

Mrs. Mark Clark Speaks Monday Evening To Students and Faculty in Gymnasium

Renne OK's Two Day Rest Period For Students on March 19 and 20

President Renne has announced that on Monday and Tuesday, March 19 and 20, no classes will be held in order that students may have a brief rest between the winter and spring quarters.

This decision was made upon recommendation of the Student-Faculty Council who had sounded out student and faculty problems. It is understood, President Renne said, that no students will use buses or trains for transportation to and from their homes during these days so that there will be no conflict with Office of Defense Transportation regulations. There may be some students whose homes are near Bozeman whose parents may get them by car, but most of the students will, undoubtedly, remain in Bozeman for a brief two-day period of rest.

President Renne indicated that there would be no change in the commencement date because of the granting of two days of vacation. In other words, commencement will be held as scheduled on May 28.

Mrs. Galt Receives Medal of Honor Posthumously

Ceremonies were held at the Great Falls Army Air Base February 19 for the posthumous award of the Congressional Medal of Honor to the widow and parents of Captain W. W. Galt, a Montana State College graduate. The award was made by Brigadier General Dalet V. Gaffney, Commanding General of the Alaska Division of the Air Transport Command. This is the 91st such award in the United States.

Captain Galt met his death May 29, 1944, when he showed conspicuous gallantry above and beyond the call of duty at Villa Crocetta, Italy. He had previously won the Silver Star and the Purple Heart, and ranks as one of the outstanding Montana heroes of the war.

President R. R. Renne and Dean Clyde McKee attended the Great Falls ceremonies.

Marriage Course For Men Students

Attention men! Saturday, March 5 is your chance to register for Family Living, a marriage course in family relationships. This is the first time this course has been offered to men on our campus, and no doubt you have been waiting for this great opportunity!

Register in the 3 credit Home Problems 323 course now.

SENIOR ANNOUNCEMENT—

All seniors wishing calling cards, please order with the Book-store before March 10.

Students Register; No Classes Sat.

Registration for Spring quarter will be Saturday morning, March 3. The sectioning committee will be in the Library during registration hours, which are 8:30 to 12 noon.

Students will go to their class advisers first to secure registration cards, and to have them signed and approved. The student then proceeds to the Library where the sectioning committee will approve his section in courses that have more than one section. When all sectioned courses are approved and Mrs. Harrison's office has approved the women's housing, the student will present himself at the registration table for his particular class, and complete his registration.

Winter quarter examinations in one and two credit courses will be given the week of March 5 to 10. All other examinations will be given the last week of the quarter beginning at 8 a. m. Monday, Mar. 12 and continuing through the week to Saturday noon, Mar. 17.

Registration for students, who plan to enter as new students spring quarter, will be Wednesday, Mar. 21. Spring quarter classes will begin at 8 a. m. Wednesday, Mar. 21.

Juniors Honor Senior Women

March 8 at 7:00 p. m. in the Student Union Ballroom is the time and place set for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. This is given each year by the juniors in honor of the senior women. Tickets will be sold on March 5 and 6 in the Union lobby. Women faculty heads will also be guests.

At this banquet the seniors make nominations for AWS officers for the coming year.

Jane Matzke is in charge of the entertainment and Winifred McDermott is chairman of the arrangements for the dinner.

NOTICE

The tickets for the Junior and Senior banquet will be on sale in the S.U.B. Monday and Tuesday March 5 and 6. Be sure and get your tickets then.

Program Gives Ideas For Vet Counseling

About twenty-five people concerned with community counseling service are attending the training course this week given by Montana State College in cooperation with the Occupational Information and Guidance Service of the State Department of Public Instruction.

Mr. Leo Smith of the State Department of Public Instruction and Mr. L. O. Brockmann of the college staff are in charge of the program which will deal with counseling returning war veterans, displaced war workers and others.

The intensive course will include training in counseling techniques, obtaining and recording information, locating training opportunities, providing occupational information, and methods of following up counseling cases.

Monday's program included discussions of the need for community counseling service and the basic needs for counseling especially gaining information about the individual. The sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday continued to concern the need for counseling, stressing information about jobs, training opportunities, and information about Veterans' benefits.

The actual interview will be treated in the sessions Wednesday afternoon and Thursday. John Barnes, a veteran attending MSC will be a participant in the Friday morning conference which will be about counseling with special cases.

The course will conclude Friday afternoon with discussions about placement and follow-up in counseling services. All classes are being held in Room 202 of the Engineering Building.

This course was an outgrowth of the Readjustment Conference held at Montana State College in November 1944.

Play Ticket ANNOUNCEMENT

Anyone having unused tickets to "Letters to Lucerne" please contact Betty Jane Lauer before March 3. It is necessary that this committee have the unused tickets for the purpose of tax figures.

Wife of Army General Tells Of Problems Facing Homecomings

Mrs. Mark W. Clark, the brilliant and captivating wife of the famed commanding general of all the Fifth Army, will speak to the student body and faculty of Montana State college and to the citizens of Bozeman in a program to be held Monday March 5 in the gymnasium at 8:15 p. m.

In her talks, which are most unusual and timely and full of sympathy and understanding of the problems that face the boys when they do come home, she will show slides made from photos taken by General Clark and members of his staff.

Frats Pledge

Thirty-Four Men

The four active fraternities on the campus held a short rush week last week, which was climaxed with pledging Saturday noon. Wednesday night the Kappa Sigs had their party, Thursday night the Sigma Chis entertained with a party, and Friday night the Pi Kaps gave their party. The following men pledged fraternities: Kappa

Saturday night the Intra-Fraternity Council sponsored a dance in the Student Union Ballroom for all fraternity men and their dates. Chaperones for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Renne, and Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Klemme.

Alpha Tau Initiates Seven New Members

Lambda chapter, of Alpha Tau Delta, Nurses' Honorary, pledged seven new members February 1: Barbara Kay Beers, Aleva Benjamin, Lavonna Ullman, Ann Nyquist, Helen Butterfield, Phyllis Rowlee, and Eva Cowan.

Recently initiated were Shirley Mehlhaff, Geraldine Shotwell, and Rosemary Lorensen. After the initiation they were honored with a dinner at the Student Union Building. March 1 is the date set for the initiation for the seven new pledges.

The officers of Alpha Tau Delta are Shirley Mehlhaff, president; Marian Kuntz, vice-president; Geraldine Shotwell, secretary; Eva Cowan, treasurer; and Adeline Montgomery, custodian and historian.

The pictures, which she shows of the African invasion, including pictures of the house in which her husband held pre-invasion meetings with French officials in Africa, of the Casablanca conference, and the present Italian campaign—are not only unique and interesting, but have much historical significance as well. She will read extracts from the General's letters and his diary, which tell about the secret mission and the progress of the 5th Army in Italy.

Mrs. Clark also has taken part in all the war bond drives, speaking about what she terms "Victory Dollars." Her effort has netted millions of dollars in bond sales, U. S. Treasury Department officials have estimated.

Mrs. Clark has established herself as an outstanding platform headliner. From coast to coast she has been acclaimed as a great celebrity attraction. The appearance of this dynamic personality in the community is a thrilling event.

A tea in honor of Mrs. Clark will be held in the Student Union Lounge on Monday afternoon from 4 to 5:30 p. m. All women students are invited to attend.

Band Travels To Helena for Concert

Selections by the M. S. C. Concert Band were featured at the annual Washington's birthday program presented for senators, representatives, and visitors of the 29th legislative assembly February 22 at Helena at 2:00 P. M.

The program which was presented by the band was as follows: "America," "God Bless America," "Boston Commandery March," "American Patrol," and "America the Beautiful." The program was closed with the National anthem.

This is the 12th concert that the Bobcat band has played before state legislative sessions in the past 30 years. "Lou" Howard has been directing the band for 41 years, during which time he has taken his hands on 32 tours.

Preceding the concert Mr. Howard, Mr. Opp, and members of the band enjoyed a delightful banquet at the Montana Club in Helena. Corsages of blue and gold were presented to the 25 women students.

Letter Continued From Last Paper

If only they could all talk to us: those Marines from Guadalcanal, our boys who lie wounded or dead, our boys who are prisoners of the enemy, those veterans from Tarawa, Leyte, Africa, India, Italy, the Marshall Islands, and countless others.

When I saw that sailor run for home I wondered why we failed to do the same. Why don't we like-wise run for our goal now that it is in sight? We put our first few war loans over the top, but the last few weren't put over so quickly. At first we all bought bonds, war loans or not, but that isn't so common now.

You would be surprised at the number of war bonds cashed in at an average sized bank on an average business day. You would be ashamed, too. Those people are Patriots for a Day, a month or a year. Are you, also, one of those people? How our fighting boys and men would doubt us if they knew!

Everyone of us here at M. S. C. has been touched by war. There are, I believe, forty four, veterans attending college here. Ask them about this war and what it's like. If they've seen action, they'll know whether they talk about it or not. As for the girls—have you ever counted the number of diamonds on feminine hands that are on this campus? If so you know that most of those diamonds are from sweethearts overseas?

Since we all have so much at stake why don't we boost our bond sales? They are shamefully low, you know. How much more must happen before we realize that we can't afford not to buy bonds—lots of them? Don't we all want to bring those sweethearts, friends and relatives home again soon—before it's too late? Many of them, if, and when, they return, will be on this campus. Let's face them with a clear conscience.

Here is my suggestion: I suggest that every Friday, on our way out of Assembly, that each person—faculty member, student, and visitors alike—contribute as much as they feel is individually possible toward the purchase of war bonds. There should be small boxes at the heads of the stairs, on the same floor as the gymnasium, in which each person could drop his contribution. Spurs or Fangs could be in charge of this and count the money after each Assembly. They would report weekly to us through the Exponent. I would suggest that each person would contribute at least a quarter each time, but anything would help. We should buy bonds with this money for M. S. C. Money could thus be raised to future our post-war plans. Or how about the students of M. S. C. sponsoring a drive to raise enough money for the building of a ship. It is possible, you know, and if we all did our best we could do it. Think of how proud we would be and what it would mean to our fighting sons everywhere!

Well, how about it? What are your viewpoints, teachers? And you girls remember those sweet-

Dear Mom

Your last letter made me homesick, Mom. My girl told me she was getting homesick, too, but I think she's just sick because she can't go home this spring and charge something new for Easter. She says she feels awful about spending all of her father's money down here.

Last weekend the Intrafraternity boys gave a dance and the Bobcats went out of town so a lot of the girls that were planning to get there didn't but the ones that went had a real good time. I didn't go, Mom, because during Lent you're supposed to give up something you like a lot, so I gave up dancing and I think my girl gave me up. I don't know whether it's because I wouldn't take her to the dance or because she likes me a lot. It must be because she likes me because she went to the dance with someone else anyway.

You had to be a frat man or a pledge to get to that dance, but the Independents were having a sleigh ride and I wanted to drive a horse so I went to that. We stopped on the way and serenaded one of the Quads. The Alpha Gams had a dinner at Georgia's all on the same night too. Billie Meeker, I mentioned her last time, was managing things out there and I was wondering if maybe she and Georgia were going to get together more often and move Georgia into the SUB for one night or even for a while. A taxi ride is always nice, but it takes a lot of money and a girl and sometimes it's hard to find one of them.

You remember Larry Cooper, don't you? Well, he's been running around with his arm all bandaged up and in a sling. I didn't ask him how it happened, but the Health Service sure must be getting a lot of business. Nina Lee Norman has her ankle all wrapped up and two kids from the chem lab tied all the way over to Lewis Hall and came back wrapped up.

The Spurs 'n Fangs went all over town 'toter day and asked people if they wanted to room and board students. You see, we have to compete with Missoula so we have to find room for more people. They worked in partners and naturally Jean and Rusty were together because they wouldn't get very much done together, but they wouldn't get anything done apart. There was a high school basketball tourney going on and a lot of kids went down to see them play especially if their home town was playing. Gee Mom, why couldn't we have lived in a town so I could do things like that?

Remember those cars the cadets used to ride out to Belgrade in? Well, the S.A.E.'s bought one and it only cost them $75. They haven't got a garage to put it in without taking the top off. It goes 12 miles on a gallon of gas and 36 people can come in all at one time so they'll probably have a lot of picnics to fill it up my girl hopes. She also says she's going to get a heinie so she won't have to put up her hair every night. Then she'll look just like me.

Oney Gagon got an A on his econ test.

There's a banquet for the home ec girls tomorrow and I gave my girl a dollar so she could go. My girl and I go out to dinner a lot.

So long, Mom.

Lots of love,

Homer.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

For several weeks I have been deliberating whether I should take this means to express my feelings but after reading last weeks editorial (February 14) I no longer have to make a decision; I have made it.

The editorial states that the attendance at mixers has been very disheartening. This is caused by too few men dancers—in most cases anyway.

Obviously, the reason for this is the small enrollment of men. But if all the men students attended these mixers there would be a much larger turnout.

Most people seem to think that these "odd-balls" that don't attend are just unsocialable or book-worms. Of course, this is true in some cases, but in many more, it is not.

The real reason for their non-attendance is that they do not know how to dance. A great number are willing to learn but do not wish to do so in public. Well, how about somebody thinking a little on the subject and also doing something about it?

I am not the only one who thinks the same; I am one of the dozens.

"One who doesn't know how, but would like to learn."

P. S. Thank you.

(Editor's note: Is there any suggestions in the crowd?)

The first I'd really like to slam,

The one who copies my exam.

The other is the dirty skunk,

Who covers his and lets me flunk.

Cigarette Blues

The following song which is sung to the tune of "Stormy Weather" was taken from a reprint by the Kaimin of the words printed in the UCLA "Bruin."

"I can't go on
All my cigarettes are gone
Stormy weather
Since my weed and I ain't together
I'm so nervous all the time.

Counters bare
Can't find cigarettes no where
It's no joke

It's been weeks since I've had a smoke

I've never felt so blue.

L. S. M. F. T. means almost nothing to me

I would walk a mile but what good would it do me?

First thing that you know I'll put a bullet through me.

Wish I knew what to do!

I shouldn't gripe

I'll just buy myself a pipe

It's idiotic

I guess I am just a neurotic
Cigarettes blues must leave me,
not grieve me,

I've got those reefer blues.

Campus Chatter

Fraternity Row buzzed with activity last week-end as four frats pledged new members and climaxed the occasion with a semi-formal dance at the Student Union Building Saturday evening.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon placed pledge pins (for the second time) on Boyd DeTonnecour, John Barnes, Lyle McKinna, Joe Hodgeson, Bob Schiebe, Bob McCarthy, Zales Ecton, Dean Vaughn, and Otto Ost. Kappa Sigma's new pledges are John Canty, Paul Grammens, Bob Gutcheck, Bob Dyer, and Jim Caughren. Future wearers of the White Cross of Sigma Chi are John Schwartz, Bob Anderson, Bert Nelson, Dean Swenson, Ray Carlson, Ralph Tipling, Jim O'Neill, Darrell Fenner, Kermit Kruze, Ed McHugh, Bill Hawkins, Bob Miller Vernon Keller, Bill Wyatt, and Bob Bateman.

Also in the Greek spotlight last week was the Alpha O initiation ceremony making fully-fledged actives out of the following gals—Helen Boiler, Gloria Sampson, Nina Murriff, Joan Funk, Jane Gilbert, Jean Robinson, Betty Platt, Helen Wolfe, Beverly Kirkpatrick, Petey Kane, Anita Bruce, Blanche Franklin, Nancy Stenson, and Marjorie Roberts.

The Alpha Gams journeyed out to Georgia for their Winter Party last week while the gals in Quad B stayed at home and entertained themselves at a Valentine party, exchanged home-made Valentines and had a nice all-around good time doing it.

Lou Howard's Bobcat Band took off for Helena to entertain the members of the Montana Legislature at the traditional Washington's Birthday celebration.

Helena also beckoned several MSC Co-eds this weekend as Dot Underneath, Lily Stensland, and Ada Atkinson journeyed that way. Helen Steig and Beverly Benson spent the weekend in Livingston and Marjorie Dundas visited her home in Great Falls, while Pinky Morris dashed off to Belt. Marge and Muriel Roberts and Ann Marie Peoples slept away the weekend in Butte and Fran Vanden Beisen journeyed home to Hysham. Betty McPherson pulled out for Glendive while Shirley Melhoff chose Billings as an objective for the weekend. Kiki Gray took off for Fort Benton to see her man, home on furlough, and a trio composed of Pat Early, Irene Sher-row, and Jacques Wallace journeyed to Laurel.

Flash!! Greeks elect!—New Chi Omega officers for the coming year are: Marilyn Hoole, President; Kay Hoffman, Vice President; Ann Walton, Secretary; Margaret James, Treasurer; Mary Gray, Pledge Mother; Joy Bowden, Social Chairman; Helen Bottomly, House Manager; and Joy Russell, Rush Chairman.

And in the Pi Phi House, the gals of the Arrow elected as new leaders: Betty Germeraad, President; Suzanne Hinman, Vice President; Althea Maris, Recording Secretary; Elinor Arneson, Corresponding Secretary; Dot Underneath, Treasurer; Rausie Solberg, Pledge Supervisor; Faun Murray, House Manager; and Margaret Birkeland, Rush Captain.

Flash again!—and I do mean Flash! Jean Lamberg is now wearing a beautiful diamond, third finger left-hand from Cpl. Johnny Hughes, Sigma Rho, and Gloria Fallon is sporting an equally beautiful sparkler from Lt. Mark Faris, Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Dinner guest at the Pi Phi house Wednesday was Vonnice Ullman, while the Alpha Gams has as their guests the same evening Miss Bertha Clow, Miss Gertrude Roskie, and Mr. and Mrs. John Blankenhorn. Also that Wednesday, the Chi Omega's added places to their dinner table for Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cobleigh and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Schilling.

Jimmy Lyons of Billings was a visitor on the campus this week-end coming over to help his Sig brothers pledge their new members.

The Blue and Gold welcome mat was also extended this weekend to Rick Sherwood, former MSC student and member of S.A.E. who is now in Uncle Sam's Army Air Corps.

Dave Nesbit of New York, visited the A. O. Pi's—but more specifically—Eileen Reiquam during the week, while Alice Johnson played hostess to Cpl. Jimmy O'Hara.

That's "thirty" for now, but don't forget the big "Victory over the Grizzlies" celebration dance

Reporter Finds News From Other Papers

When we looked at our assignment the other day we found that we were to tell you what was going on in some of the other colleges and universities throughout the land. After looking over the publications of some other schools we find the following news notes:

The Denver Clarin — SPRING VACATION IS NOT CANCELLED (in type about two inches high.) Which brings to mind . . . will we or won't we? . . . All Denver U. Publications seem to have a slight deficit of $901.70 due to lack of ads so see what our ads do for us? An interesting column seems to be "Blarney and Banter" containing such things as: "She—I believe you love me just for my clothes. He—Test me," and these words of wisdom—"College is just like a laundry; you get out of it just what you put in to it, but you'd never recognize it."

The Montana Kaimin: MELBY URGES CHANGE IN ADMINISTRATIVE SYSTEM (That's news?) MSU celebrated 52nd Charter Day and a brief history of the University tells us that fifty students enrolled the first day of class in 1895 and the first faculty numbered 7 and in the 52nd year 898 civilian students have attended and the faculty numbers 104.

Rocky Mountain Collegian: — (Colorado State)—The "Kollege Krier" tells us that Chess is becoming so popular on campus that a chess club is to be organized, the weather's good for skiing and tobogganing, etc. . . . The Farmer's consultant, Polly Plowfield, advises the gals who love all the boys (and this could be applied to the lads that love all the gals) to not love everybody but leave that to the angels and SPECIALIZE. . . . (but what if they all specialize or concentrate on, shall we say "chasing" one or two boys—how about that Emil and Boyd?)

Saturday night in the Ballroom. Heinie Mockel is to supply the music and big plans are underway for a full evening of entertainment. It's to be a mixer and jeans and plaid shirts will be the order of dress. See you there!

Assembly Features Psychologists On "Postwar Family"

Dr. and Mrs. Garry Cleveland Myers, noted psychologists, discussed "The Postwar Family" before the students and faculty of M. S. C. on Friday, February 23. In their personal, humorous, and very effective manner, the famed couple presented one of the most successful assemblies of the year.

Using an informal style of presentation, Dr. and Mrs. Myers talked of the ideas young people should understand before going into war marriages, what the feelings of the average veteran will be toward college women, and other problems facing the postwar family. In their argument, they pointed out to the predominantly feminine audience that college girls should not write too enthusiastically about their college life to their friends in the service because it might make these men wish to be doing the same things and perhaps lead to a feeling of inferiority. Dealing with the feeling of inferiority, they brought out the problem of the women who have learned to be successful in business who will not want to go back to being housewives in the post war family. These points have come in for considerable discussion among the students.

Dr. and Mrs. Myers were the speakers at the Marriage Relations Course later in the afternoon.

CLUB BANQUET

Ada Atkinson, president of the Home Economics Club, states the plans have been made for the club's banquet on March 1. Miss Roski will be the main speaker, giving a review on her travels through Serbia. The banquet is for all members of the Home Economics club.

SOMETHING TO CRY ABOUT? Metallurgists are working on a method of hardening a projectile selectively in layers like an onion. The outermost layer will be hard and brittle, explain Westinghouse scientists, and the inner ones progressively stronger and tougher. The outer layer will score the surface of the target, break off, and allow the tougher projectile to follow through.

ARROWS GUIDE PLANES—Newest "light aids" to safe flying are two 83-foot illuminated traffic directing arrows, part of a system of 500 lights built by Westinghouse for the new Washington National Airport. Arrows guide incoming planes to runways when the field is clear.

THEY PAINT WITH GOLD—Two of the world's most precious metals—gold and platinum—are used to form a metallic base on porcelain insulators upon which solder is applied. Workmen apply the precious liquid, specially prepared, to the insulators. Baked at 1300 degrees Fahrenheit, the gold-platinum mixture forms a metal "coat" that becomes part of the porcelain. To this the solder readily adheres, although it would not "stick" to the slick surface of the porcelain.

RECORD DATA: Less than eighteen hours after the ban against recording was lifted, Vaughn Monroe and his orchestra assembled in the Victor's Manhattan studios to become the first Victor band to record in 27 months.

The first musicians to arrive started an informal jam session which continued and enlarged until the entire band was assembled. At 1 p. m. on Sunday the first session got under way and within forty-five minutes, the first "Master" disc was "in the can." First disc to be cut backed the "The Trolley Song" and "The Very Thought of You." The coupling was on sale just over 24 hours later! Fast previous recording-to-counter time ordinarily processing and production of a record was from 10 days to two weeks. Victor distributed 160,000 copies throughout the country before the week was out.

With bandleaders recording in Victor's New York, Chicago and Hollywood Studios, new discs will be flowing freely. Sammy Kaye's "There Goes That Song Again" and "You Always Hurt The One You Love" has gone on sale next week and so is the Spivak coupling "Let Me Love You Tonight" and "Too-ra-loo-ra-loo-ral."

On the Kaye sides, Nancy Norman sings "There Goes That Song Again" while Billy Williams, who does the "singing song titles" with Kaye, handles the lyrics on the torchy flipover tune. On the Charlie Spivak records, Jimmy Saunders sings the "A" side while Charlie's horn receives feature billing on "Too-ra-loo-ra-loo-ral."

On another Victor release, Tony Pastor is featured in a "Pastorized" version of "Confessin'," in which the maestro sings, and "Blues (My Naughty Sweetie Gave To Me)." Eugenie Baird sings the "Blues" side.

Hal McIntyre and his orchestra cut their first discs since the ban lifted last December. After the session the band stayed all night in New York, entraining the following morning for Boston. Four musicians, fatigued by the added trip to New York and the precision-necessary disc session, overslept. Band manager George Moffett, missing them on the train, hopped back to New York, got them out of bed, onto a train and up to the date just minutes before McIntyre gave the downbeat.

Spurs & Fangs Have Night Club After Bobcat-Grizzly Game

Remember the Spur-Fang concession at the Mortar Board Carnival? Of course you do! Well—this Saturday night, March 3, after the Boobcat - Grizzly game the concession will be repeated only on a much larger scale. There'll be music by Mockel, night club arrangement of tables and soft drinks. Let's get on the ball fellows and show the University we can throw a good dance too. It's up to you so let's really make a success of it.

Ski Club Plans Winter Dance

Hey there! Did ya' here? The Ski Club is going to throw a SnowBall about nine o'clock Mar. 24. But this is a special kind of a snowball for it will be semiformal and a little old snow queen will be reigning over the Ball so let's all get on the Ball and see that this thrown with a lot of wim, wiggor, and vitality.

More news from the Ski Club: Tryouts were held again for the girl's ski team and we proudly announce that the running was s fololws—Fran Teslow, 47.85; Pat Purdy, 49.45; Helen Jean Finch, 52.5; Martha Nichols, 1:16.7; and Mary Vaughan, 1:28.25. Congratulations gals and good luck in Dillon March 3 and 4! Entrants in the Ski Meet in Dillon will be eGorge Eusterman, Larry Cooper, Otto Ost, Ben Beatty, the five girls mentioned above. So again we say "lots o' luck to these people and lets bring home the trophies—hmmnn?"

NOTE: There will be a Ski Club meeting Thursday at 5 and if you cannot attend be sure and get an excuse or fines will be turned into Ed Howard's office and you know what that means.

Song of the Week

Attention, freshmen! Here's another song for you to learn. Hit the line, Montana. Montana wins today, We'll show the sons of (Missoula) That the Blue and gold hold sway. Rushing down the backfield, Victory or die, You can hear the boosters shouting. As the backs go tearing by. Rah! Rah! Rah! etc.

WAA Makes Plans For Swimming Meet

Have you heard? The swimming tournament it being held the third and fourth week of Spring Quarter. This will give you plenty of time to get in your eight practices and a chance to get some points for WAA. You may win a swimming suit too.

There are two different entries: Novice, for those having never entered a tournament before and Amateur for those who have had one or more entries. It's lots of fun and who knows, you may walk off with the swimming cup.

BLONDE TROUBLE

Was the wife a mite cold over the grapefruit this morning? Maybe this morning? Maybe you danced too often with that blande last night? Just telling her that the blonde didn't mean a thing to you won't smooth it over. But a little gift might. See Durand's for some very lovely smoother - overs.
