Another Football Battle Is Coming Here on Saturday

By C.
"Dig into him. No that ain't the way, hit 'im low like this."
Yes, it was a session of football. Twenty men in maroon jerseys and wearing those mud-colored football pants were tearing up the green on the Bruin gridiron the first week of pre-season training. Coach Stewart had 10 linemen and with the help of "Jelly" Elliot, former Bruin captain, was whipping this group into shape as the first line of defense of a team.

oO—oO
"Look where you're goin'. Don't throw the ball until your man gets clear. No, this way!"
Harry Adams on another portion of the field was coaching 10 men in the rudiments of backfield parlance. He was working forward passes and drops kicks and his crowd was receptive to his teachings.

oO—oO
I must admit the fact that I smiled as I sat in the Bruin bleachers and watched those men work out. Not all of the Bruin football aspirants were on the field to be sure, but there weren't over six more in suits for those two weeks of drilling before college opened this fall. Then my mind went back to the associated press story that was sent from Bozeman several days earlier to the effect that 32 men had reported for the college team and 13 for the Kitten squad.

oO—oO
But we must not infer from this that the Bruins are entirely lacking in football ability simply on account of the fact that our men got the "jump" on them in training. They are gunning for Bobcat. That is evident from the type of work they were given during those two weeks. Their big point as appearing in their work is to "get the fast ones." And the Bobcats will send a fast team against them Saturday.

oO—oO
"Hit 'em square and don't side-swipe," is the hue and cry. "Don't let a fast man get away by dodging work with the Bobcats is superior to the work I saw Stewart giving his Bruins that week. Coach Stewart was putting his line through the paces that afternoon, but Ott hands his men just a little more. Nothing the Bruins were doing could compare with Romney's "upsetting" exercises.

oO—oO
Missoula people and the State University are looking for a good game here. At least Missoula's so-called "leading sport writer" appears to think that it will be the second battle of the Marne, or a Chicago race riot. In fact, Missoula intends to move to Bozeman about November 17. If the entire city doesn't move, the State University plans to.

oO—oO
It will be a battle of a heavy team against a fast one. But greater than that, it will be a battle between school loyalty. Which institution can back its team the most, the State College or the State University.

oO—oO
Then, another member of our staff got himself prominent (with some University women). At least he managed to jip one University Forester out of practically half his dances for the evening. And to add insult to injury, danced Home Sweet Home with the Forester's lady.
oO—oO
This year it's the University's turn. So that means I'll be shoved on the shelf while other fellows from across the divide dance Home Sweet Home.

Saturday Game Year's Classic

Bruin Line Heavy and Efficient. Seven Veterans to Face Bobcats Saturday.

THE BOBCATS COME BACK
Game Saturday Showed Marvelous Improvement in Teamwork. Few Injured Men.

The lid will go off on Saturday for thousand of College and University fans and rivals, when the annual homecoming game is played here.

Saturday afternoon will once more see the Bobcats and Bruins, ancient rivals tussling on Gaton Field for state grid honors. With a determination to come away with more than second best to their credit after that game, Coach Ott Romney and his Bobcats are this week working harder and faster than they have ever worked before, which is saying considerable. It is only just to say that the odds in the betting game are perhaps now favoring the Bruin, as a result of their moral victory in the game with the University of Washington last Saturday. Bobcat stock almost ceased to call forth cash betting after the defeat at the hands of the Miners here last month. It is with the odds standing in this light, slightly altered as a result of the victory over the St. Charles eleven in Helena over the week-end, that the state college once more faces the big game of the season.

It is doubtful, in spite of the gloomy aspect that the situation has held for many, if the Bobcats could enter the fray on Saturday in better fighting trim. Just crushed enough by the Mines defeat to add the necessary punch to their play, they have been showing every evidence of a come-back that should bear fruit on Gaton Field on the 17th. Handicapped by the fact that the University will bring over a powerful and more heavy line than he has at his disposal, Ott Romney has been working with determination on the Bobcat line during the past two weeks. The Bobcat backfield will be in the same condition in which they met Denver "U." Saturday's game showed them running the most consistent interference they have shown this year; if they maintain that start next Saturday they will show the Bruins the greatest exhibition of fight the fans have seen this year. It promises to be a battle royal, with the Bobcats out to wrest the last vestige of state (Continued on Page Four.)

GRAIN TEAM WINS 1ST AT PORTLAND

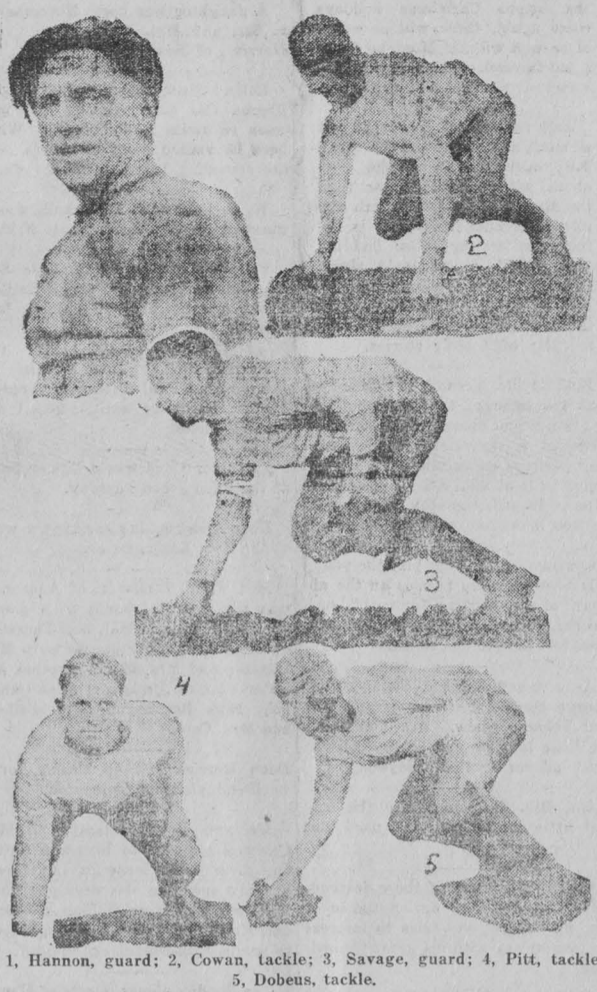

Montana State Grain Judges Have Big Lead. Lack of Finances May Prohibit Entry in National Meet.

The Montana State Grain Judging team was the winner of first place at the Grain grading and judging contest held last Monday in connection with the Pacific International Grain and Hay Show at Portland.

The Montana team had a lead over Idaho, the second team, of over 200 points, the totals being Montana 4760, Idaho 4555, and Oregon 4430 for the first three teams.

Winton Weydemeyer of Libby was the high man of the contest, having a total of 1675 out of a possible 1800 points. William Hay of Hamilton was second with a total of 1595, and Louis B. Neuman, the other representative on the team from M. S. C. captured fifth place with a total of 1530 points. The work of Mr. Neuman was considered especially good, in view of the fact that he represented Montana in both the grain and the stock judging contests, and made a very creditable record in each.

The Montana team was coached by Prof. E. N. Bressman, of the Agronomy Department of the college, who stated yesterday that it was the opinion of the coaches and judges of the contest that Montana should send the team to the International Grain and Hay Show at Chicago, as it was (Continued on Page Four.)

NOV. 17 WILL SEE MANY ALUMNI HERE

Plans Completed for the Biggest M. S. C. Homecoming In History. Visitors Expected From Many Points.

Featured by one of the biggest and most significant parades of its kind ever held in Montana, "Home Coming Day," Nov. 17, promises to be an event that will be remembered for years to come by all who see it.

The program as outlined by the committee in charge is as follows:

Friday—7:30 p. m., Rally from Emerson.
Saturday—10 to 12 a. m., inspection of buildings.
12:00 noon, parade.
1:30 p. m., M. S. C. vs. M. U.
9:00 p. m., Septemviri Dance.
All students and Bobcat Boosters are urged to be out Friday evening at 7:30 in all sorts of paraphernalia, carrying torches or flares to assist in one of the best rallies ever staged by Montana State. Everything from steam engines down to stunts are to be used, that will fill the team with Bobcat fight, and the students with Bobcat spirit.

Ex Missionary On Turkish Affairs

Interesting Lecture on Turkish Life in Assembly Friday. A. S. M. S. C. Meeting and Rally.

The feature of Friday's assembly was an address by Rev. A. L. Chapman on Turkey. Rev. Chapman was a Missionary in Turkey for three years, and his resume of his experiences was highly interesting. The speaker told that the Turkish cities make a wonderful impression upon first approach, but upon a more intimate acquaintance they lose the charm of first appearance. Also, a very vivid description of the street life and of the cosmopolitan character of Constantinople was given. In conclusion, the speaker said, "Turkey is indeed the sick man of Europe its whole system is run down."
Ed Bell then made a very emphatic plea for support of the campaign for the American Red Cross, followed by Stew Avery's announcement of a plan to give the team a good send-off to Helena.

RUSHING PERIOD CLOSING FRIDAY, 16

Men's Fraternities Will Offer Bids Through Lawyer System. Closed Period From 5 P. M. Wed. Till 5 P. M. Friday the 16th.

That the men's fraternities will offer bids to Freshmen on the afternoon of Friday, November 16, has been definitely decided by the Men's Caucus of the Interfraternity Council.

The bidding procedure that will be in effect is based on the following rules and regulations:

1. Period of silence will be effective from 5 P. M. Wednesday Nov. 14 till 5 P. M. Friday Nov. 16. No fraternity man or men closely connected with fraternity life may hold conversation with a freshman rushee during the period of silence.
2. No rushee, who has accepted a fraternity bid Friday may talk to a rushee who has not made a choice before five o'clock that day.
3. The lawyer system of bidding will be used. Attorney R. M. Keister will receive a list of men to be bid by each fraternity and will notify (Continued on Page Four.)

Frosh Take Easy One From Ricks

Bobkitten Squad Takes First Honors In Mix With Ricks College, 52 to 0.

Coach Jones' youngsters romped over the Ricks College squad yesterday to pile up a 52-0 score.
Only fifteen men were taken on the trip by Assistant Coach Dyke. All of the men were played during the game. Wiley starred at half, making several brilliant open field runs. Gregory, Winners, Babcock, Hudson and Wilson showed up in their usual form. Manager Briscoe played a stellar game at drawback.
The score by quarters was as follows:
1st.—M. S. C., 19; Ricks College, 0.
2nd.—M. S. C., 7; Ricks College, 0.
3rd.—M. S. C., 13; Ricks College, 0.
4th.—M. S. C., 13; Ricks College, 0.
Wilson failed to put the ball between the posts on four of the kicks after touchdown.
An intercepted pass nearly gave the opposition a touchdown, but the runner was downed on our twenty-yard line by Winner.

Bobcats Wallop Mt. St. Charles

SAINTS WHITEWASHED IN GAME WITH BLUE AND GOLD AT HELENA SATURDAY

Romney and Cogswell Star In Contest Against Helena Team; Game Never In Doubt Through Four Periods of Play; Many Attend Game.

The M. S. C. Bobcats crushed the fighting St. Charles team on the Helena gridiron last Saturday with a score of 83 to 0. The Bobcats showed superiority in every class of the game and were able to advance through the Saints' line and complete forward passes for substantial gains at will.

Floyd Romney and Ted Cogswell were the outstanding performers with spectacular passing and flashy running. Cogswell made a play seldom seen in football when he carried the ball, from a kickoff, 78 yards for a touchdown. Flop Belshaw, Van Dobeus and Dave Savage played a stellar game at center, tackle and guard positions. These men were consistent in breaking up St. Charles plays for heavy loses and were often successful in blocking the punts of the Saints.

RECORD RALLY FRIDAY NIGHT

Demonstration Friday Night Will Outdo Previous Pep Fests. Snake-dance, Speeches, and Dance Planned.

Montana State will break loose next Friday evening with the biggest rally and pep-making street carnival of years in preparation for the Missoula game the next day. The plans that are now being considered by the Commissioner of Demonstrations include a parade and snake-dance starting from the Emerson school at seven thirty. All Freshmen will appear at this function in their very best suit of pajamas, as dictated by tradition at the college, and the upperclassmen will appear in the craziest costumes that their imaginations can concoct.

The feature of the rally will be the showing of lantern slides of the members of the football team on the street in front of Kleinschmidt's Cigar Store, with yells for the men as their pictures are shown. Speeches will be given by the team members and the coaches.

After the rooters are too hoarse to make any more noises above whispers, they will adjourn to the hill for further merrymaking, and a dance to last as long as the students are able to toddle around.

Mr. Fred Bennion, who was athletic coach at M. S. C. from 1914 to 1918, and who is now acting as county agent at Corvallis county Oregon, has volunteered to help coach the Bobcat for the victory over the Bruin on Gaton Field next Saturday. He is now in Bozeman helping Coach Romney whip the M. S. C. gridsters into shape for the big battle of the year.

DEBATE TRYOUTS FOR VARSITY WORK

The Only Tryouts of the Year for the College Debating Squad Will Be Held on Wednesday Afternoon, November 21.

Tryouts for places on the college debating squad will be held on the afternoon of Wednesday, November 21. Persons expecting to tryout should see Professor Barger at once and register. This is only varsity tryout of the year and all persons expecting to debate must tryout.

The tryout will be composed of a five minute speech on either side of any question, but it is suggested that the speech be on the League of Nations, as that proposition is to be used in most of the intercollegiate debates this year. From the persons who tryout will be selected a group who will constitute the squad. The members of teams will be selected by competition from this squad. These tryouts are for both men and women teams, and freshmen are eligible.

The schedule of debates this year is the most ambitious and extensive of any ever attempted in the history of the school. Five debates will be held in Bozeman and there are two trips that are very extensive.
The feature trip is a tour thru the mid-west. It is by far the most extensive trip ever planned for a Montana State squad. The tentative schedule includes debates with the following schools: University of Wyoming, U. of Denver, Kansas (Continued on Page Four.)

Saints Efforts Futile
Hyde at guard and Sullivan at center, were the outstanding players on the St. Charles team, getting through the Bobcats' heavier line, on several occasions to throw their man for a loss. The Helena backfield was too light to make any yardage through the Bobcat line, however, and in their crippled condition the Saints did not make much impression on the more experienced and harder hitting backs of the State college. Hatfield was used at times during the game, and made some pretty runs around the Saints' ends.

Coach Romney used practically every man that he took to Helena, while Coach Taugher was unable to replace his injured men with fresh material because of the crippled condition of reservists.
Near the end of the game, the Bobcats opened a brilliant aerial attack, in which Romney was a sensation in his ability to connect with long heaves and to squirm and sidestep his way past the frantic Saints.

The Bobcats crossed the Saints' goal line 11 times, and Harma had added a touchdown by falling on a blocked punt behind the Saints' goal line. Romney added seven placed kicks after goal, and MacDonald, one, while two points were scored on a safety in the third quarter.

The Lineup

Pitt	left tackle	Oeschli
Belshaw	center	Sullivan
Hannon	right guard	Dempsey
Dobeus	right tackle	Corrigan
Hartwig	right end	Carroll
F. Romney	quarterback	O'Keefe

TAG DAY

Tomorrow will be Tag-Day on the hill!!
Get your tags early and support the Bobcats visually as well as verbally.

Tags will be on sale for ten cents tomorrow by members of a committee appointed by the Student Senate. The proceeds will be used to defray the expense of decorating the field for the big game Saturday.
Everybody will have one.

Rube Romney, end.

FIGHT BOBCATS, FIGHT

Never before has so much depended on our fighting Bobcats. Athletics here have been based on a larger and more inclusive program this year than ever before and the success of the plan depends largely on the battle Saturday. VICTORY IS PARAMOUNT. Fight Bobcats, FIGHT!

SHOOT SQUARE

Next Saturday our "friendly enemies" from over the "Hill" will be here in force. They are backing the team that we have all set our hearts to beat, but let's show them what real Montana State sportsmanship is like. Let them know that they are more than welcome here. Be BOOSTERS, but be true sports. Shoot Square!

PULL FOR A BIG SPIRIT!

(Contributed Editorial.)

The deplorable condition of the spirit at Montana State college has been uppermost in the minds of all of us for the past month. I cannot explain why this condition exists for I can see no reason for it. I think we have the spirit but we have not yet come to the realization that we must exhibit that spirit before any good can come of it.

At the last game every individual showed a much better and livelier spirit and our men appreciated it. It is only a matter of a few days before the Bobcat-Bruin game and the spirit is growing rapidly. But right here is where we need to be warned. There have been mumbblings of pretty strong razzing for Missoula. Let's keep our spirit free from all malice. If we let our feelings get the best of us we are going to say something about the State U that is unsportsmanlike and we cannot afford to do that. It is not that we alone cannot afford it, but that no school can.

If our men won a game through unsportsmanlike play we wouldn't appreciate it and we wouldn't stand behind them. Our support is going to be part of the fight next Saturday and we've got to keep it fine and free from malice.

It is little and mean to make slurring remarks about your opponent. Just think, before you act, how much you appreciate the same sort of thing when it is said or done to you. We don't want to hurt ourselves by being so cramped. Montana State college is growing rapidly. But is it growing too rapidly for us to keep up with it? Of course not! We would all be righteously indignant if anyone said that we couldn't. And so we are going to show them that we can beat the Bruins in the big, broad, open spirit of Montana State!

BATTING FOR ELI

Now that the sad music will soon be started (for most of us), we can but sit and look back over the past horrible period of cramming, parties and general inability to concentrate on those all-important studies. And when the joyous Christmas holidays come again, there will be many of us who will bid Montana State a sad farewell and launch into the world of realities not rallies.

Just now Eli is concerned not so much with the grade curve and the grouchy book-worm that goes about with a face longer than the flag pole as he is with the intense competition which is being manifest by other budding "columyist" in this said sheet. Of course, there has been much scandle of note, but apparently those involved have been able to "buy off" their stories.

But Lucille, doesn't it strike you that the halls of the Math building are rather bad places to pull the final scene of a wonderful love drama? Now perhaps the second party did not object to it at all. Eli wouldn't have either. In order to stop further gossip you must see me immediately.

Considering the fact that the young lady used to write themes on the absence of her ability to "pull" such "scenes," it is rather a bad predicament in which to be caught.

As a heart breaker Smiley, alias George Donald, LeCornu is sure the real Tobacco Chew. Ask him about the little lady he met in Helena who "just adores football players."

But, Bill, did you notice the way that little one on your left used that lip stick so cleverly?

A FUSSER is one of those descendant of monkey that never studies or uses his "ivory" yet tries to impress the gentler sex with his great "knowledge."

Moonlight waltzes are all right. "The more of them the better," was the cry so the little Barbs proceeded to fill the bill Saturday night.

Our institution still has a few real rooters in spite of all intimidations and insults to the contrary. In fact, a band of State rooters demonstrated the fact that it was possible to see a football game in Helena without having the price of a ticket. They said it was cold riding.

Wanted:—Some pretty girl to wear an "M" sweater. For further particulars apply to "Pink" Adams.

The Pi Phis have a new song—composed for Sanford and Rivers. "I fell in love with a Pi Beta Phi—She made a fool of me" To the tune of "Oh How She Lied."

Speaking of the coming football game, do you remember that ride back on that special from Missoula last year? Oh boy! Ain't we got fun?

"Everybody's doing it," was the slogan, and the party got better the closer the train approached Bozeman. According to all concerned, "a wonderful time was had by all."

If my memory is anything near correctness, several of our shieks displayed their abilities at that Homecoming Mixer that the State University students put on following the game. The fellow who edited the Exponent last year was displaying his dancing ability, and one of Eli's scouts who happened to be watching the crowd from the balcony remarked that "he was having a little fun in spite of the lack of privacy."

We notice that the society editor failed to mention that Mashin and Bownden returned from Helena via freight. DeKay says they missed the best part of the ride, as the running time on the return trip was one hour and a half less than going over.

The speaker waxed eloquent, and after his peroration on women's rights, he said, "When they take our girls, as they threaten, away from the coeducational colleges, what will follow? What will follow, I repeat?"

George Finley, in his loud masculine voice in the audience replied, "I will."

BEAT MISSOULA!!!

Girls, last week, we said that "We'd show 'em!" All right, now's your opportunity. Don't do anything this week but talk, eat, sleep and think of the Missoula game! Let "BEAT MISSOULA" be your guiding thought and with that in mind, talk it up; save your voices for the game, turn out for the special practise meetings in the bleachers, do what the yell leader tells you, buy megaphones, crickets and horns—and turn out for the big rally Friday night. Not only Missoula, but other cities of Montana will be represented in Bozeman on the 17th and we're going to show everyone that M. S. C. Co-eds aren't slow, when it comes to school spirit! Make the Missoula girls envious of our pep; be good sports, girls, show 'em a regular time, and OUT YELL them!! All right, let's go!—BEAT MISSOULA!!!

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB MEETING

A special meeting of the Home Economics club was held Wednesday evening, November 7. Miss Mable Campbell, Regional Home Economics Agent of the Federal Board of Vocational Education, gave a very interesting and educational talk on summer projects which might be carried out by home economics students. Each student in home economics is required to carry out a project during the summer months along the branch of work in which she is particularly interested.

Reports of the projects which were carried out during the last summer were given by representatives of each class. Helen Waite spoke for the seniors; Myrtle Stewart, for the juniors; and Minnie Larson, for the sophomores.

Alice Graham and Mary Baldwin gave reports on the State Home Economics Convention which was held in Butte October 27.

Following the meeting the girls inspected the new furniture of the home economics department.

MRS. McCRAY
"Our Little Miss Pill-box"

Well, I almost gave up seeing the Nurse. You see, she's always busy especially during class hours. But I kept hanging around and got on the inside of that spiffy little new office. The first thing that she says was, "Now just what could I do for you Mr. ———" and I says, "Nothing, I was just wondering if I ———" "Oh," says she, "You want an excuse." Well what luck, but hang it all I didn't want an excuse, I wanted an interview. "Oh," You are one of those paper fellows." Well, I turned red all over, got out a notebook and began to write.

Well to begin with, "Our Little Miss Pill-box" has a keen little office, "Peachy" she calls it, and adds "that Prof. Swingle was such a dear to make such an office possible." Then she took me on a tour of inspection. Gee, she has a wonderful place down there, four rooms and a bath. Why, its almost like a fifth avenue apartment. You know, says she, "I get kidded a lot about handing out excuses to the college kids, but dontcha know, I just cant bear to see them dragged up before the Absence Committee so often. "Then too," says she, "I just can't resist those boxes of candy that are all the time offered to me. "Why fellows," talk about a real good scout that's really human and, well, its Nurse McCray.

Seems as though Miss Pill-box wore out a couple of shoes while globe trottin' in Europe this last summer. Says she had a fine time and got to sample some real honest-to-goodness wine. She even told me that if I ever got the opportunity to go to Greece, why, go, because down there they drink wine instead of water.

The nurse is sure a good little lady and fellows, try to get down to see her once-in-a-while. It don't make any difference whether you are sick or not, just run down and kid her along. But beware because she does like candy pretty well and might accept a bribe. Such things could happen you know because the Nurse is no different than the rest of us.

INTELLIGENCE TESTS FOR FROSH COMPLETE

Indicate that Freshmen are Capable of Carrying College Work With Application.

The girls of the Home Economics department have been taking Intelligence Tests this past week on Foods, Clothing and Textiles. In the case of the Freshmen, the object of these tests is to find out how much Home Economics training the girls have had before entering Montana State College, while the test for the upper class students is upon the amount of material they have remembered from their Freshman course.

These tests are to be sent back to the University of Minnesota for correcting and grading, then they will be returned for further use in our Home Economics department.

The work is in charge of Miss Brown, head of Home Economics in the University of Minnesota. When all tests from various colleges are in and corrected, and records are made, Miss Brown expects to take a report of the survey to a National Home Economics meeting in New Orleans.

It is interesting to us to know that Miss Fallgatter, one of our Home Economics instructors, was a member of the committee who worked on these tests in the University of Minnesota last year.

As yet, these tests have not been standardized, but after the National committees have met, and the necessary revisions in the tests have been made, they will become a uniform means of testing Home Economics students.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON

Among the most active honorary fraternities at Montana State College is Phi Upsilon Omicron, the national Home Economics fraternity. The local chapter, Epsilon, has at present six members; Lillian Mares, president; Alice Graham, vice-president; Ella Clark, historian and chapter editor; Ethel Spargo, corresponding secretary; Hazel McNall, chaplain; Helen Waite, recording secretary.

Membership in Phi Upsilon Omicron is based on activity, leadership, professional attitude, and spirit of service, judgment and reliability. The membership is selected from the junior and senior classes and is an honor well worth putting forth one's best efforts to attain.

AT M. S. C. TEN YEARS AGO

The Y. W. girls at Kansas University, have decided to start a "patching" bureau for the assistance of the young men of the school.

The physical culture class, consisting of all sophomores, freshmen, short-course, and preparatory girls, under the direction of Mrs. Herrick, met for the first time, Tuesday at 3:30 in the Drill Hall. The work consists of corrective and recreational gymnastics, including folk and fancy dancing, and gymnasium games.

"Lyric Theatre" High-class moving-pictures 5 and 10 cents.

"Queening" has been officially and formally condemned by the Y. W. C. A. co-eds at Whittier College. "Queening" has been variously known as "fussing" and "campus" while the accepted term, out of the college pale, is "spooning." However, there will be no more "queening" if the girls have their way. They say it interferences with studies, and keeps the foot-ball squad from needed training.

The University of Arizona has added the tango and fox trot to its curriculum. Miss Mary Tierney, women's physical science supervisor, will be instructor.

STUNT NIGHT

The date for the Y. W. C. A. Stunt Night has been changed to December 7, as a result of the change of the date for the presentation of "Pomander Walk."

GRAIN TEAM WINS FIRST AT PORTLAND

(Continued from Page One.) considered that they would have a very good chance to place first at that show. However, as the expenses of such a trip would be in the neighborhood of $600, there is little likelihood that the college will be able to finance the trip.

The Montana team, as winners of first place will get a large silver trophy from the Portland Show, which will be sent as soon as the engraving is completed. This trophy becomes the permanent possession of the team first winning it three times, or of the first team that wins it for two successive years.

The work in this contest included three main branches of work, identification of grains and forage crops, the grading of wheat and judging of cereal grains and corn from the seed standpoint. The men from M. S. C. stood high in all three branches of the contest, and also in the oral reasons, which were a part of the contest.

DEBATE TRYOUTS FOR VARSITY WORK

(Continued from Page One.) State Normal, Kansas Aggies, Cotner College of Nebraska, Huron College, South Dakota Aggies, and S. D. State Normal. The team will be composed of three debaters and an orator who holds an oratorical contest in each school. This trip is only made possible by the financial aid of the entertaining schools.

Then there are the annual debates with the State University. Missoula will send one team here, and we send a team to the U., and a debate will be held in each town on the same night. This debate will be a decision contest. Then the two sets of speakers will travel in the larger cities of the vicinity of each town, giving debates that in majority of cases will be non decision contests. This trip is carried on a larger scale than usual as formerly only one team from each school made the trip.

There is also a heavy schedule of debates to be held in Bozeman. Arrangements being made for debates with N. D. Aggies, U. of Wyoming, U. of Montana, and possibly with the U. of Idaho. Then a woman's team will be picked that will argue with Montana Wesleyan. This is the first womens debate to be held here, and it certainly marks a new era.

Interest in public speaking is on the rise in Montana State, more are

SATURDAY GAME

Coach Stewart has whipped into shape a mighty formidable machine following rather disheartening games early in the season. As usual, they count on the game with the Bobcats as the big event of the year, and are all primed for the Saturday encounter. The Bruins do their best against our elevens, and this game promises to be no exception. They will bring to Bozeman at least seven men who fought on Dornblaser last year, in the much disputed state title tilt. Silvernale, Duke Johnson, Christie, Plummer, Shaffer, Maudlin and Dahlberg will be in the list. In addition to these, there are such men as Tarbox, Illman, Sugrue, and Murphy, all names familiar to football fans of the state. These men will be a nucleus upon which the Bruin team will be built next Saturday, and will be a tough crew for the Bobcats in the coming game.

The Bobcats are in good shape for the game. Outside of a few bad ankles and shoulders, they are in good condition to start the game. Nobody knows, yet, who will start the game, as Coach Romney is using the next few days to finish his team work. No announcement will be made until that time. In the backfield there will be Scotty MacDonald, Floyd Romney, Hatfield, Benton, Foster, Morris, McCoy, Powers, Mc-
