

Call for Submissions and Author Instructions

Leadership in Librarianship is the focus of the Spring 2018 issue of PNLA Quarterly. We invite library practitioners, students, and educators in the PNLA region (Alaska, Alberta, British Columbia, Idaho, Montana, and Washington) to submit articles that deal with any aspect of Leadership in Librarianship in our profession, including (but not limited to) training, best practices, ethical issues, practical concerns, staff development, and planning. Articles may be theoretical, research-based, or practice-focused.

The deadline for submissions to pqeditors@gmail.com is March 31, 2018.

Authors are asked to:

- Submit manuscripts of between 1,000-6,000 words electronically in Microsoft Word file format;
- Use Times New Roman 12 point font and 1.15 spacing;
- Adhere to guidelines in the 6th edition of the Manual of Style of the American Psychological Association (APA). This rule applies in terms of format and references;
- Obtain any necessary written permission to use copyrighted material, and to pay any and all relevant fees. Appropriate credit should be provided in the manuscript;
- Submit original work that has not been previously published and is not under consideration for publication in another journal;
- Contact the PQ editors at pqeditors@gmail.com with any questions regarding these instructions, the publication process, schedule, or the appropriateness of a proposed article topic.

PNLA Quarterly is an open access journal. In that spirit, PQ authors retain the copyright to their works. PQ facilitates the distribution of its authors' intellectual property in a professional manner to enhance the process of scholarly communication, and to advance the sharing of information in and beyond the library profession and the PNLA region.

As PNLA Quarterly moves toward re-implementing the peer-review process for selected sections of its content, we invite library professionals in the region to serve as peer reviewers. Please contact the PQ editors at pqeditors@gmail.com if you are interested.
