

SC Hosts Famous Four

MSC's Fieldhouse will host the Kirby Stone Four for a night performance Monday, October 26.

The hilarious foursome have included such famous clubs and shows as the Copacabana, Chez Sahara Hotel, Biltmore and many more. They have appeared on the Ed Sullivan Show, the Steve Allen Show, the Kate Smith Show, commanding millions through the medium of television, including Billie Holiday himself.

Usually stayed critic, in reviewing their recent opening at the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas, "A show business earth-shaking hit the Congo Room of the Sahara last night in the form of the Kirby Stone Four. Only a star of Martha Graham's caliber could have followed the wildest twenty minutes I have ever seen."

Then, she spent the first half hour graciously commenting on their show-stopping performance. "They sing, they satirize, they dance, they do near perfect impressions. Folks, this is an

Homecoming Awards Presented To Men's Co-op, Alpha Gamma Delta

Maxing the Homecoming was the presentation and awarding of the 1959 Float and House Decorations by Jim Sweet, Chairman and Themes Committee, and the 1959 Homecoming Queen, Maxine Nordby.

The judging of the Homecoming Float and House Decorations was divided into three sections for men and three for women.

The first section was the judging of floats. In the men's division the Men's Co-op placed first with their float depicting their "Old Man River." The Alpha Chi Fraternity placed second with their version of the "Old Song." Kappa Sigma Fraternity placed third with "South Sea."

In the Women's Float division, Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority placed first with a float depicting the Mermaid. Delta Gamma came in second with their "Down Mexico Way," and Kappa Delta Sorority placed third with "Only a Bird In a Cage."

The second section of judging was the Men's and Women's House Decorations.

Activity Cards will be handed out by the Spurs and Fangs, Saturday and Wednesday, October 20 and 21. The cards will be handed out in the Student Union lobby between the hours of 8:00 to 5:00. The Welfare Office is asking for the cooperation of the students in picking up these cards they will not be inconvenient later on.

In the Men's Division, the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity placed first with their interpretation of "Carousel." The Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity placed second with "The Old Mill Stream," and Sigma Nu placed third with "Little Brown Jug."

Kappa Delta won the Women's Division of the House Decorations with their theme, "Alexander's Ragtime Band." The Alpha Omicron Pi sorority placed second with "Indian Love Call," and the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority placed third with "Red Sails In the Sunset."

The third division of the judging was the combined sweepstakes for men and women. This is based on a combination of the points accumulated in the Float and House decoration divisions. There was a possible 600 points, and a cash award of $25.00.

The Sigma Nus and the Sigma Chis tied for the Men's award with a total of 423 points each. In the Women's division the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and the Kappa Delta sorority tied at 387 points each and split the cash prize.

In charge of arrangements for the parade and decorations were Jim Sweet, chairman of the Judging and Themes Committee, and Dave Sloan, chairman of the House Decorations Committee.

The judging of floats was done by Robert G. Dunbar of the History Department, Laurence C. Gerkens of the Architecture Department and Cyril H. Conrad of the Art Department.

According to chairman Sweet, the Judges were "quite pleased" with the floats and decorations and they thought that the themes had been "very well portrayed."

Frosh Will Elect Top Class Officer

Bill Anderson and Darrel Pearson will vie for the position of Freshman Class President in the general elections to be held next Tuesday. These two won over the eight other nominees in the primary election Tuesday. Other contenders for the title who were nominated at the "M" Day Eve Mixer were Sharon Mehling, John Minou, Dave C. Moulton, Tom Overturf, Mike Reymier, Ed "Tiny" Stout, Jerry Young, and Jim Young.

Frosh Win Scrap

The freshmen, in over-powering the undermanned sophomores, were victorious last Friday afternoon in the annual "Freshman-Sophomore Scrap." "The odds were just too great," replied one attending sophomore. "When you are out-manned twenty to one, there isn't much of a contest."

Plans Announced For Harvest Ball

October 31, will set the scene of the annual Harvest Ball. The agricultural club sponsored, semi-formal is under the general chairmanship of Joe Boyd.

The crowning of the "Aggie" queen will be the main event of the evening. Candidates for the title will be chosen from each of the living houses and one from the independents, and elected by the Agriculture Club.

The Planetters will set the mood for dancing. Tickets will soon be on sale for the low price of $1.50 per couple. Plan now to get in the full swing of fall by attending the Harvest Ball.

MSC Intercollegiate Debate League Announces Plans for Coming Year

The Intercollegiate Debate League, headed by Leslie A. Lawrence of the English department, has announced its debate plans for the coming quarter.

"With the interest shown by the turnout of the largest debate group in recent years and one of the best schedules, this promises to be an outstanding year in the field of forensics," according to Leslie A. Lawrence of the English department.

A group of twenty debaters has come forth to participate in the Intercollegiate Debate League program for the year. This number includes Don Micken, Martin Perga, John Kearns, Gary Crane, and Jack Dunn who debated last year and a group of outstanding freshmen.

These men come from all departments of the school and strangely enough, there are no English or speech majors. Mr. Lawrence pointed this out to show that participation in the debate program is not limited to any group and all are welcome to take part.

The program for the year includes several major debate tournaments, two of which are scheduled for this fall. The first tournament is the Gem State Jamboree at Idaho State College in Pocatello, Idaho. Mr. Lawrence expressed the belief that this will be the best competition of the season. This is an early season meet attended by nine teams on a strict selection basis from all over the country. Among the teams participating will be the West Point Academy debate

Glynn Urges Senate Action

In a three point challenge to Student Senate as the governing body of MSC, Dean Val Glynn urged action on the following three proposals:

1. That some measure be taken to improve student conduct at football games. Dean Glynn spoke specifically of the Homecoming game as "the worst display I have ever seen." He continued, "If there is not enough pride in our student body that they look forward with pride in their reputation, some steps are going to have to be taken."

2. That October 31, scheduled as MSC Parent's Day for parents of Bobcat football players be considered for extension to a general all-parents day to include parents of all MSC students.

3. That Student Senate invite MSU student leaders to meet to discuss fan participation in the Nov. 7 Bobcat-Grizzly game. Dean Glynn commented, "A healthy rivalry is good, but a destructive physical rivalry has no place." He suggested that such a convocation become an annual event to meet alternately on MSC and University campuses.

team and the Air Force Academy debate team.

The topic to be debated will be: Resolved: That Congress should have the power to reverse decisions of the supreme court. John Kearns and Don Micken will debate the affirmative, and Jack Dunn and Gary Crane will take the negative. Don Micken will also be entered in Extemporaneous Speech. The team will leave Thursday to attend the three day meet Oct. 22, 23, and 24.

The second meet of the season will be the Rocky Mountain Forensic League Tournament at Salt Lake City, Utah on Nov. 5, 6 and 7. This league is made up of teams from schools in the Rocky Mountain States, with Montana State College being the only member from Montana. The team representing MSC will be selected from the group of twenty debaters with the idea of allowing as many as possible to participate rather than selecting a specific team to represent the school at all the big meets.

Mr. Lawrence urges that anyone interested in taking part in these meets contact him at any time.

Series Continues

A continuation of summer quarter's lecture series, "The Challenges," will begin October 26 at 4 p.m. in the SUB lounge. The featured speaker will be Peter J. Merkleijn, a cultural anthropologist from Lynden, Holland. Mr. Merkleijn will also speak at a noon luncheon October 27 in the SUB dining room.

Editorially Speaking . . .

Poor Conduct Noted

About 7,500 fans, which included returning alumni, Governor Aronson and many embarrassed students, witnessed a display which has not had an equal in the four years this editor has attended football games.

This display was, of course, the stupid, irresponsible throwing of bottles at the North Dakota game. The offenders obviously knew what they were doing; they displayed their accuracy by driving the cheerleaders away from their stations. One clever drinker succeeded in hitting one of the small girls pictured on page 1.

Yes, it was a day to be proud of! A bottle-throwing display which must have made the alumni think they were at the wrong college—and President Renne probably wished they were. Governor Aronson no doubt has glowing comments about the "high school" behavior of MSC students.

It is worth mentioning that the drinkers did not vent their enthusiasm in the form of yells. How could they? They had driven the cheerleaders out of the area.

It seems to me that the administration has been more than broad-minded with MSC students and their "enthusiasm." However, who can expect this attitude to continue? Who can blame them for stationing policemen in the stands?

Then listen to those drinkers scream. Maybe they ought to be stationed down on the track and let the bottles bounce off them.

One last word of comment: prepare yourselves for penalties, restrictions, threats and other feathers of that bird called Irresponsibility.

Letters To The Editor . . .

Mail Box Has Busy Week

Dear Editor:

On the eve of Homecoming 1959, MSC saw the beginning of a disgusting and contemptible practice which should never be repeated on this campus — namely, the selling of hours by the World University Service.

Personally I do not believe in the "hours system," but this is not the matter in question. As long as we are going to have hours they must be considered a privilege to be enjoyed by all and not just by those who can afford them. True, the cost was nominal, however, this is not the point. The cost makes no difference, it is the principle of privileges for the privileged. Agreed, it is a wonderful way of making money, but there are many other methods that are much more ethical for raising funds.

The Dean of Women, or any other member of the faculty, has no business authorizing any group to sell the privilege of late hours. The late hours, for this type of function, should either be made a blanket ruling or they should not be granted at all.

A situation in which hours are being sold puts both boys and girls alike in somewhat of an embarrassing position in many cases. The boy may not feel that he wants to shell out a dollar for an extra hour and the girl may not feel that she wants the boy to get the late leave. However, they both feel obligated to comply.

As long as we are going to sell this one privilege, we might as well capitalize on this idea and really make the money. How about selling the freshmen the right on not wearing their beanies, or selling the privilege of cutting campus. These, of course, are exaggerations, but something like this can snowball. I personally will fight any further attempts to carry on this practice at MSC.

Sincerely,
Bruce Jacobsen

Dear Tom:

I am writing this letter to explain the Century Club parking lot used during the football and basketball seasons on our campus.

The Century Club is part of the Montana State College Athletic Scholarship Association that consists of donors who give $100 or more during the school year for scholarships. The parking lot is one of several privileges afforded these members to stimulate membership in the club. This plan is similar to the one in use at the University of Montana.

Montana State College leases the parking lots in return for academic scholarships. This year the amount is $1,000.

We feel that this is an important and necessary part of our scholarship program and recommend that the students endorse this without reservations.

Sincerely yours,
GENE BOURDET
Athletic Director

Dear Exponent Editor:

This is, undoubtedly, one of many letters you have received concerning the conduct of MSC students at the game last weekend. I feel compelled to write, however, because, being a transfer, perhaps I looked upon the situation more as an outsider, and thus, more objectively.

Certainly, if there is a time and place for drinking on a college campus, a public football game is neither the time nor the place. Saturday's activity was indeed a display of how very young are many of the members of our supposedly "adult" campus.

It "the boys" insist upon making such fools of themselves, why not limit it to private functions, so that guests and other students can enjoy themselves without being subjected to the obnoxious behavior shown by these students with an obviously distorted sense of values?

Can't the student government do something about this?

Sincerely,
BONNIE HEFTY

MSU Masquers To Present Play

by Neal Roberts

"Marriage is a bribe to make a housekeeper think she's a householder," says merchant Vandergelder in the opening moments of "The Matchmaker," to be presented by the MSU Masquers in the SUB theater October 21st. "I'm thinking of getting married. Yes, like all you other fools, I'm willing to risk a little security for a certain amount of adventure." With this, a hardheaded man of much sense and money sets off the fuse of a comedy that played for 486 performances on Broadway, was voted one of the ten best plays for the 1955-56 season, toured from coast to coast and was recently made into a movie starring Shirley Booth and Anthony Perkins.

Vandergelder, played by Jack Upshak of Chinook, has just finished making his first half-million (the play's setting in the early 1890's makes that a fortune) and wants to find a replacement for his first wife who died ("foolishly") many years ago before he became rich. He isn't the only one eligible; his pretty niece Ermingarde is of marriageable age and in love with an artist. Strangely, the artist is successful. Vandergelder distrusts this and ships Ermingarde off to a friend in New York, then heads for the metropolis himself in company with Mrs. Levi, a female con-man of the first water, who is doing her best to become his second wife. She is, by the way, doing this in an extremely devious fashion.

With the merchant gone, his chief clerk, Cornelius, decides that he and Barnaby, the other clerk, should also have a day off. When Barnaby asks how this is to be done, Cornelius tells him that all they have to do is to light a match under several cans of rotten tomatoes Vandergelder has in stock and the store won't be a fit place for man nor beast for the next week. "And how can we work then?" says Cornelius. Setting the action to the word, they depart for New York to the rumble of exploding tomatoes.

What happens when the various characters meet in New York's most expensive restaurant set a new precedent for a Masquer play in Missoula. "The Matchmaker" ran for a week this past summer and was further presented for ten days after opening of MSU's Fall Quarter.

Curtain will go up at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, October 21st in the Student Union Theater. Reserved seats will be available at the rate of fifty cents for MSC students and one dollar for all others. Tickets will be on sale in the Student Union starting Monday, October 19th, and can also be obtained by calling MSC extension 254.

Curtain Calls

by Ann Dunbar

This week's motion picture to be shown at the Student Union Theatre is "The Life of Emile Zola," starring Paul Muni. It will be shown Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:00. This should be an outstanding film for two reasons: It tells the story of a great but controversial writer and the man who portrays him is one of the foremost actors of today. Emile Zola (1840-1902) is best remembered for his defense of Dreyfus in the most celebrated political scandal of modern times.

More important, however, is his contribution to literature as the leader in the Naturalism school of writing. His writings are marked by "scrupulous accuracy of background, speech, and psychology, and by the recurring theme of determination of character by heredity and environment".

I see where a group of medical researchers have found that wild emotions may lead to death. Now, agreed, this may explain many things. But, I know of some crazy mixed up emotions that would lead to such sweet death.

Like, here I was, sitting in the coffee study hall when this drag strolls by and says: "Isn't it disgraceful the way some of these boys dress?" The male in question surely wasn't dressed in Dior, but his Levi's and sweat-shirt were a lot more practical for working in. The various music groups also in rehearsal. Under the direction of Maurice Casey, Madrigal Singers prepare for presentation at many of downtown clubs and functions. This group will also be heard ten on campus at college programs. The Symphonette, directed by Creech Reynolds, is rehearsing, among other selections, Ferde Grofe's Grand Canyon Suite. Dear Dr. Frood: I am a 35-year-old freshman. Should I wear a beanie?

Worried

Dear Worried: If I were a 35-year-old freshman, I'd wear a mask.

Dear Dr. Frood: Nobody likes me. Girls despise me. Men can't stand me. Profs detest me. Dogs snap at my cuffs. What should I do?

Hated

Dear Hated: Don't ask me. I don't like you, either.

Dear Dr. Frood: I'm a non-conformist. But I smoke what everybody else smokes — Lucky Strike. How can I be different and still smoke Luckies?

I. M. Odd

Dear Mr. Odd: Light both ends of the Lucky and insert a straw into the middle. Sip the smoke through the straw and say "wildsville" after each puff.

Ag Department Has Students Visit Three Montana Ranches

Nine range management students and two faculty members from the department of animal industry and range management at Montana State College have just returned from a senior field trip to three Montana ranches.

Making the trip were: John Dahl, Belgrade; Ronald Davis, Hardin; Gordon Decker, Quietus; Eduardo Doberti, Punta Arena, Chili; Ernest Kehrberg and Dennis Jones, Bozeman; Charles McGlothlin, Lodge Grass; Earl Peterson, Beach, No. Dak.; Wendell Sanderson, Lewistown; Dr. G. F. Payne, associate professor of range management; and D. E. Ryerson, assistant professor of range management.

All of the group are seniors, except Doberti, Jones, and Peterson, who are graduate students. The trips are required of all range management students before they can be graduated from MSC.

On the trip the group visited the Burd Ranch, Browning, operated by Dick Cassutt; the Lou E. Hill ranch, Mosby; and the Bronson Tolman ranch, Belfry.

The Burd ranch is a rough fescue type in a glaciated area; the Hill ranch is in the sedimentary plains of central Montana; and the Tolman ranch is in the mountain cutwash foothills.

The purpose of the trip was to acquaint the students with ranges on each of these different soils. On each of the stops they toured the entire ranch, checking range sites, condition, kinds of grasses, productive condition, and discussed the ranch operation and management methods used, Dr. Payne said.

ing for their fourth win of the season when they meet the Idaho
"Bengals" at Pocatello.
Mont State College has a current 2-2 record.

The homecoming time for Ida-winning streak the Bobcats had at that time. Coach Herb says, "They will be a tough battle, just like they always have been."

Each Aggie will again be in his three platoon system.
The team is comprised of the Gold
(the dual-purpose unit), the Cats (offensive unit), and the Renne-gades (defensive unit). The Renne-gades have had one touchdown scored against them this season. The team starts the game while the other two supplement as reserves.

The line-up on these teams is as follows:

Team:
Surdam and Lowell
Bickles Blastock and Schilling

A Campus-to-Career Case History

Engineering of microwave relay and carrier systems keeps Bryan Clinton's job interesting and challenging.

"I got the engineering career I wanted
...and right in my own home state"

In 1955, William Bryan Clinton, Jr., got his B.S. in Mechanical Engineering at Clemson College. Now Bryan's with Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company at Columbia, South Carolina.
He's doing specific planning of long distance communications projects involving cable carrier facilities and microwave radio relay systems.

Bryan chose a career with Southern Bell over several other offers. "There were three things that were most important to me," he says. "First, I wanted to go with an established, growing company where I could grow, too. Second, I wanted thorough basic training to get started off right, plus participation in development programs to keep me moving ahead. And, third, I wanted to stay in the South."

After 15 months of on-the-job training in various phases of company operations,
Bryan was assigned to the Engineering Department at Columbia, S. C. His work with carrier systems and microwave radio projects has involved him directly in the growth of the company. And he's broadened his experience through development courses in management, general engineering, engineering economy, and microwave relay systems.

"I know I'm with a fast-growing company and I feel I'm really participating in its growth," Bryan says. "What's more, I'm getting the training I need to keep me abreast of new communications developments and take better advantage of advancement opportunities when they come along."

Bryan Clinton earned a B.S. degree in Mechanical Engineering. He's one of many young college men pursuing rewarding careers with the Bell Telephone Companies.

interviewer when he visits your campus—and read the

ROCCO PERCIAVALLE, sturdy Bobcat Fullback hits pay dirt early in the first quarter of last Saturday's Homecoming game, as Bob Rudio throws a convincing block into a would be North Dakota tackler. This opened the way for the Cats to romp on to their seventh straight Homecoming victory

Bobcats Rout Bison

About 7,500 Homecoming football fans converged on Gatton Field last Saturday afternoon to see the Bobcats roll over the North Dakota State Bison 24-12.

The Bobcats piled up a 16-0 lead by the half, only to see a fired up North Dakota team come back in the second half in a bid for victory. However, the Bobcats were able to put the clincher on the game in the last three minutes to give them their third win of the season.

Montana State controlled the first half completely, in contrast to the second half which was the Bison's. The Bison suffered their first defeat of the season here and had a 3 win, 1 tie record spoiled.

The Bobcats inability to get a sustained drive going was due mostly to fumbles and a pass interception, but was also due to the determination of the strong Bison club.

The Cats moved 72 yards in 13 plays the first time they got their hands on the ball to set up a TD plunge by Rocco "the Rock" Perciavalle from the 1 yard line. Quarterback Dave Alt ran the ball over for 2 extra points.

The Bisons came roaring back only to have their drive stopped on the Bobcat 8.

At this time quarterback Gary Davies and end Dick Nawotczynski combining on a fabulous display of passing and receiving the Bobcats moved 92 yards for their second touchdown.

That march was highlighted by Davies throwing four passes to the big end who took them without a baffle including a 29-yard pass and run that included the TD.

Davies then stepped back and pitched to halfback Sam Moore for the extra 2 points. This gave the M-starters their halftime lead of 16-0.

The second half saw NDS come back and keep the Bobcat defense backing up. Gary Ahlgren's 2-yard plunge gave NDS their first score of the game.

Jim McLeod's fumble of the kick-off return gave the Bison another big break and quarterback Ross Forher worked them to the Cat 8. Dan Costello, in a fine defensive play, put them back to the 13 however. At this time the Bisons elected to try a field goal which was blocked by end Bob "Bones" Surdam.

The 'Cats suffered a rough break when they had a pass intercepted by Fortier who came back to the three. Two plays saw Fortier sneak over to make the score 16-12. At this point it could've been anybody's ball game, but in the last three minutes of play MSC put on the clincher.

MSC's fine halfback Tommy Molen recovered a fumble by the NDS fullback, Curt Quenette. Then the Go-Cats, composed of Rudio, Molen, and sophomore Jerry Johnson went for a 61-yard march. Johnson went over for the score in two plays from the 10. Davies then passed to Molen for the extra points to give the contest it's final score of 24-12.

Statistics of the game were:

	MSC	NDS
First downs	21	13
Rushing yardage	262	113
Passing yardage	85	135
Passes intercepted by	0	2
Punts	3-33	3-38
Fumble lost	3	4
Yards penalized	38	10

Kittens Lose To Northwest

The Northwest Community College Trappers, of Powell, Wyoming, defeated the MSC Bobkittens by a score of 33-17, last Friday night in Powell.

The Bobkittens held the Wyoming club to a 6-6 tie in the first quarter, but at the end of the first half, Wyoming was ahead 13-6. In the second half of play, the Trappers again increased their lead; and when the final gun blew, the score was 33-12 in favor of Wyoming.

The Bobkittens, due to injuries, were not at their full power in last week's game. Bucky May was out with an infected ear, and two top guards, Don Shaloyda and Tom Monterassi, were out with injured hands.

The players who made a good showing in last Friday's game were Hans Fedge, tackle; Bill Mulcahy, quarterback; and Butch Bacon, halfback.

Next weekend the MSC Kittens will play the Cubs from MSU. It will be the biggest game of the season for the Kittens, and will be played in Butte, Saturday afternoon.

The Bobkittens are planning on being back in full strength next weekend, so they'll be gunning for the boys over the Hill.

SET, HIKE. AGR center Dick Siderius is about to start motion in the Sigma Nu-Alpha Gamma Rho intramural football. IM football got off to a slow start this season due to the weather, but the league is in full swing now, with each team playing three games a week.

Women's Intramurals to Begin Skiers To Meet

Monday, October nineteenth, will be the date for the starting of Women's Athletic Association intramural games. Starting out the season will be volleyball and table tennis, with badminton, bowling, hiking, swimming, tumbling, and rifle marksmanship to follow.

All girls are reminded to pay their dues, as non-members are not eligible to compete in intramural sports.

Also, gym facilities, including the pool, are open on Thursday nights from 4:30 to 9:30 for all women on campus.

The Bridger Bowl Ski Patrol will have an organizational meeting, Monday, October 17, 7:30 p.m., in room 101, Roberts Hall. All interested skiers are urged to attend. New patrolmen are needed and experience is not necessary, according to John Kutzman, patrol leader.

SPORTS SHORTS...

By KEMP WILSON

Old Mother Nature smiled down on MSC's campus last day as she provided ideal weather for the Homecoming. The fans were in fine spirits too, namely Four, Smirnoff, and the like of such chill chasers.

MSC's annual cross country race ended up in a sea of last Friday afternoon, as those contestants hardly to finish the race fell across the finish line. Terry, transfer student from Ricks College, took first, with a fast 16.74 minutes time for the 2.8 mile course.

Montana State's basketball outlook was dimmed considerably this week when it was learned that senior forward Len Broz is stricken with hepatitis. Broz, who was to be one of the Bobcats' stars this year, will be out the entire season.

The Bobkittens, who are currently sporting a 1-2 won-loss record, have been plagued with injuries for the past few weeks. Loss of all but one member of their starting backfield was a major factor in the losses they sustained to date.

Coach Bob Beck has had the USC ski team members working out with the cross country team in order to have them in top condition when ski season rolls around. As a result of this training, two ski team members were among the first ten finishers in the school cross country race. If he isn't careful, he may have the best running ski teams in the country.

Sir Isaac Newton is struck by another great idea!

IT'S WHAT'S UP FRONT
THAT COUNTS

As sure as little apples, Newton knew that what goes up must come down.

But when it comes down to a really pleasurable filter cigarette, it's what goes up—in front of the filter, that is—that makes the difference!

And there's where Winston had an inspired idea — Filter-Blend! Winston specially selects choice, mild tobaccos, then specially processes them for filter smoking. The result: Filter-Blend up front of a modern filter. That's what makes Winston a complete filter cigarette.

Filter-Blend also makes Winston America's best-selling, best-tasting filter cigarette. Take it from Sir Isaac:

"You don't have to be hit on the head to know that Winston tastes good like a cigarette should!"

FOOTBALL: ITS CAUSE AND CURE

Next Saturday at the football game while you are sitting in your choice student's seat behind the end zone, won't you give a thought to Alarie Sigafoos?

Alarie Sigafoos (1868-1934) started life humbly on a farm near Thud, Kansas. His mother and father, both named Ralph, were bean-gleaners, and Alarie became a bean-gleaner too. Later he moved to Oregon and found work with a logging firm as a stump-thumper. Then he went to North Dakota where he tended the furnace in a granary (wheat-heater). Then he drifted to Texas where he tidied up oil fields (pipe-wiper). Then to Arizona where he strung dried fruit (fig-rigger). Then to Kentucky where he fed horses at a breeding farm (oat-toter). Then to Long Island where he dressed poultry (duck-plucker). Then to Alaska where he drove a delivery van for a bakery (bread-sledder). Then to Minnesota where he cut up frozen lakes (ice-slicer). Then to Nevada where he computed odds in a gambling house (dice-pricer). Then to Milwaukee where he pasted camera lenses together (Zeiss-splicer).

Finally he went to Omaha where he got a job in a tannery beating pig hides until they were soft and supple (hog-flogger). Here he found happiness at last.

Mr. Doubleday had invented baseball the day before....

Why, you ask, did he find happiness at last? Light a firm and fragrant Marlboro, taste those better makin's, enjoy that filter that filters like no other filter filters, possess your souls in sweet content, cross your little fat legs, and read on.

Next door to Alarie's hog-floggery was an almond grove owned by a girl named Chimera Emrick. Chimera was pink and white and marvelously hinged, and Alarie was instantly in love. Each day he came to the almond grove to woo Chimera, but she, alas, stayed cool.

Then one day Alarie got a brilliant idea. It was the day before the annual Omaha Almond Festival. On this day, as everyone knows, all the almond growers in Omaha enter floats in the big parade. These floats always consist of large cardboard almonds hanging from large cardboard almond trees.

Alarie's inspiration was to stitch pieces of pigskin together and inflate them until they looked like big, plump almonds. "These sure beat skinny old cardboard almonds," said Alarie to himself. "Tomorrow they will surely take first prize for Chimera and she will be mine!"

Early the next morning Alarie carried his lovely inflated pigskin almonds over to Chimera, but she, alas, had run off during the night with Walter T. Severidge, her broker. Alarie flew into such a rage that he started kicking his pigskin almonds all over the place. And who should be walking by that very instant but Abner Doubleday!

Mr. Doubleday had invented baseball the day before, and he was now trying to invent football, but he was stymied because he couldn't figure out what kind of ball to use. Now, seeing Alarie kick the pigskin spheroids, his problem was suddenly solved. "Eureka!" he cried and ran to his drawing board and invented football, which was such a big success that he was inspired to go on and invent lacrosse, Monopoly, run sheep run, and nylon.
