Girls pledged are Laura Jane Brautigan, Deer Lodge; Marji Kucera, Bridger; Peggy Jo LaReau, Helena; Beverly Medlin, Butte; Dorothy Olsen, Butte; Mary Ann Platt Billings; Muriel Sullivan, Columbia Falls; Mary Jane White, Butte; and Mary Hockett, who has completed her campus work and who is now in training in the Deaconess hospital of Great Falls and Bozeman.

Tribune Depicts ROTC Activity At Montana State

Seven pages in the All-Montana section of last Sunday's Great Falls Tribune were devoted to activities of the Military Department at Montana State. These pictures were typical examples of the day's work down at the barracks.

Included in the cuts were a full page picture of Colonel Hea, pictures of the staff, shots of R.O.T.C. students learning to shoot rifles and dismantle them, learning how to read maps and learning other important military procedures. Also shown was an "extra-curricular" activity of the military department, that of teaching co-eds how to handle a rifle.

4-H OFFICERS CHOSEN

The club officers for the coming year in Montana State's 4H Alumni club were elected at a regular meeting on April 1. The new officers are as follows: President, Lawrence Erpelding; vice president, Katherine Suiter; secretary-treasurer, Ruth Grainger; program chairman, Betty Johnson, and publicity manager, Charles Elliott.

Navy Officer Will Interview Men For Naval Commissions

Lieutenant Wilhelm of the Naval Officer Procurement office will be at Montana State College Thursday, April 9, to interview applicants for naval commissions upon their graduation.

In their new program it is the desire of the navy department to obtain as many applications from physically fit college students as possible for future service in the Naval establishment. Sophomore students are enrolled only in the aviation flight training classes, while upper division students may be accepted in a number of different classifications.

Under this program all except aviation cadet appointees would be allowed to continue in school until they have their degrees.

Lieutenant Wilhelm will be in Room 312 in the SUB Thursday for the purpose of interviewing prospective appointees and will be glad to answer any questions at this time.

At 5:00 Thursday in room 101 of the Engineering Building Lt. Wilhelm will talk to all interested in the officer procurement program. His talk will be sponsored by the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Engineers Vote on Best Man Today

The Montana Society of Engineers has voted to award a gold medal and certificate to a graduate of the division of engineering of the Class of 1942. A similar award will be made at the State School of Mines.

The Engineering Faculty has arranged a list of eligible seniors whose names will appear on the ballot. Students of the junior and senior classes registered in the engineering curricula will vote for five candidates. The three candidates who receive the highest number of votes will be selected. From this group of three, the Medal and Award committee of the Society will select the individual senior to receive the Award.

The basis for the award is engineering promise as demonstrated by scholarship, interest, experience, and aptitude in engineering work; the ability to command respect and good will; the reputation for honesty and fair dealing among associates.

This election, conducted by the Engineering Council, will be held today, Wednesday, April 8, 1942 from 9 o'clock to 5 o'clock in the main corridor of Roberts Hall. The rules governing the election will be available at the election booth.

School Average Raised One Point Winter Quarter

In spite of a busy winter quarter, students managed to devote a little time to studies and raise the all school average over a point from fall quarter. The all undergraduate student average was 79.51 for winter quarter as compared with 78.38 for fall quarter. The Alpha Omicron Pi sorority retained its dominance of the scholastic world with an active average of 83.44. The Alpha Gamma Rho actives regained their prestige with an 80.29 average for the last quarter after falling below the Kappa Sigs' fall quarter.

Nominees Elected For Final Balloting To Be Held Next Tuesday for Campus Offices

With many elections running close and an apparent fight for all offices, John Rousseau of Crosby, North Dakota with 466 votes topped Joe Pahl of Great Falls who polled 313 votes in the race for Student Body President. In the Vice-presidency race John MacDonald of Helena with 471 votes held a comfortable lead over Charles Harnish of Lolo who polled 272 votes. The two leading candidates for all offices will be placed on the ballot for the final election to be held next Tuesday.

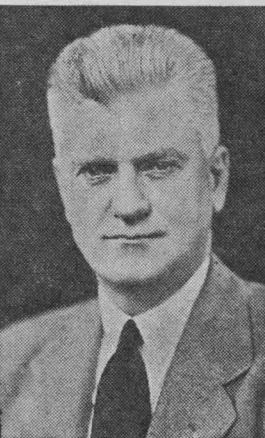

In the closest race of the day Ed Chauner with 391 votes held a 12-vote lead over Emil Kindschy who piled up a total of 379 votes to earn the right to enter the final election for the Editorship of the Montanan. Both Chauner and Kindschy were approved as candidates by the Board of Publications.

Waldo Emerson who was unopposed in the primary election for Senior Class President polled 125 votes but will be opposed on the final balloting next Tuesday by Quentin Lord who was written in as a candidate by two persons. Vic Johnson who was unopposed for Junior Class President on the ballot piled up 125 votes and will oppose

Rotary Prexy Will Talk To H. S. Students

Thomas J. Davis of Butte, president of Rotary International and long prominent in Montana civic affairs, will be one of the featured speakers at the 1942 High School week to be held at Montana State college April 30, May 1 and 2.

As president of Rotary International, Mr. Davis has travelled widely on his official visits to Rotary clubs in various parts of the world. One of his most important trips was made last fall to England where he met with Rotarians under wartime conditions and had the opportunity to observe at close hand the ability of the British to carry on in the face of repeated bombing attacks.

"Drawing upon his experiences and observations during his travels, Mr. Davis will bring a message of value to his school students in these critical days in our country's history," Merrill R. Good, general chairman, said in announcing that Mr. Davis will address the more than 1,000 students, school administrators and teachers from all parts of the state who will attend High School week.

His High School week address will be given before the general assembly on the morning of May 2 and the general public is invited to attend.

Katherine Kane who was successfully nominated by 29 persons as another written-in candidate.

Gil Hahn led a pack of aspirants for Sophomore class president as he drew 91 votes to lead his nearest rival, Kenny Kjelstrup, who polled 61 votes. Others who will be dropped from the ballot for the final election include: Buck Moore with 46 votes, Gordon Linder with 41, Rolly Bowen with 28, and Roger Yoderian with 23.

In the race for commissioner of publications Philip Wilson and Peg Moore were the successful candidates for the nomination. Wilson drew 248 votes to nose out Moore for first place. Moore polled 225 votes. Other candidates were Duane Austin with 164 votes and Bob Ansbach with 102 votes.

For Commissioner of Social Affairs Lois McDonnell polled 391 ballots and Nadine Carlson drew 196 votes and will fight it out in the finals. Billie Austin drew 174 votes in this race.

Vearl Addy with 460 votes and Sarah Davis with 274 votes will be in the finals for Commission of Finance. James Dickson piled up 526 votes against 235 for Cecil Hess in the duel for Commissioner of Forensics. Bill Saubert with 425 votes will race against Jean Haynes who had 229 votes while Marge Hall drew 124 votes for Commissioner of Dramatics.

O. D. Martin with 509 votes will be matched with Winnie Young who polled 150 votes to top Billie Buchman with 124 votes for the position of Commissioner of Music. Frank Howard took 552 votes to top Allison Rehn who polled 184 votes in the race for Commissioner of the Student Union.

In an exciting race for commissioner of Judging Teams Blaine Hoffman topped the list with 340 votes and will run against James Krall who polled 290 votes while Alvin Meyer with 143 votes was dropped from the list. John Gordon polled 668 votes for Bookstore Representative and will have competition in the finals with Tom Ross who was written in by 16 persons.

Art Dougan amassed 724 votes for Commissioner of Athletics but will be opposed in the finals by Chuck Mattill who was written in by two persons. Dan Cox who was unopposed for Editor of the Exponent received a complimentary vote of 715 votes and John (Mutt) Haugen received a complimentary vote of 695 for Commissioner of Demonstrations.

Letters To The Editor

Mr. Charles Harrington
Editor Montana Exponent
Montana State College

Dear Sir:

I believe that there has been a misunderstanding in regard to my receiving the Sigma Chi Athletic scholarship.

I received the entire amount of the scholarship and I have also received payment for the work that I have done for the P. E. department. There has been no decrease in the financial assistance that the athletic department has been giving me.

I am very sorry about this misunderstanding and hope that it will cause no trouble for all parties concerned.

Yours truly,
Bob Stachwick.

Four Pilots Get Instructors Jobs

Four graduates of the Civilian Pilot Training program being conducted at Montana State College have accepted new positions this week, with three of them becoming instructors at the Stamford Flying school, an army contract school at Stafford, Texas.

Those accepting instructor positions are Edmund Fallon, Wilsall;
Keith Hustad, Glendive, and Glenn
Bryan of Bozeman. The fourth, Ray Delamater of Roundup has accepted the position of "expedite engineer" for the Boeing Aircraft corporation. His duties will be to help in keeping the production line going.

All these students are graduates of the elementary, secondary, cross-country and instructor courses offered here. They received their flying instruction from the Lynch brothers, contractors for the flight training in the Montana State College flying courses.

Freshmen Honor Seniors Saturday With "V For Victory" Dance In Sub

The freshmen assume the role of sponsors come Saturday night, when they honor the outgoing class of seniors at the annual all-school sport dance. Popping up with an original idea, the neophytes will build the affair around a V-for-victory theme, and declare their intentions of using any surplus funds for the purchase of war bonds and stamps. Members of the committee in charge of arrangements are Mary Jane White, Gladys Prevot, Mary Ann Platt, and Bruce Isaacson. Freshman Prexy, Keith Seaton, will supervise the election of the freshman Momma. Each sorority and the women's cooperative have nominated one of their seniors for "Momma" and they are: Matie Allport, Chi Omega; Yvonne Kalberg, Alpha Gamma Delta; Jean Tait, Pi Beta Phi; Betty Ford, Alpha Omicron Pi, and Mildred McKinlay, Kappa Delta. All senior men and dates will be non-paying guests and will receive their programs at the door Saturday night. Chaperoning will be Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gaines, and Mr. David Hawes, while honored guests will be Dean Kelly, Dean Harrison, and Miss Mildred Leigh.

Engineers Crown Jean Haynes

Engineers dominated social events of last week, when they staged their annual ball Saturday night in the Student Union building. At the dance it was announced that Jean Haynes will reign as Engineers' Queen for the rest of the year. The ball, an annual affair, is sponsored by Tau Beta Pi, national engineering fraternity. Before the dance, the members of this organization and their dates enjoyed a banquet in the SUB. Decorations for the dance were unusual and attractive, with a large Tau Beta Pi bent dominating the stage, and soft colored lights playing upon it. The queen was presented to an audience that was literally completely in the dark as to who she was until the actual stating of her name by Les Hogan, chairman of the dance. Music was furnished by the Varsity Six.

Former Students Marry Recently

Word of the marriages of several outstanding students of M. S. C. has been received here recently. At a ceremony in Havre last Saturday, Katherine Clack was married to Lt. Bernard Haley, '41. The couple stopped in Bozeman Sunday on their way to Fort Benning, Georgia, where Lt. Haley will take up his duties with the U. S. Army. Jurine Wermager and Lt. Burleigh Packwood were married at an informal military wedding at Fort Lewis, Washington, in March. Both are graduates from Montana State.

Trower, Hall Take Vows Wednesday

At a ceremony in Three Forks last Wednesday afternoon, Sally Trower, Freshman at M. S. C., was married to John Hall, Senior physical education student. Jean Cramer of Livingston and Lynn Martin of Bozeman were the attendants.

Athletic Council Plans For Full Sports' Program

Montana State College will carry a full intercollegiate sports program, including football, and will expand the program of participation by college men in some form of sports, Schubert Dyche, athletic director, announced.

The decision was made at a meeting of the college athletic council. President A. L. Strand said at the meeting, in view of the request of army and navy officials that all colleges carry out programs to their fullest extent, that Montana State would do all possible with sports. The meeting was also held to clarify the situation to college students. Many ideas, most of them without foundation, have been circulated, it said.

Intercollegiate participation depends to some extent on financial conditions, however, it was stated.

The question of freshmen competition on varsity teams is unsettled but Montana State College will follow whatever ruling on the subject is adopted by the Rocky Mountain Conference, Dyche said.

It was believed likely that next year would see many more men students actively engaged in some form of athletics whether varsity, intramural or other programs. This will be done to dovetail into the national physical fitness program being asked for all schools. It was not believed a compulsory training scheme would be adopted but it was thought a natural desire for physical development and sentiment would bring enrollment in this program up. Every effort will be made, however, to have every male student enrolled in the physical fitness scheme.

Those present for the council meeting included Dr. Strand, Dyche, Dean of Men Marvin Kelly, John Breeden, Ed Howard, Joe Liviers, Elsworth Hastings, alumni representative, and Don Jorgenson, student representative.

Colorado College Is Host To RMC Track Meet In May

Colorado College at Colorado Springs will be the host to the track teams of the Rocky Mountain Conference on May 15 and 16 instead of Montana State as originally planned by the conference athletic directors.

This change in the location of the meet resulted from the transportation problem of bringing four schools to Montana. No bus could be chartered and rail facilities would be too expensive.

Coach Breeden announced that track aspirants would continue to work out and by comparing the results of the dual meets that are to be held by the other schools, eligibility for the trip to Colorado would be determined.

Several men have already begun daily work-outs and best prospects among these seem to be: Emery, Smiley, Elliott, Eagerlie, Mizner, Beller, Stachwick, Smith, Higgins and others.

Plans are being made by Harry Ellis, intramural manager, to have a complete intramural track meet some time in May so that all potential track men will have a chance to compete.

INTRAMURALS

Activity in the inter-organization athletic sports is nearly at a standstill since the weather remains unfavorable. Nearly half of the championships have been decided; the AGR's with Blue league basketball, the boxing and wrestling titles packed away, and the SAE's copping indoor track, skiing and swimming, are tops in numbers at least. Sigma Chi captured gonfals in volley ball and foul shooting, while gold league basketball honors went to the men's cooperative house, cross country laurels to Lambda Chi Alpha, and bowling to Phi Sigma Kappa.

Final results have been determined in the indoor track contests held winter and spring quarters, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon captured team championships in all but one event, the 160-yard potato race, to retain the crown. With 3386 points, the SAE's led the Sigma Chi squad with 3161, and the Coops with 2437.

Probably one of the closest contests in the whole intramural program was the skiing contests. Unfavorable weather made it impossible to hold the jumping contests on the same day as the slalom and downhill, and at the end of those two events, Sigma Chi led SAE by a very small margin. Final

Varsity Letters Awarded

Letter awards for winter quarter have been announced by Brick Breeden for basketball, Dick Briggs for minor sports. All awards have been approved by Schubert Dyche, director of athletics, and providing all nominations can pass the scholastic requirements, they will receive sweaters and emblems.

Basketball awards will be given to Bob Stachwick, Dan Mizner, John Hall, Will Jorgenson, Eddie Collins, John Epkes, Cory Dogterum, Jinx Anderson, Max Stark, and Jess Hodgson.

Awards in wrestling were earned by Joe Urick, John Muer, Ernest Bruffrey, John MacDonald, and Dale Skature, while boxers receiving the awards were Cecil Higgins, Vic Callentine, Vic Johnson, and Mack Quinn. Kirby Whitman and Perry Roys will receive skiing awards, and Keller Smith earned a letter for swimming.

tabulations, after the jumping revealed that the SAE team had recovered sufficiently to more than offset the early SX lead. The point totals were: SAE, 296.8, SX, 292.2, KS, 168.
