Bobcats and Kittens Both Win Games

Bobcats Trounce St. Charles 30 to 0

ROMNEY MEN SHOW GOOD TEAM PLAY BEATING HILLTOPPERS; ST. CHARLES HAS GOOD TEAM

Team Shows Flashes of Old Fighting Spirit, Babcock, Wylie, and Cottam Star in Backfield; Wilson Plays Great Game at Center; Tiernan Shows Well for Visitors

Saturday's game between the Saints from Helena and the Bobcats was a good game, but in truth, it was only a lead-up for the Kitten-Cub fracas. The Saint Charles team was outplayed from the start and held scoreless throughout the entire period.

Wylie's work throughout the game was spectacular, and showed good headwork. Babcock, Glynn, Gregory, and Winner all played stellar ball. Dempsey and Tiernan were the outstanding men on the Hill-toppers' team.

The Bobcats kicked off to the Saints as a starter. The Helena boys were held for downs and the Bobcats carried the ball over for the first touchdown.

The work of Wylie and Glynn piled up the yardage during the next four minutes of play, Wylie finally taking the ball over for the second counter while Glynn added one by a drop-kick.

Scrimmage in center field followed, until the ball came within scoring territory for the Bobcats. Glynn's attempt for a field goal failed and St. Charles started with the ball on the twenty yard line. They were held for downs and Winner returned the Saints kick for about twelve yards. Then the Hill-toppers tightened up her line and fought bravely, holding the Blue and Gold gridders for downs. The first period ended with the Bobcats in possession of the ball about thirty yards from the Saints goal line.

In the second quarter the Bobcats tried some passes and Glynn accepted the first one from Winner for fifteen yards. Babcock then caused a thriller by a twenty-five yard run through the opposing line. As a result of his speed and agility, Glynn added to the score by another kick. At the end of the half St. Charles had completed four passes for a total of eighteen yards, and the Bobcats had completed two for a yardage of twenty-five yards.

Wilson kicked off to the Saints and from the scrimmage that followed the Bobcats were penalized and for the second time had to kick from behind their own goal line. Glynn's boot proved a success both times and netted about forty yards on each attempt.

Cottam ploughed through the Helena line repeatedly, and Wilson added three points from the forty yard line by a feld goal.

Cottam again showed his speed when he intercepted a pass thrown by St. Charles shortly after the opening of this period and raced down the field for a touchdown. The goal was missed but the score at the end of the game was 30-0.

The amount of the scholarship has been increased to $2,000 a year, and is good for three years, but nevertheless Montana State College has no one applying. Seven or eight people have interviewed Mr. Brewer, but none hase sent in perfected applications.

October 18 is the last day in which applications can be received.

A. W. S. ADOPTS NEW CONSTITUTION

Old Constitution Outgrown By Increasing Growth of Women Students

At the recent women's assembly a new constitution was adopted for A. W. S. Dean Herrick explained that for the past 10 years the old constitution has proven adequate for the small number of women students registered in this institution. At the present time, however, it fails to meet the requirements due to the ever increasing number of women.

It was obvious that since so large a number of clauses had to be revised, the better plan would be to make an entirely new constitution. So at the beginning of the present school year Dean Herrick and a committee composed of Mary Jo Stockton and Rhoda Harris, worked the old constitution over, using the most desirable points. This new constitution is fashioned after the plan used by the Woman's Club. Only a few changes were made.

The most important change made was in the selecting of the council. Heretofore the council was elected, a certain number elected to represent each of three units. Those three units consisted of the town unit, Hamilton Hall unit and the Sorority House unit. According to the new constitution all senior women automatically become members of the council. They plan to have their meetings at dinners held at regular intervals at which all members can discuss matters of importance. An emergency council is composed of the officers of A. W. S.

ETIQUETTE

By Jake

One should never arrive at a football game on time. It is best to arrive in the middle of a quarter. A straight line is the shortest distance between two points you know. In addition the referee will usually stop the game until you have reached your seat and this will impress everyone with your importance. A couple of blankets borne noncholantly over one one arm heightens the effect and shows you believe in comfort at all costs.

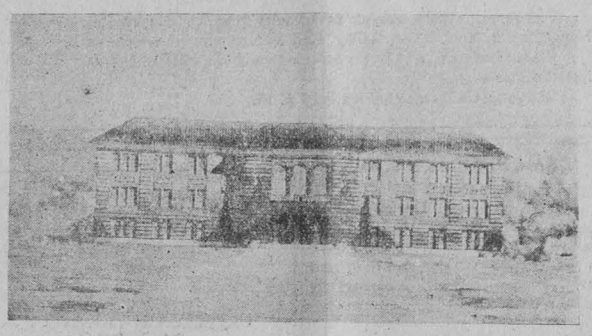

After reaching your seat and getting settled it is well to inquire all about you as to the score and who is playing so that you will know who the coach is holding for the crucial moment and can improve their spirits by yelling loudly for them.

You should never cheer too much although cheering properly directed is a great aid to the team. There is nothing like a good loud cheer during some of the lulls when signals are called to take the minds of the players off the game and give them a moment's distraction. It helps them forget the big brutes opposing them who step on their faces every chance afforded. Of course, it doesn't really matter which team you choose for. It is always nice to be big-hearted and magnaminous and cheer for the visiting team. It gives those around you a sense of smallness because they haven't cheered up over the disheartening defeat.

Another good thing to show how exuberant your spirit is is to slap your neighbors on the back. Then when they turn around it is well to prod them on the chest and make some pleasant remark like, "Nice day, isn't it?"

It is well, too, to bring a good book or College Humor or embroidery if inclined toward needle work. When the players see yon engaged in these

NEW WOMEN'S BUILDING

Homecoming Plans Promise Many New Features and Other Entertainments

Plans for the annual Homecoming to be held October 30 at the time of the Wyoming-Montana game, are rapidly nearing completion with the plans as already outlined promising a greater variety of entertainments than those of previous years. The new features is expected to be a great drawing card to all alumni and others interested.

A parade similar to the one of two years ago, with all the departments on the hill represented will take up most of the morning and the two games will use up the afternoon. Bozeman merchants have consented to close their stores during the games.

In the early evening the visitors will be entertained by dinners to be arranged by the fraternities and other organzations. At eight thirty fireworks on the football field arranged by Ernest Mares, a freshman, will be featured to attract the crowds. At the same time the "M" on Mount Baldy will be lighted by red fuses and a big bonfire on the old football field will be kept burning while M. S. C. songs will be sung. A mixer in the gym for Alumni, townspeople and college students wll conclude Homecoming Day.

Vote Again for Forensies Job

Fuller and Donohoe to Run in Another Election Friday

The election for commissioner of forensics which was held last Friday was again unsuccessful in choosing a man for the position. The results of the election were:

Fuller, 125.
Donohoe, 85.
Churchwell, 57.

Fuller, who was high man, did not receive quite enough votes for a majority and he and Donohoe will be voted upon again next Friday.

Fuller was a varsity debator and winner of the extemporaneous speaking contest last year and Donohoe was prominent in freshman and intercollegiate debate two years ago.

The total votes cast Friday were 267, which is about one-third of the student enrollment. This is an unusually small percentage and it is hoped that a great many more students will take an active interest in the activities of their college and vote at the next election which will be held this coming Friday.

The famous Kelly-Sweet combination didn't perform in their much heralded style against the Gonzago Bulldogs. One Gonzago player, Mel Ingram, gained more yards from scrimmage than did the entire University team.

Cap and Gown Start New Idea

Co-operate With Faculty In Teaching College Songs In Classes

There's a new idea running loose around the campus, resulting from a meeting of Cap and Gown, honorary senior women's fraternity, and several of the faculty members. Singing in class is the idea and it is to be carried out in the English, Art, and certain other departments which have large freshman classes.

Members of Cap and Gown decided that the chief reason most people didn't sing the songs was because they didn't know them. Their idea is an attempt to give the students, especially freshmen, practice in singing the songs so that when the yell leaders call for songs at the games everyone will be able to join in.

It is an admitted fact that singing, well done, is more effective than yelling. Members of the teams often remark that "the singing was rotten," or "I sure liked the way they sang "Stand Up and Cheer," but they seldom remark about the yelling. It is in recognition of this fact that Cap and Gown are trying to give singing a boost at M. S. C.

In the line, Mares and Ball played the kind of football that even Ott Romney can commend.

Keyes is the comet of the team. He gets down on every punt in great great style.

Learn Your College Songs

One of the chief criticisms of M. S. C. students has been that they do not know and do not sing their college songs. An attempt is being made to remedy at least one half of this criticism. A few minutes will be devoted each assembly period to the singing of college songs. Last Friday Rhoda Harris discovered that only a small percentage of those present at assembly knew the words to the song "Root for the Team" written last year by Dean Norris, to the tune of Madelon, and proceeded to teach the song to everyone there. Next Friday she will try another one. It is printed beyow. This song was written by Miss Harris and Miss Stunt Evans. Learn the words before Friday.

Montana State, we love you!

Kittens Upset Dope Defeating Cubs 21-7

FAST BOBKITTENS BREAK THRU HEAVY MISSOULA LINE FOR THREE TOUCHDOWNS

Penfield, Gardiner, Grady, Twilde and Ball Outstanding Players For Montana Frosh. Davies Makes Spectacular Play for Bear Cubs

They May Look Like "Kittens,' But They Fight Like Real "Cats."

A plucky and fighting Bobkitten team defeated their traditional enemies, the Cubs, to the tune of 21-7, although giving an average of fourteen pounds to the man. It was a game of speed and headwork against beef with the former winning a victory that will long be remembered. The game from the start proved an exciting one. Almost every play brought cheers and yells from the fans.

The hard running, line smashing Penfield assisted by Twilde, Gardiner, and guided by Grady, threw himself against the line again and again for gains, while Gardiner held the upper hand in kicking, outclassing Oleson of the Cubs. The line performed wonderfully, Dawes, Mares, Breeden, Devich, and Vogt all starring. Keyes and Ball played superb ball at the end positions, stopping all plays through that quarter. The only way the Cubs could make any yardage was on passes and a few yards through the line.

The Kittens started off with a rushing and line plunging game that carried the cubs off their feet, taking the kickoff and carrying the ball down for a touchdown before the Cubs knew what it was all about, with Penfield and Gardiner featuring. Twilde kicked the goal. The Cubs kicked off over the goal line and Gardiner kicked back 38 yards. Two line plunges failed the quarter ending as Oleson smashed through the line for 7 yards.

A pass failed at the beginning of the second period and Oleson of the Cubs booted 25 with Grady returning 5. A penalty for holding put the ball on the Kittens' one yard line but Gardiner kicked 52 yards out of danger. Missoula failed to gain and kicked 30 yards with Twlide returning 12. Penfield gained 8 through tackle, then Gardiner kicked 33 with Oleson returning 20. A line plunge gave them 2 yards as did an end run. The Cubs missed a try for goal. The Kittens failed to gain and the ball went over.

Ball Runs for Touchdown.

The Cubs gained on a line plunge and then fumbled with Ball of the Kittens recovering and running 50 yards for a touchdown. Twilde kicked goal. The Kittens kicked off 40 with Oleson returning 20. A pass was intercepted by Twilde then Penfield made 35 yards around end. A line plunge netted 3 and Penfield lost 10. Twilde missed a field goal, and Missoula kicked 45 yards. Two line bucks netted 6 and a pass, Twilde to Gardiner, made 25. Twilde failed to kick a field goal. Oleson kicked 40 yards and the Kittens returned 15. Failing to gain, the Kittens kicked 22 yards. The Cubs started a line plunge as the half ended.

Penfield Makes Touchdown.

Both teams came back the second half determined, and the Kittens booted 40 the Cubs returning 15. An end run gained 6, another lost 10, and Oleson kicked 35 with Grady returning 15. An end run was good for 6, a pass netted 20 and in two smashes by Penfield made the distance for another touchdown, with Twilde kicking the goal.

On the kickoff Oleson booted 40, Penfield returning 8. A Kitten fumble and a recovery by Davis gave the Cubs their only touchdown. Oleson kicked the goal. The Kittens booted 40 on the kickoff, Oleson being dropped in his tracks. The Kittens failing to gain, kicked 30. The Kittens lost 10 on a fumble and then kicked out of danger. The Cubs made their initial first down on two line bucks and a 15 yard pass. Oleson tried a place kick but failed. Gardiner punted 30 and Oleson returned 10. A line plunge gave them four yards. Penfield then intercepted a pass and then made six yards on a line plunge. A criss-cross netted 10 just as the quarter ended.

An exchange of punts at the beginning of the fourth quarter netted the kittens a few yards. The two

HOWARD WADDELL IN FATAL ACCIDENT

Funeral Services Held Yesterday at West's Chapel; Body Taken to Stanford Home

Funeral services for Howard Waddell, who died Sunday evening, were held yesterday afternoon at West's Chapel. The funeral parlour was crowded with friends, including faculty members, Student Senate officers, band members and students. His death was caused by exposure and bleeding following an accidental gunshot wound received while hunting Sunday.

Waddell and Carl Albrecht were hunting in the Bridger mountains thirty miles north of Bozeman when the accident occurred. Waddell was in the lead. The 30 automatic rifle which Albrecht was carrying was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking Waddell in the thigh. Albrecht immediately went back to the nearest ranch for help. The wounded hunter was carried out to the ranch on a stretcher and brought in to Bozeman by a car reaching here about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. All efforts to revive Waddell were in vain and he passed away at 7:00 in the evening.

Howard Waddell was a sophomore registered in the Ag course, a member of the Ag Club. He played in the College band as one of the solo cornetists.

GET SHOT!

Once upon a time in the dim ages, a person did, and the inevitable happened. Since that time a superstition has persisted, and although we are living in the enlightened age, we are still victims of this time-honored belief. But, because we are living in this enlightened age, and because we are attending college in order to attain the heights of knowledge, we should throw off our shackles and join the ranks of the unbelievers.

You are all familiar with that superstition. It is the old one to the effect that if you dare to face a photographer you will undoubtedly be charged for the broken camera. During the last few years, photographers have taken out insurance against the few remaining faces that are liable to cause damage to theri machinery. On the other hand, due to the great increase in handsome physiognomies, there is no danger, either for the victim or the tradesmen.

Therefore and thusly, when your names are posted and you are told to go to Linfield's and have your faces "shot," go and see if you are one of the handsome ones. Linfield is guaranteeing you against any penalty for broken lenses.

Out of the thirty-five names that have been posted, nine seniors have gone to be photographed—no casualties. We are allowing due time for the dignity and ponderoursness of the processes needed to get an upperclassman working, but if you don't have it done now, don't rave when you appear in the Montanan in the role of Andy Gump, because our cut of President Coolidge has a busted mainspring.

PRESIDENT OF COLLEGE AT AMES SERIOUSLY ILL

The opening convocation at Iowa State College, Ames, Ia., was postponed due to the illness of R. A. Pearson, president. His illness followed a business trip to Chicago in the interests of the Iowa State building program, but is not considered serious.

Some More of That Stuff

We're proud of our Montanan that was published last spring. We're proud of its editor, Mott Souders, but we think that there is a big chance that this year book will be a bigger and a better one. At the Montanan Staff dinner the other night, Don Bennett told of the new features, the new ideas. and the new staff members. All indications are that our annual will rate with the best in the country. Go to it, hope you make it, and may a champion year book become a tradition at M. S. C.

Cap and Gown fostered the Spur organization, and helped in making it a national body. Cap and Gown is fostering a new movement—that one for the "Singing College." They are uncovering unexpected talent in song-leading among the faculty members, and eventually the student body will learn the chorus of the Alma Mater song—the one that goes "la la la la la—la, etc" Learn these songs, and it will help to bring out the fighting Bobcat spirit. Sing these songs, and you'll get back all that old spirit that the alumni are sure to spout about. If you can't sing, bring your Jew's-harp and we'll let you play in the band.

Did you see the New Spurs? Good looking bunch of women to say the least. They've got a big year in front of them, and their responsibilities will be numerous, especially since they have become a national organization. If they can keep up the good work as the girls did last year, they'll feel mighty bad about turning over their Spurships to future Spurs.

More comment on the improvement in the cheering. You did noble at the game last Saturday, although more enthusiasm was shown over the Frosh, than over the varsity game. However, we can overlook that, because it makes us feel good all over to think that maybe we can show Missoula up in something besides straight football. Yes, if you analyze it, that's about the biggest thing we're working for. The Butte papers had a detailed account of the Missoula cheering and about the cheer leader after the Gonzaga-University game—they thought it was one of the outstanding features of the whole contest. May you all get hoarse from practicing yells and songs!

Things are picking up around the campus—and mostly on account of the enthusiasm about Homecoming Week. Two years ago we had a good Homecoming, a good parade, and lots of pep. This year is going to be a good one all around, and a big reunion is one of the necessary integrals. Write to the alums, write to former students, and inveigle them into coming back for the big doings. Tell them we're going to win that Wyoming game just for them, and see if that doesn't help.

The year's tea fights have begun with a large opening bang. Firesides have commenced, and undoubtedly these intimate little tobogganing parties will start in a few days. But then these affairs have their bright side—one learns the proper way to drop a tea cup from one's knee. Another advantage—pledges learn to wax floors, and get their training for their future careers in cafeterias.

DEAN HERRICK'S TRIP.

Dean Una B. Herrick has spent the past week in visiting several towns where she spoke at the district meetings of the Federated Woman's Clubs. She was in Red Lodge, Billings and Laurel. Dean Herrick returned to Bozeman yesterday.

Boxing, swimming, and wrestling are recognized minor sports and if good material is available teams will be sent to participate in conference meets. Letters will be awarded successful aspirants.

FRIDAY ASSEMBLY WILL BE DEVOTED TO MUSIC

Program for Assembly Friday morning, October 23, will be put on by the Music department and will be music by the College Chorus, an organization of over fifty men and women. Professor Adam, head of the music department will give an appreciation talk on the Artists' course number which is to be put on October 27. This is the Chicago Grand Opera Trio, and some of the numbers will be illustrated. The program showing the numbers to be given by the Chicago Grand Opera Trio is now in Dean Herrick's hands.

FROSH TIED WITH SOPHS.

The frosh won the cross-country and the relay races, thus tieing with the sophs in the class scraps. The frosh could have won all the events if they had known each other. This can be seen by the way they got organized for the races and won them. They also painted the letter in the shortest time it has ever been done. They put a cleaner appearance to the M than it ever had before.

Sport Notes

The Saints turned out a mighty nice football team. M. S. C. can pride themselves upon playing against a team that had as good an end as any in the country. Tiernan is half a team himself.

Wyoming defeated the Colorado Miners Saturday by the decisive score of 43 to 0. Our Homecoming Day battle promises to be as hard a game as we will play this year. Wyoming is undoubtedly the premier team in the conference, not even excepting Colorado U.

Our Thanksgiving Day game will be the greatest battle that fans will see for many a day.

Rip Wilson made a beautiful 38 yard place kick against the Saints Saturday. The 26th of November he will be pitted against the U's famous imported center, Ostrum, a demon on defense and offence. It will be a battle of giants.

In The Conference

Colorado College lost to Brigham Young University in a tight affair 7 to 6. We meet the Mormons in Provo on the 21st of November in what promises to be a hard football game.

The Colorado Aggies swampted Denver U. 16 to 0 in Denver Saturday.

The Kittens have come into their own. It was a different team Saturday from the one that snatched a 6 to 0 victory from Billings the week before.

The old Bobcat fight was there. Playing against a team that outweighed them 14 pounds to a man, had eight former All-State high school players, and taken all together an unbeatable team, on paper at least, they outfought and outsmarted the Cubs in every department of the game.

Good coaching showed itself.

"Marcel" Gardiner played a nice game. Particularly bright were two of the catches he made on long passes. The whole backfield played brilliant and offensive football.

The Cubs have a flashy team. With a few more games under their belts they will be, undoubtedly, the most promisng frosh eleven yet turned out at the U. Their efforts Saturday showed lack of concerted action so essential to any successful team.

The game was clean, hard and fast, and was marred at no time by any unnecessary roughness or fouling.

Intramural sports are due to start soon. Volleyball is first on the program. It should be remembered that Montana State has one of the most complete systems of Intramural athletics in existence of any school in the country. This year, with increased enrollment, competition promises to be keen and exciting.

C. G. A. is having its first big get-together of the year at the gym Friday night from eight o'clock until eleven. Freshmen women are especially invited to come and find out what this organization really is and to get better acquainted with the girls. An evening full of entertainment will be provided with refreshments to end it right. New officers will also be from the following candidates:

President — Esther Asbury, Jo O'Connor.

Secretary-treasurer — Helen Mason, Edith Swingle.

Rifle—Sarah Kendall, Helen Hoadley.

Hiking — Esther Wakefield, Vera Seifert, Amy Bell Markin.

Skating and skiing—Ruth Rutledge, Thelma Gaylord.

Tennis — Marjorie Spaulding, Dorothy Benepe, Francis Wylie.

Swimming—Marcia McMahon, Eloise Wright.

These annual meetings are not dress up affairs but regular mixers so come in knickers or gym suits prepared for a big time.

Did you know that on an average over 3,000 people every week use and enjoy the facilities of the gymnasium? This is exclusive of the women's department entirely.

"CLOUD SHADOWS"

In this land of old Montana
Where the nights are clear and cool
Where moons are ever shining
And there's friendship in the air,
There you'll find all kinds of folks,
More than willing for a chance
To be a sort of friend to you.

Some friendships grow and "well" with time,
Some prosper and mean something more,
But here and there at times you'll see
A friendship start to fade.
Beware, dear folks, no greater pain
Can come to mortal man,
That that which travels hand in hand
With the losing of a friend.

sports they will think how dull the game must be and play that much harder in an effort to liven things up for you.

You really should tell the players what they should do next. From the stand you have a much better prospective and can pick out the flaws in the plays. There is nothing makes the men feel better than to tell them how they should have done, and what the mistakes were in their last play. Telling them where they fell down and all about their weak points helps improve the game.

Whenever anyone is hurt, it is very bad form to show any tender-heartedness. It is much better to be very callous and call out to kill them all off, or send them all to the hospital, or murder the big bruisers, or something to that effect.

After the game is over it is always well to ask who won, so that you can tell your friends about the wonderful game you saw.

INDIAN ROCK PAINTINGS MAY YIELD HISTORIC SECRETS

Public Asked to Assist Search for Surviving Inscriptions Made by Prehistoric Americans

New York, 17.—That valuable and surprising information about the prehistoric inhabitants of America may be obtainable from the paintings and inscriptions known to exist on rocks in various parts of the country is the idea urged here today by Dr. E. E. Free, Science Editor of The Forum. The public is asked to supply information of the locations of such samples of prehistoric American art, so that these examples may be photographed and studied scientifically before they disappear or are defaced.

Many of the localities where rock paintings occur are recorded in the scientific reports but there must be which have never been described spentifically and are known only to individuals. The Forum has undertaken to collect information of all such paintings which can be located. Scientists will then visit the more important ones and endeavor to decipher what they mean and who made them.

All persons who know of prehistoric inscriptions or paintings which deserve study and record are urged, therefore, to send brief descriptions of them, with exact directions for finding the locality, to The Science Editor of The Forum, 247 Park Avenue, New York City. Such information will be gratefully acknowledged. It may prove of great value to science.

INSTALL NEW MACHINE IN DAIRY DEPARTMENT

New equipment is being installed in the dairy department that will add considerably to the efficiency of the department, especially in giving more time to the instructors for teaching work.

The equipment includes a pasteurizer of the latest type and a cooler for the milk. The pasteurizer is a machine of the very latest type, costing $500. The use of this machine will save considerable time in handling the milk in the department. The cooler is an ingenious device in which the milk flows over coils containing running cold water and cools the milk very rapidly.

EXPONENT EXCHANGES OPEN TO STUDENT BODY

"Students who wish to read high school or collegiate papers which are exchanged with the Exponent may find them in the Exponent office in Main Hall any time," says the editor of the Exponent. The Exponent has on its exchange list practically every high school paper in the state, most of the college papers from the Rocky Mountain Conference, and several other college papers from other states.

The papers are kept in the office several days before they are destroyed and students may go to the office at any time to read the exchanges, providing they leave the papers in the office when they have finished reading them.
