

Galligan Presented Award; Walker and Emery Honored

The annual Honor Day and Senior Assembly was opened Wednesday morning, April 28, by the impressive procession of the presidents of the various honorary organizations and other platform participants, followed by the members of the Senior Class. The processional, "Pomp and Circumstance," was played by the college orchestra, under the direction of Les Opp.

During the assembly the following individual awards were made:

Edward Galligan of Helena was presented the Montana Society of Engineers award by W. A. O'Kelly of Butte. Galligan was selected following a personal interview with a committee of the society named to pick the outstanding engineer.

Myron Walker of Basin, Wyoming, was presented by Spur President Sue Tait as the Knight of Knights. The Knight of Knights is a Fang selected by the Spurs as being the most typical of all the Fangs.

George Cory named Jeanne Emery of Bozeman as Spur of the Moment. The Fangs select a Spur on the basis of being the most representative of the whole organization for this honor.

Dennis Foley received the Alpha Chi Sigma award for having the highest standing in freshman chemistry and Cecil Hess received the Cy Evans award—one year junior membership in the American Chemical Society.

The new pledges of honorary organizations not listed last week follow:

Alpha Zeta, the honorary for stimulating interest in agriculture, announced their new initiates. These men are picked for their scholarship, leadership, personality, and activities. The new members are: Robert Kropp, Robert Bucher, LaRue Cantrell, Eugene Olson, Wilson Hodgkiss, Charles Beck, William Alexander, Carl Ostensen, Dale Smeltzer, James Krall, John

Forest Service Asks Men Students Aid

Men students who are not needed on farms this summer and who would be interested in working for the U. S. Forest Service during the summer months may obtain detailed information about such work Thursday afternoon when representatives of the forest service and the U. S. Employment service will be at the Student Union building for interviews.

On hand to interview interested students will be Seth Jackson of the forest service and O. V. Crumbaker, manager of the local USES office. They will be in room 304 of the SUB from 1 to 5 p. m., and again at the same hours Friday afternoon if there is need.

Jobs will be available with the forest service, Jackson said, and the wages will be $146 per month for work week of six days, eight hours per day. Out of this the worker boards himself or may have $1.35 per day deducted for subsistence.

Jobs to be done include work in blister rust camps, fire hazard reduction, fire fighting, trail and road maintenance, and some look-out jobs.

Playday Delegates To Be Chosen

Candidates will be chosen this week to attend the annual Play Day to be held in Dillon on May 14, 15 and 16. These representatives will be chosen to participate in badminton, horseshoes, archery, softball, tennis and other popular sports.

"Montanan" To Be Distributed On Women's Day

All of the photograph, copy writing, art work and engraving have been completed on the 1943 Montanan and the book is already partially printed, according to Emil Kindschy of Lewistown, editor. The colored portions of the book are printed and 96 pages of the black runs are completed, and the covers are finished.

This year's book is a 232 page book with twenty five of the pages colored. Due to the decline in enrollment it was necessary to cut the size of the book to 8½ by 11 inches instead of the customary 9 by 12 of the Montanans of recent years.

The book will be distributed to the students on Women's Day, May 29, directly after the military parade. If the weather is favorable, distribution will be on the lawn east of Hamilton Hall. If not, the students will be given their year-books in the ballroom of the SUB.

Many special problems have had to be overcome in the production of this year's book in addition to the much decreased revenue. An acute shortage of copper for engravings, a sizeable increase in paper costs, and a heavy overload on the printing and engraving industry are some of the technical problems. In addition to this, Editor Kindschy has lost practically all of his experienced staff workers to the armed forces during the year.

ROTC Wins Over AirCrew

The baseball season opened Sunday, May 2, with the ROTC nine, defeating the 312 Air Crew detachment team by a score of 3-2. Despite the early season, the game was marked by little roughness of play as both teams played comparatively good ball. The ROTC ball-players showed the effects of having more practice as they were able to get their batting eyes sooner, and more often, and combining this was the soldier's committing costly errors in the third inning that spelled the difference between victory and defeat.

Bill Musselman, hurling for the Bobcats, pitched airtight ball until the top of the 6th, giving up only two hits and striking out eleven soldier batsmen. Enlisted student Taylor, chucking for the AAF detachment, likewise pitched good ball for the first two innings, but in the ROTC's half of the third, Murray started things rolling with a sharp single to left field, stole second, and Schellin followed up to drive Murray safely home and put himself in scoring position by an overthrow by K. Mattice to first. Lawler, of the ROTC, got a hold of another of Taylor's offerings and scored Schellin. Anderson flied out to end the scoring for that inning.

At the beginning of the sixth, the MSC nine changed teams, and for a short time showed signs of weakening. Buenaguada, AAF centerfielder, bunted, and as Anderson scrambled to get it, he slipped on the wet grass and overthrew first base. Biddle and Hess, Bobcat fielders, collided while attempting to catch a fly, thus scoring the first army run, and Shirey was safe on base. Mattice got a single, scoring Shirey and tied up the ballgame. Krall replaced Musselman on the mound for the Cats, and retired the aviation students by fanning Taylor and Gale was forced out at second.

Muddled Meanderings

John Hartwig

Baseball has been variously defined or called, as the case may be, the national pastime, a heckler's field day or a boon to the bottlemakers (pop bottles being the official organ of attack against the poor blind umpire). At any rate during the game eighteen full grown men, nine on a side, or eighteen players who may or may not be full grown, chase a little white ball around a square field. Unlike golf it takes nine men to chase one ball whereas in golf one man chases one ball.

Equipment includes bats, which may or may not be termite laden depending on whether the batter hits or strikes out, balls covered with horsehide and mitts or gloves with which to catch the balls. Other accoutrements are body and leg protectors and masks issued to the catcher who stops most of the balls and the umpire who stops most of the pop bottles.

Baseball is a little different from some of the other sports. In bowling a strike is what you look for, in baseball you don't. In basketball you get a free shot for a foul and in baseball you either get a strike or put out. Baseball differs from football in that there is no organized cheering section, only scattered individuals cheer for or against the team of their choice. Typical incantations being such parlor phrases as kill the ump and throw him out and several which are censored.

Newest development in the game is the 1943 or balata ball, a ball which is constructed of an increased amount of balata or the hard covering of golf balls. It has been called the dead ball or the pitcher's boon because when dropped from a sixty foot grandstand it bounces three and a half feet less than the 1942 or live ball. All of which proves we should train more monkeys to climb grandstands, you never can tell what will come up—or down.

Well so it is another pastime to use excess energy and a good deal for U. S. O. benefit shows. Well must go now, got a monkey up in a tree testing the resiliency of some coconuts.

ROTC Defeats Air Crew

The soldiers in their half of the sixth, however, with Biddle driving a sharp single through second and third, was sacrificed to second by Higgins. Anderson came up and drove Biddle home by a clean hit to center field, but was left on base as Shirey, AAF relief pitcher who took over in the fifth inning, forced the following two batters to hit grounders and were retired. The aviation students were unable to score again in their half of the seventh, letting K. Mattice die in scoring position as Anderson caught two foul balls and ended the ball game.

Results of the game showed the Cats getting seven hits, striking out 8 times, and three errors. The AAF nine were able to get only three hits, were struck out 13 times, and likewise committed three errors. The game this week should prove all the more interesting, with the Cats realizing the added practice of the AAF nine should make the battle much tougher. Practice sessions are going to be held every night this week by the soldiers, with approximately 60 aspirants signed up to report. Proceeds of yesterday's game and the following two of the three game series are to go to the USO center of the soldiers in Bozeman.

LIFE BEGINS AT LINCOLN . . .

The Army teaches you to make a bed too! Chosen man for this task is the corporal. All Lincoln Air Base Corporals seem to come from Minnesota. And if they don't they say they do. Everyone is addressed as "Youse Guys!"; and dose beds have to be made smood.

You are taught to make one sheet do the job of two. Some of the fellows used to get up at 5:15 and march to "chow" doubled up as if they had ptomaine cramps. They just tried to sleep short-sheeted that night.

The corporal knows how to make a bed, Army style with hospital folds. He used to go with a chamber-maid, too. That helps, but none of them went with the same chambermaid. Every day you are at the mercy of a different corporal. You wish you had joined the navy while the joining was good. Those hammocks look pretty nice to you.

After shivering in zero weather for a week with root zoot togs from Hollywood on, and marching in snow with civilian shoes, and bath towels wrapped around your head; you are privileged to enter the sacred sanctum of the army. The Supply Room.

The supply room is the place where soldiers are issued everything from neckties to tent pins. The supply sergeant is a nice chap and the sort you'd like to see marry your sister. Especially, if your sister has two heads.

The supply sergeant usually has a few assistants who (1) hate the human race (2) can't count. As a consequence, the free translation of your size is ambiguous to say the least. Anyhow your shoes fit! (After you've been marching in snow for seven or eight hours and they are thoroughly water-soaked.)

ROUND'N ABOUT . . .

Wedding bells will chime Sunday, May 9 for E/S Mark Lawrence. We understand everyone is invited to kiss the bride . . . Variety Show turnout last Sunday morning was very favorable. Looks like we'll have a top-notch 12-piece band, led by Art Williams . . . Squadron competition gets more fervent every Saturday at Review, especially, when Squadron A, the lower classmen, defeat Squadrons E and D . . . How about this friendly hazing from the upper classmen? We don't mind it . . . By the way girls some of the boys would like to see you out rooting for them Saturday morning. Remember the winning squadron doesn't have to be in until 8:00 Sunday evening.

E/S ARMY VARIETY SHOW

Every Sunday morning at 8:15 a. m., in the gymnasium, the Army Variety Show rehearsals are being held. We would like to have two more saxophone and trumpet players come out next Sunday. The chorus will rehearse next Sunday, as well as all the individual skits and acts. Any new men who did not attend last Sunday's meeting are invited to come out.

All men who would like to be in a can-can routine report to Mr. Antzack or Neale.

Cross Country Race

The annual cross country race will be held Saturday, May 15th, at 2:30. Teams that are entered in the race will consist of ten men each. The individual winner will receive an M sweater and membership in the M club.

The course of this three mile MSC classic starts at the north side of the gym and goes to 8th Avenue and Huffine Lane. From there the runners will go down highway 101 to middle creek road and then down road back of Gattton field to heating plant. The course then goes around plant to front gates of Gattton field, around track and on the far side of the field.

Women Hold Meet

W. A. A. and the women's P. E. Department will hold a track meet in the stadium at 5 o'clock on Wednesday evening if the weather permits. This meet will consist of the high jump, broad jump, 20-40-60 yard dashes, relays, and novelty foot races. All those interested in participating must sign up by Wednesday afternoon.

The

ARCADE

LETTER TO THE SOLDIERS:

Members of the 312th College Training Detachment:

It is very evident from rumors that you men do not understand and are not making the most of the recreation offered you here in Bozeman. Perhaps some of you do not read your information bulletins very carefully. Last week-end I found several men who knew nothing about the dance at the Armory and some do not know that they may still sign the list for dinner engagements so I shall try to explain it and hope that you read the Exponent for news concerning your crew.

Every Saturday night the Bozeman Citizens Corps are putting on dances for you in the Armory, at 20 West Mendenhall (the street just north of Main St.). You may bring a date or not but the date you bring must have her invitation card issued by the Service Corps or she will not be admitted. The admission is 30c (was 28c last week but making change was too hard on the desk). Dancers are not allowed to leave the building until they are ready to go home, there is no coming and going at will. Civilians are invited and we are trying to give everyone a very good time. We hope those of you who went last Saturday enjoyed themselves. This dance is put on for you and we hope with the cooperation of all that we can give you the best Bozeman can afford.

A large number of you have had dinner invitations to various Bozeman homes and we hope you have enjoyed being out of barracks. We have had some difficulty with the present arrangement as we cannot contact you individually. Some folks have been prepared for two or three boys and then no one appears. If you would call your hostess and tell her whether or not you will be at her house it would help a great deal. We know that some invitations come in late but if you would call anyway we would appreciate it very much. If we weren't rationed on meat it would not matter at all but the way things are now a telephone call would help. Now that spring is here some of you will have opportunities to go into the mountains so we hope you will take every opportunity offered you.

The recreation room downtown at 32 W. Main is yours. Do make good use of it. We hope to have a checking system installed by this Saturday and you can leave your packages there over Saturday night if you wish. From time to time improvements will be made and if you have any suggestions to offer please let me know, as this is your room and you should have what you want in it.

We hope that Squadron E has enjoyed the Airport Canteen and as you all advance to "flying" we hope you will enjoy it, also.

We need all the suggestions you men can offer and if there is anything at all you would like in connection with this recreation program please let me know.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Dean M. Hauseman
Recreation Chairman
Bozeman Citizens Service Corps.
