

Highlights of The Little International

By George Glead

Well, folks, this marks the last and final week of strenuous preparation for the 61 students who are fitting and training their animals for the Little International which is to be held Friday and Saturday nights. These students have been working tirelessly for the past six weeks in order to bring to the students of Montana State College, livestock breeders throughout the state and other persons interested in the livestock industry one of the biggest and best shows of its kind ever to be presented in the state.

As we've told you before, the show this year is under the capable management of Walt Davis of Bozeman and Al Ralston of Glasgow. These two men and their committees have worked untiringly, disregarding time and expense so that each and every one of you can more fully enjoy the show.

In addition to the Vinke Memorial Award there will be many other valuable awards given, among them purebred stock, a complete showing and fitting outfit, riding boots, a pen and pencil set, cash awards and many other similar prizes which will fully repay the winners for the time and effort they have spent in training and fitting their animals.

Since this is the last time we will be able to tell you about the show, we should like to mention three of the men who have aided us greatly in making the Little International a success: Ralph McCall, of the Animal Industry department; "Sammy" Litzenger, of the Agronomy department; and "Prof." Harrington, head of the Horticulture department have attended all of the committee meetings and have given us valuable advice and helped us over many rough spots.

Leo Kleffner and Bob Stachwick, ring masters, are in charge of cleaning and preparing the pavilion so that there will be no danger of anyone ruining his good clothes.

Be sure and remember that your activity tickets will be honored only Friday night as Saturday night is for the out-of-town visitors and townspeople.

Lt. Fowler Killed In Plane Crash

The body of Lieutenant Benjamin Charles Fowler, 22, who was killed in a plane crash last Thursday, was sent to the Dokken Funeral Home today. A military funeral will be held.

Lt. Fowler was a marine air corps pilot, having received his wings just five weeks before his crash. He was in a Marine scout bomber when the crash occurred near San Diego, California. He attended Montana State College two years before his enlistment in the Marine Air Corps, and was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Week End Is Dedicated To Mother's Day

Faculty and students at Montana State college will dedicate the coming week end to mothers when the eighth annual Mother's Day program will be held Saturday and Sunday.

One of the highlights of the two-day observance of Mother's Day will be the banquet to be held at 6:30 Saturday evening at the Student Union building. Speakers for the occasion will be Mrs. W. F. Weedman of Billings, past president of the Billings branch of the American Association of University Women, and William A. O'Kelly of Butte, head of the mining engineering department of the Anaconda Copper Mining company.

The address of welcome at the banquet will be made by Dr. A. L. Strand, president of Montana State college. Mrs. Weedman will respond for mothers and Mr. O'Kelly will make the response for fathers. George Biddle of Glasgow, president of the associated students, will respond for students. Jason Bolles of the English department will read the special Mother's Day poem written by him for the occasion. Bert B. Hansen, director of entertainment, will preside.

Mrs. Weedman is the mother of William Weedman, senior in industrial engineering at the college. Mr. O'Kelly's son, Kent, is a junior in mechanical engineering.

Students must make their reservations in Dean Harrison's office before Thursday at 5:00 p. m. Tickets will be on sale in the Sub Saturday afternoon before the program and during the reception. The price of these tickets is sixty-five cents.

Events on the program Saturday afternoon include a concert in the college gymnasium at 3 o'clock by the college band under the direction of Lou Howard, followed by a gymnastic entertainment by the physical education departments under the direction of Harry Ellis, and an informal reception for parents at 4:30 in the Student Union. Closing feature of the day's program will be a concert by the college orchestra and chorus under the direction of L. E. Opp at 9 p. m. in the college gymnasium.

Navy Officers To Interview V-1 Candidates Here

Montana State College is one of 137 colleges and universities accredited by the United States Navy, according to a communication received by Dean Marvin F. Kelly yesterday. Registrar W. H. McCall has been appointed faculty advisor to handle the naval program here.

Naval officers are in room 312 of the Student Union Building today and tomorrow to interview and sign up students for the Navy V-1 program. They are also prepared to answer questions on the V-5 program. The V-7 program will be held open indefinitely. All students should investigate these programs now to determine what the Navy has to offer them.

Five Years

Wilda Parker . . . will return to MSC after five years to address students at the annual Women's Day assembly.

Wilda Parker Is Main Speaker At Women's Assembly

With "A Pattern for Freedom" as her topic, Mrs. Wilda Parker Axelson will be the honored speaker at Montana State's annual Women's Day celebration on Saturday, May 23. Mrs. Axelson was chosen in 1937 as the "five-year speaker" because of her fine record of achievement at Montana State College, and she comes with just as fine an "after-college" achievement.

After graduation, Mrs. Axelson took advantage of the Frank Alva Parsons' Art scholarship which entitled her to a year's study in the art galleries of Paris. During that year, she traveled quite extensively over Europe, and she will no doubt have many interesting stories and anecdotes to tell.

While in College, Wilda took part in nearly every type of activity possible for girls on this campus. Starting in as a Freshman, she belonged to Alpha Lambda Delta and the Art club; in her Sophomore year she was a member of Spurs; and so on, through her college career, she was a Sponsor, a Beauty Queen, Junior Prom attendant, a member of Mortar Board, Eurodelphian, Delta Phi Delta, and Pi Beta Phi, of which she was the president in her senior year. Other accomplishments include the leading part in Winterset, dramatic production, Art Editor of the Montanan in 1937, faculty choice for Big Ten, and the crowning achievement of them all—the recipient of the coveted Frank Alva Parsons scholarship to study in Paris.

Mrs. Axelson was originally a Bozeman girl, but since her marriage has lived in Butte, taking part in many of the social and civic affairs.

ATTENTION: STUDENTS PLANNING TO ATTEND THE LITTLE INTERNATIONAL

Students will be admitted on their activity tickets Friday night ONLY. Activity tickets will not be accepted at the gate; they must be presented at the box office in exchange for regular admission tickets. General admission for Saturday night is 55c for everyone.

Young's Orchestra Scheduled To Play For Prom May 15

"Due to conditions beyond our control," says Joe Pahl, president of the Junior class, "Horace Henderson, music phenom of the East, cannot be secured." Following the sending of the contracts the committee received a telegram from the agency managing Henderson stating as follows: "Sorry, impossible to arrange Henderson May 15th. Returning check. Regards."

However, immediately after receipt of this telegram a light broke to the south when the services of Eddie Young, with his 13-piece band, popular west-coast orchestra leader, were secured for the same night, May 15th. Having played in such places as the Palomar, Coconut Grove, and Biltmore Bowl in Los Angeles, the Mark Hopkins Roof in San Francisco, Jantzen Beach in Portland, and the Olympic Ballroom in Seattle, Young and his band come to MSC's biggest Junior Prom with the best of recommendations.

The hours of the Prom will still be the same, 8:30 to 12:30, and the second big attraction besides this fine orchestra will be the presentation of the Junior Prom Queen. Voting for the queen will be Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in the SUB. On these same days tickets will be available for sale.

Senate Sponsors Assembly Monday On Wartime Jobs

"College Student—Your Wartime Job" is the subject to be discussed at the Student Forum discussion to be held Monday, May 11, at a ten o'clock general assembly. As in the previous assemblies of the present series, MSC students will make up the panel.

The topic selected represents a problem that every individual student will be faced with in the near future. Recognizing that finding one's place in the war effort is an individual problem, the discussion is designed to aid students in determining the best course of action.

The panel will open with a discussion by George Biddle, outgoing student body president, on some of the problems and attitudes that we will be confronted with in the next few months and the necessity of our making rational decisions. Following Biddle, students representing different groups on the campus will speak. Don Jorgenson will discuss the place of the engineering student in the war effort. He will be followed by Bob Stachwick, who will deal with the agriculture student and his war time job. John Rousseau will speak in behalf of the science students at war. Miss Betty Lyons will then discuss the Montana State College students will be guests of the Agricultural Club at the Friday night showing of the twelfth annual Little International. This show will begin at 7:45 p. m., while the Saturday show, which is for livestock men and townspeople, will start at 8:30 p. m., according to co-managers Al Ralston and Walter O. Davis.

In the Little International competition, for which agricultural students at the college are now fitting and training animals from the college's high quality herds and flocks, the judging is done on the basis of showmanship technique displayed by the student in the showing and upon the kind of job he has done in the fitting and training of his animal.

The livestock show will be dedicated to two Monana pioneers—Peter Pauly, sheepman of Deer Lodge, and William P. Sullivan cattleman of Square Butte—in recognition of their outstanding service to the livestock industry of the state.

Top Awards

Top award of the show is the Vinke memorial award which goes to the grand champion showman. This award is a gold wrist watch given in memory of the late Louis Vinke, former head of the animal industry department at the college, who originated the Little International. Another coveted award is the Bozeman Kiwanis club plaque on which the name of each year's grand champion showman is engraved.

To the reserve champion showman goes the pen and pencil set awarded each year by Alpha Zeta, agricultural honorary fraternity. The champion showman in the beef

New Reserve Air Corps Explained To Mass Meeting

Before a mass meeting of interested students of MSC, Lt. Col. Higgins and Lt. Abel of Fort George Wright explained the new program of the United States Army Air Corps for an enlisted reserve. Schubert Dyche, faculty air force advisor, presided at the meeting.

Lt. Col. Higgins explained the program and announced that he would return with an examining board on May 19 for the purpose of enlisting candidates. All persons interested were asked to contact Mr. Dyche before this time and fill out the applications. The examining board will give both mental and physical exams.

As a result of changes made in training requirements, students at accredited colleges may now enlist in the air force enlisted reserve and ask for deferred duty. Students enlisted under this plan will not be called for active duty until graduation or withdrawal from college except in the event of necessity, by direction of the Secretary of War.

Step To Figure

College students may well be amazed at the many offers they are receiving from the various branches of our armed services. Every day we receive information from these branches telling of revised standards and new programs which they are launching.

In reviewing the figures we see that only two per cent of the population of our country are college graduates and this figure includes both men and women. If you cut this figure to the number who fall within the age bracket set up by the government for granting commissions, you find a relatively small number from which these branches are competing to enlist men.

College students should consider well the step they are to take when they decide to enter the service. They should choose the branch they are best prepared for and not enlist blindly as some have done. The government is giving the college student every opportunity to apply his education to the proper branch. It is the student's duty to study the different programs and place himself accordingly.

Dear Mom:

I think you had better come down here this week end because a fellow named Bert Hansen is having a party for all of the mothers of all the students. All of the fathers can come too, cause Bert don't care.

We had quite a weekend entertaining the high school kids. The sophomores where I live went out with some girls from Billings but I had to go down and clean out the pavilion so I could get on a committee next year. But I wasn't the only one working because there is a professor here named Mr. Good who managed the whole thing and he was working hard too. In fact, everyone except the sophomores where I live were working.

This Bert Hansen gave a bunch of fellows some clown suits so they all wore them to school today. They didn't go to any classes except army and all they did was throw paper airplanes around there. But the officers, who are all in the infantry, attacked them from the rear and chased them back up on the campus. Then they went over to the student union and sang some songs. The last I saw of them they had a fellow up in the air on a board and he was chewing on a raw bone and another guy was introducing him like they do in the carnivals. He fell off and they all packed him away. This week all of the aggies are trying to make the livestock look pretty and the one that makes them look the prettiest gets a prize. They're holding it down in that place that Mr. Good and I cleaned out last week. They's a guy up here named Jimbill that is always bumming cigarettes and he is head of the entertainment and it should be good because he is awfully entertaining.

I may be in the army next year so will you send me ten bucks so I can buy a new shovel with my name engraved on it to clean out the pavilion.

Your Shovelin Son Homer.

Independents Form Resolutions About Cheating On Tests

As a result of a recent forum on "Cheating" conducted by Independent students of Montana State College, we submit the following resolutions to the faculty and the Associated Students of this institution:

WHEREAS, cheating (the act of obtaining information by dishonorable methods) is a serious problem at Montana State College.

WHEREAS, the students feel that more effective control of cheating can be gained by having students responsible for conduct during examinations.

WHEREAS, the students feel that one of the principal causes of this dishonesty is the fact that a major portion of their grades is based upon one or two important examinations.

WHEREAS, one student often has several of these important examinations on the same day and, in addition, may have other regular classes; therefore be it

Resolved, That a representative student group enforce the regulations concerning the conduct of students during examinations.

That not more than 30% of the total grade be based on the final examination.

That each class be offered the choice of a series of examinations or a few important examinations.

That attendance and general attitude, as well as examinations, serve as a basis for student grades.

That an examination week with scheduled two hour examination periods be put into practice.

That the instructors strive to include in the examinations only taht information which is fundamental to the students

Hollands Leads Group Discussion On War Problems

In order to give students the opportunity to express their opinions on contemporary world problems and to discuss the present war and possibilities of establishing a peaceful world after this war, Mortar Board is sponsoring a discussion this Thursday, May 7, at 5 o'clock in room 303 of the Student Union Building. Dr. Hollands is assisting the organization in outlining the discussion.

Some of the questions that will undoubtedly be considered are:

1. What are some of the causes of the present war?
2. Do the people of the United States and other civilized countries really want a peaceful world?
3. Why do the English speaking people control the earth?
4. What might be done to attempt to prevent another war?
5. Can war be avoided as long as major economic inequalities exist among peoples?
6. Were you satisfied with the tentative proposal for avoiding another war as it was presented recently during an informal assembly?

All those interested are invited to attend and urged to ask questions and participate in the discussion.

Announcements Available Now In Student Store

Graduation announcements are now available at the Student Book Store, according to Tom Balzhiser, senior class president. A senior may purchase any number that he may desire at the price of 12c each. Students are asked to get their announcements as soon as possible so that an additional order may be placed with the manufacturers if necessary. Personal cards must be ordered at once if desired. Prices are available at the book store.

The Senior Ball as discussed at the last meeting of the class cannot be held due to a ruling of the Social Committee which states that "The Senior Ball may be held on Thursday, May 21, if only Seniors attend." Since a week day is the only day left open and since such a party could not be a financial success due to the limited class funds and the limited number who could attend because of the conditions involved, a picnic at Bozeman Hot Springs for Seniors and their dates will probably be held on Thursday, May 21 from 4 to 10 p. m. Those Seniors who wish to attend such a picnic will please sign the paper placed in the lobby of the Student Union building for that purpose. Each person attending the picnic will buy a 15c lunch ticket to help cover the costs not covered by the sum in the class treasury. If enough signatures are written before Friday, the tickets will be sold, and definite arrangements made for the picnic.

The Greatest Air Army in the World
Needs Flight and Ground Crew Officers

NOW FOR COLLEGE MEN A NEW OFFICERS' TRAINING PLAN

★ New Deferred Service Plan Allows You to Continue Your Education ★

In the skies over America the mightiest air fleet in the history of the world is mobilizing for victory!

So fast is it growing that there is a place here — an urgent need here — for every college man in America who can qualify for Officer's Training.

The U. S. Army Air Forces need Flying Officers and Ground Crew Officers. And many of them must come from the ranks of today's college students — men who make their plans now for the necessary Aviation Cadet training.

Thanks to a newly created Air Force Reserve plan, men of all classes — aged 18 to 26, inclusive — can enlist for immediate service or continue the scholastic work required for graduation before being called to active duty.

You must meet the requirements for physical fitness, of course. In addition, you take a new simplified test to determine your ability to grasp the training. A college man should pass it easily.

$75 A MONTH DURING TRAINING

Those accepted who wish immediate duty will go into training as rapidly as facilities permit. As an Aviation Cadet, you are paid $75 a month, with subsistence, quarters, medical care, uniforms, equipment.

In 8 months you can win an officer's commission as a bombardier, navigator or pilot — and be well started on your way to serve America and advance yourself in aviation.

Three Enlistment Plans for College Men

Juniors—Sophomores—Freshmen May Continue Their Education

1. A new plan allows Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen, aged 18 to 26, inclusive, to enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and continue their schooling, provided they maintain satisfactory scholastic standings.

All College Men May Enlist for Immediate Service

2. All college students may enlist as privates in the Army Air Forces (unassigned) and serve there until their turns come for Aviation Cadet training.

3. All college students may enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and wait until ordered to report for Aviation Cadet training.

Upon graduation or withdrawal from college, men will be assigned to active duty at a training center as facilities become available.

If the necessity of war demands, the deferred status in the Army Reserve may be terminated at any time by the Secretary of War.

The new Army Air Force Enlisted Reserve Plan is part of an over-all Army Enlisted Reserve Corps program shortly to be announced. This program will provide opportunities for college men to enlist in other branches of the Army on a deferred basis and to continue their education through graduation if a satisfactory standard of work is maintained. In case of necessity the Secretary of War shall determine when they may be called to active duty.

It is understood that men so enlisted will have the opportunity of competing for vacancies in officer's candidate schools.

This plan has been approved in the belief that continuance of education will develop capacities for leadership. (Reserve enlistment will not alter regulations regarding established R.O.T.C. plans.)

MANY BRANCHES OF SERVICE

There are also commissions awarded in ground crew service. College men particularly will be interested in the requirements for Armaments, Communications, Engineering, Meteorology, Photography. If you have engineering experience your chances of getting a commission are excellent.

As a Second Lieutenant on active duty with the Army Air Forces, your pay ranges from $183 to $245 a month.

ACT AT ONCE

If you want to fight for America, this is where your blows will count.

If you want the best training in the world, and years of solid achievement in aviation—the great career field of the future—this is where you belong. Your place is here—in the Army Air Forces.

If you plan to enlist immediately, start getting your necessary papers ready for the Aviation Cadet Examining Board when it meets in your locality. For complete information, see your Faculty Air Force Advisor. You can take your mental and physical examinations the same day you apply. Get further information now.

NOTE: If you wish to enlist and are under 21, you will need your parents' or guardian's consent. Birth certificates and three letters of recommendation will be required of all applicants. Obtain the forms and send them home today—you can then complete your enlistment before any Aviation Cadet Examining Board.
