out to a Junior, with the query, "Who's that big fellow mosey-in' up the hill?"

"Oh," replied the Junior casually, "that's Big Jack, the night watchman."

"Night watchman," came the Frosh, "My God! when does he sleep?"

A not unnatural question, we should say, and especially those of us who have at times forgotten that the road up the hill was a one-way thoroughfare, or took a chance on driving up the wrong way, hoping that Big Jack was on the other side of the campus. You would never guess that he could move very fast to see him sauntering around the hill in the afternoons, but just try to get away with something that merits his attention! As the Aggies would say, Big Jack will be on you neck in two shakes of a lamb's tail.

And talking about Aggies, we heard the other day that the Dairy Department tried to bribe him to allow their "one-hoss shay" to deliver the Ham Hall milk up the hill the back way. It seems that Big Jack is inordinately fond of buttermilk, so they fed him with such large quantities of the intoxicating fluid that the ythought he was completely incapacitated, and the drive tried to sneak up the hill with his Lizzie, but big Jack, as usual was on the job, though greatly weakened, and grabbed the animated junk heap with both hands, only to have the rear fenders come away in his grasp, the only time in his life that he was outwitted.

ASSEMBLY FRIDAY WAS REAL MIXER

Lucile Stabler is Popular Leader in Singing, Freshmen Display Vocal Ability

Barney Google, the freshmen and Lucille Stabler provided the entertainment for the rest of the student body that attended the convention exercises in the gymnasium Friday morning. But it was the way the frosh sang that little parody on "Barney", and the words that were used that put the comedy into the chatter.

Everybody sang before the exercises were over. Old college songs were given, and everybody joined in the second community sing to be conducted by the students this year.

Stewart Avery, yell king, conducted some "roofraisers" following the melodies. Announcements were also made regarding the rally to be held Wednesday night.

Professors Holmes and Therkelsen were nominated for the vacancy on the athletic board.

COLLEGE LIBRARY GETS RARE PIONEER BOOKS

First Set of Encyclopedias Brought Into Territory of Montana Presented to Montana State College

Miss Ellis Meredith, credited with being the second white child born in the Gallatin Valley, has presented the historical section of the Montana State College library with the first set of encyclopedias brought into the territory of Montana.

These age-stained volumes, 48 in all, were brought to Montana by Miss Meredith's parents in a wagon train which came from St. Louis under the guidance of John Bozeman, the founder of the city of Bozeman. This train arrived in Bozeman over 60 years ago.

The books are entitled "The New American Encyclopedia" and were edited by George Ripley and Charles A. Dana. The preface carries the date: Dec. 1, 1857. The binding is a tough composition board which has stood the ravages of time very well.

Many parts of the book could still be used for reference, while others are not overly reliable. For instance, the sketch on the state of New Jersey gives the population as 30,000.

Don Anderson, ex '22, is conducting the humor column of the Wisconsin State Journal, the weekly publication of the University of Wisconsin. While attending Montana State College Mr. Anderson was a member of the Exponent Staff and prominent in other college activities.

Mr. Anderson is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He was prominent in social activities at Montana State College. He was very well known in Bozeman, having been connected with the two Bozeman papers. During the last summer he was editor of the Yellowstone Daily Tourist, a daily paper published for the tourists in Yellowstone Park by the Livingston Enterprise.
