here until they have gone to sleep Then I will go and get all their horses. The Crows sat around the fire Cooking Meat and eating their supper after they had their meal They sat by the fire light singing talking as all war parties do. it was a long time before the Crows went to sleep but they when Bird Rattler had all their horses cut loose and brought up on the hill where the woman and the Boy was then

He went to catching horses for his companions one for the woman and one the Boy and one for him self then they started for home he was only gone four days when he came back with a lot of horses and that he stole from a war party of enemies.
