TANAN

The objective of everyone entering an institution of higher learning is to cultivate the scholastic attitude by intensive study. Most still find time to enter in certain of the other functions to which this book is dedicated. We have tried, in some way, to enter into this annual everything that will bring vivid memories to you in the future. The sports . . . the activities . . . the campus events . . . the organizations, all did their part in creating this annual.

Montana State has molded us into the kind of individuals that we are and will continue to be. When success comes our way let us remember that "All we are and hope to be, we proudly owe to MSC".

May this volume bring much enjoyment and pleasure wherever you may be in the future.

Heating Plant

This unit of M.S.C. provides heat and warmth for the majority of the buildings on the hill. The plaintive notes of its whistle welcome each new day as it awakens the sleepy campus and surrounding area.

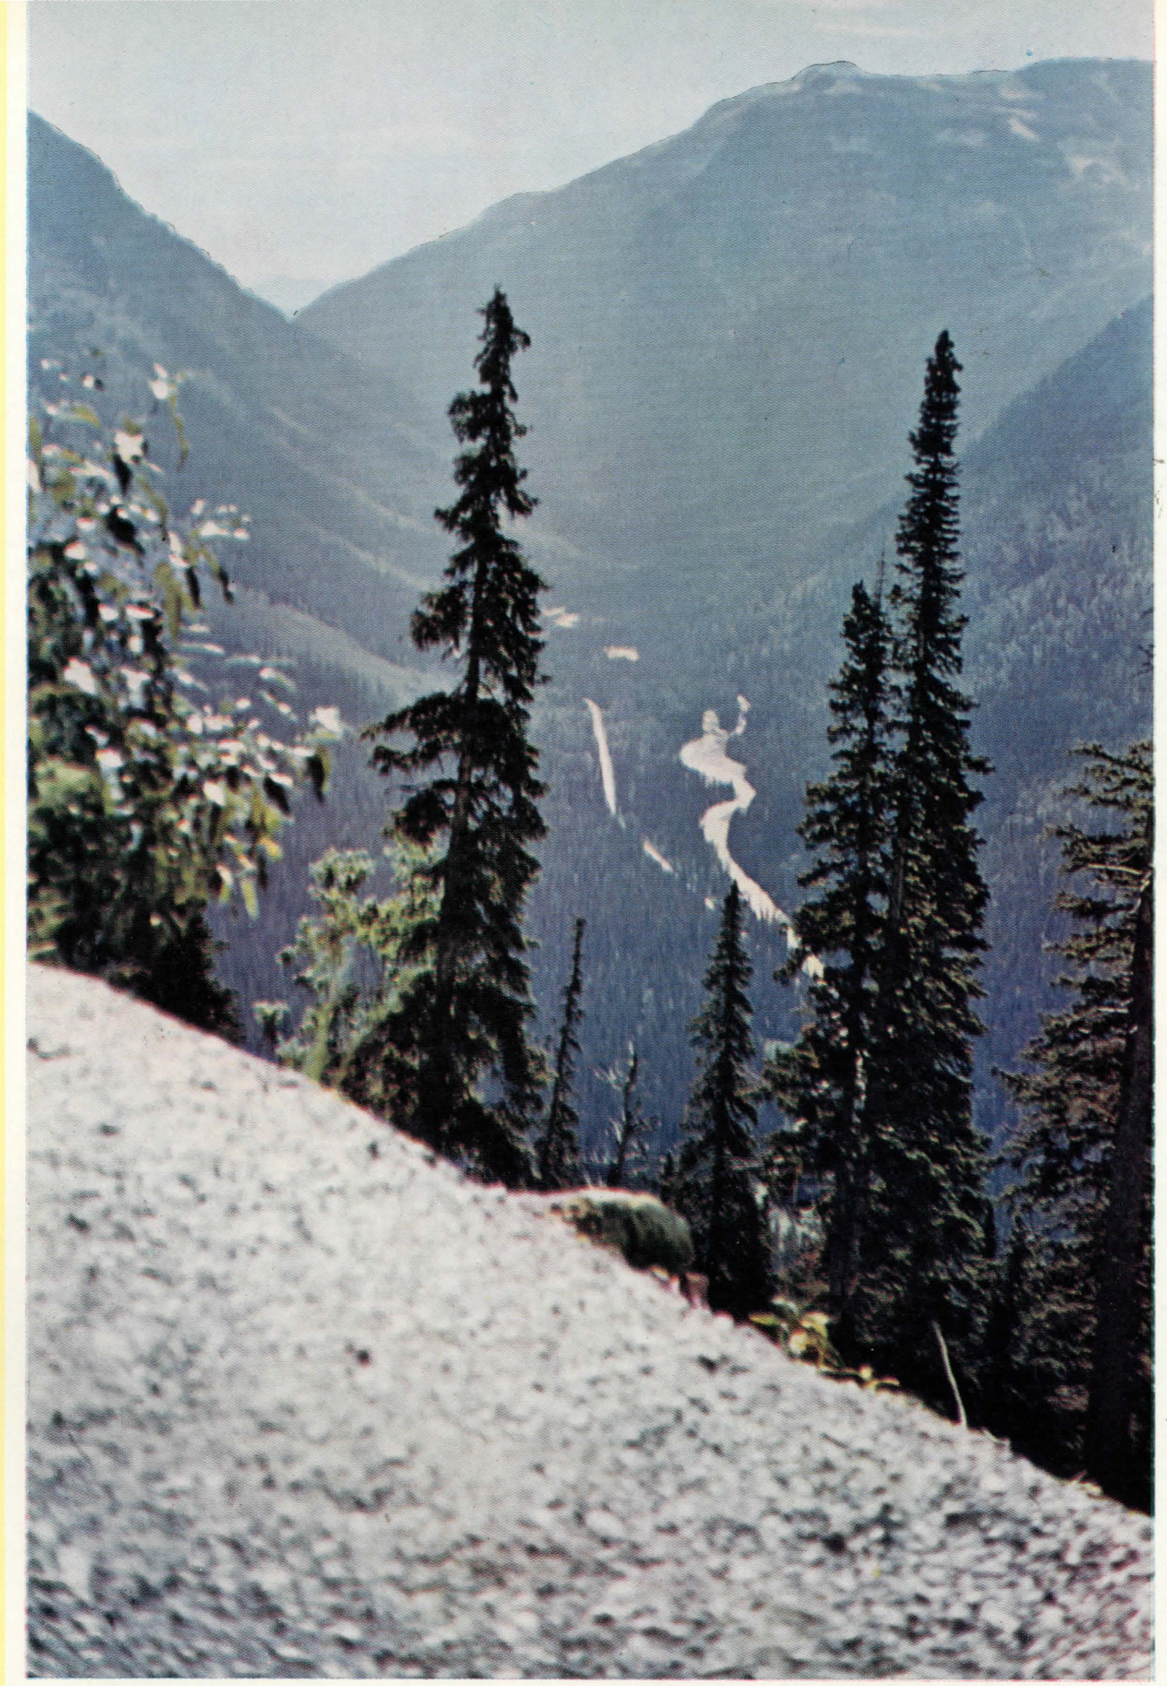

REGISTRATION

Sometimes known as organized confusion, this necessary bit of college life constitutes the preliminary step into college. Loaded down with cards, papers, files, etc., the hapless student is turned loose among a myriad of vicious professors who wreak havoc everywhere.

Of course, it all isn't as bad as it sounds; for everything always turns out right in the end. Due credit must be given to all those involved for making it as easy as it is.

This busy little man, in the white jeep, provides the ever so necessary enforcement of parking regulations on our campus. Leaving a trail of red "reminders" in his wake, he seems to be everywhere at once. Without his untiring efforts the parking situation on campus could easily result in a major problem.

Administration

DR. R. R. RENNE

President Renne

R. R. Renne, Montana State's president, has presided over this campus since 1944. With a constantly increasing enrollment, Dr. Renne has had a big job expanding the campus facilities to meet with crowded conditions.

Hannon Hall, the beautiful new women's dorm, and Lewis & Clark Hall, the new men's dorm, are just two of the many new additions on campus that may be accredited to this busy little man. The $900,000 addition on the student union building can also be acknowledged as the result of his untiring efforts.

In the past he was appointed a member of the Water Resources Policy Commission by President Truman; was named a member of the executive committee of the Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities and he has spent two years in the Philippines as chief of the Mutual Security Agency Mission. He returned to M.S.C. in 1953, continuing his position as President of Montana State College.

DEAN GLYNN

DEAN BROWN

Deans Brown and Glynn

DEAN BROWN – With the successful completion of this, her third year as guardian of M.S.C.'s young ladies, Dean of Women, Esther Brown, has left a very favorable record.

Aiding the women students in their problems and guiding all of them to a more mature education, she acts as a helping friend to all the students. Dean Brown controls the various programs that the young ladies participate in, especially in the spring during the annual Women's Day events.

VAL GLYNN – Dean of students, and friend to all is Val Glynn, the big man responsible for the welfare of the students.

A member of the famous 1929 Golden Bobcats, he still holds a keen interest in M.S.C.'s athletics. With such an avid personal interest for the school as a whole he takes special interest in each student's problems and guides them in any or all of their troubles.

Division of Agriculture

DR. MAURICE M. KELSO

The Ag majors digress in many related fields and subjects. Among these being horticulture, animal industry, dairy mechanics, poultry industry, agronomy and various other applied fields. They apply these in various ways in future life in education, research, business, or on the farm.

Dean Kelso heads the aggie division and has the pleasant dual purpose job of laying out the courses that will be most beneficial to the student and then seeing to it that he passes.

As director of Montana Experiment Stations, Dean Kelso has done a wonderful job in promoting a broader research program on Montana's eight experiment stations.

Division of Education

DR. JAMES F. NICKERSON

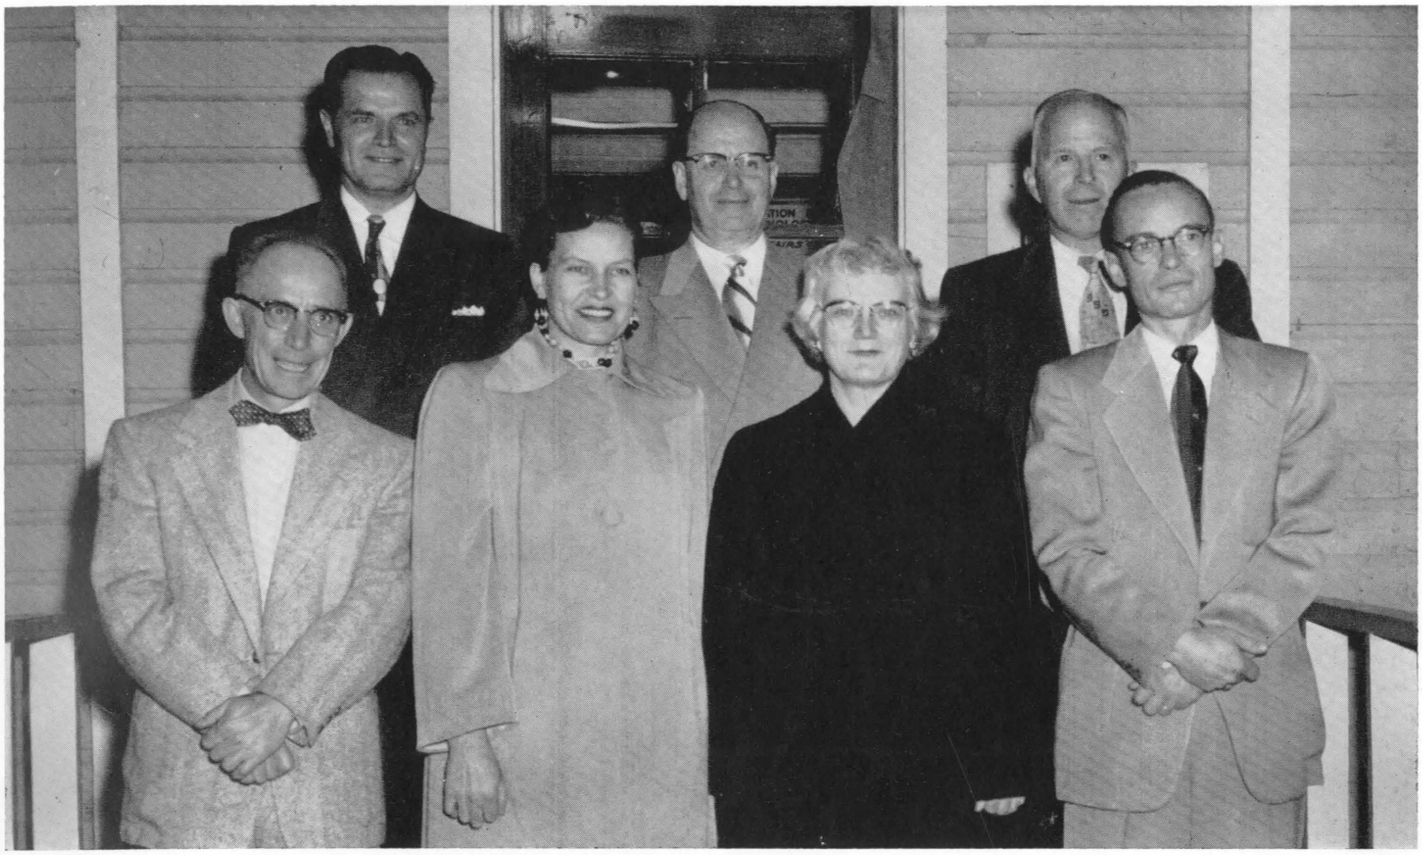

The very important job of supplying the future educators of America belongs to this Division. Under the leadership and control of Dr. James F. Nickerson, Dean of Education, students study specific fields along with a general liberal arts course to help alleviate the desperate need for teachers at the present time.

Emerging as its own division only last year, this department has been expanding and developing rapidly; showing promise of becoming one of the largest fields of study in the future.

Division of Engineering

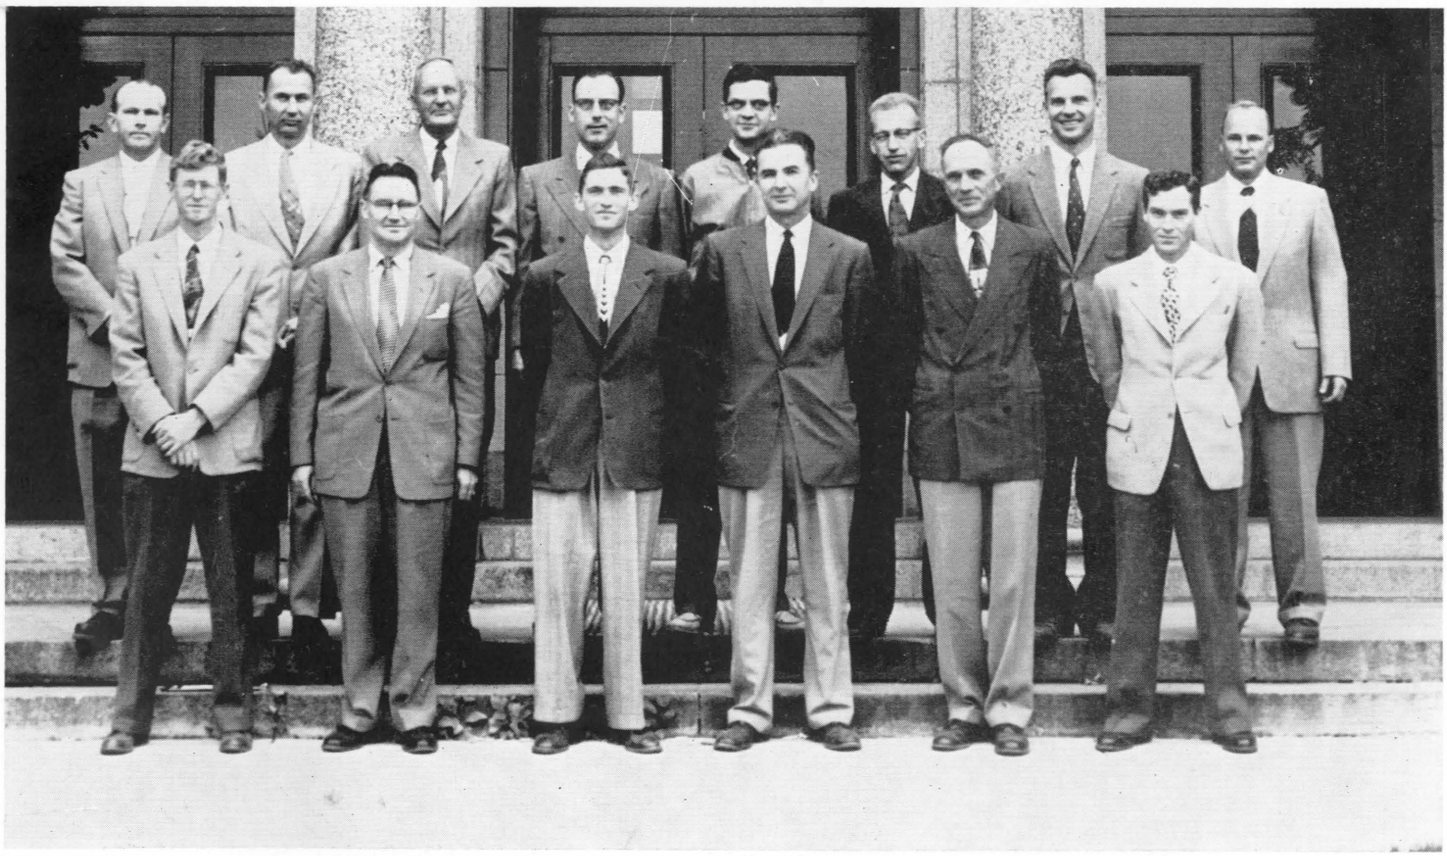

DR. E. W. SCHILLING

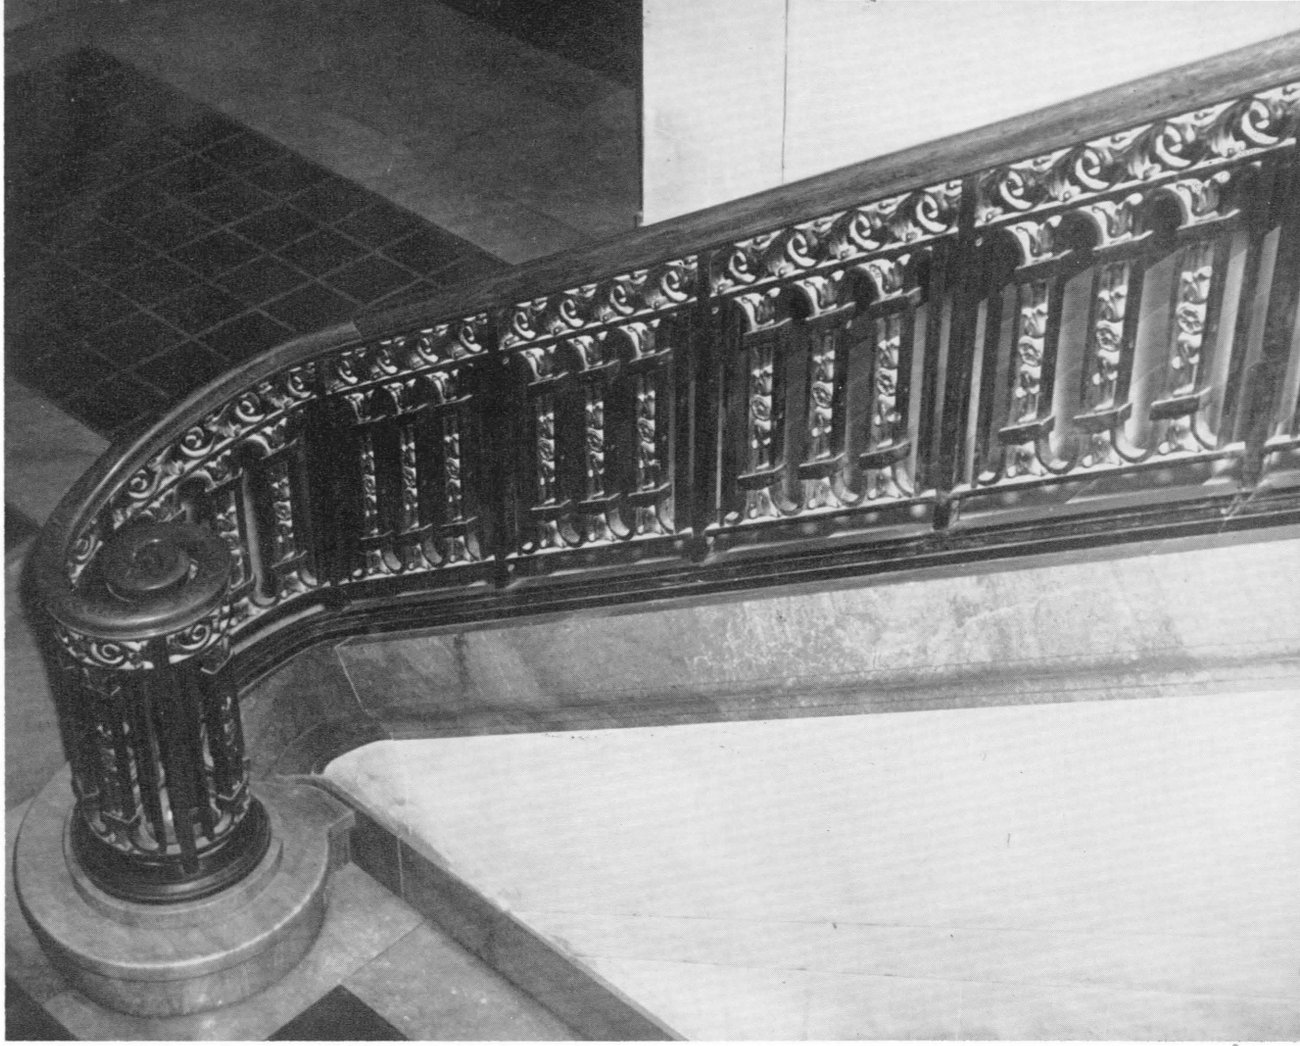

Dean of Engineering, Dr. E. W. Schilling, governs the future engineers and architects. This Division prepares the students for future jobs. It gives them instruction in studies that are of value to the employers of the companies they may choose to serve. Anything in engineering from chemical engineering to engineering physics, including architecture, is offered.

These men with their 2x14" wizards hanging from their belts find a fine modern department with the up-to-date equipment, labs, and procedures.

Division of Household & Applied Arts

DR. KATHERINE ROY

Art majors, home ec students, and business majors comprise this division. Under the firm hand of Dean Roy are these future artists, teachers, businessmen and women, and home economists.

The Commercial Science Department offers four divisions, or fields, in business training. These are open to both men and women, giving them a broad background in their future business career. The art majors and home ec students find numerous labs available for furthering their skills in their respective fields.

Division of Science

DR. FRANK B. COTNER

Under the guidance of Dr. F. B. Cotner is the Department of Science. In this division there are Zoology majors studying animal life, Bacteriologists studying micro-organisms, Botanists studying plant life, H. & P. E. majors—the future coaches of tomorrow, Military Science furnishing our future military officers, and of course Nursing with the women in white.

Over all this confusion, Dean Cotner struggles to bring unity to these widely separated fields by his diligent efforts.

Don Lashway, the President of the Associated Students of M.S.C., helped to guide them through another successful year. Don, a Senior in Electrical Engineering, comes from Vaughn, Montana. Presiding over Student Senate is his main duty along with promoting better cooperation between the students and the administration.

School functions of all types come under the jurisdiction of the Student Senate. One of the biggest problems that Don had to lead them through this year was that of the proposed reallocation of student fees. Getting a name band on campus each year and generally determining the student-administration policies are also part of the functions of this group.

Student Government

The Veep of the ASMSC is Gary Norbo. Gary, a Senior in Agricultural Education, hails from Medicine Lake, Montana. Working with Student Senate and presiding over it when the President is absent are his main functions. Gary is also President of the Les Bouffons.

The girl who sits on Lashway's lap with a notebook and pencil is Barbara Farr, a Senior Home Economics major from Alberton, Montana. Barb is known as the hardest worker in Student Senate, since her job as Secretary of the Student Senate entails taking down what the others say.

L. to R.: Lee Bawden, Jack Meyer, Bill Parris.

Commissioners

Functional groups, working for the betterment of both the students and faculty, are these student faculty committees.

Spending many an afternoon talking over problems which concern them, they are an important and necessary part of the institution which we call Montana State College.

Issues such as social policies, traffic rules, curricula changes, and others too numerous to mention are fairly dealt with in an efficient manner by our committees.

Student Senate

The Student Senate, administrators of student business, meet weekly to work on the business at hand. With representatives from all of the organizations and activities on the campus, they find a lot of controversial topics for discussion.

Everything from picking a name band to appear on campus to putting out the student handbook each year is worked out through this group. This group is always right in the middle of topics of current interest on campus.

Margaret Olson, President of the Associated Women Students, has the task of coordinating the affairs of the female population of MSC. "Muggs," a senior in Education, helps to guide the young women on campus with their Big-Little Sister program, the Chinese Auction, Women's Day, the Style Show, and guest speakers for the organized women's living groups.

Assisting "Muggs" in her duties is Mary Parker, Veep of AWS, who is a senior in Bacteriology. Making up the third part of this triangle of leadership is a junior in H. & P. E., Neva Larson Through the efforts of these three the functions of AWS run more smoothly.

Many of the policies of the college are formed by these committees which work diligently to solve the many problems of the students and faculty alike. This type of organization is not common in many colleges, the students often have no say in the policies of the college – the plans for buildings, for example.

The process of meeting and discussing issues helps to create better understanding between the students and instructors. Each committee has its own special field of concern and they usually find plenty of material to keep them busy.

From across a Nation—From the distant shores of foreign lands—From farms and cities—From all walks of life—come the students of M. S. C., to perpetuate the arts and the learnings of centuries of mankind.

For what are they striving? Perhaps to fulfill the desires, the hunger, or the longings of their environment, or perhaps to enable them to leave this world of theirs a little better place to live than when they arrived.

The Freshmen, with a glint of things to come in their shiny faces—not yet fully exposed to the wonders of education—mingle with the Seniors with time wizened countenances for what wonders await these people, to what heights they might climb or to what depths the hapless might fall—no one knows. For there is but one thing remaining constant—"when years have borne us far away, memories shall live today, we proudly owe to M. S. C., all we are and hope to be!"

Education is the oil on which the wheels of progress rolls.

JEAN WELCH

. . . From Great Falls hails this activity Miss, a coed in Home Ec. During her four years at MSC, "Jeanie" has managed to do most every variety of activity available. REW co-chairman, High School Week co-chairman, President of Pi Beta Phi, Who's Who, Mortar Board, Spurs, the list is one that can't be completed, but has to be stopped. The future looks equally glittering as next fall she departs from Montana as a "Danny Grad," the first from MSC since 1948.

Ski Carnival

Ski Carnival Dance

Culminating the efforts of the Ski Club each year is the Ski Carnival. The nobility of the skiers is crowned on Friday evening in the form of a King and Queen to reign over all the carnival activities. Snow sculptures built by the organized houses are judged on Saturday morning. A bevy of ski teams from all over the orthwest and North Central Plains are come to compete in a four-way meet as the MSC ski team plays host. The intramural races are squeezed in somewhere, weather and time permitting. Sunday the novelty races are held for intermediate and beginning skiers so that they might injoy the activities. Everyone has fun as the Ski Club takes over the campus for this, their most important function.

Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities

Thirty Montana State College students were selected this year for "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." These students were selected on the basis of scholarship, activities, citizenship, service to the college, leadership, and promise of future usefulness to business and society.

College juniors, seniors, and students enrolled in graduate courses are eligible for nomination, and may be submitted annually by any four-year degree-granting institution. Selection of the nominees is conducted by campus committees, usually involving student-faculty administrative participation. All nominations must be signed by a faculty or administration member, or by another staff member so designated.

Each spring quarter at the annual awards assembly, junior women are selected on a basis of scholarship, leadership and service. They then serve throughout their senior year.

They sponsor one of the livelier traditions on campus, that being the annual all school girl-ask-boy formal fall quarter. This is one occasion the men really look forward to as the women trade places with them in calling for their dates, opening doors, financially, etc.

The strict qualifications for membership and somber black dress doesn't daunt their spirit as they also sponsor a carnival during high school week and a charm course offered to all coeds.

Seven men dedicated to tradition

These wise old owls govern the traditions of M.S.C. This honorary, composed of outstanding senior men, makes certain that no one cuts campus, "M" Day is observed, "Hello Walk," the "Freshman Daddy," freshmen not entering Montana Hall by the front door, and a score of other traditions are perpetuated through the years.

These seven men are chosen by the faculty for their personality, activities, scholarship, and leadership. The privilege of wearing the traditional cap and gown is a culmination of their efforts in their previous years of work. This honorary is indeed, an emblem of hard and diligent work.

Spurs

Row 3: Pat Johnson, Harriet Spurlock, Janet Tobey, Sandra Hastings, Aldona Klisis, Denise Lehrkind, Jeanie Smith, Carolyn Sargent, Ruth Grosswiler, Karen Olsen, Mildred J. Leigh—Advisor.

These girls in white, with blue and gold beanies and sparkling smiles compose one of the most active service organizations on campus. Twenty-five girls are tapped in the Spring of their Freshman year and then serve throughout their Sophomore year.

Freshman Week finds these gals, along with the Fangs, greeting the new students. Throughout the rest of the year they usher at assemblies, mixers, school plays, and all athletic contests. Selected on the basis of service, activities, character, and scholarship, these lasses work hard to help coordinate student activities on campus.

Fangs

Sophomore men's service honorary

The Fangs are the local chapter of the National honorary service organization known as Intercollegiate Knights. Working jointly with the Spurs they hold all-school mixers quarterly after registration and also after football and basketball games.

Working towards smoother functioning school activities they usher at all plays, assemblies, dances, etc. Assisting in student elections, keeping the school bulletin board up-to-date, and organizing an all out drive against "campus cutters" also falls into their jurisdiction.

They are chosen the Spring quarter of their Freshman year, and serve through their Sophomore year. Three members are chosen from each organized living group on campus.

The freshmen men's honorary on campus, this honor society was founded to encourage and reward high scholastic attainment. One of seventy-two chapters located in leading colleges and universities throughout the nation this local chapter was founded in April, 1930.

Eligibility for membership is based solely on scholarship. All freshmen men who earn a scholarship average of two and one-half grade points per credit in their first quarter or semester of college will be elected. Membership is also extended for achieving the same minimum average on the basis of the entire first year's work. Together with the Fangs these fellows publish Fussers Guide, the most-read text on campus.

Kappa Kappa Psi

Men's national band honorary

This local chapter of the National Band Honorary is a very active musical group on campus. Installed in 1920 as Beta chapter, this group, one of many such similar organizations, comprises a part of the National group which has members throughout the United States.

Composed of male members only, this group helps lay the groundwork for band concerts and aids in coordinating all music activities on campus. Every winter they sponsor a midnight organ hour at the Ellen Theatre. Believed to be one of the first honoraries of this type in this country, it has been growing by leaps and bounds since is founding in 1907.

Spring quarter finds a group of men wandering about campus with overalls, straw hats, pitchforks, etc. Under this conglomeration of clothes lies the Alpha Zeta initiates. These men, long accustomed to the fragrant smell of hay and cowbarns, are members of the Ag honorary.

Members are selected on the basis of scholarship and activities and are Ag majors interested in challenging agricultural problems. Each year they select an outstanding freshman Ag major and present him with a trophy in recognition of his work. In spring quarter all dressed up in white shirts and bright blue ties these men assist in the Little International.

Home economics honorary

With their headquarters in Herrick Hall these gals soon learn the art of homemaking. Service to home economics is their ultimate goal and they do this by many hours of diligent work in cooking, and sewing labs and other associated fields.

Membership in Phi U is based upon scholarship, leadership and interest in home economics. Members not only learn the "Hows and Whys" of the world of homemaking, but also apply their talents to several worthwhile causes. These being the preparation and distribution of Easter baskets to the rest homes, scrapbooks and birthday cards to the children in the orphans home in Twin Bridges and various other worthwhile activities.

Morale boosters and marching companions is this flashy group of marching girls. As the sponsor corps of the R.O.T.C., this group helps to add interest and femininity to the military review. They drill with the regular R.O.T.C. students on Fridays.

Membership is applied for by a petition to join the group. The girls are then selected from the petitions on the basis of scholarship and past marching experience. New pledges are tapped each year at the Military Ball, usually held Winter quarter. They serve as a reminder that perhaps it's not entirely a man's world any longer!

Dressed in Air Force blues or Army khakis, members of this honorary can easily be distinguished from others. Scabbard and Blade is a national Military Science honorary bestowing the highest honor of the R.O.T.C. Military Department.

After two years of basic R.O.T.C. training, outstanding cadets are tapped for this organization. Members must be enrolled in advanced R.O.T.C. training. Working for a closer co-operation between the students and the Military Science staff, they also sponsor the all-school Military Ball. The Military Ball is highlighted by the crowning of the Coed Colonelette and the tapping of the new pledges.

Alpha Lambda Delta is the women's version of Phi Eta Sigma. Comprised of Freshman women, this select group represents the lady brains of the Freshman class. Eligibility for membership is based solely on scholarship—that being a minimum of two and one-half grade points per credit in their first two quarters.

Active in campus activities, they assist Mortar Board in putting on the annual carnival during High School Week, and also hold a mixer after registration each quarter. Their ultimate purpose is to encourage and give recognition to the women who do outstanding work in college.

National biological scholastic honorary

Botany, Bacteriology, Zoology, Entomology, and all fields involved in the Biological sciences are studied by this group. As a member of the National Biological Scholastic Honorary, this organization strives to promote interest and research in this field.

Juniors and Seniors who conform with required scholastic standings are eligible for membership. They meet during the noon hour amidst the noise and confusion of food munching and paper sack rattling. Their main project over the past few years has been the identification of trees on campus. This is accomplished with small signs bearing large scientific names.

Both in the literary sense and in the literal sense, The Clowns is a well chosen name for this organization. This highly active group holds a formal dinner in the fall, an all-school dance during the winter, and of course—much to the woe of the girls—a lively initiation during the spring.

Two members from each organized living group are selected for their social and other activities. They are tapped during the winter formal and then serve during their Senior year. Their most worthwhile project is the car raffle they sponsor, with proceeds going toward a charity scholarship.

Mu Beta Beta

Members of the college 4-H honorary work for better agriculture and home making with an ultimate goal of service to improve 4-H groups across the nation. They coordinate their efforts with the state office and club leaders in planning the 4-H Club Congress held here each summer.

Arnold Air Society

Arnold Air Society, a recent addition to the MSC campus, is composed of all interested advanced AFROTC cadets who have attained outstanding leadership qualities. A very active organization, Arnold Air Society sponsors all flights made by the ROTC unit and drag races for cadets and others interested.

Secretaries, bookkeepers, and economists – all those who are Commercial Science majors are eligible for this honorary. That is providing they have a high enough scholastic average and are interested in making a career in business. An average of 80 in all commercial work is required, along with a 70 average in all other courses.

Working toward better professional commercial fields, this organization finds itself participating actively among college functions. Among these are a mixer including movies and refreshments and a lively picnic held Spring quarter. They work to create interest in this section of study.

A junior must be in the upper 1/8 of his class, while a senior must be in the upper 1/5 of his class. Interest in activities and personality traits are further qualifications for membership.

They hold their initiation ceremony winter quarter and then climax the occasion with a large banquet. The honorary has recently started a course on slide rules for students desiring to learn the use of the instrument.

Ranking as the top scholastic honorary on the Montana State campus is Phi Kappa Phi. Composed of juniors, seniors, graduate students, and faculty of superior scholastic ability, its chief aim is living up to their motto "The love of learning rules the world". They are continually striving to encourage students toward higher grades, as exemplified by the letters of acknowledgment they send to all parents of students on the honor roll.

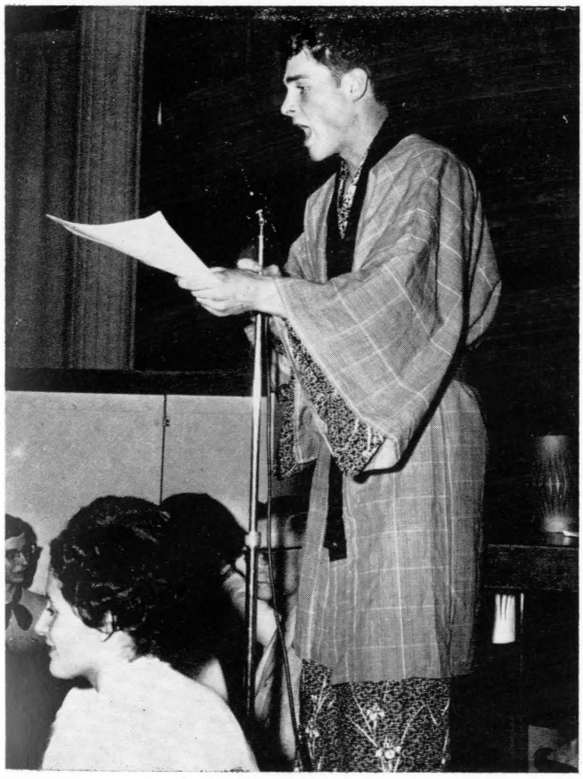

Eligibility for membership is as follows: Juniors must have a 2.5 minimum grade average and be in the upper 5% of their class, while seniors must have a 2.25 average and be in the upper 10% of their class.

Intent expressions are provoked as the bid rises.

Chinese Auction

John Brookhart, the Oriental auctioneer, calls the bids.

Winter quarter ushers in one of the most unusual and unique activities on the M.S.C. campus. That being the Chinese Auction which is sponsored by the Associated Women Students.

This huge function all takes place at an all-school mixer which is topped off by the auction itself. Each organized living group auctions off some service or party to the highest bidder, with all proceeds going toward the March of Dimes. Among the things auctioned are picnics, car wash, spring house cleaning and things of the same nature. Everyone has fun and a worthy charity benefits.

That which is derived solely from the lecture or readings in any institution of higher learning can be deemed only secondary to those moral and social maturities one gains through participation in activities.

The greatness and success of mankind is not determined by how much he knows; but by how well he can apply what he knows—and by how he can get along with his fellow man. This does not come by way of the classroom or book, nor is it gained easily. It must be won by hard work and experience. Experience in the practical field of applying one's talents toward learning to live with his neighbor. Thus we owe much to the activities at M.S.C., for all those who participate find a richer, far more wonderful life for their future.

The best helping hand you can find is on the end of your arm.

SHIRLEE CROUSE
Miss Photogenic

The Montanan Queen

Miss Photogenic "1956" is Shirlee Lee Crouse. This charming little miss is a junior in Home Economics here at MSC. She calls the city of Bozeman her home. Shrilee was picked for her outstanding photogenic qualities from a host of other contestants in the contest held last winter.

This has been one of the oldest traditions on campus although it has not been practiced for quite a few years. This year it was again revived in hopes of continuing it in the future Montanans. Open to anyone enrolled at the college, the final contestants and Miss Photogenic herself, are chosen by the photographer who takes the girls' pictures. In this way the photographer has the chance to judge first hand the photogenic qualities of each contestant.

Always a queen, Shirlee Crouse is indeed a photogenic Miss.

We hope this tradition will return to its old position as one of the "looked forward to" features of the MONTANAN. It will be announced each year in your annual.

The long line of Co-eds begin filing into the Gym, where the seniors will "cut their ties" with M. S. C.

Women's Day

Out of the Sub, down past Hamilton Hall to Herrick, up Hello Walk and across the oval to the gym winds the annual procession of women. Led by the Bobcat Band, followed by the Spurs and then the women members of M.S.C., dressed in white; the procession marks the beginning of a solemn occasion.

Once in the gym the groups reform, with the Seniors joining ranks connected with ivy. They parade by Dean Brown as she cuts the chain of college life. The wand of responsibility is then given to a junior to carry throughout the following year. Rich in sentiment and deep in meaning—Women's Day finds personal significance in the memories of everyone who participates in the ceremony.

The Associated Students of M. S. C. publish the weekly newspaper filled with information on the various departments on campus, the different social functions taking place, pertinent news and a social column containing bits from each organized house.

Letters to the Editor, Poems, and "Looking Around with Rick," all help to color this publication.

Out on each Friday means a midnight session Wednesday to lay out copy, write headlines and proof read, on the part of the staff. Their diligent work on meeting deadline after deadline throughout the year culminates each week in this widely read paper.

The Montana State College Farmer is the official publication of the students of Agriculture at MSC. It was started in 1947 by the Ag Club and has continued to operate very successfully since that time.

The College Farmer prints four issues a year, featuring the Agriculture of a different Montana County in each issue.

In addition to the feature there are also o'her stories on scientific agriculture, home economics, 4-H, F.F.A., religion and a new section this year featuring one of MSC's foreign students.

This year has been a big one for the College Farmer. The magazine is larger with more pictures and the circulation rate is up above previous years. The magazine was voted membership in the Agricultural College Magazines Associated.

The Montana Engineer is a quarterly magazine published by students in engineering curricula. Included in the magazine are articles concerning new developments in the technical world, and engineering projects about the campus, state, and country.

The first and last pages are usually of greatest interest—the cover being a picture of a campus co-ed or outstanding drawing by an architecture student, and the last page consisting of some of the finer jokes ever told (mostly stolen).

One magazine each spring is published especially for students visiting MSC for High School Week. Presented in this issue are brief sketches of each engineering curricula, articles of general interest to prospective engineers, and short biographies of the Hot Shots—seniors at the top of their class in the various engineering curricula.

Winter Play

A dramatic scene from
DARKNESS AT NOON

Scenes from MRS. McTHING.

Fall Play

"The play's the thing"—and Mrs. McThing is the title of the first dramatic presentation of the year, given fall quarter on the Emerson stage.

It's said that good things come in threes. But in Mrs. McThing, three of the baddest, boldest, badmen ever to hit MSC performed some outlandish slapstick in their Shantyland poolhall headquarters.

Then came winter, and the Iron Curtain was drawn open right on our own MSC stage.

The scene was a Soviet prison, and there, awaiting his doom, was a Communist leader, betrayed by the very cause for which he had devoted his life. The story reveals how the shortcomings of the Soviet regime had caused it to fail, while this leader, now imprisoned, had stood by innocent of its fate.

The psychological characteristics of Darkness at Noon proved it to be different from the usual production at MSC. Competent acting and superior staging effects provided for the audience an interesting, real story.

Bobcat Band

The MSC marching band performs at all football games with fancy drills and snappy music to liven the team and spectators.

Orchestra

The orchestra is composed of townspeople and college students who play for their own enjoyment while creating music for the pleasure of all.

Madrigal Singers

This small select group of voices perform often for college functions, along with appearances before city groups and on tours.

Mixed Chorus

These are students who sing because they like to sing. The ninety-seven pictured here are most of the largest singing group on campus. Brandon Mehrle directs the chorus.

Twirlers

The twirlers perform for football and basketball games, and for parades. They add snap and color to the action wherever they go.

Concert Choir

The Concert Choir, which is a group selected from the Mixed Chorus, presents music with a classical touch. These trained voices add a great deal to music activities on campus.

Music Activities

The Madrigal Singers and the Symphonette entertain at a banquet in the Student Union Ballroom. These groups are called upon often to perform on and off campus.

The Madrigals, Concert Choir and Orchestra present the music assembly prior to Christmas. The Music Department presents several assemblies and concerts for the students of MSC.

The dairy judging team which has been active for many years, traveled to Waterloo, Iowa, taking 15th place at the International Collegiate Dairy Judging Contest there. Their interest and effort was apparent all through this past year.

For the first time in several years a crops judging team was organized. They took ninth place in Kansas City and again in Chicago. The knowledge and experience gained this year will be of considerable help in the future.

Judging Teams

The MSC livestock judging team traveled to Denver in January for the National Collegiate judging contest. Rugged competition in the regular contest at the National Western put Montana State in fourteenth place. However, they placed seventh in the carlot judging division. This year's judging team consisted of all seniors.

The MSC wool judging team won first place among the ten teams entered at the National Western Intercollegiate Wool Judging Contest. This year was the third time MSC has won first place, enabling them to keep the revolving trophy. Tom Evans was second high individual followed by Gordon Darlinton who placed sixth in the individual scoring. This year's group was very successfully coached by Jim Basset and Jim Drummond from the MSC Wool Laboratory.

After many days and weeks of earnest preparation, showmen get the chance to show their "stuff" during the two night performances of the Little International Livestock Show.

Little

This committee is the backbone to the "Little I". They spend many hours in preparing for the show. This year Lee Bawden, an Ag Econ Senior from Nohly, is the manager. It's his responsibility to see that the show is well planned and coordinated.

Bob McIlhattan, Grand Champion Showman of the 1955 Little International.

International

The Little International Livestock Show, which is put on by the Agriculture Club every spring, is the largest agricultural event at MSC. Over 90 showmen participate in this contest. This production has gained national recognition for shows of this type.

Mr. Paul Orcutt introducing Mr. Wilbur Spring, Sr., and Mr. J. O. Tretsven, the men to which the 1955 show was dedicated.

Intercollegiate

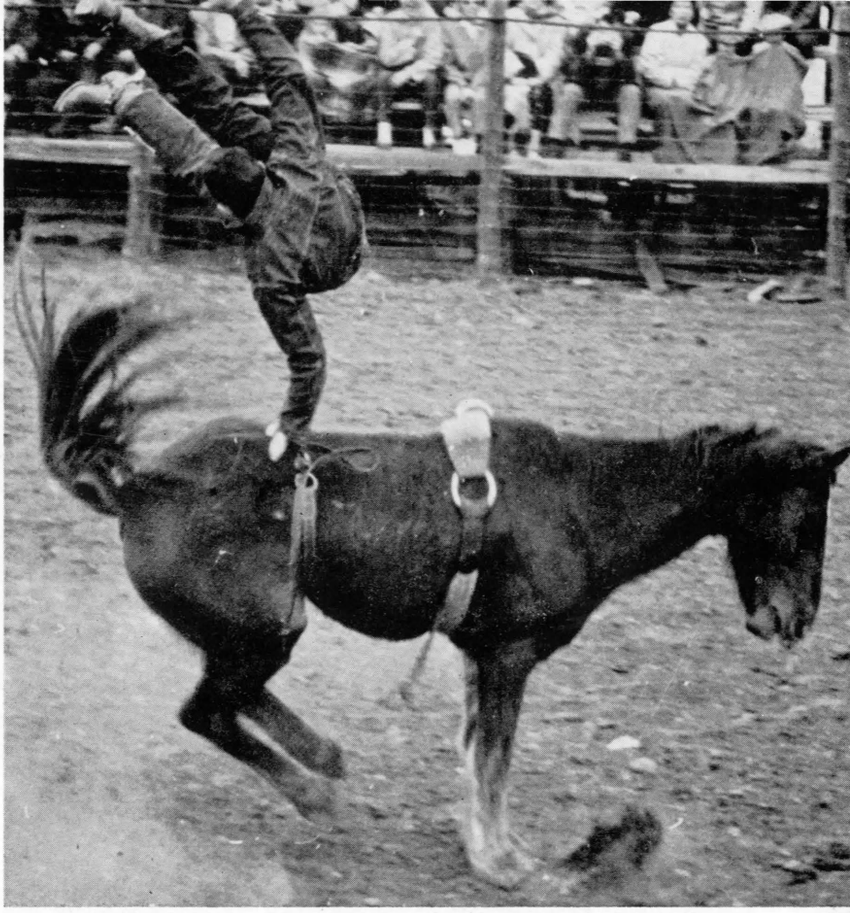

Ride the colors and the show begins. Another college rodeo is underway with barrel races and calf tying for the gals and bull doggin', bareback riding and saddle broncs for the gents. Of course, all this didn't just happen. This rodeo is the culmination of many people's efforts and long, hard hours of practicing. Stock is furnished by an Idaho producer and the courage and skill by the rodeo teams.

The big day is started with an all campus parade that really puts the town into a western atmosphere. Next comes the rodeo with never a dull moment as man pits his skill against horse flesh. Everything is topped off with a huge dance.

Above: Let me go, Lover!

Below: Parting is such sweet sorrow!

Rodeo

Nearer my God to thee!

Don't go away mad!

The heavy laden workers trudge up the long hill, finally reaching their highest goal.

M - Day

The L-O-N-G trail up.

The fall has came, the sun has riz—I wonder where them freshman is? Probably up on the hill whitewashing each other. Amidst joyous shouts, they rizeth in the morn and go forth on their labours. But nay say thee that thy knaves have arizen for nothing. For on this day they carry large quantities of lime and water up yonder hill to brighten the face of the second largest block letter in the United States.

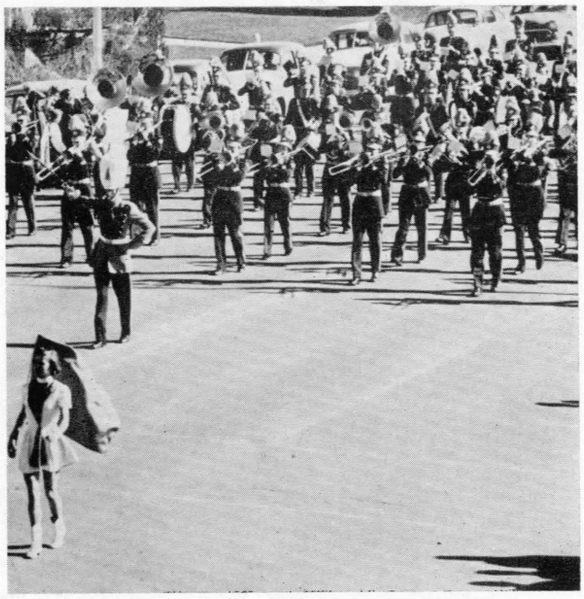

Twice a year—in the fall and again in the spring—they climb the hill to perpetrate one of the messiest, riotous and most enjoyable of all campus traditions.

Whether you're looking up or down, it's still a long hike. It's fun—with as little work done as possible. Manpower is plentiful but workpower is scarce.

Homecoming, 1955 honoring the classes of '50, '45, and '25. Again the alums gathered on our campus to reminisce about the past. Friday night things got started off in proper fashion with the kick-off party and talent show, followed by a dance. The next day the sun rose on the house decorations and lawn displays. Then came the parade, with its floats and crepe paper, packed with spirit for the coming game.

The Cats fought Colorado State to a standstill, and then topped them 29-7. Backed by cheering thousands of alums and students, the whole weekend proved to be as successful as the game.

The Symphonic Orchestra performing at the annual Christmas Sing.

The Christmas Sing

Amid the holly and the smell of pines, the students of MSC ushered in the Christmas season with the old favorite Christmas melodies. Culminating weeks of effort on the part of each organized living group, as they each in turn climbed the risers to add their part to the Christmas spirit.

With an organ prelude to set the scene and the orchestra to add variety, the multitude of voices were lifted across the gym and over the local air waves to brighten the hearts of those who listened. With finals forgotten they combined their talents to make this Christmas sing a huge success.

College is the building place of your future.

And now down to business.

High School Week

A bit of pleasure and relaxation.

The last weekend in April heralds High School Week on campus as juniors and seniors from over 100 Montana High Schools arrive for participation in this annual event. Orientation, followed by hours of tests, a carnival and a talent show highlight their activities while on campus. They get an idea of what college life is like as they visit the various departments on conducted tours and live in the college housing.

Scholarships are awarded to those ranking highest in the testing program while the rest are awarded a good time with a taste of college life.

Oh, what a Mess!!

With this ratio, I'm going to the U.

Literature on religion was available during R.E.W. at the Student Union.

Religious Emphasis Week

Since the examination of the basic truths of Christianity is important to the intellectual development of the student, a Religious Emphasis Week is held each year. During the course of the week, outstanding professors and clergymen discuss facts of religion and their relevance in campus and world situations. Beginning with worship services in the chapel and including classroom lectures and discussions, assemblies, seminars, luncheons and vespers, the program is directed to both faculty and students of all denominations.

Since students of different interests are included in the week, the program is varied in design. It is the purpose of R.E.W. to stimulate thinking and to give a religious perspective to campus life.

Private consultations were included in the program of R.E.W. Many questions were cleared up and many problems solved. The guest speakers were all very effective in their role as speakers and counselors.

R. E. W. Activities

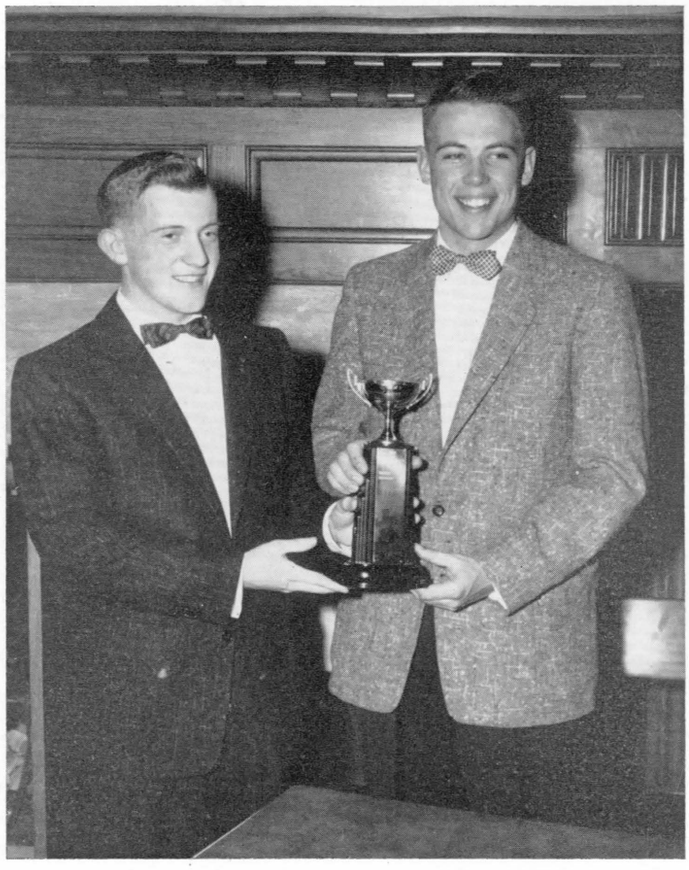

Rev. Harper, Dr. Floyd Ross, Father Sterling and Marion Hanks, four of the guest speakers, discuss problems they feel important and topics raised by students at an R.E.W. assembly.

Forensics

Fall Quarter found MSC's Debate Team busily opening the debate season. Playing host to the Rocky Mountain League Forensics Tournament here was their first line of business. Next a trip to Portland, Oregon for the Town Meeting Tournament on "Criticisms of American Education."

Practice rounds with the School of Mines, Eastern, Western, and Carroll Colleges kept things from getting dull.

Officially known as Pi Kappa Delta, the Debate Team journeyed to Missoula for the regional Tau Kappa Alpha Tournament and then to Billings for the state meet.

Military Science is one of the more popular courses on campus, vying for acclaim with English, chemistry, and math. It is enhanced somewhat by the requirement that all male students have two years of basic ROTC, or the equivalent, for graduation. Basics have some choice of branch of service with over half going to the air and the rest to the ground program.

Gravel agitators study weapons and history of the service, while the birdmen study leadership and the purpose and policies of the Air Force. Cadets participate in drills designed to develop leadership and bunions. They also learn gold bricking techniques and how to spot an officer at forty paces.

Students, and other revelers, that meet the requirements can continue training in the advanced program climaxed by commissioning upon graduation.

Advanced cadets conduct the drills so eagerly attended by basic students and prepare for federal inspection and the war of summer camp.

Distractions and activities include sponsoring Saberettes, publications, athletics, rifle teams, air trips, Scabbard and Blade and Arnold Air Society.

The program that makes it possible for college students to obtain a degree in their field and at the same time receive a commission in either Army or Air Force. The program consists of two years as required curriculum then two years as an elected course.

In the advanced course students get a chance to learn teaching methods, leadership, jobs and duties of various personnel, and military Law and Justice. This is where they put into training what they have learned from three years of ROTC.

The Air Force has similar training with more stress on aviation, which specializes in flying training.

Between their junior and senior years these students attend six weeks of summer camp. Here they learn intensified training in their branch of service as well as an insight of what to expect as an officer in the Armed Services.

The Army Cadets have training compared to the basic training of an inductee. They also learn about the various branches of the corps.

Alpha Gamma Delta

Established on campus in 1924, the Alpha Gams are situated in Quad C. Ever since their establishment, they've been active and busy in campus affairs. They hold dances quarterly, various types of costume parties, hayrides, and picnics. Winter quarter finds the pledges busy with a chocolate hour when pledges from every house drop over for an afternoon of visiting.

When things get dull, a cold tubbing seems in order, or turning to more constructive lines, they work for the cerebral palsy benefit by raffling off a record player, and helping handicapped people by selling Easter lilies each spring.

Alpha Omicron Pi

Conveniently located on the corner of Fifth stands a large brick house, housing the Alpha Phi Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi. On campus since 1917, this group represents one of the largest sororities on campus.

Always right in the thick of things these gals are kept busy harrassing the neighbors across the alley or trying to guess where such things as wooden storks on chimneys come from.

Always busy, always enjoying themselves, they travel each year to the orphans home in Twin Bridges to bring happiness to everyone with a huge Valentine party. Teas honoring the housemother and coffee hours in the campus room help keep things lively.

The Quad on the end houses this active group of girls. On campus since 1920, they stand as the second oldest sorority on the hill. Every Thanksgiving they distribute baskets to needy families of the Bozeman area. Then at Christmas the pledge class unites with the SAE pledge class to distribute food and gifts.

Things never get dull around here with teas, dances, and cold tubbings. Other functions this year were the shaving of beards for the Chinese Auction and the ski carnival queen from their house.

Delta Gamma

The year 1947 saw the establishment of the Delta Gam's on campus, making them the youngest house on the hill. These gals from Quad E have wasted little time getting into campus activities, however.

Their pledges sponsored one of the biggest mixers of the year after the Grizzly-Cat games. Slumber parties, Mother's Day breakfast, or redecorating the house all seem part of their busy schedule. Their biggest project is working with the national in the altruistic project of helping the blind, while locally they try to furnish glasses and help the people individually.

Kappa Delta

Down on the corner of Fifth and Cleveland reside the KD's. Installed at MSC in 1924, they've built quite a name for themselves. What with green and yellow octopi in their front yard, slumber parties, and pledge sneaks, they lack no entertainment.

Guests from all over the campus attend their May Day tea, and Mother's Day finds a regal dinner honoring their parents. Making toys and Christmas presents of all sorts for the children at the St. Ignatius Mission just seems to be part of their pattern of life.

Pi Beta Phi

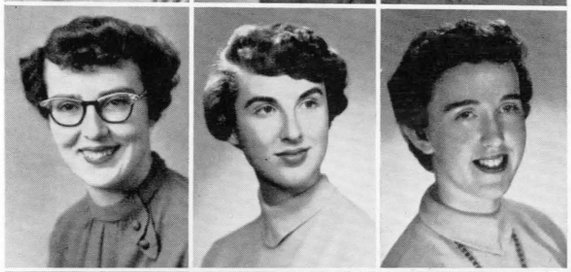

The residents of Quad D comprise the Pi Phi sorority. These gals place second to none when it comes to activities. Their functions vary from the King of the Hill Derby Dance, with proceeds going to underprivileged children, to a super colossal water fight with the AGR's at the W.U.S. car wash.

Their collection of first prizes include their snow sculpture and homecoming float. Their basketball challenge and pledge active party help to keep things from getting dull. Activities don't interfere with their grades in the slightest as they have been on top scholastically for several years.

Alpha Gamma Rho

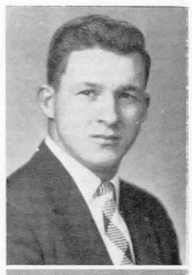

Way down on South Sixth stands the white frame house of the AGR's, known for all its Aggies. This progressive group can be found right in the middle of any and all campus activities.

Planning for a new house near campus in the not too distant future these lads never find a dull moment. Firesides, formals, sweetheart banquets, tree hangings, cold tubbings, etc., are all part of their lives, yet top scholastically on campus quarter after quarter. First place in homecoming lawn decorations, and the winning of national trophies were part of this, the third oldest fraternity on the hill this year!

Kappa Sigma

Located conveniently on the corner of Sixth, near the campus, is the Kappa Sig's house. Since their founding in 1926, these lads have made a name (Spooks) for themselves on campus. Well known for their French parties and Star Dust Ball, they also hold several firesides and house functions during the year.

One of their less publicized functions is dousing the back-door neighbors with large quantities of water. When they aren't doing this they manage to find one of the fellows and hang him from the tree in the front yard or if it's cold out, dunk him in the bath tub.

Lambda Chi Alpha

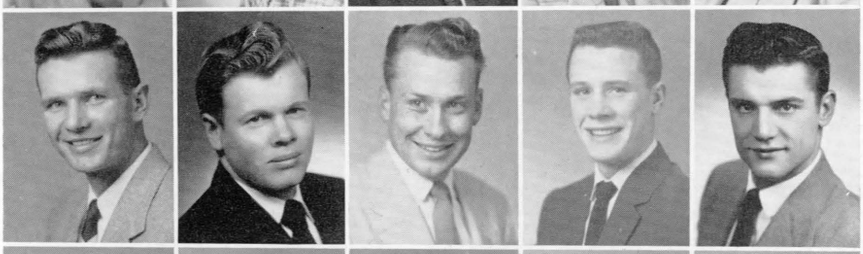

A brand new, modern house across from the Engineering Building is the pride and joy of these lads. Just moving into it at Christmas the fellows worked, and painted for several months to finish the inside.

Noted for their beards in the fall for their Yukon Days, they can be easily distinguished. A song title for them might be "Somebody bad stole the victory bell," when the bell they used to ring out MSC victories disappeared for awhile. Sideline functions to keep things from getting dull include breakfast and a dorm bust at the AGR's or giving the AGR's haircuts. Their winter party each year is highlighted by the crowning of their "Crescent Girl."

Phi Sigma Kappa

A long way from campus down on south Willson live the Phi Sigs. The distance never seems to bother these fellows though, for after a hard day's work and the long journey home, they still seem full of energy for dorm busts and water fights.

Noted for their debaters and their famous flaming sauce, they sometimes have a car washing department in the fall. Socially they have the regular firesides and parties with the main event of the year when they crown their "Moonlight Girl" at the winter formal.

Pi Kappa Alpha

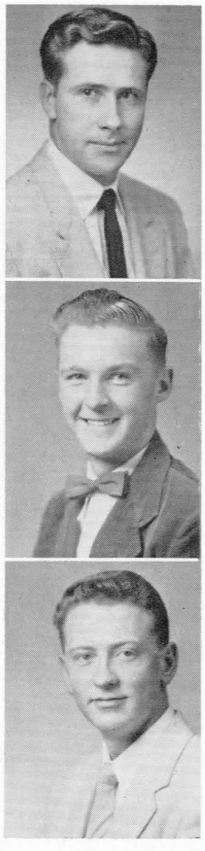

The year 1928 saw Pi Kappa Alpha joining the ranks at M.S.C. The big brick building at 502 South Grand is the home away from home for these boys. Friendly to all and highly active on campus, these lads have developed a spirit of loyalty noticeable to all.

Famous are they for their Pie Week, an ingenious method of raising funds for the Polio Drive, which they hold annually. Music and pies at their house during the week attract the music lovers and hungry students. Then a campus-wide pie eating contest and an all school mixer top everything off nicely.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Established in 1918, the SAE's are the oldest fraternity on the hill. The well known house is situated in a full square block of ground, accentuated by a long- curving drive.

The boys are well noted for all their social functions including Barn Dance, Easter Breakfast, and Mother's Day Tea. Also, the pledges conduct a Christmas Charity Campaign each year.

No laggers in competitive honors, this frat usually ranks high in college competition and boasts an abundance of fine skiers along with a strong, all-around, intramural program.

Not to be forgotten are the Fabulous Four and that beloved old hoopy called "Minerva."

Sigma Chi

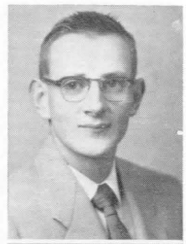

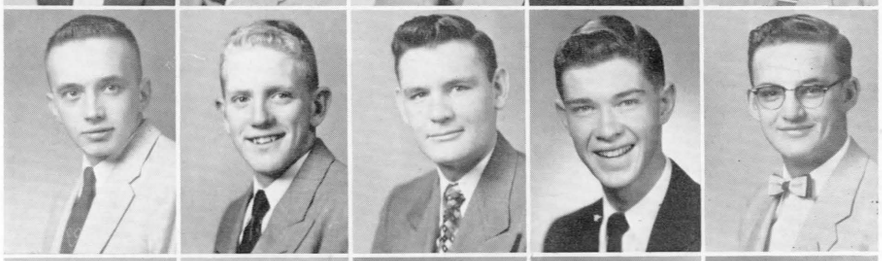

The second oldest house on the hill are the Sigma Chi's. Established here in 1918, this active group of lads are always right in the middle of campus activities. The large number of M-jackets shows they go out for sports.

They also seem to have a habit of winning the snow sculpture for the winter carnival each year. The Sweetheart Ball, playing Santa Claus at Christmas, skiing, toboggan parties, and water fights all help to keep things from getting dull.

Sigma Nu

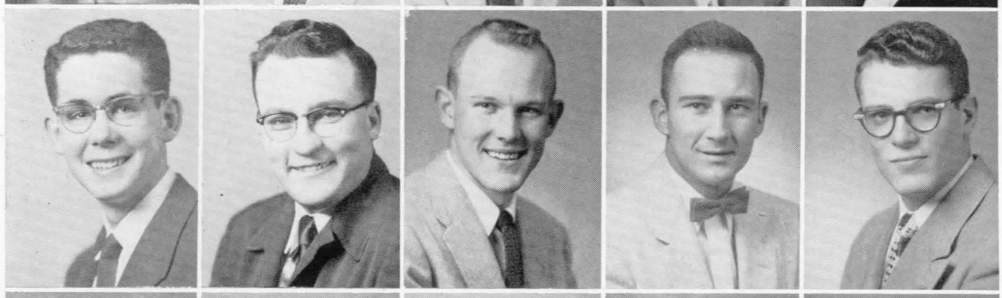

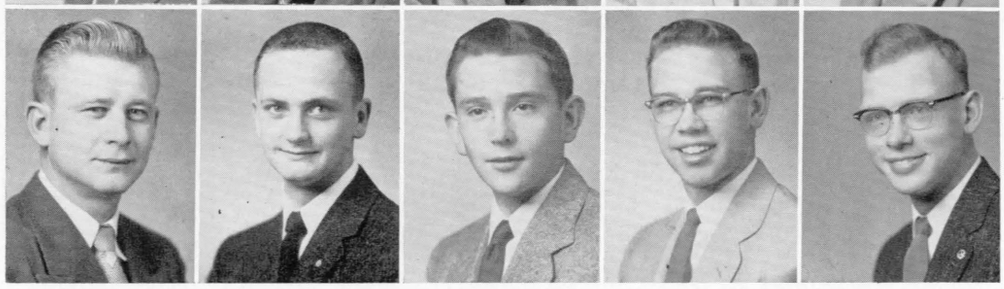

The Zeta Nu chapter of Sigma Nu is the youngest fraternity on campus. Only here since 1952, these fellows have made quite a name for themselves. Titled the champion songsters, they take second place to no one in activities either.

There might be something in the water that these boys drink for they almost always walk off with the ugly man contest. Guests over for very early breakfasts, paddle lines, and piggy banks all add variety and interest to their lives.

Men's Co-op

The big grey stucco house on south Willson houses the Men's Co-op. Gathered together for cooperation plus thus giving these lads a common cause. They are famous for their western parties and hayrides, unique snow sculptures and other activities.

At Christmas the roof is a blaze with lights as Santa, complete with sleigh and reindeer, is seen entering the house by way of the chimney. Their long driveway symbolizing much snow clearing in the winter and car washing in the spring is as much a part of this residence as each and every member.

It's really not that funny.

Welcoming freshmen to MSC.

Hannon Hall

The chowline at Hannon Hall.

Between the bright and shiny walls of the newest building on campus, there exists some 305 members of the female sex. In these modern rooms and fixtures live the women of Hannon Hall.

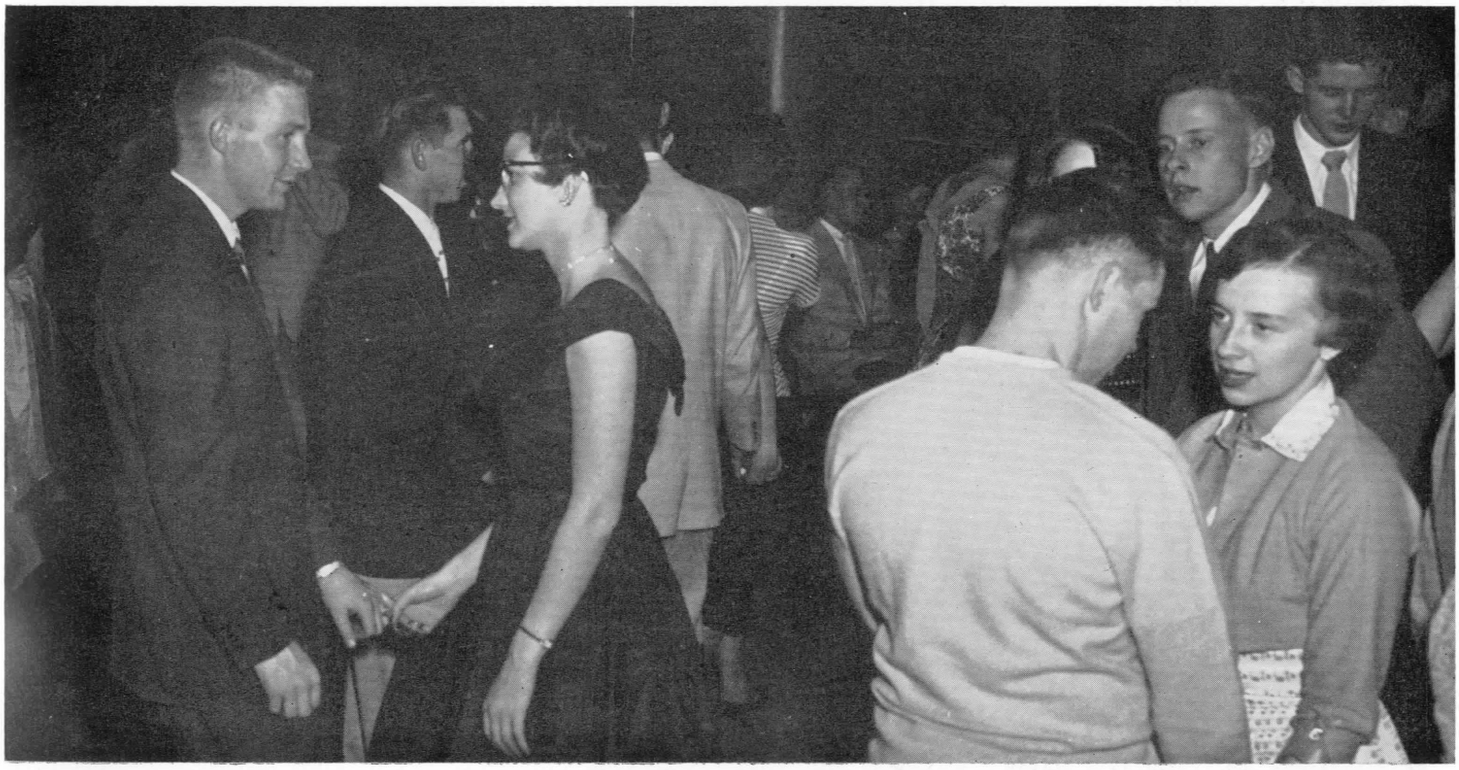

The mad dash for the door at 10:29.991, the busy phones, the short-sheetings, water fights, and noisy phonographs will always be a part of the memories of these, the Hannon Hall gals. Their dances and social functions are always a success, even the driveway and parking lots are crowded. The closeness of saying goodnight to your date while 300 other couples are sharing the same porch—Ah, Yes—that's Hannon Hall.

This organization co-ordinates the functions of the woman's side of greek organizations. Composed of two members from each of the six sororities on campus, they help to slate candidates for the annual MSC election.

The offices are rotated annually so that each sorority can have the chance of having their girls in office. Dean Brown is the general advisor for the group as they work for closer and better relations between the sororities. One of their biggest jobs as present is organizing a fair rush program and seeing that it is carried out. They also work in close conjunction with interfraternity council and the independent organization.

The eight fraternities at MSC compose IFC. Their main objective towards which they are always striving—brotherhood among all the fraternities. Two delegates from each house compose IFC at their meetings where the intramurals are planned each quarter and where the cementing of relationships is constantly going on.

Through group projects such as cleaning the campsite at Hyalite and painting the County Rest Home, they strive to unite the fellows together.

The MSC student flying co-op is the group of "fly boys and gals" who have joined together to partake in their favorite sport-flying. The club was formed in 1946 for the purpose of learning to fly at a very reduced cost. The members find that by working as a group they not only can obtain their pilots license at a reduced cost but that they can have more fun by doing it.

Each spring quarter they fly to the national convention where they make it a habit of bringing back at least one trophy. During Freshman Week they display one of their planes on the lawn in front of the SUB.

Head, Heart, Hands and Health

Head-Heart-Hands and Health signify the high ideals of this worthy organization. Its membership is composed of students who have worked years in High School before in this field and who still want to continue while in college.

Very active on Campus, they conduct an information booth during High School Week, enter a float in the home-coming parade, and help sponsor the International Farm Youth Exchange Program. Hayrides and picnics highlight the social functions of this group. During the summer they hold their Montana 4-H Club Congress which proves to be one of their bigger functions.

Organized to promote the nursing profession

Future nurses comprise the membership of this organization. The club furthers interest in nursing, and gives the gals a chance to decide which branch of the field they would like to enter, while they become better acquainted within themselves. Any girl enrolled in the nursing curriculum on campus or in any of the hospital units is eligible to join the group.

Meeting monthly to discuss their profession, they invite guest speakers to discuss relevant problems, and thus encourage them in their work. Their main activity outside of nursing is sponsoring mixers for the student body.

Each spring they take a field trip to Seattle or Denver. They tour the key plants and study industrial procedures and areas that might be of value to them when they graduate. Spring also heralds their annual picnic. This curriculum covers a wide range of industrial fields and prepares the students for a successful future.

Fosters world understanding

This unique and highly worthwhile organization stands supreme on our campus. Its purpose, to promote international understanding, to enable students from other countries to establish American contacts, and to enable Americans to establish personal contacts in other countries, is of the most idealistic nature.

Meeting every other week they have a guest speaker who discusses problems of international interest. After the formal session the group adjourns to a light luncheon where they discuss related problems on a more personal level. Starting this year they sponsored a semi-formal dance with the hopes of continuing it each year in the future.

M-Club

Promotes sports activities

Distinguished by their "M" jackets are these fellows. The outstanding athletes in both the major and minor sports. Their performances throughout the year in athletics add a big part to MSC. Each year, at the end of the football season and again at the end of the basketball season, the club sponsors a banquet honoring the dads of the football and basketball players.

One of their noisier activities is that of awakening the freshmen in the fall and in the spring for their trip to paint the "M". This is one function they greatly enjoy.

Bronc riding, bull dogging, and wild cow milking contests are some of the activities of the MSC Rodeo Club. Working for and promoting intercollegiate rodeoing and increasing interest of college students in rodeos seems to be their chief aim. Hampered by bad weather, lack of practice facilities and difficulties in obtaining wild animals are just a few of the problems the club runs into in sponsoring the annual rodeo.

They also send teams to neighboring states throughout the rodeoing season for competing. They meet twice a month during the school year.

This group discusses topics from surveying to installing a sewage system, or flood control, giving an idea of the wide range of subjects which might help them in their work.

They take an active part in intramural activities. Each year they help sponsor an engineering smoker where everyone enjoys a good cigar and a good time. Each spring they climax their year with a picnic.

The sweater knitters and cake bakers of the campus belong to this organization. Each year in February, they travel to Missoula for the annual convention. As active members of the national, they invite guest speakers to speak on subjects pertinent to Home Economics.

Coffee and doughnuts are served by their group during registration.

Always striving to further Home Economics, their motto it: 'The way to a man's heart is through his stomach."

Developing better qualities of homemaking

Ag Club

The Ag Club consists of ag students. They hold meetings each Thursday noon where they discuss the latest developments of agriculture over a hot-dog and glass of milk, They put out a magazine called the College Farmer that is rapidly taking the place of other agricultural journals in the state. They also have a Harvest Ball in the latter part of fall quarter. The Little International can also be accredited to the accomplishments of this group. It consists of a contest in fitting and showing livestock.

These "Aggies" have very much influenced the name which MSC now holds–that being "Cow College".

Electrons

The Electrons is a local chemistry group named after heavenly bodies revolving about a central nucleus of opposite sign. It consists of women chem majors who have reorganized the club which had been inactive for several years. They meet each Tuesday in the Electron Room in the Chem Building to discuss what any women chem major would discuss, chemistry. They help sponsor, with Alpha Chi Sigma, luncheons with guest speakers talking on related fields. They also have a Christmas party for the chem staff where everybody picks up points, exchanges test tubes, and discuss topics of current interest, i.e., how many teabags it takes to make tea in a 500 c.c. beaker.

During the snow laden months of winter a strange creature appears on our picturesque landscape, dressed in "crazy" pegged pants with a baggy parka, and very bulky boots. The Skier—alias Schuss Boomer—can be found charging down large mountains with a yodel on his breath and snow in his hair. During the rest of the year they appear as any other abnormal person. This creature comes in both kinds—that's male and female. In the spring this hardy lot sponsors a snow carnival with competition in snow statues and ski races—all topped off by a dance, which is reigned over by a king and queen.

This organization is composed of the men and women who will expose the future generations of shiny faced "Jacks" and "Joans" to an education by acquainting prospective "exposers" with the many aspects of the organized teaching profession. This group helps its members to prepare for the rigorous work ahead. It also gives them experience in working democratically on the problems of the profession and the community so as to enable them to do a better job later in the classrooms. Furthermore, it provides for a richer cultural background for those who are dedicated to the profession.

On his Sports Parade radio program of December 14, 1945, Bill Stern, sports reporter, attempted to pick the greatest football team of all time. The team he picked boasted of no outstanding stars of the field, nor did it play a season without losses. Yet his choice was acclaimed by so many people, that at that time, serious thought was given to erecting a monument to this team because in the more horrible game of war each player was a star.

In passing, the commentator mentioned the Four Horsemen of Notre Dame, the exceptional teams of Michigan, Minnesota, Texas and others, but his final choice went to the 1941 team of Montana State College, because when the season ended that year, every man enlisted in the service of his country.

This alone made the team outstanding. Yet, there was something far greater than this, for, when the war ended eleven years ago, records revealed that every man on that team was KILLED IN ACTION!

That is why Bill Stern's final choice fell to the team that was beaten in the game of football, but which helped win the game of war, even though every player had to give his life to do so . . . MONTANA STATE COLLEGE . . . THE GREATEST FOOTBALL TEAM OF ALL TIME!

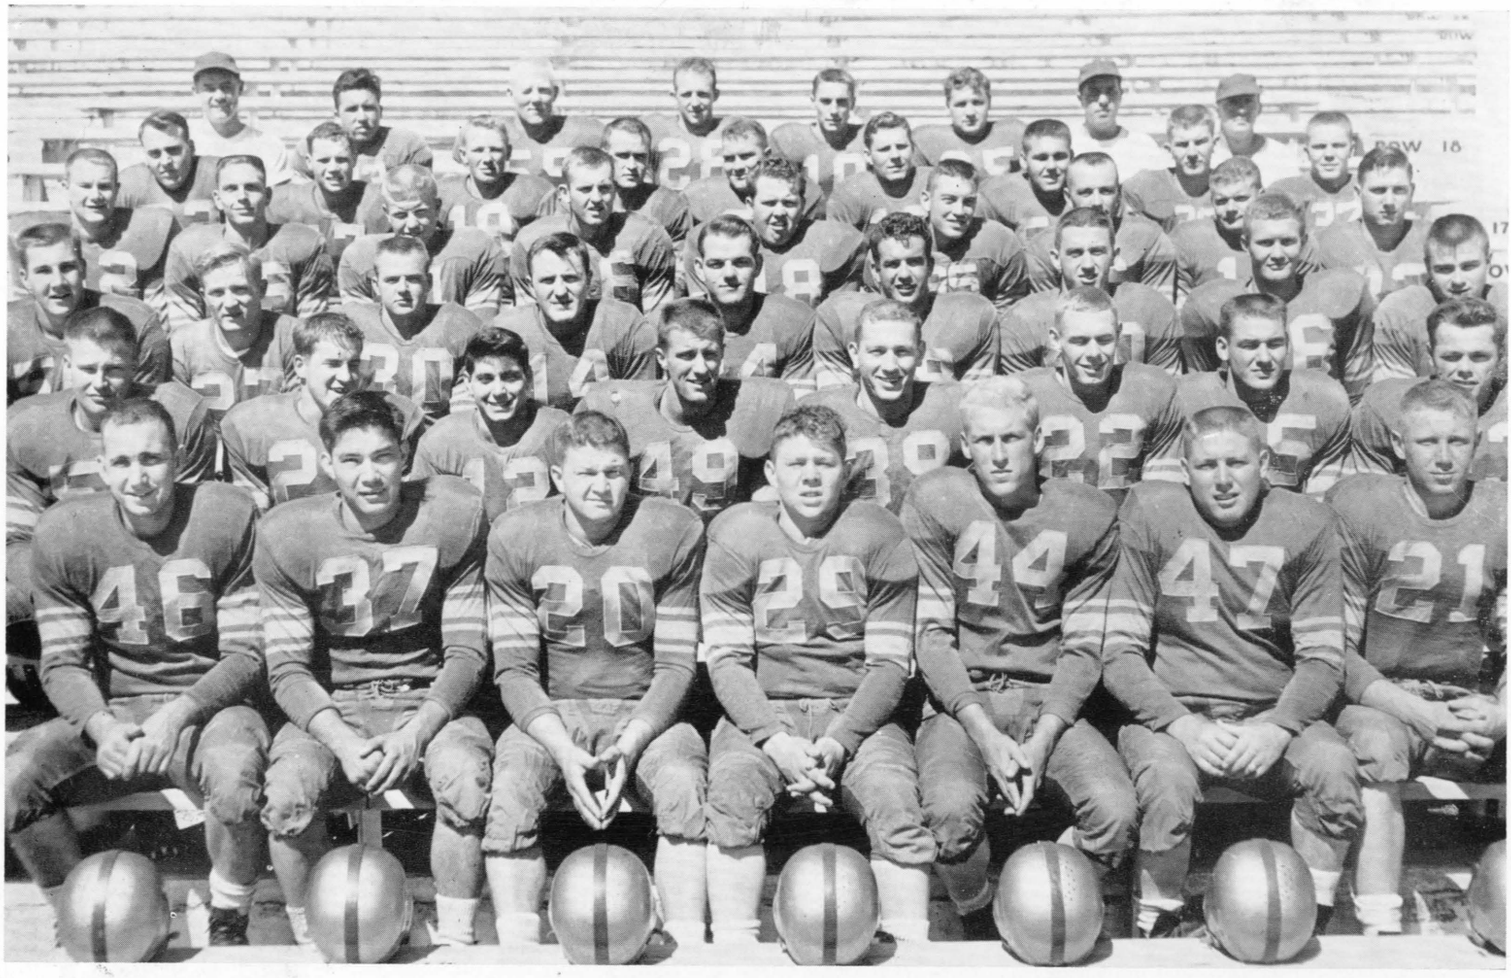

Fight on, Montana State

Coaches

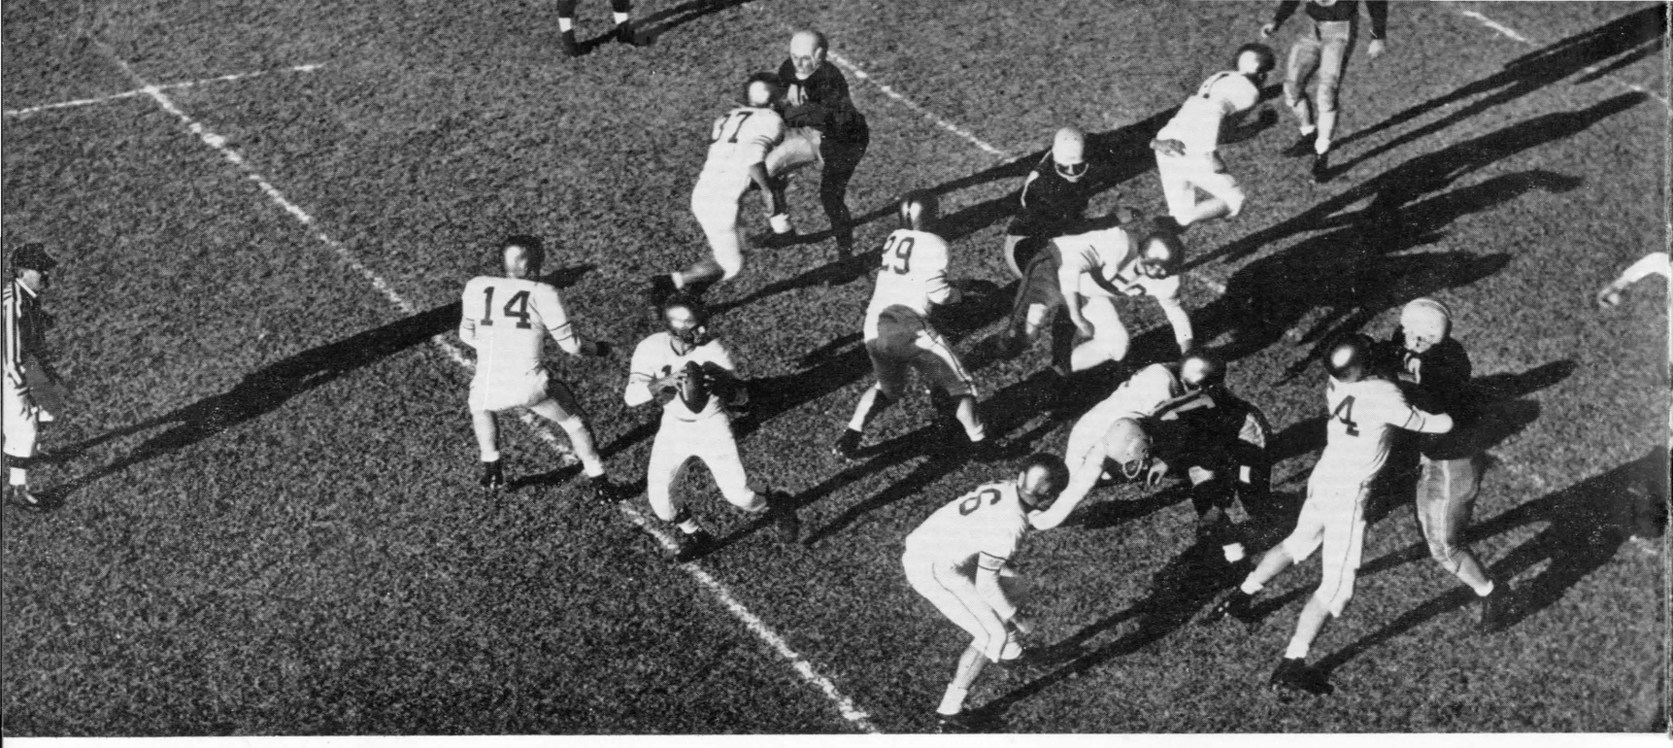

WALLY LEMM, came up this year to take over as head football coach and put together a team to defend the Rocky Mountain Conference football championship. Wally did a fine job as head coach and we look for him to come through with a championship team next year.

DALE DIGGERNESS, veteran line coach, was back this year to develop a line that moved anyone out of the way on offense and stopped anybody on defense. He did a great job of it, but injuries kept him busy replacing linemen. We look forward to having a great line next year.

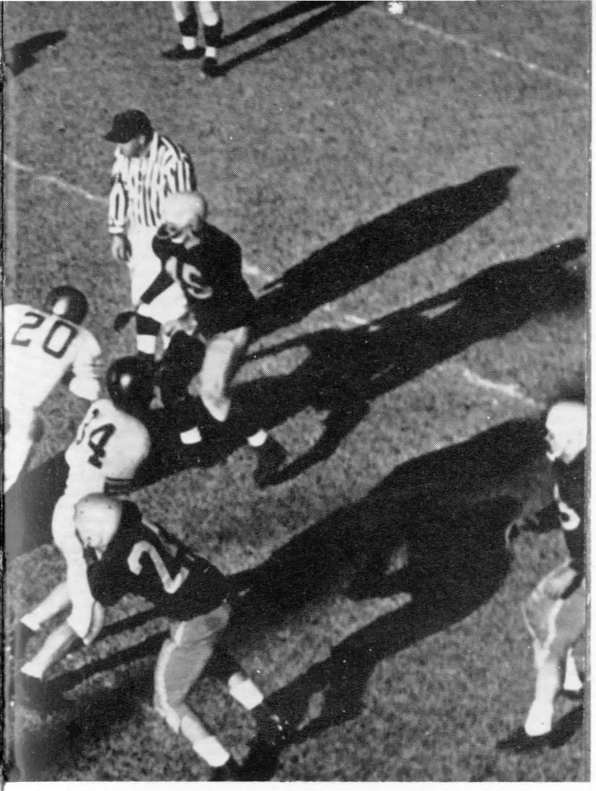

KEITH BOWEN, a new addition to the Bobcat coaching staff, helped Diggerness work with the linemen and served as Freshman coach. He came to Montana State from Colorado Mines where he was trainer and wrestling coach.

Ace is back to add another score at Homecoming.

Let's go get those Grizzlies!!

This year seemed to be a year when all the tough breaks fell on the Bobcats. An off year happens to many great football teams. Plagued by weather, injuries, and the fact that all the teams in the Conference were really out to pay them back for the trouncing the Bobcats handed them last year, the team still showed up good in all games. It took an expert coaching job by Coach Wally Lemm and his valuable assistants, Dale Diggerness and Keith Bowen, to keep the team in such good form and condition after losing two All-Conference players for half of the season.

Basketball '55 '56

Our new basketball coach, Dobbie Lambert, took over a young squad this fall. This was a team with a lack of experience outside of two players who are senior three-year lettermen. These two were Bill Salonen and Fred Ingaldson. The team this year has the hustle and the desire to play. They have made that term "Fighting Bobcats" more than just a name. The basketball team started off the season with a surprising upset over the University of Wyoming Cowboys, winning both games of a two game series. This is the first time the Bobcats have scored a complete sweep of the Wyoming series since 1928. In other December games, the Cats split a two game series with Eastern Washington and also split with Utah State.

In January the Cats dropped two to Idaho State College and two to Gonzaga University. But then they caught fire again and beat Whitworth College twice in a two game series. Next came the series of the year, the "Bobcat-Grizzly" series. The Bobcats were out to win this series and won the first game. The next night they were cold on their shots and lost, fighting right down to the wire. They then split a two game series with Western State.

February was a winning month for the Cats, winning 5 of their 8 games. They split with Colorado State at Greeley, won two from Colorado Mines at Golden, won two from Colorado College at home, and lost to the Grizzlies at Missoula. Only a few of the students were able to go to the series at Missoula, and everyone felt that if more of the students would have gone that the Cats would have at least evened the series.

The Cats could not break the Bengal "Jinx" at home and the Idaho State College Bengals beat them twice.

Winning second in the Conference, the Cats were ready to play in the District 5 N.A.I.A. playoff here in Bozeman. In the first game the Bobcats beat Carroll College 104 to 68. This 104 points tied the highest score ever made by the Bobcats. Next they met Ricks College and won the Championship 91-74. This put them in the Tournament at Kansas City and they lost a heart-breaker in the first game to Central State 66-67.

One of the most encouraging things is the new Health and Physical Education center now being planned. The large seating capacity and fine facilities will mean many future high school and college tournaments may be held here—in the home of the "FIGHTING BOBCATS."

Keith "Dobbie" Lambert, head basketball coach of the Bobcats, did a fine job with an inexperienced team. His abilities as a coach have been shown many times during the year.

AAU basketball, a year of professional baseball, a stretch in the Marines and two years in a sales capacity were involved before Lambert decided to go to coaching. His first job was in his home town of Anderson, Indiana, where his teams won three regional and sectional titles and placed second in the 1948 Indiana state tournament. He then served three years at Kansas State as assistant basketball coach. Coming to MSC this fall he promptly started his club on the victory trail.

"Doc" Herwig, trainer of the Bobcats, has the task of seeing that Bobcat athletes are ready to play.

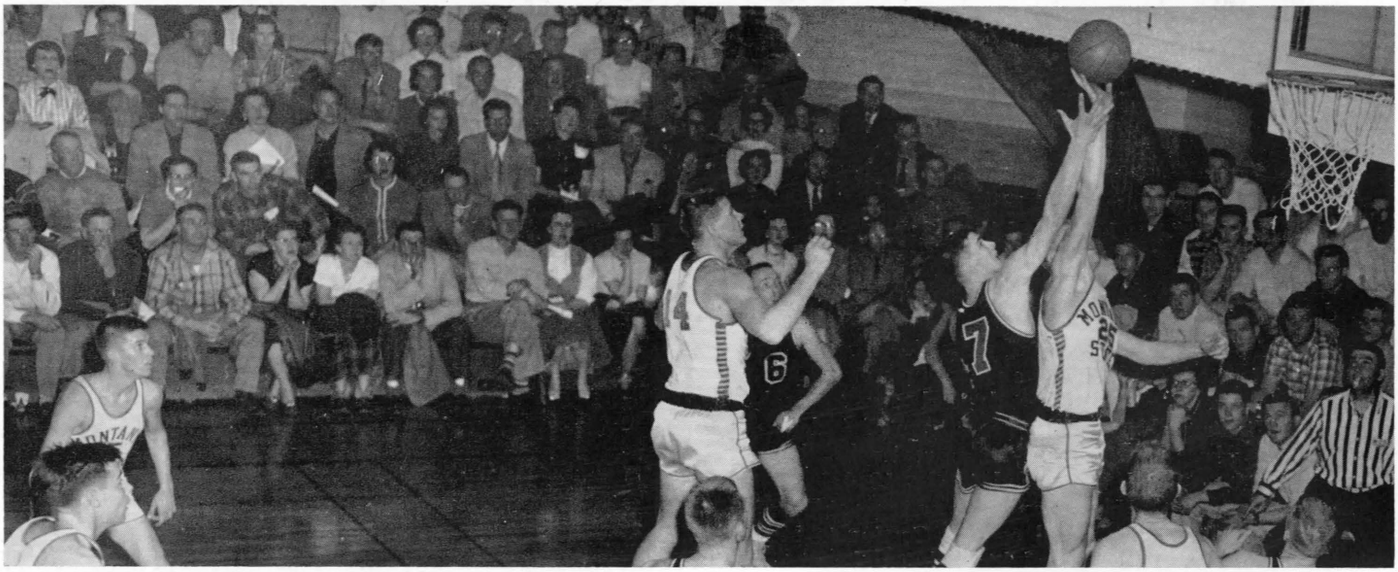

Doc is also the equipment manager and general confidante of all the players and almost invariably knows more about them than they do themselves.

Doc came to MSC in the fall of 1949 and has been here ever since, except for the year's leave when he got his physical therapy degree at Stanford. A former athlete himself, specializing in wrestling, Doc served in the Army in Europe during World War II. After the war he went to Bowling Green University to learn the ABCs of training and soon after graduation was protecting Bobcat athletes.

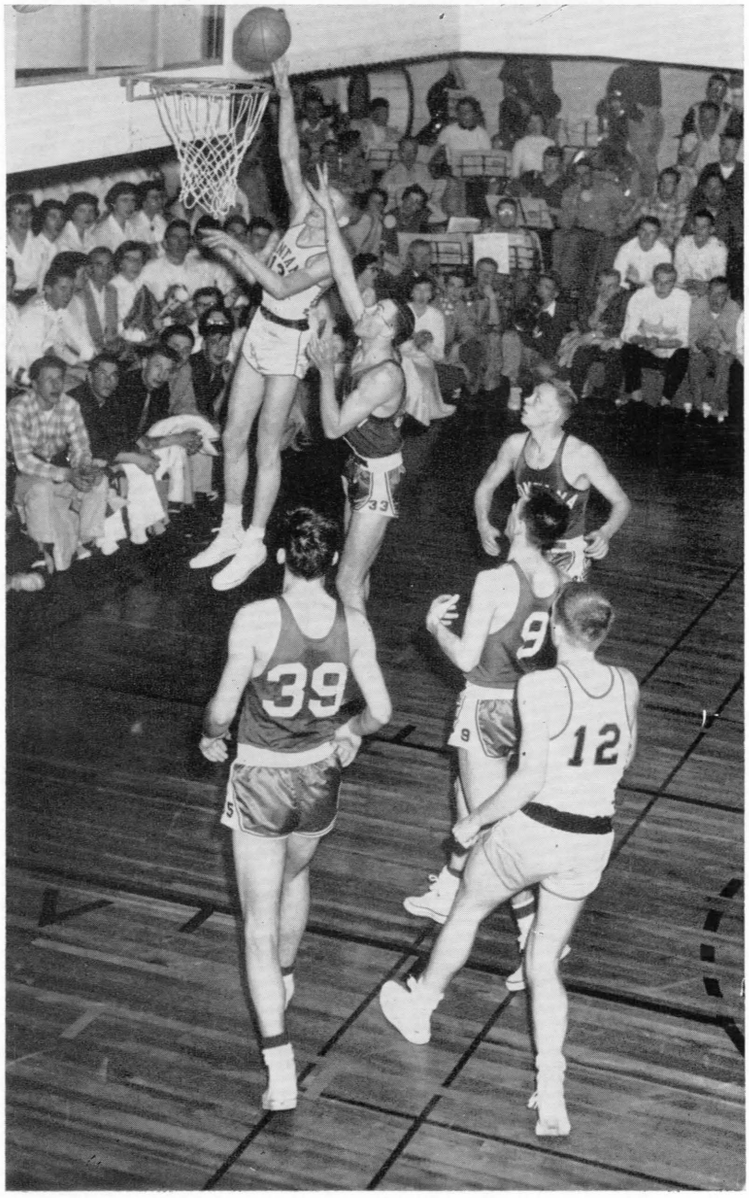

Dale Digerness, assistant basketball coach, is better known for his work on the football and baseball field. "Digger" also coached the Bobkitten cagers in 1953 and is now enjoying the intricacies of Dobbie Lambert's system.

Dale's own main playing interest was football and he started at Eveleth, Minn. High School and Junior College before becoming an All-Wisconsin grid center at Stout Institute. He was line coach at Stout for one year and has been line coach at MSC for four years and baseball coach for two.

COACH KEITH BOWEN and STUDENT TRAINER

The Bobkittens enjoyed a very good season this year with a 16-3 season. This is a very good indication that the school has some very good prospects for the varsity next year. In the games that they lost they fought right down to the wire and gave everyone the impression that they were "FIGHTING BOBCATS" too.

Skiing

The start of the skiers decline.

Skiing is a very popular sport at MSC. With its early winter and late springs the Bozeman area provides several very good ski runs.

Broken legs are the style during the ski season, this past crop was noticeable around campus.

Montana State's Ski Team won 4th at the International Collegiate Ski Meet at Banff, Alberta, Canada. With only three individuals entered in the 3-way combined, which in the case that you fall down you are eliminated, all three of the skiers placed. Dave Stevens 2nd, Oystein Boveng 4th, and Phil Rognlien 5th. Coach Bob Beck is to be commended for the fine work he has done with the team this year.

Came a-boomin' down the mountain.

I like the wide open spaces!

Hey! Slow Down.

Bobcat Track

The Bobcat track team represented the school well in all of the meets that they attended last season. The team won three seconds, one fifth, and one sixth. They also won 2nd at the N.A.I.A. District 5 meet. Those who were most active on the team were Bill Gilbert, Ben Parriman, Rodger Hankins, Bill Icenoggle, Don Patterson, Ron Warzeka, and Boyd Hardy.

This year looks like it will be a good year for the track team, with Coach Bob Flieger, plenty of lettermen back, and a lot of freshmen who were track stars in High School. Track is a sport that needs more support from the students so let's get out and cheer the track team to victory.

Results of the Conference meet were:

Don Patterson—100 yd. dash	3rd
220 yd. dash	2nd
Broad jump	2nd
Bill Gilbert—880 yd. run	4th
Rodger Hankins—220 low hurdles	5th
Ron Warzeka—Shot Put	4th
Boyd Hardy—Discus	3rd

Boy! It's sure a long way back down!

Rodeo Team

Rodeo is one of the newest sports that has become a part of MSC's Athletic Department. All members of the Rodeo team are also active members of the Rodeo Club, headed by Dick Hecker who is also the regional vice-president of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

They are members of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association and compete in all of the Rocky Mountain Region Rodeos. The Rodeo team is looking forward to making enough points to compete in the National Championships this summer. They have a lot of veterans and new cowboys to make the coming year their most successful one.

Baseball

Bobcats in action.

With Dale Diggerness at the helm, the Bobcat Baseball team enjoyed a very fine season. Winning 11 out of their 16 games, they showed Rocky Mountain competition that the Bobcats have a good baseball team as well as teams in other sports.

They have a good many of their lettermen back this year so we should see a very good season ahead for the Cats.

Individual sports such as archery, badminton, bowling, golf, hiking, ice skating, skiing, table tennis and tumbling are open to the girls at certain times during the year.

One of the most interesting and beautiful functions during winter quarters is the annual water pageant put on by the Dolphins. This is a musical revue put on in the water, with the program planned by the girls themselves. Marga Hosaeus, director of the Women's Physical Education Department, does a fine job in helping the girls out.

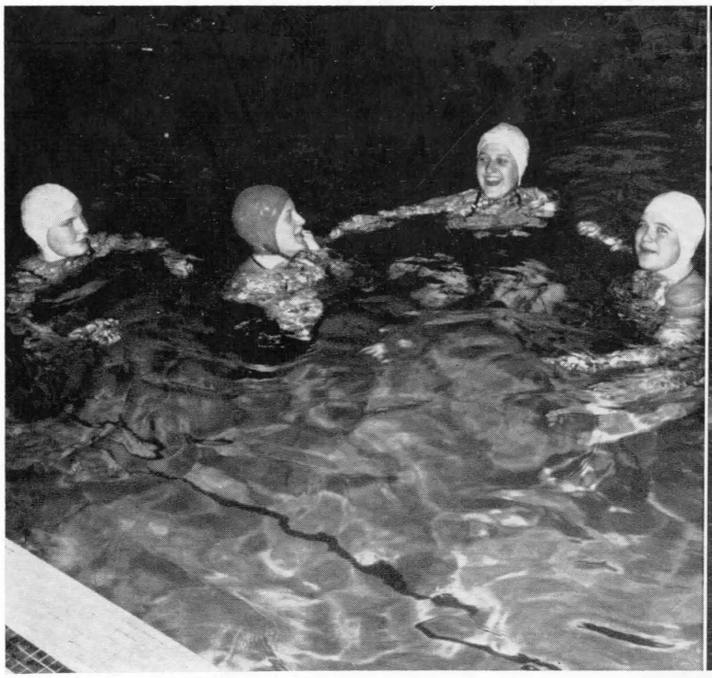

Women's Sports

Women's sports play an important part in the life of the co-eds at Montana State. It provides them with recreation and also physical development and education.

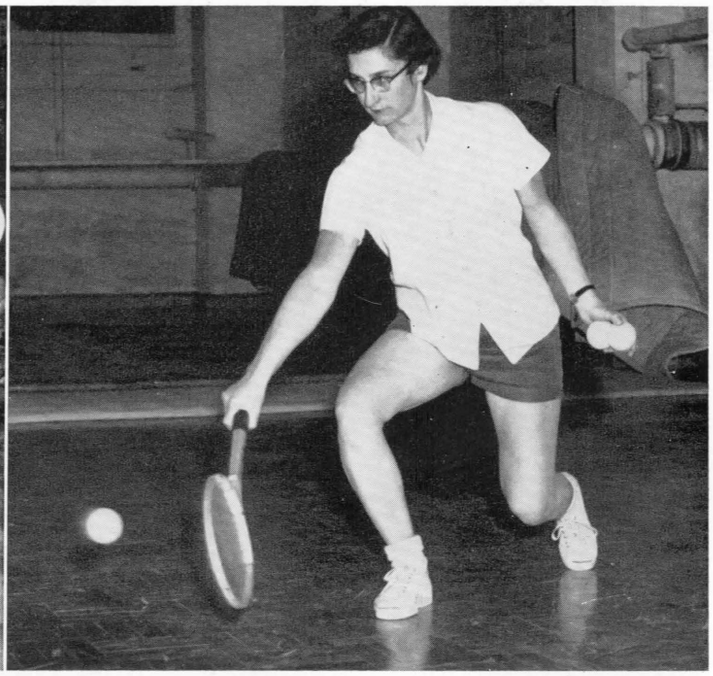

Team sports supervised throughout the year by the Women's Athletic Association are volleyball, basketball and softball.

Gymnastics

This takes muscles and practice.

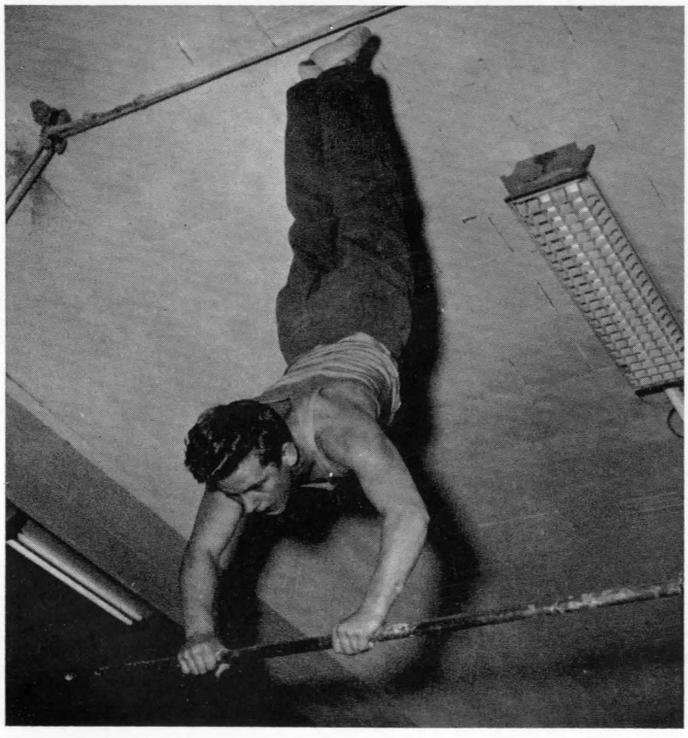

Strength, coordination, and nerve are strong attributes of the men on our gymnastics team. Although unable to compete in intercollegiate competition this year, this team has entertained many hundreds of people at the basketball games. They have put on exhibitions during the winter quarter. The old master Bob Fleiger has done a wonderful job in teaching them the tricks of the trade.

COACH BOWEN

Winners in the RMC meet were: 1st—Les Polette, 145; 1st—Ed Ritt, Heavy; 3rd—Ace Cacciatore, 130; 3rd—Ev McGlothlin, 157; 3rd—Bert Rice, 177; 3rd—Irvine Zinnecker, 191.

From all walks of life and from all sections of the country come the future nurses. Studying and working here at MSC they obtain the fundamentals of their noble profession and then go to the hospital of their choice to gain their practical experience.

They come back to MSC in culmination of their efforts and at that time are ordained as regular nurses. One of the most honorable, most highly esteemed professions of all time is theirs, these women in white. The contributions they have made while serving mankind are found in myriad in the pages of history. Unselfishly and unswervingly, they bend to the task of helping those in need.

Editing a book is a tedious task as well as an encouraging experience, as any past editor will tell you. The Montanan is a book which is published for everyone at MSC, for all are involved in the purpose and contents of this volume.

Every yearbook has its amount of troubles, which seem very important at the time, but disappear into infinity as the finished products finally appears.

I would like to thank everyone here at school who has helped me; my staff, who have really done a tremendous job at a seemingly impossible task, and all others who have shown an interest in the Montanan.

My thanks to Bill Remington and Frank Cross of the Reporter Printing and Supply Company, who have made every effort to give us the best book possible. Our appreciation also to the Artcraft Engraving and Electrotype Company for an excellent engraving job, Al Salisbury, Bob Lindborg, and Howard Vierling.

Sincerely thanks,

The Teacher Was Not Far Behind

As the prospectors moved north from gold discoveries at Virginia City and Bannack, building mining camps in gulches and canyons, the "professors" were not far behind.

Education, following the trailblazers, moved into the Butte mining district in 1865, into Silver Bow and the next year into Butte.

The pioneers trudged from the Virginia City district where schools had been started in 1863 at Bannack and in 1864 at Virginia City.

Unlike the schools in the other early-day mining camps, the first Butte school featured a course in dancing. That came about because the first regular teacher, Colonel Woods, was not only a competent educator but a cultivated musician.

Woods, however, did not teach the first classes in Butte. He was late in getting to the mining camp to fill the assignment and Thomas C. Porter, drawn earlier to Butte by gold, filled in for him. Porter had taught the previous year at Silver Bow. He was experienced having taught school in Illinois before coming west.

The first school in Butte, under Woods and taught during the winter of 1866-1867, had a short term. However, the next year education did get a foothold in a school opened by William Haynes.

As the prospector settled down, the professor stayed.

Plenty of Electricity Means More Jobs

A few years ago, the word "job" probably meant something unpleasant to you — a household task like chopping wood, doing dishes, cleaning house or mowing the lawn. Today, though, the word has a different . . . more exciting . . . ring to you. It means employment. All of you want jobs . . . and pay.

Electricity is a factor in determining where a business or industry will locate. The community with a plentiful supply of power has a better chance of being designated a site for a new business or plant. We have a department that aids in developing the state by actively promoting Montana as a good place to live and work. We have plenty of power. Our rates are considerably lower than the national average. TODAY WE ARE SERVING 2,500 INDUSTRIAL CUSTOMERS.

We're planning and building today to assure adequate power in the future for you and yours.

From Togas to Today . . .

THE ROMANS had a word for it—"bancus." That's what they called the benches in the temples where the men who put money to work sat and carried on the finance of that time. These men became known as bankers. In those days, salt was often left as collateral and transactions were recorded on tablets. Not even Caesar enjoyed the convenience of paying bills by check.

It's a long time from togas to today. But, the tradition of service begun centuries ago still continues. You'll find this bank equipped to meet all your banking needs. Call on us whenever we can serve you.
